Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Carter has been routed near Carter's Station, East Tennessee, leaving that part of the State cleared of rebels. On Monday skirmishing continued through the day, and the rebels retired into their earthworks. The cannonading was kept up all night. The attack was continued till Tuesday, and preparations were made to capture the party, but they made their escape during the night and left seventeen dead.—Our loss was two killed and seven wounded.

The rebels claim that they took near Chattanooga, 7000 prisoners, 2000 being wounded; also, 25 stands of colors, 31 pieces of artillery, and 15,000 small arms.

Moseby was defeated in a skirmish near Upperville, Va., on Friday, and fled.

A Mobile dispatch reports a Federal defeat in Louisiana, and that Gen. Weitzal has been killed. Probably this is like the many other similar rebel reports from that department,—false.

Lee has officially informed the rebel War Department that Howard's and Slocum's corps of the Army of the Potomac have gone to Gen. Rosecrans. The rebels also report that Gen. Grant has sent him 16,000 men. The Indianapolis Journal states that 15,000 troops are to be sent him immediately from that place—among them, the detachment which returned from the Indian expedition. Gens. McCook and Crittenden are to be relieved of their commands and ordered to report at Indianapolis. Their conduct in the recent battles is to be investigated by a Court of Inquiry.

Gov. Boreman of West Virginia anticipates a raid by Imboden and Jackson, and has issued a proclamation calling upon the militia to be ready at a moment's notice.

A St. Louis dispatch says a plot to burn all the Government transports in the Western waters, has been discovered, and several arrests made.

AN UNLUCKY SUBMARINE EXPERIMENT.—Deserters from Charleston who have arrived on Morris Island report that the submarine apparatus in Charleston harbor, which was invented by an ingenious fellow from the North, who found himself in the enemy's lines at the beginning of the war, and since then unable to effect his escape, has gone to the bottom, greatly to the regret of the rebel authorities, who hoped by its means to blow up the Ironsides and drive all the fleet from the roads. They report that the inventor of the machine took the liberty of cruising around with it about when he chose; and frequently, unbeknown to the rebels made submarine trips down the harbor.—By some means or other suspicions were excited in the mind of some of the enemy that all was not going right, and a watch was placed on the "Yankee's" movements.—The deserters report that he was caught one night at work clearing away the obstructions in the harbor, in order to give our iron-clads access to the city. He was immediately deprived of his command, arrested, with all his crew, and thrown into Charleston jail to be tried as a traitor.—What has been done with him the informants could not state. His machine was placed in charge of an officer and five men, and an attempt was made to operate it, but with partial success. The last time it was tried the lieutenant and his crew of five men got into it, adjusted the machinery and opened the valves through which flowed the water necessary to sink the machine to the proper depth. It gradually disappeared from view, and up to the latest accounts had not come up again. So the machine, the lieutenant and five men found a grave together in ten fathoms of water, and have probably passed from the sight of men forever, and Commodore Ingraham is busy inventing some other apparatus to drive the navy from its anchorage and from his sight.

☞ It is understood, says the New York Herald, that Gen. Hooker, late commander of the Army of the Potomac, has been appointed to the command of that column of the army in Tennessee, lately under Gen. Burnside, and that (Burnside's resignation having been accepted) "Fighting Joe" has accepted the appointment. Well done.—The country will recognize the patriotism of Gen. Hooker in this matter. He does not stand upon questions of rank or dignity, but his readiness to serve the country rises above all such paltry considerations. We are sure that he will be welcomed by the soldiers of his new command as the man to repeat with them in Tennessee and Georgia his brave exploits on the Richmond Peninsula, at Manassas and at Antietam.—If a hundred thousand men are beyond his grasp, he has shown that with twenty or thirty thousand he can do as much as any man in the army.

☞ Adjutant Gen. Thomas while present at the Episcopal Church in Memphis, observing that the minister omitted the prayer for the President, interpolated it, in an audible tone of voice, to the astonishment of the secesh ladies near him.

TO KEEP UP THE ARMY.—The Traveller states, we presume, correctly, that "the Government is about to adopt new and more efficient measures for the enlistment of recruits and the arrest of deserters. The reward for the arrest of deserters is to be increased to $30, and that sum will be paid for the arrest of those who are declared deserters by reason of their failing to respond to the draft.

The money paid by conscripts for commutation is set apart as a fund for the payment of premiums and bounties. Persons presenting veteran recruits who shall be accepted, will receive a premium of $25 for each; $15 each will be paid for all other recruits.

The Provost Marshals in the several districts will appoint recruiting officers, who will pay their own expenses, and must rely on premiums for their reward. In Massachusetts the recruit must be delivered at the rendezvous at Long Island, after which they will receive payment from Maj. Clarke, Provost Marshal for the State.

Veteran soldiers will be paid $400 bounty, and other recruits a bounty of $300.—They will receive $25 bounty and one month's pay in advance, and the balance of the bounty at different times during their period of service. If the veteran recruits serve three years, their bounty and pay will amount to $24 per month; that of other recruits to $21.50 per month." The Boston Post, a few days ago, in an article disapproving the draft, said:—

Armies must be supplied to support the cause of the Union, and no other support will avail. The country needs men; nothing else will answer. And in the present conjunction the mode of volunteer enlistment presents itself as one that has been tried and has proved a success, and may be tried with confidence again. Let it be understood that the early mode of volunteer enlistment is to be re-tried, and that the force mode is to be postponed, and we cannot doubt that the people, irrespective of party, will bail it as a happy omen, and give the President a hearty co-operation.

Since the above extract from the Boston Post was made, we perceive by the N. Y. Post, that the President is to call for 600,000 men, giving each State a chance to fill its quota by volunteers, and postponing a new draft to give the volunteer system a fair trial.

The Boston Post, in the same article, said:

The patriotic have had, can have, no desire to embarrass President Lincoln's administration in conducting the war. This war is a dire necessity.

☞ In Great Britain, the Emancipation Society has written a letter to Earl Russell, thanking him for stopping the rams in the Mersey, and begging him not to lose sight of the movements on the Clyde.

The Times editorially expresses satisfaction that the iron-clads in the Mersey are not to be allowed to leave, until something more is known of their ownership and destination.

Ninety-five of the crew of the Anglo-rebel pirate Florida have arrived at Liverpool in a state of destitution. The reports that they had received large sums in wages and prize money are fabrications. At Brest they boldly demanded their wages, when they were all discharged, with notes on Confederate agents in Liverpool, varying from 100 to one hundred and thirty dollars. These claims were repudiated, and the men were vowing vengeance.

It was reported that two Federal vessels were en route for Brest to prevent the departure of the Florida.

The Paris Moniteur explains that the Florida is not a privateer, but forms a part of the Confederate marine, duly commissioned, and has all the character of an ordinary vessel of war.

☞ A letter from Richmond in the Liverpool Confederate organ, the Index, speaks of the probable early recall of the Representatives of the South from England, on account of the attitude of the British Government.

The London Herald, adverting to the rumored probable recall of Mason from London, says it is in consequence of the systematic rudeness with which he has been treated by Earl Russell, and the Herald hints that it has been through the suggestion of Mr. Adams that Mason has been excluded from official intercourse with the British Government.

WHAT IS AN ABOLITIONIST?—We find the following term "abolitionist," quoted from the Southern Literary Messenger, a Richmond publication:—

"An abolitionist is any man who does not love slavery for its own sake as a Divine institution; who does not worship it as a corner-stone of civil liberty; who does not adore it as the only possible social condition on which a permanent republican government can be created, and who does not in his inmost soul desire to see it extended and perpetuated over the whole earth, as a means of human reformation second in dignity, importance and sacredness to the Christian religion. He who does not love African slavery with this love is an Abolitionist."

Some of our contemporaries in the loyal States have adopted this definition for some time past, with such marked care and precision, that we might almost suspect them of having been furnished with slips in advance from the Messenger office.—Boston Ads.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— 37 men drafted in this State, or their substitutes, have been assigned to the 1st N. H. Battery, making it a six gun battery with a full complement of men.

—— Capt. Edward T. Rowell has been appointed Major of the Second regiment of United States Sharpshooters. He is twenty-seven years of age, a native of West Concord, and a graduate of Dartmouth College of the class of 1861. On leaving Hanover he enlisted as a private in the Fifth regiment, but was soon after made an officer in the New Hampshire battalion of Sharpshooters, and has since been engaged in that arm of the service.

—— It is definitely settled that the State Muster will be held on the 14th and 15th days of October, on the old camp ground of the 10th regiment, at Manchester. M. W. Tappan, Colonel; Josiah Stevens, Lieut. Colonel; and Samuel Davis, Major—all men of practical experience.

—— The Ladies of Dover gave two levees in aid of the Soldiers' Aid Society, last week, the receipts amounting to $400.

☞ There is no truth in the report that Maj. Gen. Howard is about to resign.

Thackeray, the prince of snobs, defines a snob as one "who meanly admires mean things."

☞ The Paris correspondent of the London Morning Post says a new loan for the Confederates is contemplated.

☞ At New York, Sept. 28, twenty-five thousand tons of coal were sold at auction, at $5 95 a $7 95 per ton.

☞ The Russian naval officers disclaim any political object in their visit to New York, though not concealing their sympathy with the North in the rebellion.

☞ It is stated that the Union loss in killed, wounded and missing in the late battles in Georgia will be ten thousand. The rebel papers state the Confederate losses at fifteen thousand.

☞ The French government certainly has not thrown any difficulty in the way of the Florida. Capt. Maffitt has resigned the command of the Florida on account of ill health. Lieut. Barney probably takes command.

☞ A young man, who is about to start from England for the New Zealand diggings, is making arrangements for the transportation to that place of about one hundred cats. It appears by the last accounts from that quarter that cats are worth from £1 to £5 each.

☞ The Boston Express says the liabilities of the fast young man alluded to recently, will probably figure up to $600,000. Very good for a youth of twenty-eight.—The $2000 diamond ring and $600 candlesticks have been returned to the stores where they were purchased.

☞ A lady in Portland was aroused from her slumbers a few mornings since by the attempted forcible entrance of her sleeping apartment by a cow. The playful bovine had passed through the kitchen and sitting room, and was still endeavoring to advance, but was repulsed and soon changed her base.

☞ The statement that a new draft for 600,000 men is about to be made, is believed to be premature. No step will be taken towards a new draft until the present one is completed in the several States which have not yet exceeded their quota of volunteers sufficiently to cover that under the draft.

☞ The Russian reply to the English note is published. It professes ardent desires to restore tranquility to Poland. Discussions could only end in establishing a divergence of views, and she assumes all responsibilities, and hopes the foreign powers will observe some principle of non-intervention, which Russia has constantly respected.

BROWNSON ON THE REBELS.—Rev. O. A. Brownson, in a speech recently delivered in Philadelphia, made use of the following language: "We are not fighting States. We can't do it. We are fighting rebels. A State that secedes becomes a subject; rebelling it becomes a revolutionist. The war is a civil territorial war, including States and territories, and every rebel in it is a public enemy. We are not fighting that abstraction called a State."

☞ An English lady was recently walking through the streets of Sydney, Australia, when she discovered in a jeweller's window a necklace which she recognized as one stolen from her in England two years before. She entered the store, and seizing the necklace touched a secret spring, beheld two curls belonging to her deceased children. She claimed the prize and the jeweller gave it up, asking as a favor that she would not mention it, but she did, and it led to the discovery that for many years the thieves of Paris and London have been in the habit of sending their stolen goods to Australia.

☞ Maffitt, the commander of the Florida, in a letter to the Paris Patrie, quotas Noel and Chayseel to prove that the Florida is not a privateer, because she was not armed by private individuals. If not, then, the British Government did it, says the N. Y. Evening Post. Maffitt shifts the responsibility very cleverly, putting it where it belongs.

☞ The Paris Pays says the English journals are mistaken in looking upon the note lately published in the Moniteur, respecting the Florida, as a step toward the recognition of the Confederates. It was merely a recognition of belligerent rights. If the Emperor's Government believed itself bound to recognize the Confederates and establish official relations, it would do so openly, not by indirect means.

Crazy as George the Third was said to have been, there was evidently a method in his madness at times. Speaking to Archbishop Sutton of his large family, he used the expression, 'I believe your grace has better than a dozen?' No, sire,' replied the archbishop, 'only eleven.' 'Well, rejoined the king, is not that better than a dozen?'

REMARKABLE DREAM.—On Saturday morning a man about 30 years of age, named Benjamin Collins, was found drowned in a small dam belonging to the White-ball pit, at Wyke. When found he was kneeling in the water with his head down, being only up to the shoulders in the water. He had been drinking for several days, and became restless. He got up about 2 o'clock in the morning, partly dressed himself, and said he could not sleep. Soon afterwards he went out, and about 4 o'clock his uncle, Mr. Mark Collins, of Lower Car Close farm, went in search of him in the barn and stables, but not finding him there returned to the house. Mrs. Collins then desired her husband to go to the place were the body was found, as she had just dreamt her nephew was drowned there. Mr. Collins acted as his wife requested, and to his amazement, and horror, saw the literal fulfilment of her dream.—York Herald.

Leverton's Lightning Hair Dye.

The subscriber having succeeded in obtaining an article of Hair Dye, and believing it to be far superior in many respects to any article yet produced for dyeing the hair and whiskers, now places it before the public. Its merits, above all other preparations of the kind, are:

1. Its ease of application; being applied with as much facility as by merely brushing the hair or whiskers.
2. The rapidity of its action. Being, as its name indicates, instantaneous, it will color in one minute.
3. It entirely precludes the ordinary tedious and laborious process of washing, fanning, drying, &c.
4. It does not stain the skin, as all other dyes do, but can be removed as easily as water.
5. It will not crock or smut.
6. It does not change its color from its first application, except to a more beautiful and durable black, never assuming that dull or greenish hue so common with most dyes.
7. It is the "Ne Plus Ultra" and "Tip-Top," No. 1 article of all combinations called Hair Dyes.

The valuable and beautiful FARM, formerly owned by the Hon. James Pickering. This desirable estate, comprising about seventy acres, is situated in Newington, about four miles from Portsmouth and one mile from depot of Concord Railroad at Greenland. The buildings consist of a good 1½ story House, containing ten rooms, excellent cellar washroom, &c., together with Barn, suitable Outbuildings, &c. The land is suitably divided into tillage, pasturage and mowing fields. Upon it are it are some of the best varieties of Apple and Pear trees, many of which are in good bearing condition, together with the smaller fruits, such as Currants, Raspberries, &c. The beautiful shade trees scattered over the land, its eligibility to a good market, excellent pasturage and great beauty of its location, make this one of the most desirable estates ever offered for sale in this section of the State.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call (and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of one will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. HELD TO SERVICE.—Mr. Dudley P. Bickford, of Durham, was, some time since, drafted in Massachusetts, and was exempted on the ground of non-residence, a portion of the testimony to that effect being a certificate of enrollment procured from the Board of Enrollment in this city. It seems Mr. Dudley is doomed to go to war, for he was again drafted in this District.

His father, however, who bears the same name, reported to Captain Godfrey as the drafted man, and claimed exemption on account of unsuitableness of age, backing up his claim with affidavits of citizens, and certificates of the Town Clerk and Selectmen of Durham, all of whom, it would seem, must have known, as well as he, that he was not the man drafted.

The trick might have succeeded with a person less shrewd than Commissioner Tilton, but that gentleman very easily discovered the trick by making inquiries of Mr. B. if he had not a son liable to the draft, of the same name as himself. He acknowledged that he had, or that the only difference was in the middle name, and the initials of both were alike.

He was informed that his son must report at once, or he would be arrested as a deserter: he did not, however, report until last Monday, when he claimed the privilege of paying commutation or furnishing a substitute. Capt. Godfrey, had he been so inclined, could not, under existing orders, allow him to do so; and, therefore, held him, here, until he could report the case to Maj. Mack, Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General, at Concord, who decided that, under the circumstances, he must be held to personal service.

Mr. Bickford was furnished with a suit of azure, yesterday, and will be sent to Concord with the first detachment—considering himself "out," by the way, to the amount of $50, which he says he paid to an eminent legal gentleman, who had been applied to to extricate him from his difficulty, —said amount being paid as "hush money."

ONE OF THE INCIDENTS OF THE DRAFT. It seems that the Conscription Act, when put in execution, is no respecter of persons. Surgeon Hall, of the Board of Enrollment, is a resident of Wolfborough; and his son, Henry F. Hall, (a clerk in the Provost Marshal's office here) was Wednesday one of the gentlemen from that town who drew a "lucky number." Mr. Hall's name was not enrolled in Wolfborough, he being absent in the Gulf Department with his father at the time. His name was subsequently placed on the Enrollment—at the Marshal's office; and he will now respond in accordance with the mandates of the Act.

SHARP PRACTICE.—A man from Exeter, whose name we suppress, but whose occupation was not that of a Tanner, was drafted and presented himself at the Provost Marshal's office for examination. He stated that he was subject to fits, and as his statement was backed up by any amount of reliable testimony, he was exempted. It has since been ascertained that he at once proceeded to Concord and enlisted as a substitute, for which he received the modest sum of $500. Whether he was fit-ted to go or not, he has really gone.

☞ Mr. Jas. H. Head has for sale Songs for War Time, collected by Rev. Mr. Gage, which have already been noticed in our columns.

BLUNDERS.

Oh, dear! Mr. Miller—how could you so mis-quote my little quotation? I quoted the words found in your own paper a few mornings since—to wit,—"Heaven gives us an opportunity."

Did opportunity look like preparation?—Does Heaven ever give us preparation?—Do make the amende honorable. Your ILL-USED CORRESPONDENT.

Now, nobody knows better than we, how provoking blunders are—nor is anybody better aware how easy it is to make them in types, from hastily or badly written, and hastily set manuscript. But even our ill-used anonymous friend above, actually misquotes the very paragraph in question—for we first printed it, "Heaven gives us enough when it gives us opportunity"—not an opportunity; and of course mis-quote should be mis-print.

As to the questions propounded, we must say, that without doubt the two words named must have somewhat resembled each other, or the compositor would not have made the awkward mistake. And about Heaven ever giving us preparation, we can't discuss now—but grace from somewhere is needed to bear life's petty vexations, for all of us.

And speaking of blunders—it is only a few days since we quoted the pertinent motto of our old Mechanic Association, "Mind your business"—but the types read, "Mind your own business," which is what we must be doing now, and let errors go, as we are too often obliged to, in our hurry.

☞ Those Drafted men in the 1st N. H. Congressional who have not yet reported at the Provost Marshal's office in this city, should lose no time in doing so, as a list of Deserters will be published in a few days: and however pleasant it may be to see one's name in print, to behold it "alphabetically arranged" under the head of "Thirty Dollars Reward," will not be likely to create any very pleasant sensations.

Messrs. Editors:—In your issue of Thursday morning, a correspondent stated that if it had not been for the high price asked by the proprietors of the Elm House, at the Plains, the muster would have been held here. This statement I know to be untrue, for the Elm House had been hired from the proprietors and the Governor was informed that the parties intended fitting suitable rooms there for his headquarters. This was the intention, and to charge nothing for the use thereof.

The true reason why the muster is not to be held here is because Manchester people are smarter and have moved in the matter in earnest, and an auxiliary to the decision in regard to having the muster at Manchester was stated substantially in your article in reference to the same. *

A SALVE FOR EVERY SORE.—When we consider the various diseases to which the skin is subject, it must be an object of importance to have at hand a sure and certain cure for most of them. For recent flesh wounds, obstinate ulcers, troublesome felons, sore breast, ringworm and scald head, and chafing of the tender skin of infants, as well as for wens and callouses, "Grace's" Universal Salve is a certain and rapid remedy. Every father who goes into the woods should carry a box in his pocket, and every mother of a family should have a 25 cent box in the cupboard. See advertisement in another column.

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world affords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambucl Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

State of New Hampshire, Rockingham, ss.

To the Honorable Judge of Probate for said County.

Respectfully represents PHEBE P. PENDEXTER, of Newington in said County, that WINTHROP PICKERING, late of said Newington, has lately deceased, intestate, and at the time of his death having property in said County; that your petitioner is sister and one of the next of kin of said deceased, who left no widow or child: That the next of kin are your petitioner, John L. Pickering, a brother of said deceased, and the following-named children of James Pickering, a deceased brother of said Winthrop, viz: Harriet Pickering, Mary E. I. Pickering, Sarah E. Pickering, Juliet M. Pickering, Frances M. Perkins, James F. Pickering and Ruth O. Pickering, all of said Newington; and she prays that administration of said estate may be granted to said Phebe P. Pendexter, and that Thomas G. Furber, Gilbert P. Hoyt and John S. Pickering, all of said Newington, or some other suitable person may be appointed to take an Inventory and make appraisal of said Estate.

Dated at Newington, the twenty-second day of August, A. D. 1863.

PHEBE P. PENDEXTER.

Rockingham ss. Probate Court at Portsmouth in said County, September 8th, A. D. 1863

Upon the foregoing Petition it is Ordered, that a hearing be had thereon at a Court of Probate to be holden at Portsmouth in said County, on the first Tuesday of November next, at 10 o'clock A. M.; and that the Petitioner notify all persons concerned or interested therein to appear at said Court, and show cause if any they have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted, by causing said petition and this order to be published three weeks successively in the Daily Chronicle, a newspaper printed at Portsmouth in said County, the last publication whereof to be at least thirty days prior to said Court.

By order of the Judge, s18w S. D. WINGATE, Register of Probate.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the Spring of 1839 she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may30d

$100 REWARD!

For a Medicine that will cure COUGHS, INFLUENZA, TICKLING IN THE THROAT, WHOOPING COUGH, Or relieve CONSUMPTIVE COUGH, as quick as COE'S COUGH BALSAM.

OVER FIVE THOUSAND BOTTLES have been sold in its native town, and not a single instance of its failure is known. We have, in our possession, any quantity of certificates, some of them from EMINENT PHYSICIANS, who have used it in their practice, and given it the pre-eminence over any other compound.

It does not dry up a Cough, but loosens it, so as to enable the patient to expectorate freely.

☞ Two or three Bottles will invariably cure TICKLING IN THE THROAT. ☜

A HALF Bottle has often completely cured the most

STUBBORN COUGH.

And yet, though it is so sure and speedy in its operation, it is perfectly harmless, being purely vegetable. It is very agreeable to the taste, and may be administered to children of any age.

In cases of CROUP we will guarantee a cure, if taken in season. No Family should be without it. It is within the reach of all, the price being

ONLY 25 CENTS!

And if an investment and thorough trial does not "back up" the above statement, the money will be refunded. We say this, knowing its merits, and feel confident that one trial will secure for it a home in every household.

Do not waste away with Coughing, when so small an investment will cure you. It may be had of any respectable druggist in town, who will furnish you with a circular of genuine certificates of cures it has made.

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR

Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emery Foley, a well-known merchant of Opelousas, Louisiana.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect. Many persons have informed me of its efficacy in those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robert Cornish, Penzance, England.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medical virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged two, had an inflaming humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Dunnsville, Clay May Co., N. Y.

"My daughter was afflicted for four years with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles Gage, Esq., of the widely-known Gage, Murray & Co. manufactory of counsilled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I have suffered years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. My friends advised me to use some could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face smart, as if it would eat in the old sores, but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without the symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Dyspepsia—General Debility—Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Searle, Houston St., New York.

"DR. AYER. I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people."

From Jas. E. Johnston, Esq., Wakeman, Ohio.

"For twelve years I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I can now use my arm as well as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. Pr. of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Stokes, Esq., the able editor of the Doylestown Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which defied all the skill of our best physicians, and kept on for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else, we had given hope lost, when we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the bottle of potash lotion, as you directed. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and we did not wish to wait for the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other boy. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

From Dr. Hiram Sloat, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your Sarsaparilla an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. Fysock, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Miss., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Mississippi.

"DR. AYER. My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic diseases than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Liew, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, for which he was salivated, who grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the persevering use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA relieved him. Few cases can be found more inveterate and discouraging than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally induced by internal Scrofulous Ulcers, and are often cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, in aid of the SARSAPARILLA, the skillful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Jacob Morrell, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhœa, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, I am among even the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when the other is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhœa of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia,

when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by this EXT. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

THE BEST COOK STOVE

IN THE MARKET,

AFTER ALL SAID,

—IS—

STEWART'S

NEW, LARGE OVEN, AIR TIGHT,

SUMMER AND WINTER

COOKING STOVE,

For Wood or Coal.

IMPROVED IN 1863.

The peculiarities of the

STEWART COOK STOVE,

Embracing the Latest improvements, briefly stated, are:

1. It is what it purports to be—AN AIR TIGHT COOKING STOVE. That is, when the draft is properly adjusted, wood will lie and smoulder and char, upon the grate, after the manner of a coal pit. Or, if the fire be of Anthracite Coal, by simply closing the draft, it will be effectually put out.

2. Combined with this, are the peculiar position of the fire-chamber, the general internal structure, and the outward movable coverings, by which means the heat of the stove may be confined within or thrown off to warm the apartment, thus relieving females of the discomfort usually attendant upon carrying on cooking operations in summer, and securing the qualities of the brick oven so fully that the baking process may be carried through successfully without any one going near the stove from the time the article is set in until it is removed from the oven.

3. The stove is accommodated to the reception of a permanent RESERVOIR (of copper, with a tin casing) containing from 10 to 30 gallons, by which the waste heat, in passing off, is made available to keep on hand a constant supply of hot water. The space beneath the reservoir is occupied with a TIN CLOSET, where articles ready for the table are placed to keep warm, bread set to rise, fruit dried, &c.

4. Also, by the aid of the TOP COVER, a coal fire may be kept up through the night, and breakfast and dinner prepared the next day with no addition of fuel.

5. Roasting is performed in the most perfect manner in front of the stove, with a DUTCH OVEN prepared for the purpose. The heat being communicated to it from both sides of the fire-box; and the fumes, meanwhile, passing into the draft.

6. A NOVEL PLAN OF VENTILATION is adopted, by which two kinds of meat may be roasted in the oven at the same time, without imparting the peculiar flavor of one to the other; and the current required for this purpose made subservient to augment the heat upon the bottom of the oven, with no increase of combustion.

7. By the aid of the perforated metallic linings, or "gas burning arrangement," and upper part of the fall summer drum, the various culinary processes may be carried forward successfully with a single stick of wood at a time.

8. In regard to DURABILITY, the Stewart Stove is made in 1861, and will last. The structural form is such that the frame work of it can not burn out.

All the plates constituting the original STEWART STOVE, which was brought out twenty years ago, are still made, and sent to different parts of the country, on call.

The price of QUIETNESS, COMFORT and HEALTH secured to a family by the use of a culinary apparatus perfectly adapted to their wants, cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents.

But we can not, and need not, enumerate in detail, the excellencies of the STEWART STOVE. It is no experiment, or new fangled notion got up to gull the public, to which we invite your attention; but

THE STANDARD COOK STOVE

Now in use, which has been widely tested

FOR TWENTY YEARS,

and yet found wanting in any particular. Yet, the Stewart Stove has been manufactured and used for a score of years; but the inventor has kept pace with the times, and repeatedly made improvements—so that the Stewart Stove of 1863 is as superior to that of 1843, as the Mowing Machine is to a Bush Scythe.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove extant. The oven is large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed. By actual trial, over a hundred of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, healthy and agreeable—and a none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which lighten them so they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the best part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world.—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., — Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, — Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, — John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

The Gum formed upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

5th. While in all respects it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

TEMPERANCE ANNIVERSARY—Address by President Lincoln.—The 21st anniversary of the organization of the Sons of Temperance was celebrated at Washington, Sept. 29. The procession, on reaching the White House, was invited to enter the east room, which was nearly filled by the ladies and gentlemen participating in the ceremonies. President Lincoln, on entering, was enthusiastically applauded, and in the course of his response to the address presented to him, said that when he was a young man long ago, before the Sons of Temperance, as an organization, had an existence, he, in an humble way, made temperance speeches, and he thought he might say that to this day he had never belied what he then said. As to the suggestions for the purpose of advancing the cause of temperance in the army, he could not now respond to them. To prevent intemperance in the army is even a great part of the rules and articles of war. It is a part of the law of the land, and was so, he presumed, long ago, to dismiss officers for drunkenness. He was not sure that consistently with the public service more can be done than has been done. All, therefore, that he could promise, was to have a copy of the address submitted to the principal Departments, and have it considered whether it contains any suggestions which will improve the cause of temperance, and repress drunkenness in the army, any better than it is already done. He thought the reasonable men of the world had long since agreed that intemperance was one of the greatest, if not the very greatest, of all the evils amongst mankind. That was not a matter of dispute. All men agreed that intemperance was a great curse, but differed about the cure. The suggestion that it existed to a great extent in the army was true, but whether it was a cause of defeat he knew not, but he did know that there was a great deal of it on the other side, therefore they had no right to beat us on that ground.—(Laughter.)

The remarks of the President were listened to with great interest, and were repeatedly interrupted by applause.

☞ The Aerated Bread, advertised elsewhere, is a superb article,—well worthy the attention of all housekeepers and others.—Don't fail to try it.

"Light, Sweet, and Nutritious!"

THE BOSTON
AERATED BREAD CO.
Call the attention of the intelligent public of Portsmouth to the NEW PROCESS OF BREADMAKING, now in full and successful operation at 1010 Washington St., corner Concord, by which they have supplied to them an ABSOLUTELY PURE BREAD, made entirely by machinery, without the use of yeast, or any chemical or deleterious agent.
FERMENTATION
destroys from TEN to FIFTEEN per cent. of the constituent or nutrition elements of the flour, and deteriorates the whole, by the chemical change necessary for the process of the "Carbonic Acid Gas," which is the agent that makes ALL bread light.—Fermented bread is often more or less sour, and always injurious to the digestive organs, while the process is so uncleanly as to disgust the taste.
Unfermented Bread is made wholly by machinery, by a process which preserves all the SWEETNESS, NUTRITION and AROMA of the wheat. NEVER BECOMES SOUR, and will keep moist and fresh for many days. It AGREES WITH THE MOST DELICATE STOMACH, even when eaten hot from the oven, and is recommended by the Medical Profession in America and Europe as a CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA!
☞ Bakers, Grocers, Hotels, &c., in Portsmouth, will be supplied regularly every day.
The Agent of the Company is at the FRANKLIN HOUSE.

The Old Established Hospital.
No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y.
QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.
Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured annually!
DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World,) of obtaining the safest as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate for a speedy and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.
In Gilts, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Bliss, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines. I have treated and cured more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.
YOUNG MEN.
Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their health and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to counsel and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. J. Teller, broken down in health, now rejoice in that that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.
DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.
A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr. Teller's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—200 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery, it contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr. Teller has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.
TO THE LADIES.
Dr. Teller still retains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Vichoi's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.
CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.
Office hours from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M., and on Sundays from 2 to 5 P.M.
N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, inclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to J. TELLER, M. D.,

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1863.

THE REBELLION

The Army of the Potomac is quiet. The rebels are in strength on the south side of the Rapidan; and a few days ago a considerable column of rebel troops was observed going north from the Blue Ridge, perhaps forming a part of the forces reported to be concentrating in the valley.

It is now said that Gen. Schofield will not be removed from his command.

Gen. Sherman's corps was leaving Cairo on Thursday—destination unknown.

Neither Gen. Slocum nor Gen. Howard has resigned. Rumor says Hooker supersedes Burnside, and Pope will have a command under Rosecrans; and yet the latter is to be superseded by Thomas.

Gold which went up in New York on Friday dropped again on receipt of private dispatches from Washington stating that Government had received good news from Chattanooga.

Rebel reports to the 25th represent our forces actively preparing at Fort Wagner for the renewal of the attack on Charleston.

Wilmington papers say that two rebel steamers have been driven ashore and two captured by our blockading fleet off that port.

A Martinsburg, Va., letter says there is no organized rebel force anywhere in the valley this side of Front Royal.

Some 20 and 30-pounder Parrott guns, which have been lying unused at Nashville since that place fell, have been forwarded to Gen. Rosecrans. Reinforcements are said to be still pouring in for him.

New Jersey is paying high bounties for volunteers; $943 to veterans, and $681 to raw recruits. That is soldiering to a profit; never in the world was so much paid before. The government has extended the time for New Jersey to fill her quota to December 1st and probably she alone of all the State of the Union will supply her quota under the last call.—Newburyport Herald.

This statement looks as if raising an army by volunteering had some difficulties about it, as well as drafting.—A great many of these difficulties, however, would disappear, if the Volunteers were permitted to vote, as in equity and justice they ought.—It is not pretended that all difficulties would vanish; for some of them are intrinsic, and belonging to all great wars: but it is certain that copperhead governors and presses, kept alive by disfranchising loyal volunteers, have embarrassed the government, helped the rebels, and kept our army smaller, at the same time that they have made a larger army needful. In this sense it is strictly true that the copperhead peace meetings prolong the war, make it more costly, and sacrifice more lives. U. T.

THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW, for October, is punctually published by Crosby & Nichols. It contains articles on Life Insurance, Eugene Scribe, The Trial of the Constitution, Dana's Geology, Quietism in the Nineteenth Century, Tyndall's Lectures on Heat, The Evolution of Language, The antiquity of Man, Hygiene with references to the Military Service, The testimony of Christianity concerning itself, Society in the Levant, Critical Notices. The article on Life Insurance is by Prof. Bowen; that on the Trial of the Constitution by Judge Farrar; that on Dana's Geology by Prof. Asa Gray, and that on Lyell by Prof. Hitchcock.

The article on the Trial of the Constitution deserves to be reprinted in a cheap pamphlet, distributed all over the land and read by every citizen.

☞ A few days since we visited the Globe Works, at South Boston, where the Messrs. Pierce, of this city, are building monitors, and were shown a splendid stick of white oak timber. It was one of the largest, if not actually the largest ever brought into Boston. It measured sixty-six feet in length, and was hewn up square, on the average, twenty-eight by twenty-nine inches. It contained three hundred and seventy cubic feet, equal to four thousand four hundred and forty feet, broad measure, or nine and a quarter tons. Its actual weight would not be less than twelve tons. It was brought from the State of New York, and cost $400.

☞ In the month of January next there will be a great exhibition of cotton samples in Turin the object being to stimulate the growth of that staple throughout Italy. In the judgment of many persons the climate of Italy is admirably adapted for the growth of cotton, and this is the opinion of Victor Emanuel's government, for a Royal Commission has been sitting and sifting the subject with the avowed purpose of bringing cotton into the European market with as little delay as possible.

☞ Part 35 of Putnam's accurate and invaluable Rebellion Record, contains fine portraits of Brig. Generals Godfrey Weitzel and J. W. Sill. The record is brought down in this number to the unsuccessful attack on Fort Donelson by the rebels, in February last.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated — By UNCLE TOBY.

Death of Rev. Mr. Rogers, 1723.—Rev. Jabez Fitch succeeds him.—Indian War, 1725; Death of Ralle.—Sandy Beach.—Sampson Sheafe.

The Rev. Nathaniel Rogers departed this life on the 3d day of October, 1723, and was buried in the ancient burial ground usually called the Point-of-Graves. A monument was erected over his grave, with a slate inserted in the top, on which was inscribed the following epitaph:

Hic sepeltur reverendus Nathanael Rogers, A. M.
Jesu Christi minister fidelis;
Prosapia studiis evangeliis devota orlundus;
ingenio, eruditione, integritate moribusque suavissimis valde ornatus;
benevolentiæ fidei, pietatis exemplar illustre;
theologiæ consultissimus;
concionator prædarus;
ecclesiæ pastor vigilantissimus;
natus est Ipswici, 7 mo kalendas martii,
MDCLXIX.
In Jesu sinum effavit animam
5 to nonas Octobris,
MDCCXXIII.

[This slate tablet has been lost for sixty years:—but there can be no doubt which of the freestone monuments at the Point of Graves was that of Rev. Mr. Rogers—as only one of them has a space large enough to contain a quarter part of the above inscription.

A very small outlay of money by the North Parish, or a few of its members, would put the monument in decent order.]

On the 2d day of January, 1724, the North Parish in Portsmouth agreed to give a call to Mr. Hancock to be their minister, in the room of the good Mr. Rogers, deceased, and offered him one hundred and thirty pounds per annum, and the contribution of strangers. Mr. Hancock informed the committee, who waited on him, "That he desires time to consider of it, and confer with his friends." Mr. Hancock preached here a short time, and the parish afterwards gave an invitation to the Rev. Jabez Fitch, which he accepted. He was the son of the Rev. James Fitch of Norwich, Connecticut; was educated at Harvard College, and was graduated in 1694. He was elected one of the tutors, and during his residence at Cambridge, he was invited to settle at Ipswich as a colleague with the Rev. John Rogers, to which office he was ordained in 1703. He preached to that people about twenty years, and left them, for want of a competent support, on the 13th December, 1723, and in the course of the next summer he settled here.

This year the Indians were very troublesome. They began their depredations in the neighborhood of this town the 1st of May, and continued them through the summer. The settlements at Dover and Oyster river (now Durham) were particularly exposed, and suffered more than any other places. Government offered a bounty of one hundred pounds for every Indian scalp, which induced a number of persons to form volunteer companies to range the woods in search of them. One of these companies fell in with three Indians at Oyster river; they killed one of them, who appeared to be a person of distinction, by some peculiarities in his dress. "He wore a coronet of fur of a scarlet color, to which were attached four small bells, by the sound of which his party were directed in following him. His hair was remarkably soft and fine. He had with him a devotional book, and a muster roll; on which were the names of one hundred and eighty Indians. It was supposed that he was the natural son of Ralle. To put a stop to these incursions, the governments of Massachusetts and New Hampshire agreed to send two companies of one hundred men each, to Norridgewock. They were put under under command of Captains Moulton and Harman of York, who were successful in accomplishing the design of the expedition. They reached the village undiscovered, and took the inhabitants by surprise, killed Ralle and about eighty of his Indians, destroyed the chapel, and brought off the plate and furniture of the altar. Ralle was in the sixty-eighth year of his age, and had resided at Norridgewock 26 years.

The Indians continued their ravages on the frontiers, although the destruction of the village at Norridgewock gave them a considerable check. A volunteer company of thirty men, commanded by Captain John Lovewell, marched to the northward of Winnipiseogee lake, where they discovered a man and boy; the former they killed and scalped, and carried the boy a prisoner to Boston.

The inhabitants of the town, situated near Sandy Beach, were desirous of being erected into a separate town or parish, and made application therefor to the General Assembly. Upon receiving notice of the petition the town voted, "That the prayer of Sandy Beach is highly unreasonable," and chose a committee to remonstrate against the same, "so that there may be no further curtailing or dividing the town, which is already reduced to very narrow limits by New Castle, Greenland, and Newington."

Sampson Sheafe was born in Boston, in the year 1650. He engaged in mercantile business, and possessed a large real estate there. In 1675 he removed to Portsmouth and resided at Great Island, where he carried on the fishery and navigation. During his residence here, he was Collector of the customs. In 1677 he contracted with George Jaffrey of Boston, merchant, to remove to Great Island, and there take possession of his (said Sheafe's) goods, houses, lands, and wharves, and to take charge of and manage all the said Sheafe's business in a mercantile manner, and to do and transact no other business, except for said Sheafe, or by his express direction or consent; for which services, Mr. Sheafe was to pay him forty pounds lawful money of New England, a year, and to find and allow him good and sufficient meat and drink, washing and lodging. When Governor Allen came to this province in 1698, and assumed the government, he appointed Mr. Sheafe, Clerk of the Superior Court, one of his Majesty's Council, and Secretary of the province. But he held these offices only during Allen's short administration. In 1711, Governor Dudley appointed him Commissary of the New England forces, on an expedition against Quebec, which failed in consequence of the disaster which befell the fleet in the river St. Lawrence. Mr. Sheafe exercised the office of Collector for the port of Piscataqua for several years.—He afterwards brought his mercantile business to a close, and returned to Boston, where he died in 1726, aged 76.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— It is estimated that six thousand persons have ascended Mount Washington during the present season.

—— A drafted man in the 2d District furnished ten men as his substitute, before he found one who would pass.

—— The draft for Manchester and Nashua will take place at Concord on Tuesday, Oct. 6.

—— The National Guards, of Manchester, are making arrangements for a ball in that city on the night of Oct. 14th, the first day of the Military muster.

—— A little child fell from a chair in Manchester on Monday last and fractured its arm. The arm was broken in the same place a month or two since.

—— A boy 7 years of age was severely burned near Manchester on Monday last, his clothes catching fire while he was burning brush.

—— There is a man in Concord whose digestive powers are so good that he thinks he "could eat a roasted flat iron, and sleep upon it like a baby."

—— W. H. H. Allen, late clerk of the S. J. Court, in Sullivan county, and now principal clerk in the Provost Marshal's office of the 3d District, has been appointed Paymaster in the U. S. Army, with the rank of Major.

—— Three acres of land in Concord, were occupied this season with tobacco plants, and workmen have been engaged several days in cutting up and conveying them in wagon loads from the field to a large drying room.

—— Asst. Provost Marshal P. W. Silsbee, of Claremont, jumped from a train near that town on Monday night, miscalculating the speed, and was thrown against a platform with such force as to break his right leg near the knee.

—— In a quarrel between two substitute brokers in Concord on Wednesday night, one drew a revolver fired at the other, and the ball "bore wide" and wounded a soldier of the Invalid Corps, named Jacob Kirrell, passing across the fleshy part of his right arm between the elbow and shoulder, and grazing the knuckles of his left hand.

☞ The Missouri and Kansas delegations in Washington on Thursday afternoon passed resolutions calling a mass meeting of the unconditional Union men of Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Arkansas, Illinois, and such other States as may choose to participate, at Hannibal, Mo., the 21st day of October. The Missouri delegation have tendered an invitation to Gen. Lane, of Kansas, to deliver an address in Turner's Hall, St. Louis, on the 12th inst. He has accepted it, and will, according to the understanding, reply to the recent speech of Gen. Frank P. Blair.

Leverton's Lightning Hair Dye.

The subscriber having succeeded in obtaining an article of Hair Dye, and believing it to be far superior in many respects to any article yet produced for dyeing the hair and whiskers, now places it before the public. Its merits, above all other preparations of the kind, are:

1. Its ease of application; being applied with as much facility as by merely brushing the hair or whiskers.
2. The rapidity of its action. Being, as its name indicates, instantaneous, it will color in one minute.
3. It entirely precludes the ordinary tedious and laborious process of washing, fanning, drying, &c.
4. It does not stain the skin, as all other dyes do, but can be removed as easily as water.
5. It will not crock or smut.
6. It does not change its color from its first application, except to a more beautiful and durable black, never assuming that dull or greenish hue so common with most dyes.
7. It is the "Ne Plus Ultra" and "Tip-Top," No. 1 article of all combinations called Hair Dyes.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cure, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHITIS and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE STOCKHOLDERS OF THE CONCORD & PORTSMOUTH RAILROAD.—The annual meeting of the Stockholders in this Corporation was held in Martin's Hall, in Manchester, on Thursday, Stephen Kenrick, Esq., President of the Road, occupying the chair. The call for the meeting was read by the Clerk, Wm. H. Hackett, Esq., of Portsmouth.—The President then presented the Annual Report of the Directors to the Stockholders, which was read by the Clerk, and unanimously voted to be accepted and adopted. The report refers, among other things, to the fact, that the contract for the operation of the road continues to be faithfully kept on the part of the managers of the Concord R. R. The condition of the road has been from time to time duly examined by the Directors, and is kept in good order and condition, by those having it in charge. The detailed operations of the Road are stated in the annual report of the Directors of the Concord Railroad Corporation.

The Directors say in conclusion: "We see no reason to change the opinion previously expressed in our former reports, in relation to the character of your property, and we are of belief that the contract by which the Road is operated is one that has proved advantageous both to the Stockholders in this Road and the Concord Railroad corporation."

Richard Pickering, Esq., of Newington, called the attention of the shareholders to the fact that the road under the management of the Trustees for the mortgage Bondholders of the P. & C. R. R., before its present organization, earned a profit of, as was stated, $26,000 per year, for two years. He thought the stockholders were entitled to the money, as no satisfactory account had been given in relation to its disposition by the Trustees. Mr. P. subsequently introduced the following resolution, which was adopted:—

That the Directors be instructed to examine the receipts and expenditures of the Portsmouth & Concord R. R., so far as they may be able, while the same was managed by the Trustees of the Bondholders of said railroad, and report the same to the Stockholders of the C. & P. R. R.

On motion of Hon. Frederick Smyth, the Stockholders proceeded to choose Directors, and a committee, consisting of Hon. F. Smyth, and Hon. E. W. Harrington, of Manchester, and Richard Pickering, Esq., of Newington, were appointed to receive, sort and count the votes. This committee subsequently made report through Mr. Smyth, Chairman, that the whole number of votes cast was 959, all of which were for Stephen Kenrick, of Franklin; Samuel P. Dow, of New Market; Benjamin F. Martin, of Manchester; Joseph B. Walker, of Concord; Samuel N. Bell, of Manchester, and the above named gentlemen were then declared by the President elected Directors. The meeting then dissolved.

The satisfactory dividends and high standing of their stock in the market, seemed to prevent the attendance of many of the Stockholders who feel they have an investment that does not require much looking after; and it appears that the stock has been taken up by Trustees and Corporations holding invested funds, and is about all out of market. The Directors subsequently organized by choosing Stephen Kenrick, President, and William H. Hackett, Clerk.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, on Thursday evening, the City Marshal's report of arrests during the last quarter, was received, and is as follows:—

The whole number of arrests from July 1 to Oct. 1, was 315, for the following reasons:—

Drunkenness 147; assaults, brawls and tumults 7; deserters from the army 23; lodgings 50; fraud 1; insane persons 2; truancy 1; rescuing prisoners 2; keeping disorderly shop 1; disobedient to parents 1; larceny 6; passing counterfeit money 2; adultery 2; fornication 1; resisting officer 1; suspicious person 1; inciting riot 3; disorderly conduct 6; vagrancy 2; common drunkards 5; violation liquor law 2; deserters from the House of Correction 4; rescued from drowning 1; deserters from U. S. Navy 21; obtaining goods under false pretenses 1.

Vacancies in the regular watch for Wards 2 and 3 were reported, and it was recommended that 3 supernumerary watchmen be appointed. The Board appointed John T. Gray, Ward 2, Plumer Spinney, Ward 3, and, as supernumeraries, George Woods, Ward 1, George W. Frost, Ward 2, and Albert Foye, Ward 3.

A communication from the office of Brig. Gen. Hinks, returned the resolutions passed by the Board relative to the recent action on the part of Maj. Wardwell, in arresting a citizen of this city, which resolutions were by vote forwarded to Gen. H. A committee consisting of Alds. Rider, Broughton and Wiggin, was on motion appointed to procure the evidence in the case, and present it to the Board.

POLICE COURT, October 2.—John Fernald, for drunkenness, fined $3, and costs $2.92. Chas. Smith, same offence, fined $3; costs $3.36. Thos. Ryan, same offence, fined $3; costs $3.09. Amos Niles, same offence, fined $3; costs $3.09.

☞ Major D. K. Wardwell, of the Invalid Corps, stationed at Portsmouth, has been appointed Colonel.

☞ "B. P. S.," of the Boston Saturday Evening Gazette, has just been to Lake Winnipiseogee, and well says that October is the loveliest time to go there. Referring to mine host of the Senter House, at Centre Harbor, J. L. Huntress, Esq., who, by the way, is a native of Portsmouth, he says:—

He keeps an excellent hotel, and knows how to do it. As the point of the Lake that commands a prospect of many miles, its situation is cheering for lovers of the picturesque. Each year is adding to its business, and the past season has completely overtaxed its ability, rendering incidental talk of a new hotel justifiable.

He also mentions another character who is essential to the full enjoyment of the Lake Region:—

Capt. Sanborn, of the steamer Lady of the Lake, a veteran in Lake navigation, is very particular in pointing out the constantly unfolding charms. He commanded the Belknap, the first boat on the Lake, as early, I think, as 1833, and has been for the most of the time engaged since. His urbanity and kindness have made him very popular with passengers on the Lake.

Our hero was never on horseback before, (and came near going behind now) and gives a moving account of his saddle ride up Red Hill, and especially of the ride down. But his good luck and good pluck—and especially the good sense of his pony—pulled him through all difficulties, as usual; and both donkies, the big and the little, (his and "Uncle Tim's", we mean, of course,) descended safe to terra firma—though Br. S. says he was in "terror" all the time, but he wished his seat was "firmer. [Pray don't think this is his attempt at a joke.]

He closes his droll letter, and so will we our extracts, with advising lovers of nature at her loveliest, to "pack your valise, reader, go up and see the Lake in September or October, and I will agree to be forgiven if you are in any degree disappointed."

☞ Thanksgiving Day in Massachusetts—Nov. 26.

A SALVE FOR EVERY SORE.—When we consider the various diseases to which the skin is subject, it must be an object of importance to have at hand a sure and certain cure for most of them. For recent flesh wounds, obstinate ulcers, troublesome felons, sore breast, ringworm and scald head, and chilings of the tender skin of infants, as well as for warts and callouses, "Swayne's Universal Salve is a certain and rapid remedy. Every father who goes into the woods should carry a box in his pocket, and every mother of a family should have a 25 cent box in the cupboard. See advertisement in another column.

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world affords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

☞ See on fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

GOLDEN SHEAF WHISKEY.

The subscriber, having been engaged for the last twenty years in the importation and sale of Wines and Spirits, now finds from this experience that real

Pure Bourbon Whiskey,

when made as it ought to be, from WHEAT, RYE AND CORN, is, without doubt, the most healthful and medical spirit that can be used. Having determined to make the sale of this article a speciality in his business, he has accepted the

General Selling Agency for a large Distillery in Bourbon County, Kentucky,

and in future will sell, under the brand of

"Golden Sheaf,"

PURE BOURBON WHISKEY, manufactured from the BEST SELECTED GRAINS, and made in the most careful manner.

This celebrated Whiskey will be put up in cases containing one dozen bottles each, and offered to the trade by the Proprietors throughout the country, and also kept on hand in his warehouse in Boston, in barrels, half barrels and kegs.

Persons desirous of procuring a pure, reliable article of BOURBON WHISKEY, at a reasonable price, have only to inquire of any respectable Grocer or Druggist for "GOLDEN SHEAF WHISKEY," or to send their orders for any quantity required to the General Depot for its sale.

COUGHS, INFLUENZA,
TICKLING IN THE THROAT,
WHOOPING COUGH,
Or relieve CONSUMPTIVE COUGH,
as quick as
COE'S COUGH BALSAM.

OVER FIVE THOUSAND BOTTLES have been sold in its native town, and not a single instance of its failure is known.

We have, in our possession, any quantity of certificates, some of them from
EMINENT PHYSICIANS,
who have used it in their practice, and given it the pre-eminence over any other compound.

It does not dry up a Cough
but loosens it, so as to enable the patient to expectorate freely.

☞ Two or three Bottles will invariably cure TICKLING IN THE THROAT. ☜

A HALF Bottle has often completely cured the most

STUBBORN COUGH.

And yet, though it is so sure and speedy in its operation, it is perfectly harmless, being purely vegetable. It is very agreeable to the taste, and may be administered to children of any age.

In cases of CROUP we will guarantee a cure, if taken in season. No Family should be without it. It is within the reach of all, the price being

ONLY 25 CENTS!

And if an investment and thorough trial does not "back up" the above statements, the money will be refunded. We say this, knowing its merits, and feel confident that one trial will secure for it a home in every household.

Do not waste away with Coughing, when so small an investment will cure you. It may be had of any respectable druggist in town, who will furnish you with a circular of genuine certificates of cures it has made.

Morning Chronicle.

THE SUMMER RAIN.

A burning sun shot down its rays
On fainting flowers;
The brassy sky was all ablaze,
Unquenched with showers;
The bobolink, with open beak
And drooping wing,
Perched on the reed, was sad and weak,
And would not sing

The sheep lay panting in the shade,
The swine in mire;
Green meadows, waiting for the blade,
Crisped in the fire;
And plants, that should be born of seeds,
Kept in the crust
Of the parched earth, like noble deeds
Hid in the dust.

When, lo! behind the western hills,
Like sails at sea,
The clouds arose, and thunder-thrills
Made melody.
Then precious drops came pattering down
In silver showers—
And summer washed her gorgeous gown
Of grass and flowers.

The rose held up her ruby face,
The lily smiled;
The bobolink sang songs of grace;
The wondering child
Looked at the rainbow in the sky,
Called it the road
Good children travel when they die
And go to God. G. W. BUNDAY.

THE peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain vitalic vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and those dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. The it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

THE BEST COOK STOVE
IN THE MARKET,
AFTER ALL SAID,
—IS—
STEWART'S
NEW, LARGE OVEN, AIR TIGHT,
SUMMER AND WINTER
COOKING STOVE,
For Wood or Coal,
IMPROVED IN 1860.

The peculiarities of the
STEWART COOK STOVE,
Embracing the Latest Improvements, briefly stated, are:

1. It is what it purports to be—AN AIR TIGHT COOKING STOVE. That is, when the draft is properly adjusted, wood will lie and smoulder and char, up on the grate, after the manner of a coal pit. Or, if the fire be of Anthracite Coal, by simply closing the draft, it will be effectually put out.

2. Combined with this, are the peculiar position of the fire-chamber, the general internal structure, and the outward moveable coverings, by which means the heat of the fire may be confined within or thrown off to warm the apartments, thus relieving females of the discomfort usually attendant upon carrying on cooking operations in summer, and securing the qualities of the brick oven so fully that the baking process may be carried through successfully without any one going near the stove from the time the article is set in until it is removed from the oven.

3. The stove is accommodated to the reception of a permanent RESERVOIR (of copper, with a tin casing) containing from 10 to 12 gallons, by which the waste heat, in passing off, is made available to keep on hand a constant supply of hot water. The upper shelf is also the reservoir, occupied with a TIN CLOSET, where articles ready for the table are placed to keep warm, bread set to rise, tried fowl, &c.

4. Also, by the aid of the TOP COVER, a coal fire may be kept up through the night, and breakfast and dinner prepared the next day with no addition of fuel.

5. Roasting is performed in the most perfect manner in front of the stove, with a DUTCH OVEN prepared for the purpose—the heat being communicated to it from both sides of the fire-box; and the fumes, meanwhile, passing into the flue.

6. A NOVEL PLAN OF VENTILATION is adopted, by which two kinds of meat may be roasted in the oven at the same time, without imparting the peculiar flavor of one to the other; and the current instituted for this purpose made subservient to augment the heat upon the bottom of the oven, with no increase of combustion.

7. By the aid of the perforated metallic linings, or "gas burning arrangement," and application of the full summer dress, the various culinary processes may be carried forward successfully with a single stick of wood at a time.

8. In regard to DURABILITY, the Stewart Stove is made to last, and will last. The structural form is such that the frame work of it can not burn out.

All the plates constituting the original STEWART STOVE, which was brought out twenty years ago, are still made, and sent to different parts of the country, on call.

The price of QUIETNESS, COMFORT and HEALTH secured to a family by the use of a culinary apparatus perfectly adapted to their wants, cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents.

But we can not, and need not, enumerate in detail, the excellencies of the STEWART STOVE. It is no experiment, or new-fangled notion got up to gull the public, to which we invite your attention; but

THE STANDARD COOK STOVE

Now in use, which has been widely tested
FOR TWENTY YEARS,
and NOT found wanting in any particular. Yes, the Stewart Stove has been manufactured and used for a score of years; but the inventor has kept pace with the times, and repeatedly made improvements—so that the Stewart Stove of 1860 is as superior to that of 1841, as the Mowing Machine is to a Bush Scythe.

IT HAS NOT BEEN EXCELLED
yet, as a Family Stove. Here follow the names of a few of the numerous purchasers of the STEWART COOK STOVE.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water, also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed, as is the case with so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass through the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the dome can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
The Furnace may be set with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as any other, and when finished the work presents one whole piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.
DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,

Has had four years of practical experience in working this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

Would respectfully announce to his patrons and the public that VULCANIZED RUBBER as a base for Artificial Teeth, promises all the advantages of Gold, yet costs only half as much. My experience has been highly satisfactory in its use, and I have no hesitation in WARRANTING PERFECT SATISFACTION in all cases.
Teeth inserted on Gold and Silver, and all other operations performed as usual.
I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TRASKWEIN, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE
PURE AND FOUR YEARS OLD,
OF CHOICE OPORTO FRUIT,
For Physicians' Use,
FEMALES, WEAKLY PERSONS, INVALIDS
SAMBUCUS TREE, OF PORTUGAL,

The Great Remedy for Kidney Affections, Rheumatism, Chronic Complaints

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE celebrated in Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic, Diuretic and Sudorific, highly esteemed by eminent physicians, used in European and American Hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.
As a DIURETIC, it imparts a healthy action to the Glands and Kidneys, and Urinary Organs very beneficial in Dropsy, Gout and Rheumatic Affections.
SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE is not a mixture or manufactured article, but is pure from the juice of the Portugal Sambucus, cultivated in New Jersey, recommended by Chemists and Physicians as possessing medical properties superior to any other Wines in use, and an excellent article for all weak and debilitated persons, and the aged and infirm, improving the appetite, and benefitting ladies and children.
A LADIES' WINE, because it will not intoxicate as other wines, as it contains no mixture of spirits or other liquors, and is admired for its rich peculiar flavor and nutritive properties, imparting a healthy tone to the digestive organs, and a blooming, soft and healthy skin and complexion.
WE HEREBY TO
a few well known gentlemen and physicians, who have tried the Wine.

VOL. 23. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. MONDAY OCT. 5. 1863. NO. 82.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all:
Exalt the right, though every item fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

☞ Arrangements for prompt communication between Chattanooga and Washington are now completed.

☞ Letters received at the Agricultural Bureau from Wisconsin, state that it is estimated by good authority, that the wheat crop of that State will reach this year thirty millions of bushels, of which twenty millions can be spared after supplying the home demand.

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS.—The true Type of Cathartic.—By the application of true Pharmaceutical Laws, both Character and Economy are combined in this valuable Pill. To prevent putting such quantities of indigestible drugs into the stomach, the griping pains so erroneously judged to be the evidence of thorough action, and to require from 4 to 6 Pills, to get a decent cathartic, was the study in this development. The dose seldom exceeding One, and never more than Two Pills, settles the question of economy, and character can be best known by confidence to test them in DYSPEPSIA, COSTIVENESS, BILIOUSNESS, LIVER COMPLAINT, all derangements of the stomach and Bowels, and as a Family Pill. spno

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to preserve all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study, and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Ulcerations, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, Frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused, by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded, loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Persons contemplating matrimony, should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receipt of a description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capottes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important!

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system, Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

In all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.
Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!

DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private disease, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the old World) of obtaining the latest as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and speedy cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cord, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Biles, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other Impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the married state, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for every body, containing disclosures Dr. TELLER's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—200 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married happy. A lecture on Love; or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery. It contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr. TELLER has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

Dr. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Vichot's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) those Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 10 to 12 M.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

MONDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Official dispatches of the 1st represent the military situation before Chattanooga to be satisfactory. Our forces still held Jonesboro and Knoxville. Gen. Sherman is on his way to Chattanooga; and large bodies of Eastern troops have reached Indianapolis, en route for the same place.

A gang of guerrillas surprised a Union guard within 3 miles of Chain bridge on Thursday night, and fired into the tents of the men, stampeding the entire camp.—The guerrillas escaped without loss, carrying off several prisoners and fifty horses.—Two of our men were killed, and several wounded.

A gang of rebels captured the steam-tug Leviathan at her wharf at South-West Pass, intending to make a pirate of her; but the Crescent and DeSota retook her after a few hours' chase. The steamer Calhoun has destroyed a rebel steamer near Pascagoula, and captured another.

☞ Between September 1st and 15th six persons died in Nantucket whose average age was 81 years.

☞ The prize money of the Navy exceeds $30,000,000. A good part of this snug sum will come from British pockets.

☞ Generals Grant, McPherson and Gilmore are Methodists. Rosecrans had a Methodist mother, who was possessed with a longing for the "old church," and he is a devoted Catholic.

☞ An enraged mother in Illinois recently twisted her little offspring's nose until she fractured the bone; broke another pledge's arm, and killed a third with a rolling pin.

☞ Sunday's dispatch to Messrs. Hatchings, Ilsley and others, stated that the President had appointed Thursday, Nov. 26, a day of National Thanksgiving to Divine Providence for fruitful fields, averting foreign wars, &c.

A DISTINCTION WITH A DIFFERENCE. A Western newspaper says that "the difference between a copperhead and a rebel ram is, that one goes for the Union with an if, the other goes against the Union with a but."

AN ABRICANE—a monstrous fish, ten feet long and weighing 1200 pounds, was captured by some Seabrook fishermen off Hampton river, on Tuesday last. It is a species of shark, seldom found on our coast. It will do to go with that turtle.

☞ One hundred blooded horses are entered for the first regular meeting of the Laclede Association, in St. Louis, on the 12th of October, inst. The premium list amounts to five thousand dollars, and the races are to continue six days.

GEN. HOOKER.—It is understood that "Fighting Joe," will take charge of the force which has been separated from the Army of the Potomac. Howard, Slocum and Butterfield are three of the Major Generals who will be under him, the latter as chief of staff.

U. S. NOTES LEGAL TENDER.—The Court of Appeals of New York, the highest Court of that State, has decided that U. S. notes, generally known as "Greenbacks," are a legal tender. The Court stood six to two, Judges Denio and Selden dissenting from the decision.

☞ Another defalcation on the Great Western Railway of Canada is reported.—Mr. C. M. Symonds, freight agent at Point Levi, it is said, skedaddled some days ago with the large amount of $30,000. Another account says he took but five or six thousand dollars.

☞ The public reception extended to the Russian Naval officers in New York on Thursday was most enthusiastic. Fifteen regiments formed the escort, and the spectators are said to have reached the number of 100,000. At the City Hall the official welcome was tendered, and the guests reviewed the military. The whole affair passed off finely.

☞ Thurlow Weed has been often quoted of late, by the "conservative" organs.—Thurlow Weed now says the republicans will carry New York. Peter Cooper, the old millionaire of New York, has written a letter to Gov. Seymour, in which he takes the side of the Union, with the abolition of slavery. Peter has been a distinguished member of the democratic party.

☞ Yelverton Y. Page, a valuable citizen of Washington, died last week, and was buried with Masonic honors. On a rainy night some time ago, when a regiment of volunteers from the North arrived in Washington, without the knowledge of the authorities,—they staid all night on the sidewalk near Mr. P.'s house;—and he, with the help of neighbors, did all he could to promote their comfort. In this effort he so exposed himself, that he took to his bed two days after, with a severe cold that carried him to his grave. Another martyr patriot, honored among the heroes.

FOREIGN.—The London Times considers the fate of Charleston as virtually decided, and says that its fall is only a question of time. The Times also says Mr. Mason sent Earl Russell on the 21st ult. a notification that he has been instructed by the Richmond Government to withdraw from England. He would proceed to Paris.

La France says the Federal steam corvette, which arrived at Brest from Madeira, has been sent with another Federal corvette in pursuit of the Florida; that the latter would leave Brest on the 23d completely repaired, and would proceed immediately to meet the second Federal corvette, which is at Lisbon, and attack her before she can be joined by the one at Brest, which is repairing. La France also says the Federal corvette Kearsarge will be treated at Brest like the Florida, as both belligerents will enjoy the same rights and advantages.

The Confederate loan is quoted at 50 a 29.

DEATH OF FRANCIS J. GRUND.—This distinguished writer and politician died suddenly at Philadelphia, on Tuesday night, about 11 1-4 o'clock. Mr. G. was in high favor with Pres. Pierce, and was appointed by Pres. Buchanan, Consul at Havre, which office he held when the war broke out. He has latterly been a devoted Union man, and on Monday night made a grand speech at the Union League, and appeared to be in perfect health. He was a man of varied ability and most extensive information. He leaves a widow and one son.

On Tuesday night he died, under the following circumstances, as detailed by the Philadelphia Bulletin of Sept. 30:

Mr. Grund resided at No. 1,119 Spruce street. It appears that about 11 o'clock a crowd with a band of music started to serenade Gen. McClellan. The crowd were exceedingly noisy, groaning and cheering alternately. Mr. Grund was a man of full habit and nervous temperament, easily excited. As the crowd passed his house matches were lighted, and some of the party proceeded to examine the names and numbers upon the doors. Others were yelling and groaning, and cheers were given for McClellan, Woodward, and other prominent Democrats.

Mr. Grund, who was one of the expounders of The Age newspaper, and for several months its principal editor, became disgusted with the Copperhead doctrines, left The Age, and came out boldly for the Union cause. It is well known that he delivered an address before the Union League on Monday evening last. With the scenes of riot and bloodshed in New-York fresh in his memory, and judging from the character and movements of the gathering in front of his house, it was very natural that Mr. Grund should become excited and entertain fears for his life and property.

No sooner were the flashes of light seen, and the cheers for Woodward heard, than Mr. Grund hastly left his house by the back door and ran all the way to the Fifth District Police Station, at Fifteenth and Locust streets. His visit there was no doubt to claim the protection of the police, but upon his arrival at the Station-House he was so much exhausted by over-excitement that he could only say, in a tone almost inaudible, "Send for a doctor—bleed me!"

Dr. Huston was at once summoned, but it was too late. In ten minutes after leaving his home Mr. Grund was a corpse.—His death was caused by apoplexy, induced by alarm and excitement. Coroner Conrad held an inquest in the case this morning, but did not examine any witnesses in regard to the circumstances leading to the death of the deceased. He directed his inquiries solely to the fact that the man was dead, and omitted to ascertain the incidents leading to the melancholy event.

[A model coroner, that—to enquire whether a corpse was dead, but omit to ask how the man came to die! Well, says Uncle T., there are a great many new things, but we must live and learn.]

☞ The father of the late Col. Shaw has written to Gen. Gilmore, desiring that no attempt be made to remove his son's body, nor to disturb the remains of his comrades buried with him. It may be remembered that he fell in the attempt to storm Fort Wagner, and that the indignant rebels wreaked their vengeance on his corpse, by piling twenty-five dead negroes of his own regiment on the lifeless remains of their colonel. His father is conscious of no degradation thereby, but considers him and them martyrs in the common cause of liberty, law and right; and is willing their bodies should "lie moulding in the grave" together, while "their souls are marching on" in immortality. A monument is to be raised on the spot, by subscription, to which negroes near there have already contributed $1300.

☞ The Lowell fire department had their annual muster on Tuesday, when the ten different engines played for the trumpet. It was awarded to Tiger company No. 5, which throw a horizontal stream 170 feet 3 inches, and perpendicular 187 feet 2 inches. Each company played through 400 feet of hose, with 38 men.

☞ Rev. Mr. Spalding, of Newburyport, has resumed his pastoral labors in the Whitefield Church;—and Rev. Mr. Spalding, of Salem, has resumed his pastoral labors in the Universalist church.

☞ A firm in Essex, Mass., are building a hen'ery which will occupy six acres of ground. They intend to furnish fowls for the New York markets.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Captains Emmons and Handerson, of the 3d N. H. regiment, have resigned.

—— G. W. Ela, of Concord, lost $4000 by a fire in the Essex Co.'s lumber yard, Lawrence, Mass., a few nights since.—There was a small insurance on it.

—— By the recent robbery of the Souhegan Bank at Milford two widow ladies lost several hundred dollars,—one all she had.

——"One of the most distinguishing geologists of New England" says that the lead mines at Newport, are very valuable, and immediate steps will be taken to work them.

—— Parties who visited the White Mountains Sept. 23d were caught in a severe snow-storm, and detained over night. One young lady suffered so severely that she was insensible over four hours.

—— Young, who a year ago killed Ralph Bishop at Woodville, was arraigned for trial at Haverhill last week, pleaded guilty of homicide, and was sentenced to the State Prison for twenty-five years. He is now fifty-two years of age.

—— The Statesman mentions the following recent promotions:—

Adjt. Geo. H. Chandler, of Concord, 9th Regiment, to be Major, in place of G. W. Everett, deceased. Capt. Edward T. Rowell, 5d regt. Sharpshooters, to be Major in same regt. Lieut. Samuel F. Murray, Co. F, 2d regt. Sharpshooters, to be Captain of same company. Sergt. Edwin F. Chadwick to be 1st Lieutenant of same company.

☞ The following paragraphs are from Richmond papers:—

Charles Halleck, son of the editor of the New York Journal of Commerce, who arrived in Augusta, Ga., some months since, as a "refugee," and obtained a situation on a newspaper there, deserted to the enemy last week.

We had the pleasure of receiving a call yesterday from the Messrs. Richardson, (father and son) and Mr. Joyce, the proprietors of the Baltimore Republican, which paper has been suppressed, and the editors and proprietors expelled from their homes and families, not only in violation of law, but in the most barbarous manner. We commend these gentlemen, exiles for principle, to the courtesy and hospitality of our people.

Many things are said in these days about the liberty of the press. Let us remind the intelligent reader, that in the days of the Revolution, from 1776 to 1783, no tory paper was suffered to talk toryish anywhere but within the lines of the British army: there they did; and the editors mostly went away in English ships when the war was over.

On the other hand, no revolutionary papers were allowed to live where English or tories bore rule,—but were promptly suppressed.

FRENCH SUPERSTITION.—A Strasbourg journal recently related that three men who were ringing church bells during a storm were killed by the lightning. It was not that the storm chanced to coincide with the hour of summons to mass, or of some festive celebration—the bell-ringing was intended to keep off the thunderbolts and prevent the ravages of the tempest. It appears that in the formula for the benediction of bells, as performed in the Romish Church, it is declared that their sound has that power.—Hence the inscription not unfrequently found on old bells, "Vivos voco, mortuos plango, fulgura frango." It is to be regretted that in many parts of France superstitions of this kind are rather fostered than discouraged by the priests, and that masses and pilgrimages and neuvaines are often preferred by the ignorant peasantry in cases of illness to the more efficacious succor of the doctor.

WESTERN COTTON.—The Boston Commercial Bulletin says:—

"The culture of cotton in this country is an impossibility in the region north of Tennessee, and it is yearly becoming more precarious even there. The meagre "stand" of the staple, that was barely attained in the "Egypt" of Illinois, has been cut down by the frost. The Central Railroad in that State distributed immense quantities of seed, and procured the planting of hundreds of acres. So sure were the corporation of success that it issued emblazoned maps upon which were gorgeously pictured to the settlers of their lands, but King Frost dethroned King Cotton and silenced him forever along the line of the Illinois Central Railroad."

The trade of the United States with foreign countries shows well for us. The imports this year are far less than was anticipated, and the exports increased from the previous year $26,473,524. The decrease of specie exports from New York was about twelve millions; but we must recollect as an offset to this that fifteen millions were sent direct from California to England. For the year to come specie must go abroad to make up for the breadstuffs, which will not be needed on account of the bounteous harvests in Europe and this will keep up the value of gold, whatever may be the military situation of the country.—Newburyport Herald.

Later accounts from England speak of unfavorable harvests there, making it probable that the United States will export some grain to Europe after all.

☞ A farmer in Tiverton lost a field of potatoes—about twelve bushels—last Saturday. They were dug and carried off during the night.

It is reported that Gens. Crittenden and McCook are to be called to an account for behavior at Chattanooga. We may doubt this, unless they ask for an investigation.—They are among the best officers of the Southwestern armies, and Gen. Rosecrans after the movement at Tullahoma, officially commended them both for their valor and vigorous support in that advance.—Newburyport Herald.

☞ The New York Book-Trade Sale was concluded on Wednesday evening. The sales have been brisk and the prices liberal from the beginning to the end of the sale. About $400,000 worth of books have been disposed of, and not less than one million of volumes have changed hands.

☞ Charles H. Carleton was found dead in a wood-shed in the rear of a groggery, on Liberty street, in Biddeford, on Sunday last. The Biddeford Journal considers it a rum murder. Carleton, two years ago, was a young man of good habits and prospects, but rum has been his ruin.

☞ Timbromanie is the name given to the mania for the collection of postage stamps.

Leverton's Lightning Hair Dye.

The subscriber having succeeded in obtaining an article of Hair Dye, and believing it to be far superior in many respects to any article yet produced for dyeing the hair and whiskers, now places it before the public. Its merits, above all other preparations of the kind, are:
1. Its ease of application; being applied with as much facility as by merely brushing the hair or whiskers.
2. The rapidity of its action. Being, as its name indicates, instantaneous, it will color in one minute.
3. It entirely precludes the ordinary tedious and laborious process of washing, fanning, drying, &c.
4. It does not stain the skin, as all other dyes do, but can be removed as easily as water.
5. It will not crock or smut.
6. It does not change its color from its first application, except to a more beautiful and durable black, leaver assuming that dull or greenish hue so common with most dyes.
7. It is the "Ne Plus Ultra" and "Tip-Top," No. 1 article of all combinations called Hair Dyes.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introduction of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent taking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHIAL COMPLAINTS, and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

STABBING CASE.—Edw. Russell, a member of the Invalid Corps, was stabbed in the left side with a jack knife early on Saturday evening last, near South Mill bridge, by a contraband named Edward Johnson. Johnson states that he has recently been subject to much annoyance and insult from some members of the corps; that on Tuesday evening last he was pushed and, jostled about by some of them, although he had molested them in no manner, but was quietly walking through the streets; and that he was finally struck over the head with a bayonet, receiving a painful wound from which blood flowed freely. On Saturday evening, having completed his day's work, he was proceeding to his home, when he was assaulted by Russell near the bridge, the latter without provocation throwing stones, and then forcibly preventing his returning to the business portion of the city for safety. Johnson says that finding the man was persistent in insulting and abusing him, he drew his knife and stabbed him, as above stated. Some of the Corps took Johnson to the Camp, whence Col. Wardwell sent him under guard to Jefferson Hall. Col. Wardwell subsequently handed him over to the custody of the City Marshal, and he was placed in the Station house. During his confinement in Jefferson Hall he was again assaulted with a broom by some soldiers, and otherwise maltreated.

This is Johnson's own account of the affair, and we are assured by those who claim to have had good opportunities to ascertain the facts regarding him, that Johnson has since his arrival in this city manifested a disposition to attend quietly to his own business, molesting no one. In giving us his account of the affair he earnestly protested that he had given no one cause for complaint. He came here a year since in the schooner Batavia, from Georgetown, and has since his arrival here been at work teaming for Mr. John Oxford.

The soldier's statement differs very much from the above. He states that the difficulty on Tuesday evening was occasioned by Johnson's violently pushing his way between some ladies on the sidewalk, he (Russell) with his companions who were walking in front of Johnson having just stepped off the pavement to allow them to pass. They rebuked him sharply, and from hard words they came to blows. On Saturday evening, Russell, who had been drinking, was walking down to camp with some boys, as he states, when Johnson ran against him, and he with some excitement told him to keep off. Johnson replied in insulting terms, and he then threw a stone at him, but did not hit him. One of his companions remonstrated with him, and he then walked up to Johnson and apologized, stating that he did not wish to hurt him or molest him.—But Johnson refused to hear him, and repeated his insulting remarks. Russell thereupon again attacked him with a stone, which he had held in his hand, and Johnson stabbed him.

The wound was quite severe, being three inches or more in length, and spreading open to a width of two or three inches. It penetrated very nearly to the intestines and very narrowly escaped being fatal. Russell was unarmed except with the stone, and Johnson appears to have acted at least very hastily under the malign influence of irritation. The recent acquisition of his freedom may have caused him to disregard somewhat those habits of self-control which would have influenced a man reared in a better condition in life. It apparently would not have been a difficult task for him to knock the soldier down.

Col. Wardwell's presence and authority alone saved Johnson from the most summary treatment at the camp. He exerted himself to protect him; sent him, under a guard of selected soldiers, to the hall; and as soon as he had at ended to the necessities of the wounded man, rode up and delivered Johnson into the hands of the civil authorities. It may be that bad the discipline at the camp, which has been at times severely commented upon in certain quarters, been less strict, even the Colonel's authority would have been unavailing, and Johnson have received that severe treatment which was threatened and he so narrowly escaped.

ANOTHER STABBING CASE.—Sylvanus Cahoon, of Harwich, Mass., a sailor on board fishing schooner Fairview, came to the City Marshal's office on Sunday noon stating that he had been stabbed on board fishing schooner Orela, by Joshua Weekson, captain of that vessel. He stated that Weekson invited him down to dinner, and that both had been drinking. On reaching the cabin, Weekson had a knife in his hand, and after swinging it around a moment or two struck Cahoon in the right breast, the knife passing through his shirt and inflicting a flesh wound about an inch in length. Cahoon then left the schooner, but Weekson followed to the wharf, seized him by the coat collar and threw him down two or three times. Cahoon says there had been no quarrel or angry words between them; and the assault upon him by a man who had just invited him to dinner, was as unexpected as it was undesired.

☞ We regret to learn that Mr. I. P. Miller, of this city, (our former correspondent from Australia,) has been for several months lying in the hospital at Port Chalmers, Otago, New Zealand, with a dangerous gunshot wound in the hip. He writes as follows: "We have got a little war of our own, here in New Zealand—between the whites and Maories. The British troops stormed a 'pah' (Maoric fortification) a few days since, and the papers here are in ecstacies over the victory. One thing they note particularly is, that though about seventy-five of the natives were in the pah, not one was taken prisoner; which circumstance is noted as proving the daring and hard fighting of the troops—nothing being said about 'humanity.' The same papers that boast of the massacre of seventy-five half-armed natives by five hundred soldiers, are loud in denouncing the 'merciless tyranny' of the 'blood-thirsty Federals,' who are supposed to be rank cowards."

ASSAULT.—As Mr. Chas. Stimson, Master Carpenter at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, was returning from dinner at Kittery Foreside, on Saturday noon, he was accosted by a man named Solomon Downs of this city, who asked for employment on the Yard.—Being refused, Downs made a violent assault on Mr. Stimson with a stone, striking him with it over the eye, and inflicting a severe wound. Some workmen at the Yard, who happened to be near by, interfered and assisted in preventing further outrage.

☞ We find the following item, relative to one of our young townsmen, in the column of "Communications" in the Boston Trumpet:

A WORTHY EXAMPLE.—Among the many who are kept by trivial causes from the house of worship, we find occasionally an example of fidelity that is cheering and encouraging. I know of one such, which is worthy of being reported to our fraternity. I have a young parishioner who owns and superintends the leading hotel in this city. Persons engaged in this avocation usually think they can hardly go to church at all. He has scarcely been absent from a regular public service since he became a resident of the city. And yet he never neglects his guests, as any one will testify who has frequented his house—the "Rockingham." May not every young man engaging in business—may not every man, indeed, advance his own material and moral interests, and benefit the world, by imitating his example?

☞ We were pleased to receive a visit from our friends of the Concord Statesman, last week, who were drawn to this city by the draft for Belknap and Carroll counties, and found, as they state, the number present at the Provost Marshal's office while the draft was being made, to be "about as large as at a village caucus to choose delegates to a county or senatorial convention." They ascertained at the office that "the entire product of the First Military District of New Hampshire will be about one regiment of troops and $30,000 commutation money!"—a statement which although somewhat ambiguous, may be regarded as sufficiently explicit to satisfy those not too captious. One of the editors says:—"Portsmouth presents a more active appearance than at any other time we were ever there."

☞ Paymaster John V. B. Bleecker has been detached from this naval station and detailed for duty as Fleet Paymaster of the Eastern Gulf Squadron.

☞ The "Governor Langdon," Engine No. 3, of this city, has been removed to the new Hook and Ladder House on Court street. It has heretofore been kept at the engine house fronting on Court street,—rear of State street school house.

FALSE GUIDES.—Messrs. Editors:—We have for years noticed the guide boards at the corner of Vaughan street, on Creek road, and at a corner of roads as you go out to Greenland, pointing and giving directions and distance to Piscataqua bridge. Now as it is nearly a dozen years since such a bridge was in existence, is it not the duty of somebody to have the boards in question removed, as it is possible that strangers might be led by them far out of their way? And if so, would not they not have a fair claim for damages?

WAYFARER.

POLICE COURT, Saturday Oct. 3, before Justice Odell.—Wm. Rendon, for drunkenness, fined $1: costs $3.86. Michael Haley, for assault on Archie Scott, a black man, fined $5: costs $3.86.

APPOINTMENT.—We learn that E. B. West, Esq., of Nashua, a well known member of the Hillsborough County bar, has received the appointment of Clerk in the office of the Inspector of Clothing and Provisions, at Portsmouth. We congratulate Brother West on his appointment.—Nashua Telegraph.

☞ A Portland dispatch states the Penjepscot Bank was broken into on Friday night and the vault blown open, but the steel safe and valuables were untouched.—There is a bank of that name in Brunswick, Me., which may be the one referred to.

At the present high prices of fuel it is very desirable to lessen its consumption. This can be best accomplished by using a MODEL COOK STOVE. More cooking can be done in one with a single ton of coal, or cord of wood, that with double the quantity in any common stove or range—and in less time also.
We refer to some parties who have purchased the Model Cook—

AUTUMN.

O golden autumn morn! thy balmy breath
Comes freighted from the fields of ripened grain.
Lend, lend sweets to steal away my pain,
With whispered anthems for the summer's death.

There is a breathless stillness all around;
A rare and wondrous silence, such as waits
Some new-born angel by those pearly gates,
Where streets of gold and bowers of bliss are found.

The great waves of the grand old ocean swell,
With a hushed murmur, softly against the shore;
And in my heart a peace unknown before
Thrills me with joy, whose depths I may not tell,

The light wind plays along the waving fields,
And the tall grasses bend to meet it there;
And I am happy! far-gone all my care—
My soul to heaven its grateful homage yields.
—Knickerbocker.

"WHAT'S IN A NAME?"—Caleb Lombard has obtained a verdict for $800 against the Selectmen of the town of Wellfleet, Mass., for striking his name from the voting list in that town in 1859, and refusing to receive his vote, on the ground that he had changed his residence from Wellfleet to Boston.

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR
Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emery Eldes, a well-known merchant of Cincinnati, Ohio.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As far as my testimony is worth anything, there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol, England.

"I only do my duty to the public when I send you my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an eruption on her face, over her eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Dunnsville, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which became very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gough, Esq., Secretary of the widely known Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in face, which grew worse and worse until it disfigured my features and became in intolerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could do with advice and medicine, but found no relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time, but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptom of the humor that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purity the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Sands, Hampton St., New York.

"DR. AYER, I seldom fail to remove Erysipelas and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people."

From A. E. Johnston, Esq., of Mobile, Ala.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians in South Carolina, and a hundreds of dollars worth of medicine. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as any lady. Believe it is public duty to make known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Doylestown Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead, which they rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skillful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands to prevent them be shooed tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began to use your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any child. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

From Dr. Hiram Stoll, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your SARSAPARILLA a more effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms than any I have used for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The processes are indeed to you for some of the best general purposes we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"During the last few years, I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and effectual in some cases that resisted the action of iodide of other compounds. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a power ful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Liew, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, or mercurial disease, which grew more and more inveterate, defying the skill of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the persevering use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA relieved him. It cured his legs, healed the inveterate and threatening ulcers, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Ulceration, and are speedily cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, the aid of the SARSAPARILLA, the skillful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Jacob Morrill, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhœa, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhœa of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia,

when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by the EXT. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

THE BEST COOK STOVE
IN THE MARKET,
AFTER ALL SAID,
—IS—
STEWART'S
NEW, LARGE OVEN, AIR TIGHT,
SUMMER AND WINTER
COOKING STOVE,
For Wood or Coal,
IMPROVED IN 1859.

The peculiarities of the
STEWART COOK STOVE,
Embracing the Latest Improvements, briefly stated, are:

1. It is what it purports to be—AN AIR TIGHT COOKING STOVE. That is, when the draft is properly adjusted, wood will lie and smoulder and char, upon the grate, after the manner of a coal pit. Or, if the fire be of Anthracite Coal, by simply closing the draft, it will be effectually put out.

2. Combined with this, are the peculiar position of the fire-chamber, the general internal structure, and the outward movable covering, by which means the heat of the stove may be confined within or thrown off to warm the apartment, thus relieving females of the discomfort usually attendant upon carrying on cooking operations in summer, and securing the qualities of the brick oven so fully that the baking process may be carried through successfully without any one going near the stove from the time the article is set in until it is removed from the oven.

3. The stove is accommodated to the reception of a permanent Reservoir (of copper, with a tin casing) containing from 10 to 20 gallons, by which the waste heat, in passing off, is made available to keep on hand a constant supply of hot water. The space beneath the reservoir is occupied with a TIN CLOSET, where articles ready for the table are placed to keep warm, bread set to rise, fruit dried, &c.

4. Also, by the aid of the TOP COVER, a coal fire may be kept up through the night, and breakfast and dinner prepared the next day with no addition of fuel.

5. Roasting is performed in the most perfect manner in front of the stove, with a DUTCH OVEN prepared for the purpose—the heat being communicated to it from both sides of the fire-box; and the fumes, meanwhile, passing into the draft.

6. A NOVEL PLAN OF VENTILATION is adopted, by which two kinds of meat may be roasted in the oven at the same time, without imparting the peculiar flavor of one to the other; and the current instituted for this purpose made subservient to augment the heat upon the bottom of the oven, with no increase of combustion.

7. By the aid of the perforated metallic linings, or "gas burning arrangement," and application of the full summer draw, the various culinary processes may be carried forward successfully with a single stick of wood at a time.

8. In regard to DURABILITY, the Stewart Stove is made to last, and will last. The structural forms is such that the frame work of it can not burn out.

All the plates constituting the original STEWART STOVE, which was brought out twenty years ago, are still made, and sent to different parts of the country, on call.

The price of QUIETNESS, COMFORT and HEALTH secured to a family by the use of a culinary apparatus perfectly adapted to their wants, cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents.

But we can not, and need not, enumerate in detail, the excellencies of the STEWART STOVE. It is no experiment, or new fangled notion got up to gull the public, to which we invite your attention; but

THE STANDARD COOK STOVE

Now in use, which has been widely tested
FOR TWENTY YEARS,

and now found wanting in any particular. Yes, the Stewart Stove has been manufactured and used for a score of years; but the inventor has kept pace with the times, and repeatedly made improvements—so that the Stewart Stove of 1862 is as superior to that of 1841, as the Mowing Machine is to a Bush Scythe.

IT HAS NOT BEEN EXCELLED

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the rooms, and the inconvenience of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any stove. Hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We would refer to the following purchasers:

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, mild and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from an amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, others have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites these gases, and thus saves the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the oven can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over any other Furnace.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq., Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum, Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. It from two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the porations of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a tumed, as when finished the work prevents one whole piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,
Has had four years of practical experience in working this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.
No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Aug. 1st, 1863.
DR. GOODALL
Would respectfully announce to his patrons and the public that VULCANIZED RUBBER, as a base for Artificial Teeth, promises all the advantages of Gold, yet costs only half as much. My experience has been highly satisfactory in its use, and I have no hesitation in WARRANTING PERFECT SATISFACTION in all cases.
Teeth inserted on Gold and Silver, and all other operations performed as usual.
I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. HAYWARD, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.
☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,
A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.
This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by Dr. WM. GRACE surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.
And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.
It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, live just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every item fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of party, generally. It is a spirit that let no encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

A HUSBAND AND WIFE POISON THEMSELVES BY AGREEMENT.—A man and his wife in the English village of Fillingley, near Coventry, recently poisoned themselves by agreement. Their names were Dalby, the husband being a laborer. An explanatory letter found after their death, had the following:

Dear friends, I take the pleasure of writing to satisfy you all as to the death of my wife, so that you need not be at any trouble to cut me all to pieces. The bottle at my side with the label on, with Prussic acid, is what put us both to death. You need not blame my friends, for they know nothing at all about it. It was not me that poisoned my wife, for she did it herself with her own good will, and I promised her I would follow her that day week when I had seen her buried all comfortable. We was too lovin' to live together in this world, so we wished to meet again on the throne of God to part no more. So farewell, all dear friends; farewell till we meet again on the throne of God. This is H. W. Dalby's own hand writing to satisfy them all round.—H. W. DALBY, no more.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with some aid that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D.. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual to; business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self distrust, love of solitude, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will find a home with private apartments, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important!

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all disease incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles; and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.
Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!

DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in communication with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World,) of obtaining the safest as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, and of imparting to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Blotches, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and he has performed more than 20,000 cures annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their health and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend in a gentleman of extensive and well-established business, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoices in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr TELLER's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—200 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner, a complete work on Midwifery, it contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr. TELLER has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

Dr. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Nichol's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

Caution—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 2 to 5 P. M.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

On Sunday, Sept. 13th, our gunboats destroyed a rebel Fort, at Grant's Pass, near Mobile, dismounting every gun in it. A rebel iron-clad and transport steamer ran away.

Sept. 18th the main body of Gen. Banks' command were encamped near Berwick City, but would soon advance. The rebels are reported to be concentrating all their available forces at Alexandria for a last desperate resistance.

The rebel plot to burn all the steamboats on the lower Mississippi and Ohio rivers, is again mentioned; and it is said that the rebel government gives the incendiaries 60 per cent. on the value of the property destroyed. The Roth is supposed to have been a victim to this scheme.

Advices from Little Rock state that over 2000 Arkansas Unionists have joined our army at different points. Two newspapers have been revived at Little Rock.

One Monitor keeps Fort Moultrie quiet.

The N. Y. Times' Washington dispatch says Gen. Lee is intrenching his position by throwing up works at all of the fords of the Rapidan, at Racoon, Somerville and Robinson fords. Rifle pits are carefully constructed. Epaulements command the approaches.

☞ The gunboat Tioga took into Key West 27th ult., rebel steamer Herald, with 250 bales of cotton, and agents of a new rebel company with a capital of two millions for blockade running on board. The Herald was the first vessel of the new company.

TROUBLE AHEAD IN PARIS.—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, writing from abroad, says:

"It is well known here that many of the most intelligent men in Paris anticipate an outbreak in that capital before next spring. The other day a lady who had a considerable sum of money in hand, which she had for some time meant to invest in real estate, found a house and lot which suited her, and sent for a lawyer, who is one of the most eminent in Paris. When this lawyer came he earnestly advised the lady not to make any such investment, but to keep her money in such a form that she could control it at any moment, declaring that he knew enough of the future to be certain that she would thank him for his advice before many months."

SCENE IN A STREET CAR.—The following incident is vouched for by a correspondent of the Christian Register: A daughter of Massachusetts, living in New York, was riding in a crowded street car. An intelligent young soldier, suffering from lameness, was standing. This lady kindly offered him her seat, which he politely declined; whereupon a city dame, occupying the next place, gathered up her robes, and scornfully said she thought things had come to a pretty pass, when a New York lady offered her seat to a man, especially to a soldier. "Shame upon you, madam," rejoined our humane friend, "have you no dear ones in the army? "No," was the reply; "my husband should not go." "Indeed!" was the patriotic answer, "I had rather be a soldier's widow than a coward's wife!" An outburst of applause greeted the speaker. There was a happy finale to the incident. The lame soldier soon obtained the very next seat to the unfeeling woman who had so insulted him. "Glory to the woman who shows such spirit," adds the writer.

THE REPORTED NEW DRAFT.—We are enabled upon the best authority to say that no draft for 600,000 men, as reported by the Evening Post, nor any further draft other than the one last ordered and now in progress, is contemplated by Government. The original statement is regarded in high quarters as a malicious invention, calculated to assist the enemies of the Union in the pending political campaign.—Washington Corr. N. Y. Tribune.

THE FOREIGN QUESTION.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Commercial remarks:—

There is a very hopeful and confident tone prevailing in Washington over the foreign news, so highly favorable, not only from England, but from France. I hear to-day that the State Department is well satisfied that the noise proceeding from so many sources, to the effect that France, in following out its Mexican policy, was about to recognize the Southern Confederacy, originated entirely among the secession agents in Paris, who have palmed it off on the London sympathizing journals, as well as on many who were good friends of the Union,—and that it really had no foundation in imperial circles. With the foreign crisis fairly passed, the rebellion's last hope has gone.

☞ Turks Island papers of the 12th September contain accounts of several engagements between Spaniards and Dominicans on the Island of St. Domingo, which have resulted in the defeat of the Spaniards with severe loss. On the 20th the rebellion still continued and was increasing.

Accounts to the 21st report that the Dominicans had driven the Spaniards from their outposts, and that the garrison of the city of St. Domingo had capitulated and left for Havana or St. Jago de Cuba.

☞ Hon. Edward Everett has been invited to deliver the address dedicatory of the Cemetery at Gettysburg, to take place some day during the present month.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Caroline A. Stevens has been awarded damages to the amount of $955 75 for injuries sustained by her in falling on a slippery and ridgy sidewalk last February. The city of Nashua will have to foot the bill.

—— Lieut. Col. Wm. M. Barrett of the 8th regiment left Nashua on Wednesday to join his regiment. The 8th formed a part of Gen. Franklin's unsuccessful expedition, but returned to New Orleans where it was on the 12th of Sept. It is probable that it forms a part of the forces now marching towards Texas.

—— Lieut. W. F. Goodwin, 16th Infantry, was badly wounded in the right thigh on the 19th of Sept., in the battle of the Chickamanga, Ga. He was immediately taken to Nashville, Tenn., where he now is. He is thought to be out of danger.—Lieut. Goodwin is a native of York county, Maine, but was appointed to the army from Concord. He is the only brother of the Washington correspondent of the New Hampshire Statesman.

—— The managers of the Merrimac River Agricultural Society are making great preparations for their fair at Nashua on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Among the speakers announced from abroad are Ex-Gov. Boutwell and Dr. Geo. B. Loring, one of the most scientific farmers in New England and an excellent speaker. From our own State Ex-President Pierce, Gov. Gilmore, Ex-Govs. Colby and Goodwin, Judge Nesmith, Hon. Frederick Smyth, and some others.

☞ The Springfield Republican says Hiram A. Bagg, of South Hadley, has three acres of corn which are thought to be the best in the Connecticut Valley. It is an early kind, being now ready to husk, and the ears and kernels are very large, while the yield is upwards of 100 bushels to the acre.

☞ A train of twenty army wagons, laden with ammunition, were blown up one after the other near Bridgeport, Tenn, on Saturday night. Two negroes quarreled, one of whom seized a shell, which he accidentally let fall among the ammunition, causing it to explode, and setting fire to the other ammunition. Nine or ten persons were killed and double that number wounded. The fire finally reached the magazine, exploding it and destroying a vast quantity of ammunition. This statement is given on the authority of a despatch to the Nashville Press.

☞ It appears from the Portland Press that the Bath Evening Courier—a dirty sheet of the Copperhead species, has been suspended for the present, and perhaps for the future—that it has been ejected from the premises and refused admission to the houses of respectable democrats,—and that a short time since many of the Bath people were for cleaning it out—a la Bangor Union, but better counsels prevailed, and the thing wilted.

☞ The British steamer Sir William Pitt has been captured with a large cargo of cotton, at the mouth of the Rio Grande. She had landed her cargo of arms, &c., in Mexican waters, and taken her cotton on board when she was ordered out of Mexican waters by the French.

On coming into American waters she was promptly seized by Commander Henry Rolando of the steam sloop Seminole.

BOOK OF DAYS, Part 17.—We have this number of this valuable work from Messrs. J. P. Lippincott & Co., Publishers Philadelphia. The record of the Days is brought down nearly to the close of August. It is a most delightful work, and, when completed, will give in a convenient form a vast amount of interesting items concerning popular superstitions, traditions, &c. For sale by J. F. Shores, Jr.

Mr. John G. Adams, second comedian at the Howard Atheneum, died on Saturday, at his residence on Leverett street, where he leaves a widow in the last stages of consumption, and also a young child. Deceased was a son of the late Capt. Samuel G. Adams, and a worthy and respectable young man. He was thirty-three years of age, and died of congestion of the brain.—Boston Journal.

☞ An Ohio journal mentions as among the prominent supporters of Vallandigham for Governor, the London Times, Gov. Seymour, Jefferson Davis, Washington Hunt, General Bragg, the Boston Courier, the Richmond Enquirer, Fernando Wood and the Charleston Mercury.

A CAR INCIDENT.—A fashionably dressed lady entered a car on the Hudson River Railroad a few evenings since, and after she had stood for some minutes a young gentleman rose and gave her his seat. She made no acknowledgment of this act of courtesy. The cars stopped at an upper station on the river, and the lady was about to leave the car, when a quaint old Dutch gentleman called to her, "Madam, you have forgotton something." "What, sir?" said the lady. "Why, you forgot to thank the young man for his seat." The lady walked out, and the young man resumed his sitting.

A NATIONAL THANKSGIVING.

By the President of the United States.
A PROCLAMATION.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The year that is drawing toward its close has been filled with the blessings of fruitful fields and healthful skies. To these bounties, which are so constantly enjoyed that we are prone to forget the source from which they come, others have been added, which are of so extraordinary a nature that they cannot fail to penetrate and soften even the heart which is habitually insensible to the ever watchful Providence of Almighty God. In the midst of a civil war of unequaled magnitude and severity, which has sometimes seemed to invite and provoke the aggression of foreign states, peace has been preserved with all nations, order has been maintained, the laws have been respected and obeyed, and harmony has prevailed everywhere, except in the theatre of military conflict, while that theatre has been greatly contracted by the advancing armies and navies of the Union. The needful diversion of wealth and strength from the fields of peaceful industry to the National defense has not arrested the plow, the shuttle, or the ship. The ax has enlarged the borders of our settlements, and the mines, as well of iron and coal as of the precious metals, have yielded even more abundantly than heretofore.

Population has steadily increased, notwithstanding the waste that has been made by the camp, the siege and the battle-field, and the country, rejoicing in the consciousness of augmented strength and vigor, is permitted to expect continuance of years with large increase of freedom.

No human council hath devised, nor hath any mortal hand worked out these things. They are the gracious gifts of the most high God, who, while dealing with us in anger for our sins, hath nevertheless remembered mercy. It has seemed to me fit and proper that they should be solemnly, reverentially and gratefully acknowledged, as with one heart and voice, by the whole American people.

I do therefore invite my fellow-citizens in every part of the United States, and also those who are at sea and those who are sojourning in foreign lands, to set apart the LAST THURSDAY OF NOVEMBER next, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer to our beneficent Father, who dwelleth in the Heavens, and I recommend too that while offering up ascriptions justly due to Him for such singular deliverances and blessings, they do also, with humble penitence for our national perverseness and disobedience, commend to His tender care all those who have become widows, orphans, mourners or sufferers in the lamentable civil strife in which we are unavoidably engaged, and fervently implore the interposition of the Almighty hand to heal the wounds of the nation, and to restore it, as soon as may be consistent with Divine purposes, to the full enjoyment of peace, harmony, tranquility and union. ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

TWO VIEWS.—The Boston Post says:—

The pressure from the War Department was too strong for the McClellan testimonial, and it has been abandoned. Gen. Meade subscribed liberally.

The Boston Courier takes another view, and is glad it is given up, probably at the suggestion of the General himself, as soon as he heard of it. The Courier supposes the move might be made by injudicious friends, but deems it more probable that it was made by some one who wished to make political capital against the General.

The reader may take either view, as he deems most probable. The proceeding itself was unmilitary and injudicious. The income of a Major General, between $400 and $500 per month, would surely support the family, who live in an elegant gift house: and the General is therefore better able to make a present to the soldiers than they are to give dimes to him. If anybody is to give him a fortune, let it be his wealthy political friends.

The Tribune makes the same statement with the Post, that "the pressure from the war department was too strong" against it; and the McClellan donation committee say they abandoned it because it was considered contrary to army regulations. If Gen. McC. himself had disapproved it, he would thereby have showed good sense; and the committee, we think, would not fail to mention it. The Traveller's Review of the Week says he had nothing to do with it but to stop it. The Tribune states that it was distasteful to the army: i. e., we suppose, to a portion of it. On the whole, if Gen. McC., the War Department, the Tribune and the Boston Courier, all agree in denouncing it as unwise and inexpedient, we may as well consider it a settled point.

It now turns out that the Baltimore Gazette was shut up for publishing two editions, one for home circulation, without editorials, and one for circulation in the South, with the most traitorous editorials, which were reproduced in the Richmond papers. Only one of the editors has as yet been arrested, the principal one having escaped through the blunder of the arresting officer, who went to the American office by mistake. Copies of the Southern editions were intercepted.—Exchange.

Over this arrest a great howl has been made, and a false statement given as to the reason for it.

☞ A New York chemist has a piece of charcoal which he has used for thirty years in annealing gold under the blow-pipe. Although it has been on fire at least once a day during all that time, the cavity burned in it is not more than an inch in depth. The wood from which this charcoal came was the common pine.

The Manchester American agrees to believe the above from courtesy, but it couldn't consent to credit two more just like it.

HON. CALEB CUSHING, it is said, declines to represent Newburyport this year in the legislature of Massachusetts, partly on the ground that his large law practice calls for all his time, and partly because he cannot render his district any particular service in the legislature.

☞ The sum of $100,000 has been raised for an endowment of Rutger's College at New Brunswick, N. J.,—the Reformed Dutch College—with which this ancient institution will be placed on a solid pecuniary basis. Princeton College is following in the same path, and her subscription of $100,000 is nearly full.

A NOBLE SENTIMENT.—A Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Independent says that in a private note written in the hurry of official business by Secretary Chase to Mr. Stanton, the following noble sentiment occurs:

We cannot afford to wrong any class of our people. One poor man, colored though he be, with God on his side, is stronger, if against us, than the hosts of the rebellion.

☞ Miss Mary L. Cole, a young lady about 20 years of age, committed suicide by drowning, in Portland on Sunday morning, while in a state of aberration of mind.

☞ A commission coal dealer on State street, Boston, failed on Saturday with liabilities estimated at about $200,000.

☞ The Vanderbilt and two other steamers sailed from Rio Janeiro August 22, on a cruise.

☞ The National Intelligencer suggests a separate car on railways for tobacco chewers as well as smokers.

☞ The Salisbury Mills declare a semi-annual dividend of 7 1-2 per cent., which makes 15 per cent. for the year.

Leverton's Lightning Hair Dye.

The subscriber having succeeded in obtaining an article of Hair Dye, and believing it to be far superior in many respects to any article yet produced for dyeing the hair and whiskers, now places it before the public. Its merits, above all other preparations of the kind, are:

1. Its ease of application; being applied with as much facility as by merely brushing the hair or whiskers.
2. The rapidity of its action. Being, as its name indicates, instantaneous, it will color in one minute.
3. It entirely precludes the ordinary tedious and laborious process of washing, fanning, drying, &c.
4. It does not stain the skin, as all other dyes do, but can be removed as easily as water.
5. It will not crock or rub off.
6. It does not change its color from its first application, except to a more beautiful and durable black, never assuming that dull or greenish hue so common with most dyes.
7. It is the "Ne Plus Ultra" and "Tip-Top," No. 1 article of all combinations called Hair Dyes.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would only confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

JOHN S. GODFREY,
Capt. and Provost Marshal 1st Cong. Dist. N. H.

CAMP FRY.—An order was read at dress parade on Sunday evening, in which Col. Wardwell very properly placed restrictions upon the unlimited visiting the camp which has hitherto prevailed. This order compels all persons wishing to visit the Camp or Hospital to provide themselves with tickets, which will be furnished freely to all respectable parties. The object of this is to prevent the presence of a certain class, who are a disgrace to the city and to humanity, and who find in the unthinking and generous soldiers their easiest victims. The order has for this reason become necessary as a sanitary measure, and Col. Wardwell asks the assistance of his friends in carrying out this plan, and thus clearing the camp of those, whose presence is an insult to the many benevolent and respectable ladies who come there on errands of mercy.—We are requested by the Surgeon of the Corps to express his gratitude, and that of his patients, to those "Sisters of Charity" who have, by their kindness, furnished the Hospital with many comforts and luxuries, otherwise unattainable, but which are almost necessary to the sick, and he begs that their visits may be continued, as they thus render the soldiers more contented with their lot, and exercise that humanizing influence which woman alone can exert at the bedside of the sick.

The passes to the camp can be obtained on personal application to any of the officers, or at Wm. R. Preston's Drug Store, or at the Chronicle office.

There was a rare specimen of antiquity in the shape of a chair brought in by Rev. Mr. Nichols, which bore the placard: "The first chair brought over from England by John Mason, the first settler of Portsmouth, about the year 1627, a native of Hampshire, Eng., who gave the name to the State. The material of the chair is a species of maple not known in this country. It is now more than 236 years old."

☞ Sunday, Oct. 4, was the first anniversary of the ordination and settlement of Rev. James DeNormandie as Pastor of the Unitarian Church in this city, and services appropriate to the occasion were held in the morning. The text for the morning's discourse was taken from Corinthians II, 3: 8—the Ministration of the Spirit, and the sermon was in part devoted to a brief review of the objects and aims which had guided the pastor in striving to fulfill his obligations to his people during the year which had just closed. Beautiful flowers and wreaths of evergreen had been placed upon the pulpit and the communion table,—a pleasing testimonial of the affection of the people for their pastor, and of that deeper and more fervent feeling of gratitude to Divine Providence for his many beautiful gifts. The relationship between this pastor and people has been of the most cordial and mutually-advantageous character; and this has proved to be one of those happy instances, fortunately not rare, of a faithful and devoted pastor, and a sympathizing and appreciative people.

☞ Rev. Wm. L. Gage, late pastor of the North Church in this city, has been engaged to supply the pulpit of the Phillips Church at Watertown, Mass., for six months.

☞ In the absence of the proprietor of the Chronicle from the city, for a few days, perhaps we can so far abuse his confidence as to state that the Ridgewood Smoking Tobacco, sold by N. P. Thacher and S. A. Avery, is neatly put up, sufficiently strong, and finely flavored,—in short, a tip-top article. As this is the first tobacco puff the reader ever saw in the Chronicle, he is requested to put it (the tobacco) in his pipe and smoke it.

POLICE COURT.—Albert Johnson, for an assault on Edward Russell, a soldier of the Invalid Corps, was held in the sum of $400 for his appearance before the S. J. Court.

Martha Tredick was found guilty of being a common nightwalker, and was sentenced to the House of Correction for three months, at hard labor, and to pay costs of prosecution—$4.

☞ The pirate Alabama has destroyed the ships Express, Capt. Frost, from Callao via Valparaiso April 25 for Antwerp, and the Anna F. Schmidt, Capt. Twombly, from Boston via St. Thomas for San Francisco, both having been burnt off Rio Janeiro. No date or other particulars. The Express was rated A 1, 1073 tons burthen. She was built by Messrs. Fernald & Petigrew of this city, in 1854, and was owned by Hon. Daniel Marcy and others of this city, and S. C. Thwing, Esq., of Boston.—The ship was insured on a war risk in Boston; the New England office has $10,000 on the vessel. Capt Frost has arrived in London.

A Postmaster complains that too much courting goes on in his office. The females give him more trouble than the "mails."

A SALVE FOR EVERY SORE.—When we consider the various diseases to which the skin is subject, it must be an object of importance to have at hand a sure and certain cure for most of them. For recent flesh wounds, obstinate ulcers, troublesome felons, sore breast, ringworm and scald head, and changes of the tender skin of infants, as well as wens and callouses, "Grace's" Universal Salve is a certain and rapid remedy. Every father who goes into the woods should carry a box in his pocket, and every mother of a family should have a 25 cent box in the cupboard. See advertisement in another column.

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world affords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

☞ See yon fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

$100 REWARD!

For a Medicine that will cure
COUGHS, INFLUENZA,
TICKLING IN THE THROAT,
WHOOPING COUGH,
Or relieve CONSUMPTIVE COUGH,
as quick as
COE'S COUGH BALSAM.

OVER FIVE THOUSAND BOTTLES
have been sold in its native town, and not a single instance of its failure is known.

We have, in our possession, any quantity of certificates, some of them from
EMINENT PHYSICIANS,
who have used it in their practice, and given it the pre-eminence over any other compound.

It does not dry up a Cough,
but loosens it, so as to enable the patient to expectorate freely.

☞ Two or three Bottles will invariably cure TICKLING IN THE THROAT.

A HALF Bottle has often completely cured the most
STUBBORN COUGH.

And yet, though it is so sure and speedy in its operation, it is perfectly harmless, being purely vegetable. It is very agreeable to the taste, and may be administered to children of any age.

In cases of CROUP we will guarantee a cure, if taken in season. No Family should be without it. It is within the reach of all, the price being

ONLY 25 CENTS!

And if an investment and thorough trial does not "back up" the above statement, the money will be refunded. We say this, knowing its merits, and feel confident that one trial will secure for it a home in every household.

Do not waste away with Coughing, when so small an investment will cure you. It may be had of any respectable druggist in town, who will furnish you with a circular of genuine certificates of cures it has made.

THE MODEL COOK.
AN AIR-TIGHT STOVE,
WITH TWO OVENS,
And Five Boiling Places!

At the present high prices of fuel it is very desirable to lessen its consumption. This can be best accomplished by using a MODEL COOK STOVE. More cooking can be done in one with a single ton of coal, or cord of wood, that with double the quantity in any common stove or range—and in less time also.

We refer to some parties who have purchased the Model Cook.—

Morning Chronicle.

BARBARA FRIETCHIE.

Up from the meadows rich with corn,
Clear, in the cool September morn,

The clustered spires of Frederick stand
Green-walled by the hills of Maryland.

Round about them orchards sweep,
Apple and peach tree fruited deep,

Fair as a garden of the Lord
To the eyes of the famished rebel horde.

On that pleasant morn of early fall
When Lee marched over the mountain wall—

Over the mountains winding down,
Horse and foot, into Frederick town.

Forty flags with their silver stars,
Forty flags with their crimson bars,

Flapped in the morning wind; the sun
Of noon looked down and saw not one.

Up rose old Barbara Frietchie then,
Bowed with her four score years and ten.

Bravest of all in Frederick town,
She took up the flag the men hauled down;

In her attic-window the staff she set,
To show that one heart was loyal yet.

Up the street came the rebel tread,
Stonewall Jackson riding ahead.

He glanced: the old flag met his sight.

"Halt!"—the dust brown ranks stood fast.
"Fire!"—out blazed the rifle-blast.

It shivered the window, pane and sash;
It rent the banner with seam and gash.

Quick, as it fell, from the broken staff
Dame Barbara snatched the silken scarf;

She leaned far out on the window-sill,
And shook it forth with a royal will.

"Shoot, if you must, this old gray head,
But spare your country's flag," she said

A shade of sadness, a blush of shame,
Over the face of the leader came;

The nobler nature within him stirred
To life at that woman's deed and word:

"Who touches a hair of you gray head
Dies like a dog! March on!" he said.

All day long through Frederick street
Sounded the tread of marching feet;

All day long that free flag tossed
Over the heads of the rebel host.

Ever its torn folds rose and fell
On the loyal winds that loved it well;

And through the hill-gaps sunset light
Shone over it with a warm good night.

Barbara Frietchie's work is o'er,
And the Rebel rides on his raids no more.

Honor to her! and let a tear
Fall, for her sake, on Stonewall's bier.

Over Barbara Frietchie's grave
Flag of Freedom and Union, wave!

Peace and order and beauty draw
Round thy symbol of light and law;

And over the stars above look down
On thy stars below in Frederick town!

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into Prior Patents, Models, works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full access to models patented in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them all privileges and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such uninterruptible proof of skill, fidelity and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be served having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on once rejected appeals SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THE BEST COOK STOVE

IN THE MARKET,

AFTER ALL SAID,

—IS—

STEWART'S

NEW, LARGE OVEN, AIR TIGHT,

SUMMER AND WINTER

COOKING STOVE,

For Wood or Coal,

IMPROVED IN 1859.

The peculiarities of the

STEWART COOK STOVE,

Embracing the Latest Improvements, briefly stated, are:

1. It is what it purports to be—AN AIR TIGHT COOKING STOVE. That is, when the draft is properly adjusted, wood will lie and smoulder and char, upon the grate, after the manner of a coal pit. Or, if the fire be of Anthracite Coal, by simply closing the draft, it will be effectually put out.

2. Combined with this, are the peculiar position of the fire-chamber, the general internal structure, and the outward movable coverings, by which means the heat of the stove may be confined within or thrown off to warm the apartment, thus relieving females of the discomfort usually attendant upon carrying on cooking operations in summer, and securing the qualities of the brick oven so fully that the baking process may be carried through successfully without any one paying near the stove from the time the article is set in until it is removed from the oven.

3. The stove is accommodated to the reception of a permanent RESERVOIR (of copper, with a tin casing) containing from 10 to 12 gallons, by which the waste heat, in passing off, is made available to keep on hand a constant supply of hot water. Connected with the reservoir is occupied with a TIN CLOSET where articles ready for the table are placed to keep warm, bread set to rise, fruit dried, &c.

4. Also, by the aid of the TOP COVER, a cool fire may be kept up through the night, and breakfast and dinner prepared the next day with no addition of fuel.

5. Roasting is performed in the most perfect manner in front of the stove, with a DUTCH OVEN prepared for the purpose—the heat being communicated to it from both sides of the fire-box; and the fumes, meanwhile, passing into the draft.

6. A NOVEL PLAN OF VENTILATION is adopted, by which two kinds of meat may be roasted in the oven at the same time, without imparting the peculiar flavor of one to the other; and the current instituted for this purpose made subservient to augment the heat upon the bottom of the oven, with no increase of combustion.

7. By the aid of the perforated metallic linings, or "gas burning arrangement," and application of the full summer dress, the various culinary processes may be carried forward successfully with a single stick of wood at a time.

8. In regard to DURABILITY, the Stewart Stove is made to last, and will last. The structural form is such that the frame work of it can not burn out.

All the plates constituting the original STEWART STOVE, which was brought out twenty years ago, are still made, and sent to different parts of the country, on sale.

The price of QUIETNESS, COMFORT and HEALTH secured to a family by the use of a culinary apparatus perfectly adapted to their wants, cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents.

But we can not, and need not, enumerate in detail, the excellencies of the STEWART STOVE. It is no experiment, or new fangled notion got up to gull the public, to which we invite your attention; but

THE STANDARD COOK STOVE

Now in use, which has been widely tested

FOR TWENTY YEARS,

and now found wanting in any particular. Yes, the Stewart Stove has been manufactured and used for a score of years; but the inventor has kept pace with the times, and repeatedly made improvements—so that the Stewart Stove of 1863 is as superior to that of 1841, as the Mowing Machine is to a Bush Scythe.

IT HAS NOT BEEN EXCELLED

yet, as a Family Stove. Here follow the names of a few of the numerous purchasers of the

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and tea-urn heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some impracticable, but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the upper is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when polished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;

Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. It goverminents of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

A SINGULAR OCCURRENCE.—As several ladies of this city were sitting at home, conversing of the Dance to take place at Pierian Hall, Tuesday evening, with the intention of attending it, they were startled by the sound as of the discharge of a gun in the room. The report was not heard in any other part of the house, but so vivid was the illusion that one of the ladies started, with the impression that her clothes were on fire; and all of them imagined they perceived the smell of gunpowder, and saw the smoke in the room. A near relative of the ladies is in the army, believed to be with Rosecrans, and afflicted with the idea that the occurrence was a foreboding of bad news, they remained at home in no little perturbation.—New Bedford Mercury.

REASONS said to prevail at the headquarters of the General-in-Chief of the Army, for the non-employment of the following pegs on the cribbage board:—

McClellan—Is regarded as an excellent soldier, but is never ready for offensive movements.

Hooker—Failed to communicate with the General-in-Chief during the closing days of his last campaign, and conducted movements without the approval of that officer.

Curtis—Cotton speculations.

McDowell—Always unfortunate, and has no personal popularity with the army.

Wallace—Refused to bring his division into action at the great battle of Shiloh.

McClernand—Failure to get his Army Corps into action at the battle of Champion Hill, by which Pemberton's rebel army might have been captured; and mis-statements to his commanding general at Vicksburg.

Hunter—Incapacity for the Charleston business.

Milroy—Loss of Winchester, Va.

Sigel—Absolute unreliability. Protested in writing, to Gen. Curtis against the battle of Pea Ridge, and then claimed the laurels of the victory. Did not even support Lyon handsomely at the battle in which that distinguished general was killed. Was relieved of his command in the Army of the Potomac, because he did not want to command one corps, and could not command two.

These are all Major Generals. The reasons for their non-employment are different from what the public suppose. We do not make the reasons, but tell them as they are told us.—Concord Statesman.

☞ It is estimated that the wheat crop in the South this year will amount to nearly 60,000,000 bushels. In 1860 over 31,000,000 bushels were harvested. This great increase is accounted for by the fact that unusual attention has been paid since the beginning of this war to the cultivation of the cereals.

☞ Agnes Pattinson, described as "a fair little girl of about twenty years," has been sentenced to death in England for murdering her infant child. Her defense, delivered with tears, was touching: "I should not have done it, had not my father put me out of doors three years ago!"

Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Happy. A book for every one to know the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.
YOUNG MEN.
Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasures of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. It is under it of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

TO THE LADIES.
DR. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Vichot's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 30,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.
CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.
Office hours from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 2 to 5 P. M.
N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—
N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Rebel accounts show that the bombardment of the Charleston forts was resumed on the 1st.

The Richmond Examiner says:—"Imboden has recently made a descent upon the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad with the design of obstructing the passage of the reinforcements to Rosecrans, but, sad to say, he was a day too late."

Chattanooga letters state that on the 28th ult. there was a reconnoissance made from our entire line. Considerable skirmishing occurred, in which we lost five or six in Turchin's brigade.

A special dispatch to the Cincinnati Commercial, from Knoxville, dated the 5th, says our forces below have penetrated to the Hawassee river, the enemy retiring.—The rebels have also fallen back above, Col. Carter being beyond Greenville.

Vicksburg dates of Sept. 25 say that the Texas expedition has "exploded."

Wheeler's rebel force, 4000 strong, was whipped badly on Sunday at Anderson's Cross Roads, Tenn. The rebels lost in killed and wounded 120, our forces taking 87 prisoners, and recapturing all the government property, including 800 mules and the prisoners taken from our train. Among the prisoners is a Major on Wheeler's staff, a Major on Gen. Martin's staff, Col. Russell, commanding a brigade, and nine other officers. The enemy was completely routed and driven ten miles.

An expedition from Norfolk along the coast as far as the State line of North Carolina, destroyed four salt works in active operation. These were destroyed in June last, but the rebels rebuilt them.

A Fortress Monroe letter to the N. Y. Herald says an expedition on a large scale, consisting of artillery, cavalry and infantry, has been organized by Gen. Foster, and, in conjunction with several army gunboats, started from there on Saturday.

A Morris Island letter of the 30th ult. to the N. Y. Tribune, states that our army is actively at work, but the navy is passive.—Satisfactory experiments have been made with Greek fire shells, and they will soon be introduced to the renewed attention of the rebels. On Monday the 28th the rebels began building a battery upon the ruins of Fort Sumter. Gen. Gilmore turned his guns on the rubbish heap, keeping up just enough fire to make them desist. The rebels began on the 28th to fortify Long Island, contiguous to Sullivan's Island, about northeast from Charleston. By this means they hope to command the North channel.

Gen. Gilmore is about to remove his forces from Morris Island to Folly Island, as less exposed and equally advantageous. The batteries to throw the Greek fire are nearly completed, but will not be used until the Navy is ready to co-operate.

☞ The N. Y. Tribune's Washington dispatch says gentlemen who are accustomed to watch the current of European politics and are in receipt of private correspondence from well informed sources abroad, predict that a great and general war, growing out of the Polish question, will convulse Europe by next spring. It is believed at St. Petersburg that Russia will then have one million men under arms, and will be prepared for any emergency. It is conjectured in Washington that the true explanation of the appearance of the Russian vessels of war in our waters is to secure them from being blockaded in home ports, as was the case in the Crimean war.

☞ The rebel steamer Diamond was captured by the gunboat Stettin while trying to run the blockade of Savannah, and sent to Fort Royal. She had a valuable cargo of saltpetre and liquors from Nassau.

The steamer Lizzie Davis, a rebel blockade runner, from Havana for Mobile, was captured by the San Jacinto, Sept. 16.—She was loaded with lead and other articles for the rebels, and had no papers of any kind.

☞ The Newburyport Herald calls for 300,000 more white men by an immediate draft, to be in the field by Christmas. It speaks highly of Capt. Swift's speech on that subject, wherein he says the great want is for men now;—and while they both are perfectly willing to enlist black men as auxiliaries—both call for an uprising of the whole people to put down the rebellion this winter, so that the disbanding the three years' men next Spring may not leave us helpless.

☞ Not far from Fort Moultrie a very large magazine has been erected in front of an old house. The house has the hospital flag flying, and the traitors have had the meanness to request Admiral Dahlgren to respect the hospital so placed.

☞ Among the horses at the New Haven Fair was an old white fellow of the sedate age of forty seven. He is of the Canadian and Indian breed, and still vigorous.

☞ The steamer captured by the U. S. ship Seminole, at the mouth of the Rio Grande, whose name has been variously reported by telegraph, it appears from official reports, was the Sir William Peel. She is reported to be a splendid ship, bark rigged, two thousand tons, and very fast. A bearer of dispatches from Matamoras, who came to New Orleans in the Circassian, says that about a week before her capture she was purchased by the house of Hale & Co., Brownsville, Texas. He also reports that there were naval gun carriages manufactured at Matamoras, supposed to be for this ship, and that the cotton put on board was merely a ruse to get away from the Rio Grande. It is almost known that she has guns under her cotton, and would immediately be converted into a privateer after discharging her cotton. As soon as she was captured the engineers of the Seminole discovered that they had been attempting to sink her by opening her water cocks, and she has been leaking badly somewhere ever since. Forty-two of her officers and crew were sent to New Orleans in the Circassian.

DECREASE OF POPULATION IN CANADA. The Canadian papers speak of a decrease in population. A writer in the Toronto Leader says:—

While we are speaking of defence, militia, &c., &c., our industrious and indispensable classes of mechanics, workmen, laborers, &c., &c., are, with their families, leaving daily by the hundred from our land to obtain a living in a neighboring country afflicted with a civil war. Our population, already inadequate to this immense territory, is every day decreasing immeasurably. The forests, the wilderness, which not long since were changing into beautiful fields, dread less the persevering hand of man. New towns are no longer seen to spring up.—Capital brought into the country formerly by the exertions of one of our great men, who were often ungratefully calumniated, no longer contributes to the enlargement or embellishment of our cities, nor the erection of any new public edifices, but hidden, as it were, is unprofitable to the public welfare. Even foreign immigration, the true wealth of a new country, and which, to a certain degree, was prosperous, and had found its way to Canada, has also of late turned its tide to the United States. But enough of these calamities.

☞ Heine, a German poet and author, gives the subjoined sketch:—

There lives at Hamburg, in a one-roomed lodging in the Baker's Bread Walk, a man whose name is Moses Lump; all the week he goes about in wind and rain, with his pack on his back, to earn his few shillings; but when on Friday evening he comes home, he finds the candlestick with seven candles lighted, and the table covered with a fair white cloth, and he puts away from him his pack and his cares, and he sits down to the table with his squinting wife and yet more squinting daughter, and eats fish with them—fish which has been dressed in beautiful white garlicsauce; sings therewith the grandest psalms of King David; rejoices with his whole heart over the deliverance of the children of Israel out of Egypt; rejoices, too, that all the wicked ones who have done the children of Israel harm, have ended by taking themselves off; that King Pharaoh, Nebuchadnezzar, Haman, Antiochus, Titus, and all such people, are well dead, while he, Moses Lump, is yet alive, and eating fish with his wife and daughter; and I can tell you, Doctor, the fish is delicate, and the man is happy; he has no call to torment himself about culture; he sits contented in his religion and in his green bed-gown, like Diogenes in his tub; he contemplates with satisfaction his candles, which he on no account will snuff himself; and I can tell you, if the candles burn a little dim, and the snuffers-woman, whose business it is to snuff them, is not at hand, and Rothschild the Great were at that moment to come in, with all his brokers, bill discounters, agents and chief clerks, with whom he conquers the world, and Rothschild were to say, 'Moses Lump, ask of me what favor you will, and it shall be granted you.' Doctor, I am convinced Moses Lump would quietly answer, 'Snuff me those candles!' and Rothschild the Great would exclaim with admiration, 'If I were not Rothschild, I would be Moses Lump!'

☞ The Eastern Argus speaks of Geo. F. Shepley as a Republican General "in retirement," circulating about the country, electioneering and making stump speeches for the radical candidates. To this the Portland Press replies: "Gen. Shepley, now on duty at New Orleans, has made but one speech since his appointment as Colonel of the Maine 13th, and that was in our City Hall, in which he had not a word to say of candidates, and the general views of which the Argus the next day said were substantially those which that paper had been laboring to disseminate."

☞ $14,400 were subscribed for Tufts College, at the Second Universalist Church, Boston, on Sunday, after an appeal from Rev. A. A. Miner, the pastor. A donation of $20,000 was made to the College a few months since, under a condition that an equal amount should be raised by private subscription.

A couple of dogs have fastened themselves to the horse railroad company. The dogs, in the first place, contracted the habit of going to the stables at the depot of the company, and shortly one of them commenced to follow a certain car on each trip. The other then picked out his car and followed suit. Now they both go over the track, following the cars they seem so much attached to, every day.—Hartford Courant.

[Communication.]

PIERCE AND CUSHING.—Messrs. Editors: Not long ago you gave us an early copy of Ex-Pres. Pierce's letter to Jeff. Davis: and also an article from the Newburyport Herald in defence of that letter; which article seemed to come from a friend of Pierce, and sounded as Mr. Cushing might be expected to speak, except a few words about New Hampshire.

There is remarkable family likeness between Pierce's letter to Jeff. Davis in 1860, and Mr. Cushing's letter about the Man on Horseback, written in 1859, to induce everybody to vote the Democratic ticket, lest we should provoke the slave power to wrath and war. In this letter Mr. Cushing said:

It will become all persons in the Eastern States to look after the condition of their property, to wind up all great local enterprises, to sell out their bank, railway and factory stocks, and to betake themselves to hoarding gold against the day of disaster, as men were accustomed to do in the troubled countries of India and China.—And then? Why, all history is there to tell what then; social convulsions, hostile combats in town streets, predatory guerrilla bands roving up and down the country, shootings and hangings; in a word, that which we have not yet had, but which all other nations have—cruel war, war at home, and, in the prospective distance, a man on horseback with a drawn sword in his hand, some Atlantic Cæsar, or Cromwell, or Napoleon, &c., &c.

Now, let me say, these predictions of disturbance in the streets of Northern cities and towns were in advance of any disturbing cause. Why was trouble predicted in these notable epistles, unless somebody was bent upon making it? Why write of difficulties at the North, unless the Democratic party South were going, in a certain contingency, to break up the Union? The truth will out by and by, that the Rebellion egg was laid many years before it was hatched, and that it was not Northern abolition, but unbridled ambition which impelled the Southern Democracy to resolve, if defeated in the Presidential election of 1860, to break up the Union.

It is remarkable, however, that the man on horseback has been chiefly in the South, and the guerrillas and hangings also. But both these great leaders made one great mistake, viz., they undervalued the virtue, valor and endurance of the people of the Free States. The did not overrate the wickedness of their Southern friends Davis & Co.,—but though born in New England they did not appreciate New England morals, religion and industry.

It seems to have been resolved by various leaders that if the democratic party was overcome in the election of 1860, there should be a rebellion, and the calamity charged to the Republican party. But this is not the first instance where men who attempted to hang others were their own executioners. LEX.

MASON & HAMLIN CABINET ORGANS. It is very seldom that we are able to direct public attention to musical instruments that contain so many elements of popularity as the above named. As a fitting testimonial to the excellencies of these instruments, the names of over one hundred of the most eminent organists and musicians in the country have been given to their support, pronouncing them the "best in the world." Our musical readers and others interested, are referred to the advertisement of Messrs. Mason & Hamlin, in another column.

Sir:—We are at war with the New Zealanders—we for empire—they for independence. What if President Lincoln recognize their belligerent rights?—and what if New York capitalists take a New Zealand loan—and if an American Laird furnish a New Zealand Alabama to be commissioned by a Maori lieutenant and manned by British seamen from the naval reserve, and so on? Why not? and what then?

In the ball fighting days, a blacksmith who was rearing a bull pup, induced his old father to go down no all fours and imitate the bull. The canine pupil pinned the old man by the nose. The son disregarding the paternal roaring, exclaimed:—"Hold him, Growler! boy, hold him! bear it, father, bear it; it'll be the making of the pup!"

Leverton's Lightning Hair Dye.
The subscriber having succeeded in obtaining an article of Hair Dye, and believing it to be far superior in many respects to any article yet produced for dyeing the hair and whiskers, now places it before the public. Its merits, above all other preparations of the kind, are:
1. Its ease of application; being applied with as much facility as by merely brushing the hair or whiskers.
2. The rapidity of its action. Being, as its name indicates, instantaneous, it will color in one minute.
3. It entirely precludes the ordinary tedious and laborious process of washing, fanning, drying, &c.
4. It does not stain the skin, as all other dyes do, but can be removed as easily as water.
5. It will not crock or smut.
6. It does not change its color from its first application, except to a more beautiful and durable black, never assuming that dull or greenish hue so common with most dyes.
7. It is the "Ne Plus Ultra" and "Tip-Top," No. 1 article of all combinations called Hair Dyes.

GRAND CONCERT.—M'lle Camilla Urso, the marvellously-gifted lady violinist, will give a concert in this city at the Temple on Friday evening next, Oct. 6th. She will be assisted by the solo performers of Gilmore's Band, including Mr. Arbuckle, the celebrated cornet player, and Mr. F. Zoeller, flutist, both of whom our musical citizens already know well,—and August Endres, pianist. The performances of these talented soloists will add greatly to the charms of the entertainment; while M'lle Urso's wonderful achievements with the violin, as well known, have excited the surprise and the admiration of the most skillful male performers.

POLICE COURT, Oct. 6,—Before Justice Odell.—James Slater, for drunkenness, was fined $3; costs $2.92. Committed.

Harriet Moore, night walking, sent to House of Correction for 3 months; costs $4.80.

[Communication.]

Messrs. Editors:—Your correct and impartial accounts, which you gave on Monday morning, of three assaults, in our city and vicinity, suggest several important thoughts, some very sad reflections, and also some things amusing as well as interesting.

First of all, dram drinking produces drunkenness,—and every assault of these three, like most others, was made by men who had been drinking strong drinks.

Then, a drunken soldier is exactly like any other drunken man; and a low white man, half drunk, is more likely to despise a black man and assault him, than any sober man would be.

In the assault made by a drunken man who disgraces the U. S. uniform, the principal offender got so wounded by the black man Johnson, who defended himself, that he is marked and recognized beyond doubt,—and if he gets well should be tried and punished, as we presume he will be, by a court either military or criminal.—In the meantime, no soldier should be suffered to leave camp on his own account, unless he is known to be a sober man.

The conduct of Johnson is well known to most respectable business men in the city, who have seen him at work for about a year, and who consider him a faithful, quiet laborer, and a respectful, orderly man as any in the place, and by no means likely to make an assault or to provoke one. His conduct for a year past shows that a negro will work and behave well, as he and several others have done and are doing here. And his self-defence in this case, shows that at least one negro will fight when he is attacked.

In this connexion let me say that the public should consider, now that Johnson is brought before them and the Courts, the facts which you state so clearly, viz. that he had been assaulted before by some men wearing the U. S. uniform, whom he of course could not identify by name or otherwise, but among whom quite probably was the chivalrous half drunken man who armed himself with a stone to break the negro's head, but who got the worst of the battle in being stabbed.

Russell should be brought before the same Grand Jury with Johnson, and their cases considered together, though they must pro forma be tried separately.

Again, sober soldiers should be slow to believe drunken comrades, when no decent citizens can believe their story. And finally, the numerous dens of drunkenness and debauchery in Portsmouth are only producing their natural effect. The soldiers who visit them become a disgrace to the service, and thereby injure the great majority of their sober and well behaved comrades. Justice to these good soldiers and to their officers, as well as to all citizens, would seem to demand that the present case should be sifted to the bottom.

LEX.

☞ The Portland Courier states that Luther S. Moore, a lawyer, of Limerick, Me., was arraigned in Portland, on Friday afternoon, on a charge of uttering forged paper—to what amount it does not state.—The case was continued, Mr. Moore furnishing sureties in the sum of $2000 for his appearance. He is a prominent Democratic politician in York County, and was President of the Maine State Senate under Gov. Wells' administration.

☞ The decline in breadstuffs in England crrried gold up to 47 1-2 in New York on Tuesday. U. S. Coupon Sixes advanced to 8 per cent. premium on the same day.

☞ The N. Y. Tribune speaks of the "legal-tenderability" of U. S. greenbacks

☞ The ship Abigail, Captain Nye, of New Bedford, has arrived at San Francisco from the North with one season's catch of oil and bone, of the value of at least $75,000, about three times the amount of the value of the ship and outfits. The Abigail sailed on her voyage July 31, 1862.—The oil and bone will be shipped home, and she will continue her voyage. The bark President 2d, Capt. Gifford, also of New Bedford, absent about 14 months in the Atlantic, has also taken oil of the value of three times the capital invested. This was taken on what is termed the "President Grounds."

☞ Hon. John A. Lowell, of Boston, who is now in Paris, has offered to present to King's Chapel, Boston, three windows for the chancel, painted by "the Konigliche Glas Malerei of Munich."

☞ A telegraph cable has been laid between Fort Warren and Boston.

A SALVE FOR EVERY SORE.—When we consider the various diseases to which the skin is subject, it must be an object of importance to have at hand a sure and certain cure for most of them. For recent flesh wounds, obstinate ulcers, troublesome felons, sore breast, ringworm and scald head, and chilings of the tender skin of infants, as well as for warts and callouses, "Grace's" Universal Salve is a certain and rapid remedy. Every father who goes into the woods should carry a box in his pocket, and every mother of a family should have a 25 cent box in the cupboard. See advertisement in another column.

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world affords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

Patent Rubber Sole Boots and Shoes,
FOR MEN, BOYS AND YOUTH.

These Goods, having been carefully tested, prove to be more desirable than any other Boots and Shoes heretofore made. They answer the double purpose of Leather and Rubber Boots and Shoes.

They are made serviceable and easier to the feet than Leather Soles, are impervious to water, and having a leather inner sole do not draw the feet, and are far less expensive than Rubber Boots.

They are free from noise, prevent slipping on ice, and in keeping the feet dry and warm are conducive to health.

When the soles wear out, the Boots and Shoes can be tapped with leather, or, if returned to us entire, new Rubber Soles can be put on.

The subscribers, having made arrangements as Agents for the sale of the above goods, are now prepared to take measures for the same, in different styles, and deliver them at short notice. They are made from the best stock to be had in the market, and warranted in every particular. Call and examine samples, at No. 13 Market street.

Morning Chronicle.

HON. REVERDY JOHNSON is not a member of the Republican party, and surely not an abolitionist on any strong definition of the term, but a well known Baltimore lawyer and politician. He has lately made a remarkable speech, in which he declares that "this cursed rebellion must be put down," and that, when the conflict shall be over, "the authors of this afflictive strife will be seeking safety in exile, even from the indignation of the people they have so ruined."

We are pleased also to observe that,—while it is left for the leading organ of the opposition in New England to deprecate the admitted constitutional action of the slaveholding citizens of Missouri securing the grand abolition of slavery in that State, and to declare that slavery is a better condition for a negro in the United States than freedom, and that no negro in this country ought even to desire for freedom. Mr. Johnson does not hesitate, slaveholder as he is, to declare that "it will be matter for national rejoicing when slavery becomes constitutionally extinct." Not less pleasing is it, either, to have the opinion of so eminent a legal authority on the question whether a slave once made free by this war, can, under State authority, ever be made a slave again. It will be well for those who adhere to the affirmative view of this question to consider the reasoning of Mr. Johnson, when he declares, alluding to the Southern rebels, that "if, under the laws of war, or any constitutional exercise of executive or legislative power, during the existence of the war, their rights of property have been lost, and so lost they cannot be restored, this I have no doubt, will constitute no serious impediment to their return to the national family. If their slaves shall have been made free by such means, (as to which I express no opinion) they must remain free." And this position the gentleman further maintains by saying, while speaking of the jurisdiction and power of the General Government: "Guaranteeing to each State a Republican form of Government, it necessarily guarantees to each citizen the protection of the principles upon which such a government reposes.—It must, therefore, possess the authority to prohibit the States from making a free man a slave."

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (see Act the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Inventions made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical books, and full records of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and conscientious practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such uninterrupted success proves his skill and ability on his part beside me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the benefit of the attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made twelve rejected application SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THE BEST COOK STOVE

IN THE MARKET,

AFTER ALL SAID,

—IS—

STEWART'S

NEW, LARGE OVEN, AIR TIGHT,

SUMMER AND WINTER

COOKING STOVE,

For Wood or Coal,

IMPROVED IN 1859.

The peculiarities of the

STEWART COOK STOVE,

Embracing the Latest Improvements, briefly stated, are:

1. It is what it purports to be—AN AIR TIGHT COOKING STOVE. That is, when the draft is properly adjusted, wood will lie and smoulder and char, upon the grate, after the manner of a coal pit. Or, if the fire be of Anthracite Coal, by simply closing the draft, it will be effectually put out

2. Combined with this, are the peculiar position of the fire-chamber, the general internal structure, and the outward moveable coverings, by which means the heat of the stove may be confined within or thrown off to warm the apartment, thus relieving females of the discomfort usually attendant upon carrying on cooking operations in summer, and securing the qualities of the brisk oven so fully that the baking process may be carried through successfully without any one going near the stove from the time the article is set in until it is removed from the oven.

3. The stove is accommodated to the reception of a permanent RESERVOIR (of copper, with a tin casing) containing from 10 to 30 gallons, by which the waste heat, in passing off, is made available to keep on hand a constant supply of hot water. The space beneath the reservoir is occupied with a TIN CLOSET, where articles ready for the table are placed to keep warm, bread set to rise, fruit dried, &c.

4. Also, by the aid of the TOP COVER, a coal fire may be kept up throughout the night, and breakfast and dinner prepared the next day with no addition of fuel.

5. Roasting is performed in the most perfect manner in front of the fire, with a DUTCH OVEN prepared for the purpose—the heat being communicated to it from both sides of the fire-box; and the fumes, meanwhile, passing into the draft.

6. A NOVEL PLAN OF VENTILATION is adopted, by which two kinds of meat may be roasted in the oven at the same time, without imparting the peculiar flavor of one to the other; and the current instituted for this purpose made subservient to augment the heat upon the bottom of the oven, with no increase of combustion.

7. By the aid of the perforated metallic linings, or "gas burning arrangement," and application of the full summer dress, the various culinary processes may be carried forward successfully with a single stick of wood at a time.

8. In regard to DURABILITY, the Stewart Stove is made to last, and will last. The structural form is such that the frame work of it can not burn out.

All the plates constituting the original STEWART STOVE, which was brought out twenty years ago, are still made, and sent to different parts of the country, on call.

The price of QUIETNESS, COMFORT and HEALTH secured to a family by the use of a culinary apparatus perfectly adapted to their wants, cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents.

But we can not, and need not, enumerate in detail, the excellencies of the STEWART STOVE. It is no experiment, or new fangled notion got up to gull the public, to which we invite your attention; but and now found wanting in any particular. Yet, the Stewart Stove is the same manufactured and used for a score of years; but the inventor has kept pace with the times, and repeatedly made improvements so that the Stewart Stove of 1863 is as superior to that of 1841, as the Mowing Machine is to a Bush Scythe.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large upper Reservoir for hot water, also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The cause for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 50 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished in all cases entreated to be here.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,

A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by DR. WM. GRACE surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Fresh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find the Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every Family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

For Sale.

The valuable and beautiful FARM, formerly owned by the Hon. James Pickering. This desirable estate, comprising about seventy acres, is situated in Newington, about four miles from Portsmouth and one mile from depot of Concord Railroad at Greenland. The buildings consist of a good 11-story House, containing ten rooms, excellent cellar washroom, &c., together with Barn, suitable Outbuildings, &c. The land is suitably divided into tillage, pasturage and mowing fields. Upon it are it are some of the best varieties of Apple and Pear trees, many of which are in good bearing condition, together with the smaller fruits, such as Currants, Raspberries, &c. The beautiful shade trees scattered over the land, its eligibility to a good market, excellent pasturage and general beauty of its location, make this one of the most desirable estates ever offered for sale in this section of the State.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837,)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure them a patent and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeble proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SEVEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

GOLDEN SHEAF WHISKEY.

The subscriber, having been engaged for the last twenty years in the importation and sale of Wines and Spirits, now finds from this experience that real

Pure Bourbon Whiskey,

when made as it ought to be, from WHEAT, RYE AND CORN, is, without doubt, the most healthful and medical spirit that can be used. Having determined to make the sale of this article a specialty in his business, he has accepted the

General Selling Agency for a large Distillery in Bourbon County, Kentucky, and in future will sell, under the brand of

"Golden Sheaf."

PURE BOURBON WHISKEY, manufactured from the BEST SELECTED GRAINS, and made in the most careful manner.

This celebrated Whiskey will be put up in cases containing one dozen bottles each, and offered to the Trade by his Travelling Agents throughout the country, and also kept on hand in his warehouse in Boston, in barrels, half barrels and kegs.

Individuals desirous of procuring a pure, reliable article of BOURBON WHISKEY, at a reasonable price, have only to inquire of any respectable Grocer or Druggist for "GOLDEN SHEAF WHISKEY," or to send their orders for any quantity required to the General Depot for its sale, 91 Washington St. Boston.

Each bottle is enclosed in a neat pasteboard box, to ensure its safe transportation.

The Old Established Hospital.

No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y.
QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.

Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!

DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his Old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World) in obtaining the best as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and capital cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargements of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Biles, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasures of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every case, of the Subject Stated, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for everybody—Startling disclosures. Dr TELLER'S great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—200 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery. It contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr. TELLER has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

DR TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Vichot's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 9 to 5 P. M.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Burnside is said to hold the country east and south from Knoxville, about 70 miles in each direction. He also possesses all the passes into North Carolina, and his right wing is in communication with Gen. Rosecrans. The rebels are reported to have destroyed a large railroad bridge south of Murfreesboro' on Monday.

White's guerrillas, with two pieces of artillery, made a raid, on Monday night, into Langley's, six miles above Georgetown, Va., driving in the pickets.

Gen. Franklin's corps was repulsed in an attack upon the rebels at Brashear City, but shortly afterwards Ord's 13th Army Corps came up and completely defeated the rebels. No particulars or dates are given, but the news is said to have been officially communicated to Gen. Sherman at Memphis.

THE MUSTER.—Active measures are being taken by the military citizens of Manchester to have the muster in that city, on Wednesday and Thursday of next week, a perfect success. The Governor and Staff, in their superb uniform, and mounted, will add not a little to the attractive features of the parade. We see it announced that the Governor's Horse Guards will be present, making their first appearance in Manchester. In Nashua, Lieut. Col. Bowers is drilling his company of Cadets. They made a fine appearance at the muster in Nashua, three years ago, and doubtless have much improved since then, under the skillful direction of that capable officer.—The Strafford Guards of Dover are also drilling for the occasion. The Amoskeag Veterans, of Manchester, have drills twice a week, and their numbers and showy uniform will render them scarcely second in attractiveness to the spectators to any other company on the field. A new company, called the National Guard, has been organized in Manchester, and is actively drilling. Lieut. E. H. Hobbs, of the 1st N. H. Battery, is also making arrangements to have a 4-gun battery for the occasion. It is also suggested that it would be an excellent idea to invite the discharged members of the 15th and 16th N. H. regiments to come together once more and appear as a part of the military of the State. Coming fresh from the battlefield of Port Hudson, they would attract as much attention as all the other troops present.

The State will furnish all the tents for the encampment, and military companies, we believe, will be passed free over the roads, to and from Manchester.

The Governor and Council have appointed for Colonel, Mason W. Tappan; for Lt. Colonel, Josiah Stevens, and for Major, Samuel Davis,—all good officers, who have had considerable experience.

☞ It is not an uncommon thing for nervous writers to mis-state or over-state an opponent's views and aims. For example, not many days ago we saw, in the editorial of a very good newspaper, this statement:

There are those in this country who believe that revolution would be an impossibility without slavery.

We have personal knowledge of several radicals, and a very considerable knowledge of the radical writings in this country for many years.

Some one of the radicals may possibly "believe" the above absurdity; but we never heard one of them express anything like it; and we do not suppose any person ever wrote down such an item as an article in his own creed.

It is very clear that the present rebellion and war in this country grew out of slavery: and many have said this, but it does not justify the above statement.

Revolutions are produced by various causes; and many of them, like our own in 1776, are the uprising of an oppressed people;—but the present rebellion is the attempt of ambitious and crafty schemers to revolutionize our Free States into the condition of utter subserviency to their new cotton empire, whose corner stone should be the slavery of the working man of the south, and whose mudsills should be the working men of the north.

A revolution is taking place,—but in a shape differing widely from the plans of the rebels. "They went out for wool, but" are likely to "come in shorn."

☞ Mr. Charles L. Hammond, of Lowell, Mass., had his nose jammed to a jelly Monday afternoon, at East Cambridge, by being struck by a locomotive on the Lowell Railroad. He was trying to avoid one train and stepped upon the track of another. It is a singular fact that nothing but his nose was injured, and this was followed by delirium.—It's a tough story, but the man may have had a long nose. Will a Boston reporter who knows please tell us?

—— At the New England Horse Fair held in Saugus, Mass., on Tuesday, the first premium for colts three years old and under four, was awarded to g. g. Orphan Boy, entered by Dr. Grey of Newmarket.

THE CONSCRIPTION IN THIS STATE. Before the draft was enforced in New Hampshire, Gov. Gilmore labored with great assiduity and perseverance, and finally with success, to obtain a decision from the War Department that towns which had sent more volunteers into the field than they were required to under the various calls issued, should have such surplus deducted from the number they were required to furnish under the draft apportionment.

On the strength of this official document, Gov. Gilmore assured the people of New Hampshire that those towns which had raised an excess of volunteers would be accredited for the same, in the manner indicated by the Provost Marshal General, and an official notification to that effect was issued from the office of the Adjutant General of the State.

But after the draft had proceeded, under date of Sept. 5, Provost Marshal General Fry wrote to Gov. Gilmore, informing him that the arrangement for relieving such towns could not be carried out, because it was found impossible to fix upon any principle of adjustment that would apply to all or any great number of cases, of which a great many had been presented for consideration from other States.

[The history of these negotiations is somewhat known to our readers.]

Still determined, if possible, to prevent patriotic towns from being subjected to more than their share of the burdens of the war, Gov. Gilmore made a personal visit to Washington, accompanied by Hon. John P. Hale, Hon. Daniel Clark, Hon. J. W. Patterson, Wm. L. Foster and E. A. Straw, Esqs., for the purpose of obtaining a retraction of this adverse decision. The whole matter was laid before the Secretary of War by the Governor and his colleagues at several interviews, and every possible argument urged for a revocation—with what result is thus stated by the Governor:

The Secretary freely admitted the justice and equity of our claims, and expressed his earnest desire to accede to our wishes, but declared that the provisions of the act of Congress were not sufficient to enable him to make the apportionment of credit in any other way than by congressional districts; and that Mr. Fry's assurance to the contrary was not well considered, but was probably based upon the hope that the letter and purposes of the law might be satisfied in the way suggested by him—a hope which further examination and consideration showed to be unfounded. We were persuaded that the plan suggested by Mr. Fry, if practicable in its application to the few towns interested in this State, would be wholly impracticable in its general and universal application, and that any attempt to make such exact apportionment of credit would necessarily result in such a delay as would amount to a virtual abandonment of the draft, and in consequent disaster to the interests of the country.

We were not left in doubt as to the very earnest desire, on the part of the Secretary of War, to forward our purposes, nor of the deep regret which he shares with us that the necessities of public affairs absolutely compel the conclusion adopted by the Department of War.

To this conclusion the laws of Congress and every patriotic consideration compel us, as good citizens, to bow submissively.

This summary of facts we have derived from a pamphlet just published by Gov. Gilmore, in which all the correspondences with the National Government, and a statement of the measures adopted by His Excellency to secure the accomplishment of the object sought for, are given. The Governor closes his statement of the matter, which shows that he has acted with earnestness and good faith throughout, with an eloquent appeal to the people of New Hampshire to acquiesce in this unpleasant decision, and to continue to sustain the government with all their means, both of men and money, remembering that it has great difficulties, trials and perplexities to contend with, and vast labors to perform.

"The President has revoked all military orders for the enlistment of slaves in Maryland."

This item, or the substance of it in another form, has been in the papers a day or two. But the N. Y. Tribune's Washington correspondent says:—

The statement that the President has prohibited the recruiting of colored soldiers, whether free blacks or slaves, in Maryland, is incorrect. A new order on the subject will, however, soon be promulgated, under which the loyal master will be enabled more easily to identify his enlisted slave, and to substantiate his claim for compensation.

☞ Mr. George Holt, of Belfast, Me., was robbed of $900 on Friday last. Mr. H. left the money in a trunk under his bed, and went down to the bay fishing at 4 o'clock A. M. Being a single man, Mr. H. had no one to watch his house and treasure, and some thief broke in, probably before daylight, and took his cash, overlooking some $70 in specie. Six hundred dollars of the amount was afterwards found in a neighboring barn.

☞ An innkeeper and carrier, named Reymond, living in the town of Bozel, France, having quarreled with his wife, deliberately fired off two barrels of gunpowder which he had placed in his kitchen previous to delivery to a tradesman. Six lives were lost and the premises blown to atoms.

☞ The Detroit Tribune says there is considerable excitement in business circles connected with the Lake Superior trade, in consequence of the discovery of an immense deposit of silver-bearing lead in that famous region. Marquette county is the site of this new discovery. It is said that the ore yields twenty per cent. of pure lead, and that every ton of lead yields twenty-five pounds of silver, worth three hundred dollars, besides the value of lead. Operations will soon be commenced for "removing the deposits."

THE GREAT PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The books of subscription to the stock of the Union Pacific Railway—the greatest railroad enterprise in the world—were closed on Friday last, the subscriptions amounting to about $2,430,000. By the act of Congress, $2,000,000 must be subscribed by any company which desires to take advantage of the act.

☞ Cotton goes up constantly, and has now reached 86 a 88 cents per pound, a rise of 30 cents within a few weeks, and persons well informed predict that it will not stop at a dollar. Cotton goods do not go up so rapidly, but they are bound to advance.

☞ Schooner C. W. Dyer, of Wellfleet, from Boston for Baltimore, came into Holmes Hole on Monday evening, to deliver up a man found secreted on board, who confessed himself an escaped prisoner from Fort Warren. He was placed in Edgartown jail.

☞ The immigration from foreign countries into the port of New York for the present year, is computed at 160,000, while that for 1862 was 76,000, making an increase of 84,000, or 8000 more than the entire total of 1862.

☞ George Sumner, brother of the Senator, died in Boston on Tuesday afternoon. He was well known through his orations and many addresses before lyceums and other public assemblies, in which his varied knowledge and rich culture were made manifest.

☞ Permission has been given for the Baltimore Daily Gazette to resume publication under the management of the late editor, its publishers being required not to return to the city during the remainder of the war.

☞ Forty improved 12-pounder Armstrong guns have been shipped from England to Canada, and a considerable number of troops have sailed from Cork for the same destination.

☞ If the same proportion of men drafted in other States, as in Maine, furnish substitutes or pay commutation, the government will get over 100,000 men from the draft.

☞ Hon. Erastus Corning, who was elected representative to the next Congress from the Albany district, New York, has resigned on account of feeble health.

Teeth extracted positively without pain, by inhaling Nitrous Oxyd Gas!

Dr. E. B. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public that he has this week had ocular proof of the extraction of many TEETH without pain, at the office of Drs. PLUMB & ORGOOD, Boston, assisted by Dr. G. C. MUNSON, of New York, who has had a long experience and wonderful success in making and administering Nitrous Oxyd Gas.

He is fully convinced that it is a perfectly harmless anæsthetic, its effect being that of an exhilarant, the whole operation being completed generally in three minutes, without the least pain, and the patient feeling as well, and usually better than before having taken the Gas.

He has therefore purchased the most complete and extensive apparatus for making pure Nitrous Oxyd Gas, and has also procured the services of Dr. G. C. Munson, to assist him in making and administering the Nitrous Oxyd Gas.

He hopes to be able to receive patients as early as Thursday afternoon, Oct. 8, for the convenience of the public, his office will also be open on Thursday and Friday Evenings. He will also devote his whole time as much as possible on Friday to the extraction of teeth under the influence of the Gas.

He would cordially invite all who wish teeth extracted without pain, or any possible injurious results, to call and be convinced.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

Leverton's Lightning Hair Dye.

The subscriber having succeeded in obtaining an article of Hair Dye, and believing it to be far superior in many respects to any article yet produced for dyeing the hair and whiskers, now places it before the public. Its merits, above all other preparations of the kind, are:

1. Its ease of application; being applied with as much facility as by merely brushing the hair or whiskers.
2. The rapidity of its action. Being, as its name indicates, instantaneous, it will color in one minute.
3. It entirely precludes the ordinary tedious and laborious process of washing, fanning, drying, &c.
4. It does not stain the skin, as all other dyes do, but can be removed as easily as water.
5. It will not crock or smut.
6. It does not change its color from its first application, except to a more beautiful and durable black, never assuming that dull or greenish hue so common with most dyes.
7. It is the "Ne Plus Ultra" and "Top Top," No. 1 article of all combinations called Hair Dyes.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be secured in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

Probate Advertisements.

The language of the law relating to the publication of Probate Notices is:

"The party required to publish any notice ordered by the Judge of Probate to be given in a newspaper, may select the paper therefor."

Will our subscribers remember this, and when they have occasion to do business at the Probate Office, if agreeable, request that their notice may be ordered for the Chronicle or the Gazette; otherwise a different paper may be selected.

Our terms are as low as those of any other paper.

Local.

☞ An item has recently been going the rounds of the press stating that "the new projectiles thrown into Charleston are an invention of a son of James G. Birney, the abolitionist." This is a mistake, probably, as we have regarded the inventor, on what we deem good authority, as one of the "Sons of Portsmouth," now residing in the vicinity of New York city, whose father, Mr. William Burney, lived here, and was for many years engaged in the grocery business at the South end.

NEW CITY DIRECTORY.—Mr. W. A. Greenough, Jr., of Boston, whose experience in compiling directories in various cities in New England is a guarantee of success, is about publishing a directory of this city. The place will be thoroughly canvassed, and some new features will be introduced that will add to its value as a book of reference.

POLICE COURT, Wednesday.—Rachel Kehoe, for night-walking, was sentenced to the House of Correction for three months, and to pay costs—$4.80. Appealed and gave bonds.

Bridget Welch, for drunkenness, was fined $3, and costs $4.80. Committed.

CAMILLA URSO.—This accomplished lady has been pronounced by professors of the violin, and by musical connoisseurs and critics generally, one of the finest artists the world has yet seen. Her surpassing delicacy of touch, and gracefulness of movement, combined with the delicious harmony produced, have shown that of all musical instruments, the violin stands first as adapted to the nice judgment, refined taste and easy touch of ladies. She seems to be equally familiar and at ease in the severe school of Italian and classical music, and the familiar ballad music which charms and moves many who are indifferent to the former.—She will appear at the Temple to morrow evening.

Communication.

TREES AND FRUITS.—When some active friends of Temperance a few years ago tried to break up some dens of drunkenness and other vices in Portsmouth, open violence, outrageous lying, and crafty pleading, held them in existence;—and when good evidence was obtained by accident, in a case of death in a groggery, the grand jury found no bill, because, as they explained, they were given to understand that "the people of Portsmouth did not wish to have the law enforced."

From that day no private citizen here has seen fit to engage in a thankless and fruitless legal warfare against dens of vice; such dens have latterly been increased in number; and their fruits are assault, riot and disgrace; they are often death, as the other day in the case where three drinkers in a fight upset their boat and were all drowned. We run no risk when we say that no total abstinent man engaged in the New York riots or in the Portsmouth riot. They were started in the groggeries and stews.

And now, if citizens there or here don't like the fruit, they had better cut down the trees. There are no man, here, whose personal interest puts them forward to urge the public in the matter; but those citizens who would like to see order and quiet in our streets, know, or ought to know, that the increase of dens is accompanied by a corresponding increase of crimes.

They should be careful to whom they let buildings, and for what purposes; careful of their own habits and example; they should use all the means in their power to frown down evil places, practices and persons;—and they should countenance and uphold the execution of the laws. If they do not, the evil will be upon them and their children. LEX.

☞ The pirates Alabama, Georgia, and Conrad, whose name has been changed to Tuscaboosa, have been visiting ports at Cape Good Hope. They have captured four ships, one of them being the Santee, Capt. William Parker, of this city, which was captured by the Conrad in August.—The Santee was bound from Akyab, April 28, for England. One account says she was destroyed, another that she was bonded. She was an A 1 ship, 898 tons, built by Messrs. Tobey & Littlefield in 1860, and was owned by Messrs. T. M. & T. S. Tredwick. The Vanderbilt left St. Helena in pursuit of the pirates August 29.

☞ On the ship Express, destroyed by the Alabama, there was the following insurance in Boston offices: China, $10,000; Washington, $10,000; New England, $8000 Equitable, $6000; Boylston, $6000.

☞ B. B. Russell, Boston, agent for H. H. Lloyd & Co.'s valuable maps, has just published in a neat pamphlet, the letters of President Lincoln on Questions of National Policy; to General McClellan, Horace Greeley, Fernando Wood, the Albany Committee, Governor Seymour and the Springfield Meeting.

The letters are well known to be valuable,—and in this form are convenient for preservation and reference. For sale by J. H. Foster.

☞ The Portland City Marshal arrested Richmond H. Sweetsir and Henry Kimball, in that city on Tuesday for passing $5 counterfeit bills on the the Rochester Bank, N. H. They passed a number of them at Saco last week during the fair.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Spear's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

A SALVE FOR EVERY SORE.—When we consider the various diseases to which the skin is subject, it must be an object of importance to have at hand a sure and certain cure for most of them. For recent flesh wounds, obstinate ulcers, troublesome felons, sore breast, ringworm and scald head, and chafings of the tender skin of infants, as well as for wens and callouses, "Grace's" Universal Salve is a certain and rapid remedy. Every father who goes into the woods should carry a box in his pocket, and every mother of a family should have a 25 cent box in the cupboard. See advertisement in another column.

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world affords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

In Exeter, Sept. 29, Mrs. ELIZABETH PERKINS, aged 63 years, wife of Joseph Perkins.—Sept. 23, M. S. EASON, aged 14 months, daughter of Wm. EASON.

In Epping, Sept. 28, NATHANIEL BICKFORD, aged 85 years, of Exeter.

OBITUARY.

Died, in Newington, N. H, Sept. 1, MARY TARLTON, aged 12 years; Sept 3, MARTHA TARLTON, aged 17 years; only daughters of Samuel H. and Mary Tarlton.

Among the many painful bereavements which have occurred during this memorable year—death's harvest year—few homes have sustained a greater loss than the one from which these beautiful maidens have ascended to heaven. They were its light, its joy, its pride. Pure, thoughtful, loving, kind—it seemed as though they were born to bless their parents and the world by their living presence. But God intended them for higher spheres. They cheered the earth for a little time with the sunshine of their spotless lives—twining themselves amid the tenderest heartstrings of all who knew them—that, rising above its pains and cares and imperfections, they might win us on toward heaven.

Patent Rubber Sole Boots and Shoes,

FOR MEN, BOYS AND YOUTH.

These Goods, having been carefully tested, prove to be more desirable than any other Boots and Shoes heretofore made. They serve the double purpose of Leather and Rubber Boots and Shoes.

They are made serviceable and easier to the feet than Leather Soles, are impervious to water, and having a leather inner sole do not draw the feet, and are far less expensive than Rubber Boots.

They are free from noise, prevent slipping on ice, and in keeping the feet dry and warm are conducive to health.

When the soles wear out, the Boots and Shoes can be tapped with leather, or, if returned to us entire, new Rubber Soles can be put on.

The subscribers, having made arrangements as Agents for the sale of the above goods, are now prepared to take measures for the same, in different sizes, and deliver them at short notice. They are made from the best stock to be had in the market, and warranted in every particular. Call and examine samples, at No. 18 Market street.

OVER FIVE THOUSAND BOTTLES have been sold in its native town, and not a single instance of its failure is known.

We have, in our possession, any quantity, of certificates, some of them from

EMINENT PHYSICIANS,

who have used it in their practice, and given it the pre-eminence over any other compound.

It does not dry up a Cough,

but loosens it, so as to enable the patient to expectorate freely.

☞ Two or three Bottles will invariably cure TICKLING IN THE THROAT. ☜

A HALF Bottle has often completely cured the most

STUBBORN COUGH.

And yet, though it is so sure and speedy in its operation, it is perfectly harmless, being purely vegetable. It is very agreeable to the taste, and may be administered to children of any age.

In cases of CROUP we will guarantee a cure, if taken in season. No Family should be without it. It is within the reach of all, the price being

ONLY 25 CENTS!

And if an investment and thorough trial does not "back up" the above statement, the money will be refunded. We say this, knowing its merits, and feel confident that one trial will secure for it a home in every household.

Do not waste away with Coughing, when so small an investment will cure you. It may be had of any respectable druggist in town, who will furnish you with a circular of genuine certificates of cures it has made.

Morning Chronicle.

GLORIA.

The laurels shine in the morning sun,
The tall grass shakes its glittering spears,
And the webs the spiders last night spun
Are threaded with pearly tears.

At peace with the world and all therein,
I walk in the fields this summer morn;
What should I know of sorrow or sin
Among the lambs and corn?

But hark: through the corn a murmur comes—
The growing—its swelling voice is high—
The thunder of guns and the roll of drums,
And an army marching by!

Away with the cloth of peace and ease!
'Tis a nation's voice that seems to call;
Who cares for sight, in times like these,
Save to win—or close to fall?

Farewell, O shining laurels, now!
I go with the army marching by—
Your leaves, should I win, may deck my brow,
Or my tiler, if I should die!

—GEORGE ARNOLD.

☞ A curious observation respecting the rapidity of eagles in their flight, has just been made by a traveller crossing the Grison Alps. An eagle, in flying from one mountain peak to another, at a height of 8,000 or 9,000 feet, performed the distance of five miles in five minutes.

THE peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of millions of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by excessive disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Jim who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a fair trial. That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

THE BEST COOK STOVE
IN THE MARKET,
AFTER ALL SAID,
IS
STEWART'S
NEW, LARGE OVEN, AIR TIGHT,
SUMMER AND WINTER
COOKING STOVE,
For Wood or Coal,
IMPROVED IN 1859.

The peculiarities of the
STEWART COOK STOVE,
Embracing the Latest Improvements, briefly stated, are:

1. It is what it purports to be—AN AIR TIGHT COOKING STOVE. That is, when the draft is properly adjusted, wood will lie and smoulder and char, upon the grate, after the manner of a coal pit. Or, if the fire be of Anthracite Coal, by simply closing the draft, it will be effectually put out.

2. Combined with this, are the peculiar position of the fire-chamber, the general internal structure, and the outward movable coverings, by which means the heat of the stove may be confined within or thrown off to warm the apartment, thus relieving females of the discomfort usually attendant upon carrying on cooking operations in summer, and securing the qualities of the brick oven so fully that the baking process may be carried through successfully without any one going near the stove from the time the article is set in until it is removed from the oven.

3. The stove is accommodated to the reception of a permanent REservoir, of copper, with a tin casing, containing from 10 to 20 gallons, by which the waste heat, in passing off, is made available to keep on hand a constant supply of hot water. The space beneath the reservoir is occupied with a TIN CLOSET, where articles ready for the table may be placed to keep warm, bread set to rise, fruit dried, &c.

4. Also, by the aid of the TOP COVER, a coal fire may be kept up through the night, and breakfast and dinner prepared the next day with no addition of fuel.

5. Roasting is performed in the most perfect manner in front of the stove, with a DUTCH OVEN prepared for the purpose—the heat being communicated to it from both sides of the fire-box; and the fumes, meanwhile, passing into the draft.

6. A NOVEL PLAN OF VENTILATION is adopted, by which two kinds of meat may be roasted in the oven at the same time, without imparting the peculiar flavor of one to the other; and the current instituted for this purpose made subservient to augment the draft, both in the bottom of the oven, with no increase of combustion.

7. By the aid of the perforated metallic linings, or "gas burning arrangement," and application of the tall summer dress, the various culinary processes may be carried forward successfully with a single stick of wood at a time.

8. In regard to DURABILITY, the Stewart Stove is made to last, and will last. The structural form is such that the frame work of it can not burn out.

All the plates constituting the original STEWART STOVE, which was brought out twenty years ago, are still made, and sent to different parts of the country, on call.

The price of QUIETNESS, COMFORT and HEALTH secured to a family by the use of a culinary apparatus perfectly adapted to their wants, cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents.

But we can not, and need not, enumerate in detail, the excellencies of the STEWART STOVE. It is no experiment, or new-fangled notion got up to gull the public, to which we invite your attention; but

THE STANDARD COOK STOVE

Now in use, which has been widely tested

FOR TWENTY YEARS,

and now found wanting in any particular. Yes, the Stewart Stove has been manufactured and used for a score of years; but the inventor has kept pace with the times, and repeatedly made improvements—so that the Stewart Stove of 1858 is as superior to that of 1841, as the Mowing Machine is to a Rush Scythe.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, before buying it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plates which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and and dripping pan combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise
We would refer to the following purchasers:

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, no sickness or headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases are lighter than the air, and go off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend to be carried up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, leaving the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinker, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without burning out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., — Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, — Charles H. Mendum,
Henry J. Wendell, — John Sise, — and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,

Would respectfully announce to his patrons and the public that VULCANIZED RUBBER, as a base for Artificial Teeth, promises all the advantages of Gold, yet costs only half as much. My experience has been highly satisfactory in its use, and I have no hesitation in WARRANTING PERFECT SATISFACTION in all cases.
Teeth inserted on Gold and Silver, and all other operations performed as usual.
I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulating of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Vulcanite, at Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.
☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE.
PURE AND FOUR YEARS OLD.
OF CHOICE OPORTO FRUIT.
For Physicians' Use.
FEMALES, WEAKLY PERSONS, INVALIDS
SAMBUCUS TREE, OF PORTUGAL,

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE celebrated in Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic, Diuretic and Sudorific, highly esteemed by eminent physicians, used in European and American Hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.
AS A DIURETIC, it imparts a healthy action to the Glands and Kidneys, and Urinary Organs very beneficial in Dropsy, Gout and Rheumatic Affections.
SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE is not a mixture or manufactured article, but is pure from the juice of the Portugal Sambucus, cultivated in New Jersey, recommended by Chemists and Physicians as possessing medical properties superior to any other Wines in use, and an excellent article for all weak and debilitated persons, and the aged and infirm, improving the appetite, and benefitting ladies and children.
A LADIES' WINE, because it will not intoxicate as other wines, as it contains no mixture of spirits or other liquors, and is admired for its rich peculiar flavor and nutritive properties, imparting a healthy tone to the digestive organs, and a blooming, soft and healthy skin and complexion.
WE REFER TO
a few well known gentlemen and physicians, who have tried the Wine.

Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
To world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—It is common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of a popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

☞ A young Alpine hunter, who was killed in the Alps nineteen years ago, was recently found frozen stiff, but ruddy and whole as in life save his eyes.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is more SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents, which, in many instances, give him, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made no fewer rejected applications than FIFTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

GOLDEN SHEAF WHISKEY.

The subscriber, having been engaged for the last twenty years in the importation and sale of Wines and Spirits, now finds from this experience that real

Pure Bourbon Whiskey,

when made as it ought to be from WHEAT, RYE AND CORN, is, without doubt, the most healthful and medical spirit that can be used. Having determined to make the sale of this article a speciality in his business, he has accepted the

General Selling Agency for a large Distillery in Bourbon County, Kentucky, and in future will offer it under the brand of

"Golden Sheaf,"

PURE BOURBON WHISKEY, manufactured from the BEST SELECTED GRAINS, and made in the most careful manner.

This celebrated Whiskey will be put up in cases containing one dozen bottles each, and offered to the Trade by his travelling agents throughout the country, and also kept on hand in his warehouse in Boston, in barrels, half barrels and kegs.

Individuals desiring of procuring a pure, reliable article of BOURBON WHISKEY, at a reasonable price, have only to inquire of any respectable Grocer or Druggist for "GOLDEN SHEAF WHISKEY," or to send their orders for any quantity required to the General Depot for its sale, 94 Washington St, Boston.

Each bottle is enclosed in a neat pasteboard box, to ensure its safe transportation.

Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World, of obtaining the safest as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Biles, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasures of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to counsel and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for young and middle aged Men, entitled Dr. Teller's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—200 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery, it contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr. Teller has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

Dr. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Talpin's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, the price per box, these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1863.

THE REBELLION

Advices from the army of the Potomac state that some changes have recently been made in the location of the corps, but nothing indicating immediate active operations. Over a brigade a week is added to the army by the arrival of conscripts.

15,000 deserters from the Army of the Potomac have been picked up during the past two months.

It is said that the rebel Stuart has failed to obtain a commission as Lieut. General, because of his numerous defeats; but he is determined to win the coveted honor yet.

A letter from Morris Island to the Baltimore American, says that a daily average of one killed and three wounded will cover the casualties we have suffered in advancing our works since the evacuation of Morris Island. An occasional shell, however, now and then proves very fatal.

The Richmond Dispatch says that the Yankees made a dash in barges into Bay Fort, Fla., last week, and burned an English steamer which had just run the blockade with a valuable cargo. The Confederates burned a warehouse containing the steamer's cargo,—and several small vessels, to prevent their falling into the enemy's hands.

Reinforcements are still arriving at Chattanooga for Gen. Rosecrans, and a great battle is expected soon. Gen. Rosecrans' communications are repeatedly declared to be perfectly secure. Nashville is well filled with army supplies. The rebel raid on the railroad south of Murfreesboro' was not serious in its results, and no mention is made by the late accounts of the destruction of the railroad bridge, as previously reported.

It is reported that 2000 rebels of Marmaduke's command, under Col. Shelby, have entered Southwest Missouri from Arkansas, for raiding purposes; and that our forces are concentrating to attack them.

The St. Louis Union speaks mysteriously of an important strategical movement now being made, involving the transportation of entire armies hundreds and even thousands of miles, occasioning an entire change of the whole plan of the war.

NATIONAL THANKSGIVING.—The New York Herald says:—

There is a peculiarity about the history of thanksgiving days and thanksgiving proclamations worthy of note at this time. Originally they came from the Puritans of New England, and were gradually adopted by the Governors of States as the country grew larger; but in every instance they emanated from the State Executive, and became, as it were, by concession of public sentiment a part and parcel of State rights.

This is not quite true; for President Washington appointed a National Thanksgiving in the winter of 1795; and President Monroe appointed one in the Spring of 1815. Neither of them infringed any State Rights. In New Hampshire, in 1815, Gov. Gilman appointed the State Fast on the same day with the National Thanksgiving. And it any Governor should now appoint a Fast on the 26th of November, it is not likely that a military force would compel him to eat a roast turkey that day; nor compel him to go to church and join in the public thanksgiving there.

The Governor of one State had appointed Nov. 26, as a State Thanksgiving, before the President made his proclamation; and it is highly probable that most of the Governors will appoint the same day.

The Herald's talk about State Rights in this case is only ludicrous; while in important cases it is mischievous where it is believed.

☞ A revolution in Ireland is talked of by the French papers as about to transpire. The Gazette de France says:—

It is published by the International, a French journal appearing in London, and is to the effect that a vast conspiracy is now openly organizing in Ireland, against the English domination of course. The conspirators, who call themselves "Fenians" (?) and "Sons of St. Patric," are said to be eighty thousand in number, all armed, and only awaiting an opportunity to shake off the Saxon yoke, and proclaim the independence of Ireland.

☞ There is a report in St. Paul, Minn., that Capt. Fisk's overland expedition to Idaho has been massacred by the Sioux.

☞ The Saco Democrat says the York County Agricultural Society's Cattle Show and Fair, last week, was one of the most successful ever held by the Society.

☞ Brown & Tileston, have sent us the Old Farmer's Almanac for '64: No. 72:—by Robt. B. Thomas.

☞ The editor of a Democratic paper in Nevada Territory acknowledges the defeat of his party in his city very briefly.—He says, "We meet the enemy yesterday and are out on parole this morning."

☞ A correspondent of the Missouri Democrat writes from Kansas, that two of the three presses destroyed by the recent raid will soon be in operation, viz. the Tribune and State Journal.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Capt. Z. S. Wallingford, of the Strafford Guards, Dover, has tendered his resignation, and it has been accepted.

—— O. P. Young, of Allenstown, has caught 22,500 wild pigeons during the past ten years. After catching he fattens them for the market, making a handsome living thereby.

—— A. George, Esq., of Newbury, found in his field one day last week, a large full-grown ripe strawberry. He also has on his farm an apple tree, which has blossomed and borne apples twice within a year.

—— At a recent target shooting in Dover by the Strafford Guards, the target was an Indian in full costume, with an appropriate background, designed and painted by Master Gray, 14 years of age.

—— The new President of Dartmouth College, Rev. Dr. Smith, of New York, will be inaugurated on the 18th of November. Prof. Putnam, of the College, is now supposed to be on his homeward voyage from Europe, in so feeble health that many fears are entertained that he can never resume his duties, and some fear is even felt that he may not live to reach this country.

—— Monday week the family of Moses Twombly, of Alton, had a social gathering. There were present Mr. Twombly, aged 82 years; his wife, aged 83 years, and his children, 18 in number, two having died. The ages of the children range from 53 to 35 years. Mr and Mrs. Twombly have been married 59 years. The mothers of each had eighty grand children. Mr. T., on his 81st birthday, hoed 3500 hills of potatoes.

☞ An aged negro man attached to General Terry's kitchen, either through forgetfulness or sheer carelessness, put into the stove a ten-inch shell, for the purpose of melting the lead round the fuse. The shell being loaded, as a natural consequence it exploded, wounding him severely in two places. Fortunately no one else was hurt. Some not very favorable comparisons have been made between the negroes in the North and those formerly slaves. One of the latter, a "boy" named Daniel, thinking it an excellent opportunity for retaliation, ventured a few remarks as follows: "Why, sar, dey say us Suff'rin (Southern) darkies don't know nuffin, an' here dis yer man come all de way from Bos'on an' goes for to put one o' Gen. Gilmore's mighty shells in de stove. Wonder didn't kill him dead.—Know'd better'n dat when I was a chile."

☞ Portland is excited again, only because the front door bell of a house on Clark street has been ringing without interruption for two days, (Tuesday and Wednesday) and nobody can find out how it is done. The reporters have evidently become insane over it,—for the Courier refers to it as "this mysterious phenomena," and the Argus deems it "one of the most extraordinary phenomenas." They have evidently become stark mad, and are perfectly reckless in their use of the English language.

☞ Provost Marshals are instructed not to re-open cases once decided.

☞ Gen. Grant says, "I am satisfied that the North and the South can never live together in peace except as one nation, and that a free nation."

☞ A military police has been established in Augusta, Me., and rum-sellers have been notified that they must not sell liquors to any soldiers, or the penalties of the law will be visited upon them without fail.

☞ Adj. General Thomas, seeing a Lieut. Col. intoxicated, tore off his shoulder straps, put him underguard, and dismissed him from the service. Such summary proceedings, if oftener adopted, would save a great many disasters to our arms.

POINTED.—Two very small boys, about 7 or 8 years old, were seen going down Middle street the other evening, each having a cigar in his mouth. One of them taking his out of his mouth, sang the following words: "Make me a child again just for to night."—Portland Courier.

CONDITION OF THE REBEL CURRENCY. A very succint illustration of the state of the rebel currency is given by a letter writer, who tells of some conversations held across the picket lines near the Rapidan:—

One of the rebel artillerymen was anxious to know whether a soldier's pay was good for anything now. He was told that it would buy thirteen dollars' worth of goods, the same as ever. "Well," said he, "I'll tell you what we do with ours. We tell off the battery into fives, and play poker till one man out of five gets the money.—The winners tell off into fives again, and so at last somebody has enough money to treat his friends."

Whenever a house is offered to let, it is usually to a family without children.—When application is made for a tenement, the first question asked is, "how many children have you?" One lady, it is said, took advantage of a man whose business it is to let houses to families without children, by requiring her five children to roam in the burying ground while she went house-hunting. Finding one that would answer her purpose, she went to this shrewd letter of houses and stated her case. "Have you any children?" asked the portly man in spectacles, scarcely looking up. "I have five," said the lady demurely, "but they are all in the grave-yard." She got the house.—Portland Press.

☞ Large numbers of Dahlgren guns are arriving for New York harbor.

☞ 21 head of cattle were suffocated while being taken in box cars from Kendall's Mills to Portland on Tuesday.

☞ A Richmond correspondent of the Mobile Register says the rebel loss at the battle at Gettysburg was 25,000.

☞ The Gipsies are emigrating hither from Europe. There are now over a thousand in this country and Canada.

☞ It is stated that the income of the Government from all sources is now equal to the aggregate expenditure.

☞ Biscuits from wheat that was standing in the field four hours before, have been accomplished in England.

☞ The King of Wurtemburg, who is now in his 82d year, has been seriously ill for some weeks. He is the oldest king in Europe.

☞ The Collector of the port of Calais seized several hundred dollars' worth of tea a few days since, which was being smuggled to Boston in crates of rags.

☞ Deserters from the rebels, arriving at Newbern, N. C., report that Mr. Holden, editor of the Raleigh Standard, has been assassinated.

☞ A commercial newspaper reporter in New York has made, during the last twelve months, $250,000 in stock speculations.

☞ The Montreal Gazette seems to think that the end and aim of the present rebellion is to cut this country down to its "proper size."

☞ Gen. Ripley, late chief of the ordnance bureau, has been ordered to make a quarterly inspection of the armaments of the forts, &c., of New England.

☞ Recruiting for the veteran corps is progressing very rapidly. In some instances almost entire regiments have reenlisted, and applications are increasing.

☞ The Cincinnati Common Council have appointed a committee to purchase $20,000 worth of coal to be sold to citizens at cost.

☞ A woman in New York killed her neighbor's boy by rubbing red pepper in his nose, eyes and mouth. The neighbor had offended her.

☞ Blackberries are abundant at Stoney Creek, Wis.; a party gathering them on the 17th ult. were overtaken by a furious snow storm which lasted several hours.

☞ The Solicitor of the Treasury is hereafter to have the entire charge of the police arrangements for the detection of counterfeiters of Treasury paper of every kind.

☞ The commencement of the New York Free Academy, which was postponed last July in consequence of the riots, was celebrated in due form on Tuesday. The institution is flourishing finely.

☞ The Forrest divorce case is up again on an action by Mrs. Forrest to recover on a bond for $35,000 given to secure alimony, costs, &c. The bondsmen are Charles G. Havens and Joseph H. Goodwin. The jury gave Mrs. F. a verdict of $45,209 58.

☞ Dr. George Hayward, of Boston, died instantly of apoplexy on Wednesday, at the age of 78 years. He was for many years a Professor in the Medical School at Harvard University. He was among the first medical men in the country, and also enjoyed a high reputation abroad.

☞ The small iron side-wheel steamer Diamond has arrived at the Washington Navy Yard. She is laden with liquors and saltpetre principally. She had both the American and British flags flying as she came up the river, and was captured about ten days ago, while attempting to run the blockade of Savannah.

☞ An official report at the Navy Department of the ammunition found on board the rebel iron-clad Atlanta shows that among the various classes of projectiles for the guns, were a large number of shells marked "Robbins's fluid shells" for 7-inch rifle guns. The Robbins fluid shell is thought by some to be the very same Greek fire employed by Gen. Gilmore against Charleston; and that the rebels contemplated throwing them into the cities of Philadelphia and New York, is believed by many.

FIRE.—The Herald states that a fire occurred in the picker room of the James Mill, Newburyport, on Wednesday afternoon, which was only suppressed after two hours' labor. It was more than half an hour before they dared to open the room and apply the force pumps. The loss is estimated at from three to five thousand dollars. The arrangements in the Mill for suppressing fire are complete; and no alarm was given, and many people in the immediate neighborhood did not know that anything uncommon had happened.

The President certainly needs the prayers of all good men that he may render righteous judgement in the Missouri case. The pressure on both sides is so great as to require almost supernatural power to act independently upon the merits of the case, and for the permanent interest of that State.—Portland Press.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.
These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to accomplish the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.
Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.
Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

Leverton's Lightning Hair Dye.
The subscriber having succeeded in obtaining an article of Hair Dye, and believing it to be the superior in many respects to any article yet produced for dyeing the hair and whiskers, now places it before the public. Its merits, above other preparations of the kind, are:
1. Its ease of application; being applied with much facility as by merely brushing the hair or whiskers.
2. The rapidity of its action. Being, as its name indicates, instantaneous, it will color in a minute.
3. It entirely precludes the ordinary tedious and laborious process of washing, fanning, drying, &c.
4. It does not stain the skin, as all other dyes do, but can be removed as easily as water.
5. It will not crock or smut.
6. It does not change its color from its first application, except to a more beautiful and durable black, never assuming that dull greenish hue so common with most dyes.
7. It is the "Ne Plus Ultra" and "Tip-Top," Ne article of all combinations called Hair Dyes.

Teeth extracted positively without pain, inhaling Nitrous Oxyd Gas!
Dr. E. B. GOODALL
Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public that he has this week had another lot of the extraction of many TEETH without pain, at the offices of Drs. FLAGG & OSGOOD, Boston, assisted by Dr. G. C. MUNSON, of New York, who has had a long experience and wonderful success in making and administering Nitrous Oxyd Gas.
He is fully convinced that it is a perfectly harmless anæsthetic, its effect being that of an exhilarant, the whole operation being completed generally in three minutes without any pain, and the patient feeling as well, and usually better than before inhaling the Gas.
He has therefore purchased the most complete and extensive apparatus for making pure Nitrous Oxyd Gas, and has also procured the services of Dr. G. C. Munson, to assist him in making and administering the Nitrous Oxyd Gas.
He hopes to be able to receive patients as early as Thursday afternoon, Oct. 8. For the convenience of the public, his office will also be open Thursday and Friday Evenings. He will also devote his whole time (as much as possible) on Friday to the extraction of teeth under the influence of the Gas
He would cordially invite all who wish to have extracted without pain, or any possible injurious results, to call and be convinced.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

SUICIDE.—A Coroner's inquest was held by John Bennett, Esq., Justice of the Peace and the Quorum, on Thursday afternoon, on the body of Mr. Charles A. Hammond, who committed suicide in the forenoon of that day, at the house of Mrs. Oliver Tucker, on South Meeting House hill, at which he boarded. The jury consisted of Messrs. Marcellus Bufford, Samuel W. Moses and John E. Rider. The deceased had been seriously sick since Sunday, with dysentery. Dr. Curtis, his physician, had just left him, and Mrs. Tucker left the room for a moment to consult with him at the door, when she heard something fall. On returning she found that he had arisen from his bed and gone into another room, where she discovered him on the floor. Thinking he had fallen and cut himself, she went to raise him up; he looked up at her but did not speak, and soon after died, having cut his throat with a razor. The evening before, at 9 o'clock, he was unable to move without assistance. He was about 30 years of age, and is supposed to have belonged in Fairbaven, Mass. He was a caulker, and for a few days had been at work at the Portsmouth Navy Yard. He suffered much pain on Wednesday night, and was undoubtedly laboring under aberration of mind when he committed the deed. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

☞ The U. S. steamer Nipsic was undocked Thursday, but owing to the high wind, it was found impossible to get her to the wharf, and she now lies near the Dock, where she will remain till she can be removed with safety. Her crew are quartered on board the Vandalia.

☞ Wm. Bowden, a teamster at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, had his hand badly jammed on Wednesday, by a lever purchase on a pair of timber wheels.

☞ We are informed that the unfortunate victims of the recent boat disaster at Spruce Creek did not go ashore to fight, nor did any quarrel ensue, but landed for the purpose of removing the water from the boat. They were very noisy and boisterous, but not angry. We cheerfully make the correction, and trust that those who originated the story intended no slander, as the friends of the deceased parties suppose.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune learns that "once more the Navy Department is about increasing the Navy. A whole fleet of fast wooden vessels is to be constructed at the Navy Yards of the United States with all possible dispatch." He is "certain that orders have been sent to New York and Portsmouth for the commencement of the vessels. Three are to be built at Portsmouth, three at New York, and three at Boston.—These vessels are to be as fast as the ingenuity of the country can make them.—Those at Portsmouth will be about 2,000 tons each, and possess the general characteristics of superior vessels of war. Their armaments are to be very heavy."

M'LLE CAMILLA URSO.—A celebrated musical critic of the Boston press thus speaks of this lady artist:—

* * * The hall was crowded in its vast fulness, and it was still—that crowd of eager people; and when this white-armed, rose-dressed woman walked so deliberately on the platform, and lifted her violin to her shoulder, the people became more still than ever, and as she, in her rapt kind of coldness and something like disdain, smote with gentle handling her magic board, the people seemed to be all lost in wonder, and so was I. That woman there, in her queen dress and steadfast look, all dreaming it might have been, snatched, coaxed, cajoled, and made that bridge of fibre speak, and sing, and whisper, and go away with a sort of wailing, and then come back again to its charmed bridge, and roll about, like a captive, amid the very tenderness and pathos of melody. I have heard Ole Bull and others—Ole in his glory, not in the concert room, but in a parlor with Strakosch at the piano, and a segar in his mouth, and no one but myself and two or three others, specially allowed; but I never heard him, the great master, so nurse into life the very spirit of the air, and sway it to such an expression of delicious sadness.

The concert in this city by this gifted lady is to be given at the Temple this evening. See advertisement.

The American Telegraph Co. have concluded to locate an office for general business in the business portion of our city, Mr. Bedloe, the Superintendent, having yielded to the request of a very large number of our business men made to that intent. The new office will be in Exchange Buildings, opposite the Post Office, and with this convenient location we hope the public will remunerate the Company for the additional outlay by a more frequent use of this daily convenience. Since the era of changing prices in gold, no successful merchant can do business in safety without the frequent aid of the telegraph to post him up in regard to the markets.—Rallot.

☞ We are requested by Dr. Goodall to state that Dr. Munson was unable to come to Portsmouth yesterday, but will arrive this morning. Dr. Goodall is consequently compelled to request all who have engaged to inhale the Nitrous Oxyd Gas to-day, not to come until this (Friday) afternoon.

☞ Michael L. Sullivan Esq., for many years one of the largest farmers of Ohio, made from his farm, clear profit, last year, $80,000.

☞ A fearful calamity occurred at St. Hendine, in the country of Dorchester, Canada, on Sunday night of last week. The house of Mr. Theotime Couture took fire and all the inmates—Couture's wife, father and six children, were burnt in the flames, Couture only escaping.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world affords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. For Sale.
The valuable and beautiful FARM, formerly owned by the Hon. James Bickerstaff. This desirable estate, comprising about seventy acres, is situated in Newington, about four miles from Portsmouth and one mile from depot of Concord Railroad at Greenland. The buildings consist of a good 1½ story House, containing ten rooms, excellent cellar washroom, &c., together with Barn, suitable Outbuildings, &c. The land is suitably divided into tillage, pasturage and mowing fields. Upon it are some of the very best varieties of Apple and Pear trees, many of which are in good bearing condition, together with the smaller fruits, such as Currants, Raspberries, &c. The beautiful shade trees scattered over the land, its eligibility to a good market, excellent pasturage and general beauty of its location, make this one of the most desirable estates ever offered for sale in this section of the State.

HEALTH AND COMFORT.
Patent Rubber Sole Boots and Shoes,
FOR MEN, BOYS AND YOUTH.
These Goods, having been carefully tested, prove to be more desirable than any other Boots and Shoes heretofore made. They answer the double purpose of Leather and Rubber Boots and Shoes.
They are made serviceable and easier to the foot than any other Boots, are waterproof, lighter, and having a leather inner sole do not draw the feet, and are far less expensive than Rubber Boots.
They are free from noise, prevent slipping on ice, and in keeping the feet dry and warm are conducive to health.
When the Soles wear out, the Boots and Shoes can be tapped with leather, or, if returned to us entire, new Rubber Soles can be put on.
The subscribers, having made arrangements as Agents for the sale of the above goods, are now prepared to take measures for the same, in different style, and deliver them at short notice. They are made from the best stock to be had in the market, and warranted in every particular. Call and examine samples, at No. 13 Market street.

Morning Chronicle.

A ROMANTIC INCIDENT OF THE WAR.—A few mornings ago Gov. Curtin of Pennsylvania was called upon at the Continental Hotel in Philadelphia by a young lady. When she was introduced into his parlor she expressed her great joy at seeing the Governor, at the same time imprinting a kiss upon his forehead:

"Madam," said he, "to what am I indebted for this unexpected salutation?"

"Sir, do you not known me?"

"Take a chair," said the Governor, at the same time extending one of the handsomest in the parlor.

"Shortly after the battle of Antietam you were upon that bloody field," said she to the Governor.

"I was," replied the governor."

"You administered to the wants of the wounded and the dying."

"It was my duty, as a feeling man."

"You did your duty well. Heaven alone will reward you, sir, for in this life there is no reward adequately expressive of the merit due you. Yes, sir, imparted consolation and revived the hopes of a dying soldier of the 28th Ohio. He was badly wounded in the arm; you lifted him into an ambulance, and the blood dropping from him stained your hands and your clothing. That soldier was as dear to me as life itself."

"A husband?" said the Governor. "No sir."

"A brother, perhaps?" "No, sir."

"A father?" "No, sir."

"A son?" "No sir."

"A lover?" "No sir."

"If not a husband, father, brother, son, or lover, who, then, could it be?" said the Governor, at length breaking the silence; "this is an enigma to me. Please explain more about the gallant soldier of Ohio."

"Well, sir, that soldier gave you a ring. C. E. D. were the letters engraved on the interior. That is the ring now upon your little finger. He told you to wear it, and carefully have you done so."

"The Governor pulled the ring off, and sure enough the letters were there.

"The finger that used to wear that ring will never wear it any more. The hand is dead, but the soldier still lives."

The Governor was now more interested than ever. "Well, madam," said he, "tell me all about it. Is this ring yours? Was it given to you by a soldier whom you loved?"

"I loved him as I loved my life; but he never returned that love. He had more love for his country than for me; I honor him for it. That soldier who placed that little ring upon your finger stands before you." So saying, the strange lady arose from her chair and stood before the Governor.

The scene that now ensued we leave to the imagination of the reader. A happy hour passed. The girl who had thus introduced herself was Catharine E. Davidson of Sheffield, Ohio. She was engaged to be married, but her future husband responded to the call of the President, and she followed him by joining another regiment. He was killed in the same battle where she fell wounded. She is alone in the world, her father and mother having departed this life years ago. She was the soldier of the 28th Ohio who had placed the ring upon the finger of Gov. Curtin, for the kind attention given her upon the bloody field of Antietam.

The right arm had been amputated about half way between the elbow and the shoulder. The interview finally ended, and having at last seen her benefactor, she bade him and his friends adieu, taking with her an order, bearing the bold signature of A. G. Curtin, for one of Palmer's patent arms.

[Of course, no unscrupulous writer invented the above "story" to secure a gratuitous advertisement of Palmer's patent arms.]

A capital example, writes a reader, of what is often termed "taking the starch out" happened recently in a country bank in New England. A pompous, well dressed individual entered the bank, and addressing the teller, who is something of a wag enquired:

"Is the cashier in?"

"No, sir," was the reply.

"Well, I am dealing in pens, supplying the New England banks pretty largely, and I suppose it will be proper for me to deal with the cashier."

"I suppose it will," said the teller.

"Very well, I will wait."

The pen-peddler took a chair, and sat composedly for a full hour, waiting for the cashier. By that time he began to grow uneasy, but sat twisting in his chair for about twenty minutes, and, seeing no prospect of a change in his circumstances, asked the teller how soon the cashier would be in.

"Well, I don't know, exactly," replied the waggish teller, "but I expect him in about eight weeks. He has just gone to Lake Superior, and told me he thought he would be back in that time."

Peddler thought he would not wait.

Oh, you can stay if you wish, said the teller, very blandly. "We have no objection to your sitting here in the daytime, and you can probably find some place in town where they will be glad to keep you nights."

The pompous peddler disappeared without another word.

☞ Some papers, to make copper capital, have coined and circulated the following forgery:

The venerable Gen. Cass has no fear of calling things by their right names. In a recent letter he says:

"The Jacobins and Radicals, who are the leading spirits of the party in power, seem quite as intent on destroying our civil rights as in whipping the Rebels into subjection."

But says the Tribune, the words are not those of "the venerable Gen. Cass," but a Copperhead Pennsylvanian who happens to bear the same name, and who lays claim to a military title.

THE BEST COOK STOVE
IN THE MARKET,
AFTER ALL SAID,
—is—
STEWART'S
NEW, LARGE OVEN, AIR TIGHT,
SUMMER AND WINTER
COOKING STOVE,
For Wood or Coal,
IMPROVED IN 1859.

The peculiarities of the
STEWART COOK STOVE,
Embracing the latest improvements, briefly stated, will be found:

1. It is what it purports to be—AN AIR TIGHT COOKING STOVE. That is, when the draft is properly adjusted, wood will lie and smoulder and char, upon the grate, after the manner of a coal pit. Or, if the fire be of Anthracite Coal, by simply closing the draft, it will be effectually put out.

2. Combined with this, are the peculiar position of the fire chamber, the general internal structure, and the outward moveable coverings, by which means the heat of the stove may be confined within or thrown off to warm the apartment, thus relieving females of the discomfort usually attendant upon carrying on cooking operations in summer, and securing the qualities of the brick oven so fully that the baking process may be carried through successfully without any one going near the stove from the time the article is set in until it is removed from the oven.

3. The stove is accommodated to the reception of a permanent RESERVOIR (of copper, with a tin casing) containing from 10 to 20 gallons, by which the waste heat, in passing off, is made available to keep on hand a constant supply of hot water. The space beneath the reservoir is occupied with a TIN CLOSET, where articles ready for the table are placed to keep warm, bread set to rise, fruit dried, &c.

4. Also, by the aid of the TOP COVER, a coal fire may be kept up through the night, and breakfast and dinner prepared the next day with no addition of fuel.

5. Roasting is performed in the most perfect manner in front of the stove, with a DUTCH OVEN prepared for the purpose—the heat being communicated to it from both sides of the fire-box; and the fumes, meanwhile, passing into the draft.

6. A NOVEL PLAN OF VENTILATION is adopted, by which two kinds of meat may be roasted in the oven at the same time, without imparting the peculiar flavor of one to the other; and the current instituted for this purpose made subservient to augment the heat upon the bottom of the oven, with no increase of combustion.

7. By the aid of the perforated metallic linings, or "gas burning arrangement," and application of the full summer draw, the various culinary processes may be carried forward successfully with a single stick of wood at a time.

8. In regard to DURABILITY, the Stewart Stove is made to last, and will last. The structural form is such that the frame work of it can not burn out.

All the plates constituting the original STEWART STOVE, which was brought out twenty years ago, are still made, and sent to different parts of the country, on call.

The price of QUIETNESS, COMFORT and HEALTH secured to a family by the use of a culinary apparatus perfectly adapted to their wants, cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents.

But we can not, and need not, enumerate in detail, the excellencies of the STEWART STOVE. It is no experiment, or new fangled notion got up to gull the public, to which we invite your attention; but

THE STANDARD COOK STOVE

Now in use, which has been widely tested
FOR TWENTY YEARS,

and now found wanting in any particular. Yes, the Stewart Stove has been manufactured and used for a score of years; but the inventor has kept pace with the times, and repeatedly made improvements—so that the Stewart Stove of 1863 is as superior to that of 1841, as the Mowing Machine is to a Bush scythe.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiled meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or repairing buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other places, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, which possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of air through the fire-pots, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Meadum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the roof is broken it can be by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not effect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.
DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,
Has had four years of practical experience in working this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.
Portsmouth, Jan. 1, 1863.

Would respectfully announce to his patrons and the public that VULCANIZED RUBBER, as a base for Artificial Teeth, promises all the advantages of Gold, yet costs only half as much. My experience has been highly satisfactory in its use, and I have no hesitation in WARRANTING PERFECT SATISFACTION in all cases.
Teeth inserted on Gold and Silver, and all other operations performed as usual.
I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr OLIVER and Dr BENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.
☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE.
PURE AND FOUR YEARS OLD,
OF CHOICE OPORTO FRUIT,
For Physicians' Use,
FEMALES, WEAKLY PERSONS, INVALIDS
SAMBUCUS FREE, OF PORTUGAL,

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE celebrated throughout Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic, Diuretic and Sudorific, highly esteemed by eminent physicians, used in European and American Hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.
As a DIURETIC, it imparts a healthy action to the Glands and Kidneys, and Urinary Organs very beneficial in Dropsy, Gout and Rheumatic Affections.
SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE is not a mixture or manufactured article, but is pure from the juice of the Portugal Sambucus, cultivated in New Jersey, recommended by Chemists and Physicians as possessing medical properties superior to any other Wines in use, and an excellent article for all weak and debilitated persons, and the aged and infirm, improving the appetite, and benefitting ladies and children.
A LADIES' WINE, because it will not intoxicate as other wines, as it contains no mixture of spirits or other liquors, and is admired for its rich peculiar flavor and nutritive properties, imparting a healthy tone to the digestive organs, and a blooming, soft and healthy skin and complexion.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all:
Exalt the right, though every item fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not unmeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to the

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on inventors rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

GOLDEN SHEAF WHISKEY.

The subscriber, having been engaged for the last twenty years in the importation and sale of Wines and Spirits, now finds from this experience that real

Pure Bourbon Whiskey,

when made as it ought to be from WHEAT RYE AND CORN, is, without doubt, the most healthful and medical spirit that can be used. Having determined to make the sale of this article a specialty in his business, he has accepted the

General Selling Agency for a large Distillery in Bourbon County, Kentucky, and in future will sell, under the brand of

"Golden Sheaf,"

PURE BOURBON WHISKEY, manufactured from the BEST SELECTED GRAINS, and made in the most careful manner.

This celebrated Whiskey will be put up in cases containing one dozen bottles each, and offered to the Trade by his Travelling agents throughout the country, and also from the cellar of his warehouse in Boston, in barrels, half barrels and kegs.

Individuals desirous of procuring a sure, reliable article of BOURBON WHISKEY at a reasonable price, have only to inquire of any respectable Grocer or Druggist for "GOLDEN SHEAF WHISKEY," or to send their orders for any quantity required to the General Depot, 91 Washington St. Boston.

Each bottle is enclosed in a neat pasteboard box, to ensure its safe transportation.

In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Biles, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to counsel and a Physician who has cured thousands in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and most happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK,

A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr. TELLER's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—300 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Happy. SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

A rebel dispatch states that they opened on Chattanooga at 1 o'clock A. M., 5th, from Lookout Mountain, and other points along the lines. Their shells exploded in our camp as well as in the city; our forces replied briskly from Mocassin Point. Federal accounts to the 7th, however, state that the two armies still confront each other.—Irregular firing and constant movement on the part of the enemy, was odd and mysterious, but not threatening.

The N. Y. Tribune's Washington correspondent says he has information from Richmond that the rebels are engaged providing Bragg's army not only with reinforcements, but also with large siege material, including guns of an extraordinary size. Reinforcements for Gen. Rosecrans are being sent in large numbers from Memphis.

The rebels report that an attack was made by them, on the 6th, on the frigate Ironsides, damaging her and alarming the fleet. But the dispatch significantly adds that two of the rebel men, including Lieut. Gassett, of the Chicora, are missing.

A rebel advance on Fort Scott and Kansas City, is reported. All the troops at Leavenworth have been ordered below, and it is stated that the militia have been called out. Fort Scott is believed to be strong enough successfully to resist the attack. Col. Blair is commanding them.

A Mobile dispatch states that 1500 Federal cavalry attacked Col. Richardson near New Albany, on the 6th, but were repulsed.

The Army of the Potomac made preparations to meet an expected attack on Wednesday, but none was made. Our forces picket the entire north of the Rapidan, to its confluence with the Rappahannock. Re-enlistments for two years are going on rapidly, under the recent enactment giving $400 bounty to old soldiers.—The N. Y. Herald's correspondent says it estimated that fully two-thirds of the Army of the Potomac will re-enlist.

100 guerrillas threw a train off the track near New Hope, Ky., on Thursday afternoon, and then burned the passenger, baggage and express cars, destroyed the locomotive, robbed the passengers of money, and decamped.

The government has no intelligence of the reported battle at Brashear City, La.—It is thought to be a new version of a rebel paper story to a similar effect, started a few days ago. Franklin's corps passed through Brashear City before the day named for the fight.

The War Department has stated, in reply to several inquiries, that there is no truth in the persistent reiteration that another draft has been ordered, or that it is about to be. The President furnishes the Washington Republican with an unequivocal denial that he has received any peace overtures from the rebels, as asserted in the New York Herald of Thursday.

There is a report of the capture of Shelbyville, Tenn., by the rebels, which needs confirmation.

A great Federal expedition from Cairo is hinted at.

FOREIGN.—Earl Russell has made an important speech at Blair Gowrie, Scotland, during which he referred at considerable length to the American question. He justified England in recognizing the Confederates as belligerents, but professed great friendship for America, and complimented Mr. Seward and the Federal government upon the fairness with which they discussed matters of difference.

The London Times infers that the withdrawal of Mason is preliminary to some action on the part of France. The Times also says Earl Russell's speech relative to the iron-clads in the Mersey is interpreted as meaning that the vessels will be detained, even if the existing law is in their favor, so that Parliament may be called on to pass measures for that purpose.

☞ A French chemist has succeeded in making sugar from the skins cast off by silk-worms and serpents.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Hon. Daniel Goodenow, of Alfred, Maine, was in Portland, on Wednesday, attending to business; rode out home in the afternoon and at night was seized with an apoplectic fit which proved fatal in a few hours. He was Judge of the Supreme Judicial Court from 1855 to 1862.

☞ A gentleman from Andover was victimized to the amount of $3000 in cash in the Assistant Treasurer's office at the Boston Custom House, on Thursday afternoon. He had placed his pocket book on the counter, when a man standing near by called his attention to a bank bill on the floor at his feet. He picked it up and finding it did not belong to him, passed it to one of the clerks. While this was going on—a transaction that consumed hardly a minute—the thoughtful individual seized the pocket book from the counter and left. No clue to him has been obtained.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

——The Mirror states that male and female laborers were never so scarce in Manchester as now, although only a part of the mills are running.

—— Monday night, between eight and nine o'clock, the stable connected with the jail at Amherst caught fire and was burned to the ground. A portion of the contents were saved.

—— Ira Colby, Jr., Esq., of Claremont, while out gunning on Monday last, had a narrow escape from a fatal injury by the bursting of his gun. The breech-pin blew out, lacerating his hand and striking him in the forehead, inflicting an ugly looking wound, but without fracturing the skull.

—— The second and closing day of the fair at Littleton, 8th inst., brought together some eight thousand persons. The sweepstakes of $100 was won by the Cassius M. Clay—time: 2.40—2.38. The track was only completed the day previous to the fair, and was several seconds "slow" on that account. House of Stanstead won the $60 purse, Wellington second. Time: 2.57—2.44.

—— The drafted men in Manchester have under consideration a project to hold a meeting, and, after ascertaining the number of substitutes required, to choose a committee to go to Canada or wherever they please, and bring in a supply, rejecting the intervention of brokers. Would not such a committee find themselves in trouble if they sought to carry out this idea in Canada?

—— An attempt was made last week to poison the family of T. Lathrop, of East Canaan, strychine being thrown into a pail of water and into a cream pot. The unusual appearance of the water excited suspicion, and none of it was drank. A neighbor, who had some spite against the family, it is stated had threatened to poison them, and as he has been missing since, it is supposed he is the guilty party.

—— The manufacturing companies at Manchester, held their annual meetings on Tuesday. The DeLaine Mills and Print works, with a capital of $1,300,000, has done a profitable business, selling 22,000,000 yards of cloth, and clearing $1,000,000, or 60 per cent on the capital. The Amoskeag is doing little except in its machine shop, manufacturing Springfield rifles. It has a fixed capital of $3,000,000, and half as much more working capital, subject to future dividend. The Stark Mills held their annual meeting in June. They are also unemployed at present, but have a surplus of about 40 per cent, of their earnings on hand.

A SPECULATION PROPOSED.—The following letter has been handed to the N. Y. Times for publication. The writer formerly lived in New York City, but left for the South at the beginning of the rebellion.—The original of the letter is in the possession of the editors:

"My Dear Sir: Allow me to suggest for your consideration a place for a most profitable adventure, which a little diplomacy can render perfectly safe and practicable.

To obtain the privilege, either tacit or written, so that it be reliable, to run the lines of blockade with a cargo of staple articles from a foreign port, and to return with a cargo of Upland or Sea Island cotton.

Such a vessel coming in at Ossabaw Inlet, under a discreet and reticent master, with vessel and cargo (when within Confederate lines) in my name, would be perfectly safe, and I would furnish her outward cargo—more than sufficient to pay for the inward—and send Sterling Exchange for your half of the profits.

The profits would enable you to pay handsomely for the privilege, either by a pro rata division of them or by a direct bonus—to whomsoever you negotiate with.

If you can negotiate for such an adventure, in any way that is reliable, I will pay my half of all costs and expenses—including that for the pass in and out, and give my personal attention to the sale of the inward and outward purchase of the cargo—and guarantee the latter safely on board.—The profits in and out could not fall short of 300a500 per cent. on the investment—which would be equally divided, after deducting all expenses.

A reply, addressed to R. W. H. Welch or Alex. Johnson, Esqs., Nassau, N. P., and to further care of Messrs. John Frazer & Co., Charleston, will reach me.

I am, &c., G. B. LAMAR.

To Hon. FERNANDO WOOD, New-York."

This is a very distinct and business-like proposal. The letter did not reach its destination, so that Mr. Wood may never have heard of this very eligible opportunity for making a fortune which Mr. Lamar was kind enough to offer him. What reply he would have made to the proposition if it had come to his knowledge, he can tell much better than we can. The letter is important only as showing that attempts have been made by prominent men in the rebel States to enlist men at the North in the business of running the blockade and sustaining the rebellion. It is altogether probable that some of the proposals of which this is a sample, reached the parties for whom they were intended. What reception they met with must be matter of conjecture.—N. Y. Times.

☞ Col. Dan McCook, of the 52d Ohio, has destroyed the home of the murderer of his brother. Brig. Gen. McCook, who was butchered while lying wounded in an ambulance. The avenging brother left not one stone upon another, and made it a place of desolation. The house was near Huntsville, Ala.

COTTON IN ILLINOIS.—Every reader who takes any interest in such matters, we suppose has seen the statement that all the cotton growing in Illinois was destroyed by the frosts of August 29 and Sept. 20:—and also the sweeping statement that "all the free cotton is destroyed," which statement was said to come from Mr. Dunlap, a well known and reliable agriculturist.

It now turns out that Mr. Dunlap sent a dispatch to the Chicago Tribune, stating that all the Tree Cotton was destroyed; quite another thing.

It also appears, by the letter of a correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune, who lives in Union Co., Illinois, and raises cotton, that about one half the cotton crop there is destroyed, by an exceptional frost, which killed corn as well as cotton, and which was destructive at Cairo, but at Chicago did no damage. We make an interesting extract from his letter:

The great crop of sugar-cane, on which so much depended, is ruined. Then as regards the cotton—O dear! this cuts me down. I care little for the eight acres of my own; but for the grand experiment which a few weeks of good weather would have proved a success, this I do care for.—I know, too, that many depend on this crop to put them out of debt. One can almost weep to see the vast fields which a few days ago were so green, but which now are dead and black. One farmer, a neighbor, from Tennessee, who has ten acres, thinks that the frost has destroyed half of his crop, for the case is this: when the bolls are fully formed frost does not hurt them, but opens them the same as it does the chestnut burr. His piece is early, and he will get about two bales. If I get a quarter of a crop from my eight acres I shall do well enough. There is another thing to be said. This region is very hilly. Farms on the high grounds are good for fruit. Very many farmers have planted cotton on such places, and the frost has not touched the cotton. In talking with the farmers to day at a gathering, they all agree in saying that not more than half is destroyed.

I have a word to add about what the N. Y. Times of the 18th inst. said of cotton in Illinois: that is, as they predicted last Spring, not a bale of cotton will be raised north of the Ohio river, that cotton cannot be raised north of Tennessee, and that the Illinois Central Railroad had better take back its statements about its lands being good for cotton. It is a good thing for one to talk about a thing if he knows anything about it. Facts, and not theories, are what we want.

Now, the fact is, that for more than forty years cotton has been raised in Illinois as far north as Vandalia, and during all this time it has done first rate except one year only, when it was killed in June. Within this region are thousands of families who during the whole time, and up to the present moment, have worn scarcely any other cotton cloth than such as they themselves raised, spun and wove. If the frosts of this year prove that cotton cannot be raised here, they also prove that corn cannot be raised in Central Illinois. I never saw finer fields of tobacco than I saw last week near Cleveland, on Lake Erie. If frosts prove anything they prove that tobacco cannot be raised in Kentucky, but that it can be raised in Northern Ohio.

Living on the ground, here, I ought to know all about the cotton prospects, and I have to say, "I care not what you or other men may say, as for my single self, next year I shall plant at least twenty acres of cotton."

☞ An Eastern contemporary, whose exchange we value, in complaining of the depredations of clothes line thieves who stole "everything they could lay their vile hands upon," says:

There is one way of avoiding losses by clothes-line thieves—don't leave your clothes out after dark.

Another way as effectual, and perhaps to some just as reasonable, is not to have any clothes to leave out. The same paper says:—"Some men spend their money for rum and big newspapers."

Probably, it meant to say—beg newspapers. The error reminds us of another Eastern paper which was called the Inquirer. A contemporary always spoke of it as the Enquirer, and at last the Editor, his patience exhausted, declared that he could not possibly understand how his neighbor could be so much at his ease knocking other peoples eyes out.

☞ It is stated that Gen. Rosecrans was attacked by an epileptic fit prior to, or during the recent battle in Georgia.

☞ An Italian woman near Turin gave birth recently to twins without heads. The priests say it is because her husband wished the decapitation of the Pope.

☞ Conductor Towle, on the Salisbury Branch, detected a young man picking the pocket of a passenger on his train, and accordingly had him arrested at Amesbury, Mass. The pockets of three lady passengers had been picked and $503 were found upon him. But the evidence was thought insufficient to hold him, and he was discharged.

☞ One of those men who make so much by "nibbling," recently went to the Pacific Fruit Market, in San Francisco, and filled his pockets; but just as he was leaving the market, he received a rotten muskmelon on the side of his head—he turned, and got another in his face, rendering him a spectacle for contemplation. The gentleman was indignant, and would have remonstrated, but the rotten apples, pears and peaches came so fast and thick upon him that he was glad to beat a retreat.

☞ The N. Y. Weekly Argus has been united with the World, combining the editorial talent and business enterprise of each. The Argus, now in its second year, has attained a circulation of 60,000 copies. It is an able paper, and finely printed.

☞ The Portland Price Current says that the Western Railroads are so blocked up with freight for the east, that they refuse to receive flour, &c., at Chicago, for eastern markets at present. The amount of flour and produce coming forward is very large and constantly increasing.

American Agriculturist, FOR 1864.

A thorough-going, reliable and practical Journal, devoted to the different departments of soil-culture, such as growing field crops, orchard and garden fruits, garden vegetables and flowers; trees, plants and flowers, for the lawn or yard; care of domestic animals, &c., and to household labors, with an instructive department for children and youth.

It is published monthly.

Subscription—ONE DOLLAR PER ANNUM.

The club price is only Eighty Cents per annum.

Persons who wish to join the club for 1864, both old and new subscribers, will hand in their names as soon as possible.

New subscribers will receive the numbers for November and December, in addition to those for 1864.

N. B.—The proprietors have purchased a new Strawberry, which they call the "Agriculturist Strawberry," and it appears to far excel, both in size and intrinsic value, anything ever before produced. It is their intention to present One Plant to each subscriber, if they can produce enough, and if there be not enough, then as far as they go, beginning in the order of those who pay first for 1864.

The cost of packing and postage will be 5 cts.—so that the club price, including the Strawberry, will be 85 cts., and if you want the Strawberry, the money must be sent on soon.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

Leverton's Lightning Hair Dye.

The subscriber having succeeded in obtaining an article of Hair Dye, and believing it to be far superior in many respects to any article yet produced for dyeing the hair and whiskers, now places it before the public. Its merits, above all other preparations of the kind, are:

1. Its ease of application; being applied with as much facility as by merely brushing the hair or whiskers.
2. The rapidity of its action. Being, as its name indicates, instantaneous, it will color in one minute.
3. It entirely precludes the ordinary tedious and laborious process of washing, fanning, drying, &c.
4. It does not stain the skin, as all other dyes do, but will wash off as easily as water.
5. It will not crock or smut.
6. It does not change its color from its first application, except to a more beautiful and durable black, never assuming that dull or greenish hue so common with most dyes.
7. It is the "Ne Plus Ultra" and "Tip-Top," No. 1 article of all combinations called Hair Dyes.

Teeth extracted positively without pain, by inhaling Nitrous Oxyd Gas!

Dr. E. B. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public that he has this week had conclusive proof of the extraction of many TEETH without pain, at the office of Drs. FLAGG & OSGOOD, Boston, assisted by Dr. C. M. Richardson of New York, who has had a long experience and wonderful success in making and administering Nitrous Oxyd Gas.

He is fully convinced that this is a perfectly harmless anæsthetic, its effect being that of an exhilarant, the whole operation being completed generally in three minutes, without the least pain, and the patient feeling as well, and usually better than before inhaling the Gas.

He has therefore purchased the most complete and extensive apparatus for making pure Nitrous Oxyd Gas, and has also procured the services of Dr. G. C. Munson, to assist him in making and administering the Nitrous Oxyd Gas.

He hopes to be able to receive patients as early as Thursday afternoon, Oct. 8. For the convenience of the public, his office will also be open on Thursday and Friday Evenings. He will also devote his whole time (as much as possible) on Friday to the extraction of teeth under the influence of the Gas.

He would cordially invite all who wish teeth extracted without pain, or any possible injurious results, to call and be convinced.

Probate Advertisements.
The language of the law relating to the publication of Probate Notices is:
"The party required to publish any notice ordered by the Judge of Probate to be given in a newspaper, may select the paper therefor."
Will our subscribers remember this, and when they have occasion to do business at the Probate Office, if agreeable, request that their notice may be ordered for the Chronicle or the Gazette; otherwise a different paper may be selected.
Our terms are as low as those of any other paper.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, on Thursday evening, a petition from Mr. Charles A. Shannon for leave to set out trees in the yard of the Haven School house, was referred to the Committee on School Houses, with power to act.

A petition from Mr. J. H. Foster and others, to have the houses on Middle street renumbered, was received, and the City Clerk was empowered to have it done.

The subject of repairs on Engine House House No. 2 was referred to the Committee on Fire Department with power to act.

Oren Bragdon and Benjamin M. Parker were appointed Fence Viewers.

☞ The tents which have for some time been located on the side of the hill south of the South Mill Pond have been removed, the Invalid Corps having gone into winter quarters in the Ropewalk, barracks having been fitted up for their accommodation.

FIRST AND FOREMOST IN THE GOOD WORK.—Dr. A. P. Stevens, No. 5 Daniel St., informs us that, with the assistance of Prof. Williams from Boston, he had the satisfaction of introducing the Nitrous Oxyd Gas to the people of Portsmouth on Friday morning, his office being thronged during the larger portion of the day by eager seekers after this truly good thing. A large number of ladies and gentlemen inhaled the gas, having from one to four teeth extracted, every one of whom testified to its complete success. Any one wishing to part with any of their grinders, without the least suffering on their part, will do well to give him a call.

"THAT COMICAL BROWN."—William B. Brown announces one of his unique "Serious Conventions," or mirthful olios, at the Temple, next Wednesday evening, Oct. 14th, on which occasion he will be assisted by Miss E. A. Marsh. During the evening, Miss Marsh will sing several of her favorite pieces, including "Kathleen Mavourneen," and also the "Star Spangled Banner" in her beautiful costume of the "Daughter of the Regiment."

CAPT. WILLIAM FROST, of this city, late Master of the ship Express, destroyed by the pirate Alabama, has written an account of the capture, which we condense as follows:—

The ship left the Chincha Islands with 1800 tons of guano, consigned to Messrs. Seascau & Co., of Antwerp. The ship was chartered in Boston, U. S., by Seascau & Co., of Antwerp, and Seascau, Valleviane & Co., of Lima, where the French Consul certified, on the back of the bill of lading, that the cargo of guano then on board, was neutral property, which no citizen of the United States of America had any other interest in than that of a common carrier.—After passing Cape Horn, on the 6th of July, at 1 o'clock A. M., in lat. 29 S., lon. 31 40 W., the discharge of a gun was heard on the lee beam. The weather was cloudy and thick, with but little wind. In about ten minutes after the first gun was fired, the discharge of a second was heard, and shortly after a third, which was shotted.—Though no sail or hull could be seen from the Express, it was supposed the guns were signals of distress from some vessel requiring assistance, and judged to be about three miles off. To render such relief as I might be able, I bore away in search of the supposed distressed ship. In a short time a steamer was discovered heaving to, but showing no colors or signals. The Express was soon boarded by an officer and boat's crew, armed with cutlasses and revolvers. The boarding officer was the Master's Mate, who said he was an Englishman, and hailed from London. He declared the Express to be a prize to the Confederate States ship Alabama, and took possession of her and run her under the stern of the steamer. I was ordered to take my papers to the Alabama, where I found, in the captain's cabin, Capt. Semmes, who looked over the ship's papers. I directed his attention to the certificate of the French Consul on the back of the Bill of Lading, declaring, under the French seal, the cargo to be neutral property. He replied—"Its only a mere word," and turning to his 1st Lieutenant, said, "Mr. Kell, we will burn the ship." I told him it was certainly neutral property, and requested to have my declaration on oath to that effect taken. Capt. Semmes's clerk then administered the oath, declaring the cargo to be neutral property, which oath was recorded by the clerk in a book. An offer by me to give an indemnity bond if he would release her, was declined, and I received the impression from officers that everything bearing the American flag was to be burned. I was then ordered back to my ship to bring my wife on board the Alabama. I was permitted to take a portion of my clothing, but all was taken from me on board the Alabama, and what I had on and a portion of Mrs. Frost's clothing was also taken. The officers and crew were allowed to take one bag of clothing each.—They were taken on board the Alabama and put in irons on deck, in which condition they were kept day and night while I was on board. The ship's papers, log, letters to consignees, and a private mail from the ship Shackamaxon, were burnt. We were on board the Alabama 16 days, when we were put on board the ship Star of Erin.

The N. Y. Tribune has a letter dated Cape Town, Cape of Good Hope, Aug. 19, which makes the following statement:—

The Express carried, beside her Northern register, a Southern one, signed by Jeff. Davis—one of her owners belonging in New Orleans. When Capt. Frost showed the latter document to Capt. Semmes, he flew into a passion, and said—"D—n you, I'll burn your ship. You are a traitor, and if it was not for your wife on board I would shoot you."

☞ Caleb Emery, a native of Kittery, 17 years of age, arrived in Portland on Wednesday, having deserted from the rebel army about two months since. He was conscripted in Jacksonville, Fla., where he was living with his father, Dr. Emery, who escaped about the same time as his son.—On coming into the Federal lines, the son was furnished with sufficient funds to take him to Washington, and thence to Philadelphia. From that city his passage to Portland was paid by returning Maine soldiers. Failing to find any friends in Portland he applied for a night's lodging at the Police Station, and some of the officers the next morning paid his fare to Kittery, where his grandmother resides. He was dressed in the rebel uniform. The Portland Courier is our authority for the above statements.

☞ During a marriage ceremony in St. Domingo the bride was shot at the altar.—The assassin escaped.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambucci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world affords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

HEALTH AND COMFORT.
Patent Rubber Sole Boots and Shoes,
FOR MEN, BOYS AND YOUTH.
These Goods, having been carefully tested, prove to be more desirable than any other Boots and Shoes heretofore made. They answer the double purpose of Leather and Rubber Boots and Shoes.
They are made serviceable and easier to the feet than Leather Soles, are impervious to water, and having a leather inner sole do not draw the feet, and are far less expensive than Rubber Boots.
They are free from noise, prevent slipping on ice, and in keeping the feet dry and warm are conducive to health.
When the soles wear out, the Boots and Shoes can be tapped with leather, or, if returned to us entire, new Rubber Soles can be put on.
And having a leather inner sole do not draw the feet, and are far less expensive than Rubber Boots.
Wholesale Agents, who have the arrangements as Agents for the sale of the above goods, are now prepared to take measures for the same, in different cities, and will deliver them at short notice. $100 REWARD!
For a Medicine that will cure
COUGHS, INFLUENZA,
TICKLING IN THE THROAT,
Or relieve CONSUMPTIVE COUGH,
as quick as
COE'S COUGH BALSAM.
OVER FIVE THOUSAND BOTTLES have been sold in its native town, and not a single instance of its failure is known.
We have, in our possession, any quantity of certificates, some of them from
EMINENT PHYSICIANS,
who have used it in their practice, and given it the pre-eminence over any other compound.
It does not dry up a Cough,
but loosens it, so as to enable the patient to expectorate freely.
☞ Two or three Bottles will invariably cure TICKLING IN THE THROAT.
A HALF BOTTLE has often completely cured the most
STUBBORN COUGH.
And yet, though it is so sure and speedy in its operation, it is perfectly harmless, being purely vegetable. It is very agreeable to the taste, and may be administered to children of any age.
In cases of CROUP we will guarantee a cure, if taken in season. No Family should be without it. It is within the reach of all, the price being
ONLY 25 CENTS!
And if an investment and thorough trial does not "crack up" the above statement, the money will be refunded. We say this, knowing its merits, and feel confident that one trial will secure for it a home in every household.
Do not waste away with Coughing, when so small an investment will cure you. It may be had of any respectable druggist in town, who will furnish you with a circular of genuine certificates of cures it has made.

From the Journal
NAVY YARD MEMORANDA.

CONSTRUCTORS, &c.—We learn from conversation with one who has been familiar with the Yard for over forty years, that Samuel Hartt, was Constructor in 1818. That the keel of the Alabama was laid in 1819, in the house from which the Washington was launched in 1816. The house over the Santee was built in 1821. The house in which the Franklin now is, was built in 1837. The Preble was the first ship built in it, in 1839. Master Hartt left the Yard in 1825, and was succeeded by Mr. Floyd, who finished the Alabama to its present condition. Mr. Floyd built the Concord, launched in 1828. It was one of the ten sloops of war ordered under the Adams' administration. Mr. Floyd died in June 1838, and was succeeded by Samuel M. Pook, as Constructor, who was an apprentice to Master Hartt when the keel of the Alabama was laid. Mr. Pook remained at the Yard until 1843, and built the Preble, the Congress, and the Saratoga sloop of war. He then went to the Charlestown Navy Yard and built several vessels; afterwards was stationed at the Washington Navy Yard, then was removed to the yard at Norfolk, Vir. After it was destroyed, and until recently, he has been on special duty. Charles W. Stimson, the present master carpenter, was an apprentice to Mr. Pook in 1839, and was with him as long as he remained here. Mr. Delano, who was foreman under Mr. Barker, succeeded him as Constructor and built the Steamer Saranac. Mr. Samuel Hartt was again returned as successor to Mr. Delano, remaining two or three years. He was succeeded by William L. Hanscom, who built the Franklin, launched the Santee, and built the Mohican. He was succeeded by Constructor Grice, who after a few months was relieved by Mr. Isaiah Hanscom. In the four years he was stationed here, Mr. H. built a larger fleet of vessels than has previously been launched from the Yard. Mr. Pook is now again at his old position, and to meet the wants of the Government will bring out a new vessel as often as there is a new moon, until the rebellion is crushed, and amicable relations established with all foreign powers.

GOOD EPISCOPAL TESTIMONY.—The erratic Bishop Hopkins of Vermont, has long been known with the late President of Dartmouth College, as defenders of Southern Slavery. The extensive circulation of a letter by President H. in the diocese of Philadelphia, has caused Bishop Potter and 78 of his clergy to make a public Protest. They say,

"This attempt (of Bishop H.) not only to apologize for slavery in the abstract, but to advocate it as it exists in the Cotton States, and in States which sell men and women in the open market, as their staple product, is, in their judgment, unworthy a MINISTER OF JESUS CHRIST. As an effort to sustain on Bible principles, the States in rebellion against the Government in the wicked attempt to establish by force of arms, a tyranny, under the name of a Republic, whose corner stone shall be the perpetual bondage of the African, it challenges their indignant reprobation."

This staid old Church, having long had the reputation of indifference, as a religious body, to secular subjects, such as politics, intemperance and slavery, has drawn into its folds many very conscientious people, who could not bear any reference in the pulpits of their own religious Societies. They could not have their feelings disturbed, their only wish and desire, on this sacred day, being to hear preached "Christ and him crucified." To say any thing in the desk, and on the Sabbath too, reflecting upon the Institution of slavery in particular, was preaching politics, and peculiarly offensive.

Here we have seventy-nine Clergymen of a single diocese, expressing their abhorrence not only of the existing rebellion, but the object of it, quoting the very language of the Vice President of the Confederacy, to establish a Republic whose "corner stone shall be the perpetual bondage" of the colored men of African descent. Whatever were the prevailing opinions years gone by, it is now very evident that indifference, even on this momentous subject, is the exception and not the general feeling and rule. Still, many of these very conscientious laymen must experience the sensations of a troubled mind, upon making the enquiry, "where shall I go?"

We have some cheering news from Mexico, indicating that the Juarez government at San Louis Potosi, is collecting numerous troops, to resist the French, with strong hopes of success, as the Mexican people outside the city have no sympathy with the new movement—but on the contrary have a "deep and deadly hate towards the invaders." They had spoken of the preponderance of the Priesthood, and proclaimed freedom of worship. They don't desire a foreign Prince to govern them, after so many years of independence.—We shall see if this talk amounts to any thing.—They could drive out the French with anything like unanimity and devotion; but the foreigner depends as much upon Mexican copperheads as our Southern rebels do, or have done, upon their friends in the North. It has been the policy of the South to make foreign powers believe that in no event would they ever again be united with the free States, to gain a recognition, while their democratic friends here have been compelled to be against division. The parties doubtless understand each other.

The latest foreign advices report that Prince Maxamillian positively accepts the emperorship of Mexico. France will have to send new armies to support him.

SHOWER OF SNAILS.—In the shower of Sunday night, there was a fall of quite a number of snails in Greenland, such as can be found on the shores of the ocean. T. M. Ball, Esq. brought us a collection of them alive and active, taken from the roof of a blacksmith's shop on Monday morning. They were seen scattered in the road for a considerable distance, and must have been taken up in a water spout.

It is a query for naturalists, whether the shells which are sometimes found in elevated places, may not sometimes have been carried there in the like way.

Mr. Ball also gave a more palatable specimen, in a box of large sized ripe Chestnuts, raised on his farm from a tree ten years old. It is conclusive evidence against the theory that these nuts cannot be raised in this vicinity.

Morning Chronicle.

HEAVEN.

Beyond these chilling winds and gloomy skies,
Beyond death's cloudy portal,
There is a land where beauty never dies,
And love becomes immortal.

A land whose light is never dimmed by shade,
Whose flowers are ever vernal,
Where nothing beautiful can ever fade,
But bloom for aye, eternal.

We may not know how sweet its balmy air,
How bright and fair its flowers;
We may not hear the songs that echo there,
Through those enchanted bowers.

The city's shining towers we may not see,
With our dim, earthly vision;
For death, the silent warder, keeps the key
That ope's those gates elysian.

But sometimes, when adown the western sky
The fiery sunset lingers,
Its golden gates swing inward noiselessly,
Unlocked by silent fingers.

And while they stand a moment half ajar,
Gleams from the dimmer glory
Stream brightly through the azure vault afar,
And hail reveal the story.

O land unknown! O land of love divine!
Father all wise, eternal,
Guide, guide these wandering, wayworn feet of mine
Into those pastures vernal.

THE PECULIAR TAINT OR INFECTION which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disorder of blood from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The disease it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., one which will invigorate the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far supe rior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. The it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made where all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten the life, and greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

THE BEST COOK STOVE
IN THE MARKET,
AFTER ALL SAID,
IS
STEWART'S
NEW, LARGE OVEN, AIR TIGHT,
SUMMER AND WINTER
COOKING STOVE,
For Wood or Coal,

IMPROVED IN 1859.

The peculiarities of the
STEWART COOK STOVE,
Embracing the Latest Improvements, briefly stated, are:

1. It is what it purports to be—AN AIR TIGHT COOKING STOVE. That is, when the draft is properly adjusted, wood will lie and smoulder and char, upon the grate, after the manner of a coal pit. Or, if the fire be of Anthracite Coal, by simply closing the draft, it will be effectually put out.

2. Combined with this, are the peculiar position of the fire-chamber, the general internal structure, and the outward removable coverings, by which means the heat of the stove may be confined within or thrown off to warm the apartment, thus relieving females of the discomfort usually attendant upon carrying on cooking operations in summer, and securing the qualities of the brick oven so fully that the baking process may be carried through successfully without any one going near the stove from the time the article is set in until it is removed from the oven.

3. The stove is accommodated to the reception of a permanent RESERVOIR (of copper, with a tin casting) containing from 10 to 20 gallons, by which the waste heat, in passing off, is made available to keep on hand a constant supply of hot water. The space beneath the reservoir is occupied with a TIN CLOSET, where articles ready for the table are placed to keep warm, bread set to rise, fruit dried, &c.

4. Also, by the aid of the TOP COVER, a coal fire may be kept up through the night, and breakfast all dinner prepared the next day with no addition of fuel.

5. Roasting is performed in the most perfect manner in front of the stove, with a DUTCH OVEN prepared for the purpose—the heat being communicated to it from both sides of the fire-box; and the fumes, meanwhile, passing into the draft.

6. A NOVEL PLAN OF VENTILATION is adopted, by which two kinds of meat may be roasted in the oven at the same time, without imparting the peculiar flavor of one to the other; and the current instituted for this purpose made subservient to augment the heat upon the bottom of the oven, with no increase of combustion.

7. By the aid of the perforated metallic linings, or "gas burning arrangement," and application of the full summer dress, the various culinary processes may be carried forward successfully with a single stick of wood at a time.

8. In regard to DURABILITY, the Stewart Stove is made to last, and will last. The structural forms are such that the frame work of it can not burn out.

All the plates constituting the original STEWART STOVE, which was brought out twenty years ago, are still made, and sent to different parts of the country, on call.

The price of QUIETNESS, COMFORT and HEALTH secured to a family by the use of a culinary apparatus perfectly adapted to their wants, cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents.

But we can not, and need not, enumerate in detail, the excellencies of the STEWART STOVE. It is no experiment, or new fangled notion got up to gull the public, to which we invite your attention; but

Now in use, which has been widely tested
FOR TWENTY YEARS,
and not found wanting in any particular. Yes, the Stewart Stove has been manufactured and used for a score of years; but the inventor has kept pace with the times, and repeatedly made improvements—so that the Stewart Stove of 1863 is as superior to that of 1841, as the Mowing Machine is to a Bush Scythe.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be confined day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling their dwelling buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air into the flue, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will run from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressed portion, make it close to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE celebrated in Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic, Diuretic and Sudorific, highly esteemed by eminent physicians, used in European and American Hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.
AS A DIURETIC, it imparts a healthy action to the Glands and Kidneys, and Urinary Organs very beneficial in Dropsy, Gout and Rheumatic Affections.
SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE is not a mixture or manufactured article, but is pure from the juice of the Portugal Sambucus, cultivated in New Jersey, recommended by Chemists and Physicians as possessing medical properties superior to any other Wines in use, and an excellent article for all weak and debilitated persons, and the aged and infirm, improving the appetite, and benefitting ladies and children.
A LADIES' WINE, because it will not intoxicate as other wines, as it contains no mixture of spirits or other liquors, and is admired for its rich peculiar flavor and nutritive properties, imparting a healthy tone to the digestive organs, and a blooming, soft and healthy skin and complexion.
WE REFER TO
a few well known gentlemen and physicians, who have tried the Wine.

VOL. 23. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. MONDAY OCT. 12. 1863. NO. 88.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is to be in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

The Golden Sheaf Whiskey
Is found to be remarkable in the treatment of Lung Complaints, Derangements of the Stomach, &c. It is strictly pure, and has the endorsement of our best physicians. C. A. RICHARDS, Boston.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a
PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.
By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the qualification of presenting to the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of
GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest siblings of a child.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.
Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.
Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.
Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capottes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important!
To Females in Delicate Health.
DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranted in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.
Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.
Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.
Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow informs us he has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

Wheat, Rye, Corn.

GOLDEN SHEAF WHISKEY.
The subscriber, having been engaged for the last twenty years in the importation and sale of Wines and Spirits, now finds from this experience that real
Pure Bourbon Whiskey, when made as it ought to be, from WHEAT, RYE AND CORN, is without doubt, the most healthful and medical spirit that can be used. Having determined to make the sale of this article a speciality in his business, he has accepted the General Selling Agency for a large Distillery in Bourbon County, Kentucky, and in future will sell, under the brand of
"Golden Sheaf,"
PURE BOURBON WHISKEY, manufactured from the BEST SELECTED GRAINS, and made in the most careful manner.
This celebrated Whiskey will be put up in cases containing one dozen bottles each, and offered to the Trade by his Travelling agents throughout the country, and also kept on hand in his warehouse in Boston, in barrels, half barrels and kegs.
Individuals desirous of procuring a pure, reliable article of BOURBON WHISKEY, at a reasonable price, have only to inquire of any respectable Grocer or Druggist for "GOLDEN SHEAF WHISKEY," or to send their orders for any quantity required to the General Depot for its sale, 91 Washington St, Boston.
Each bottle is enclosed in a neat pasteboard box, to ensure its safe transportation.

QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.
Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!
DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World,) of obtaining the same as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.
In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Nose, Tongue, Tender Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Blies, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are positively made to remove all the effects of his Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.
YOUNG MEN.
Young Men afflicted with secret ailits, who have impaired their health and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasures of life, are hereby notified that by consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. J. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of the subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.
DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.
A book for everybody—Startling disclosures! Dr TELLER'S Lecture on the Married or those contemplating marriage—200 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts—sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery. It contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr. TELLER has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.
TO THE LADIES.
DR. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Vichoi's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 30,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.
CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.
Office hours from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 9 to 5 P. M.
N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

MONDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

It is now ascertained that the story of a battle at Brashear City, a Union repulse, and a subsequent victory to our arms, had no foundation whatever. On the 1st, the headquarters of the 19th army corps, under Gen. Franklin, and part of the 13th army corps, under Gen. C. C. Washburn, were at Camp Bishland, fifty miles from Brashear City. They had met no enemy as yet. A few of our troops marched from Baton Rouge on the 29th, as far as the Amite river, and captured 14 prisoners, with their arms, horses, &c. Among them were the notorious Col. Hunter and Capt. Perry, guerrilla chiefs. The rebel General Logan is on the east side of the Mississippi river, seven or eight miles below Mergausia Bend, with 2500 men and 4 pieces of artillery, and is supposed to be marching to Liberty, where a rebel force is concentrating. Gen. Sherman, commanding the 15th army corps, reports to headquarters that many of the best inhabitants of Mississippi are now clamoring for peace on terms acceptable to all who do not aim at the destruction of that part of the United States. He thinks also that no hostile army will be required to visit the interior of that State.

Gen. Dana, whose troops had been engaged in skirmishing with a body of rebels 25 miles above Port Hudson, on the 29th sent out a number of regiments to ascertain their strength. A severe engagement ensued, resulting in a loss to the Union army of several hundred killed and wounded, and of 1500 prisoners. Since then the rebel forces have assumed the offensive, and are pressing Dana's men with such vigor that the gunboats have been called in to aid in repulsing the enemy.

The main army, under Gen. Franklin, en route for Texas, proceeds on its way with toilsome marches. The head of the column, under Gen. Weitzel, reached Franklin, and on the 30th ult. the rear reached Berwick Bay.

The expedition sent out from Fortress Monroe on Sunday was intended to break up guerrilla bands and rebel boats' crews organized in Matthews county. Gen. Foster reports that it had returned on the 9th, having in the main accomplished its object. Four naval rebel officers, twenty-five men, and twenty-five head of cattle belonging to the Confederacy, together with horses, mules, &c., are the results. A large number of rebel boats were destroyed. Our loss was one man killed.

The Petersburg Express reports that the Federals are evacuating Norfolk, one or two gunboats lying off the city.

A dispatch to the St. Louis Democrat, dated Vicksburg, Sept. 30, says Joe Johnston was at Canton, Miss., with 15,000 troops, his supposed design being to prevent reinforcements from going to Rosecrans.—Gen. Stephen D. Lee had 4000 rebel cavalry near Vicksburg. Johnston says their victories are useless unless they can crush Rosecrans before reinforcements reach him.

The rebel cavalry who cowardly sacked Shelbyville, although we had neither forces nor stores there, were overtaken on the 6th; a battle immediately ensued, resulting in the rout of the rebels, who left over 100 dead and many wounded on the field.

Wharton's rebel cavalry were defeated near Franklin, Tenn., on Thursday afternoon. They lost 25 killed and wounded, 300 taken prisoners, and 4 pieces of artillery captured. They retreated, our forces pursuing.

Gen. Gilmore threw one of the Greek fire shells into Charleston on the evening of the 2d, setting fire to buildings which burned for over two hours. Everything was then ready for the grand attack.

NAVAL.—The U. S. frigate Sabine, which has visited several towns on the coast for recruiting purposes, arrived below Boston, Friday evening, from Gloucester.

☞ Foreign papers say that one of President Lincoln's sons is going to the University of Heidelberg, and that Mrs Lincoln is going over to Germany with him.

☞ One of the fifteen shells thrown into Charleston, is said to have shivered a statue of the prime mover of secession, John C. Calhoun.

☞ A physician had his pocket picked of $2300 in greenbacks at the Old Colony depot Boston, on Friday. The pocket was cut out.

☞ A smart thief in Jersey City stole a ton of coal from the sidewalk, the other evening, before it could be shovelled into the cellar.

☞ The complete returns of the California State election are not yet in, but the majorities, so far as received, foot up 16,389 in favor of the Republican candidates. On the 21st of October there is to be held throughout the State a special judicial election, at which supreme, district and county judges, and a State superintendent of public instruction are to be chosen.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Thursday, Nov. 26, has been assigned by the Executive of New Hampshire as the day of Thanksgiving.

—— Capt. John L. Swift has accepted an invitation to address the citizens of Concord, to-morrow (Tuesday) evening, at Phenix Hall, on Gen. Banks' campaign.

—— At the Supreme Judicial Court at Haverhill, Sept. 29th, Jos. D. Weeks, of Canaan, was admitted to the bar as counsellor and attorney at law throughout the State.

—— The Mirror states that Mr. R. A. Lindsay, travelling agent for a Boston house, was knocked down in the street in Manchester about 11 o'clock Friday night, and robbed of his money and gold watch.—Arrests have been made.

—— The American states that a trio of "roughs" went into a shop in Manchester, where only a girl was tending, and after looking at several articles concluded they would not purchase and started to go out. The young lady accosted one of the party, "Sir, you may leave that pocket book, or a dollar and a half in its place." The fellow indignantly professed innocence, but the shop girl coolly assured the pilferer that she knew him, and that he would hear from her by way of the Police court. The party left the [illegible] but in a few minutes one of them [illegible] and left $1.50 for the missing article.

MISSOURI AFFAIRS are badly complicated, at the present moment. The Governor, Gamble, is a conservative, and is represented as doing many things that are in conflict with the policy of the U. S. government, and that really favor the rebels; the radicals charge Gen. Schofield with similar faults. Militia in Missouri, quite a numerous force, tho' armed and paid by the U. S., are commanded by Gov. Gamble.

By Gov. Gamble's influence, and that of F. Blair, working with the conservatives, Gen. Curtis was displaced from command in the department of Missouri, and Gen. Schofield substituted. A committee from Missouri have been sent to Washington to ask for the removal of Schofield, and the appointment of some one whose views are in harmony with the Administration. They represent that the responsibility for the recent troubles in Missouri, and the tragedy in Kansas, should be placed on Gen. S. It is said President Lincoln is inclined to make the change; but it is intimated that Frank Blair, Jr., leads the opposition to the emancipation policy of the Administration in Missouri, and his relations to the Cabinet are such as to give him influence in that body. Attorney Gen. Bates is a Missouri man, and conservative. The Post Master General is a brother of Frank Blair.

The Worcester Falladium says:—

In reviewing the career of Frank Blair, Jr., people may find cause to regret the course he has taken; but they ought also to find ample reason why his action should be looked upon with some distrust. It will be remembered that when the last congress met, Frank Blair, Jr., was such a bold and outspoken radical member upon slavery that the radical members designated him as their candidate for speaker. But he was beaten by Mr. Grow. He went home to Missouri, and got up a quarrel with Gen. Fremont. Blair could not control Fremont, and so he quarrelled with him. President Lincoln removed Fremont. It is said the national appointments in Missouri have been made largely from the Blair conservatives; and they, like their leader, give a cold support to the President's views and measures.

Certain it is that if the President would withhold Missouri from the grasp of the rebels, and give force to his policy there, as elsewhere, he should lose no time in placing in command there a man of energy, decision and active loyalty. N.

☞ The annual muster and parade of the fire companies of Newburyport, will occur on Thursday, the 15th inst. A grand ball by companies three and five will wind up the pleasures of the day.

☞ Lieut. James, son of the celebrated English author, G. P. R. James, has resigned his position in the volunteer service to fill the one of Captain in the U. S. Engineering Corps, to which he was recently promoted.

☞ The correspondent of the N. Y. Times says that it is thought in professional circles in Washington that Chief Justice Taney's protracted hold on the Bench of the Supreme Court of the United States will be unloosed before the Spring of 1864.

☞ A loaded pistol in the hands of a son of the late Ira Hoxie, of South Adams, Mass., was accidentally discharged, on Saturday week, the ball passing through the young man's hand, and entering the right lung of his mother, killed her instantly.

AUTUMN FOLIAGE.—The leaves are beginning to change color; the maples in particular look splendid clothed in their scarlet robes. Soon, our forests will present a variety and brilliancy of coloring that never fails to please every person of truly cultivated taste.

☞ Fitz H. Lane of Gloucester, Mass, has a magnolia tree in his garden which is now in full bloom for the second time this season. The "sunny South" cannot beat this.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.

From our Regular Correspondent.

Dear Chronicle:—After having been cabled, elegantly Japanned, at a cost of $105,000, and subsequently severely Waled, we last week had a Russian ovation. Some 15,000 militia, several civic societies, and the City Government contributed each a share to their entertainment, and the welcome is to be further extended through a banquet and citizens' ball, and perhaps one of our 5000-firemen's grand torchlight processions.

The Russians are a substantial looking set of men, of medium height, and a majority of them wear beards of the darker shades, and uniforms plentifully besprinkled with gold lace and stars.

The business season is drawing to a close, but has been very thriving for the month past. The shipments of freight have been enormous. Two or three of our principal railroads are blocked; over a mile of cars are stationary at the Suspension Bridge, and the Hudson River railroad have refused through freight for a week.

Our theatres, and all halls of entertainment are in full blast. Forrest continues tragic at Niblo's. Thursday last, on the performance of "Damon and Phytias," the receipts at the ticket office before the rising of the curtain were $1700. The expenses per night are about $350, and Forrest has one-half the nett proceeds. $700 a day is a very fair salary.

Mrs. John Wood, one of the most popular actresses on the boards, has leased Laura Keene's old Theatre, and thoroughly refitted it in elegant style. She will commence a series of farces and burlettas on Thursday.

Laura Keene is to build a new theatre in the vicinage of Wallack's, sometime before "this cruel war is over."

I saw this morning the identical watch once worn by Roger Sherman. It is of silver, of large size and antique pattern. On the back are the initials of the original owner, and the inscription partially erased commencing "Don Alum—." The face has three dials, one with the days of the week in Latin, another with the days of the month, and the third with the hours. The indices on the two first, move one space every night at twelve. This relic is still a good timepiece, and was given to my friend by Gov. Sherman, of Connecticut, so there can be no doubt of its genuineness.

As per announcement, another of my most intimate friends—I might say, "our," for all mutual acquaintances will claim with ready pleasure the same relationship—has tired of single blessedness, and after a recent call I'm not in the least surprised at it, although it Paine-fully diminishes our circle of bachelors. May the tide of years flow so smoothly with them—unruffled by a single gale,—that they may never realize the flooding out of the current till the last twilight tips the waves with gold, and they catch the greeting, "Sail ho!" from the craft which have floated before them into the limitless bay of Eternity.

John Rogers, the modelist, has given another evidence of his genius. The subject is "The country Post-Office." It is a scene in a shoe-maker's shop. Upon the cobbler's bench, strewn with lasts, awl, and shoe pegs, rests the leathern mail bag partially retained in one hand, while the other holds a letter just extracted, at the superscription on which the old cobbler, in shirt sleeves and apron, is peering through glasses on the end of his nose, while his good wife stands with one hand on his shoulder and the other outreached to take the missive, with her face beaming with curiosity to know "whither it goeth." The design is very lifelike, and the execution admirable. N.

☞ Col. Serrell, who superintended the construction of the work on which the great gun called the "Swamp Angel" is mounted, says it required 7000 days' work and exposure to constant fire from numerous rebel batteries as soon as the work appeared above the grass. It stands on mud, 22 feet deep, so soft that a man will sink into it out of sight if he attempts to walk on it.—Ten thousand bags filled with sand were carried more than two miles, and 300 large logs and pieces of timber more than ten miles to make the battery. Two miles and a half of bridges across the marsh had to be built to get to and from the batteries.

☞ An Irish woman by the name of Ann Kelly, who claimed to have a husband in the army, died in Biddeford a few days since, of excessive intemperance. She went to Biddeford about six weeks ago, opened a rum hole and was her own first victim. She left three little children, who were taken in charge by the Overseers of the Poor.

☞ A woman in Washington, whose husband is worth $40,000, was recently detected for the second time in purloining eggs at the Central market. The dealer gave her a scolding and let her off on the promise that she never would come near his stand again.

☞ Persons who sell liquor to soldiers in Baltimore, are punished by being made to carry through the streets a placard inscribed, "I sold liquor to soldiers."

☞ Grace Church, Boston, where our townsman, the late Rev. Chas. Mason, labored devotedly as rector of that church, and pastor and friend of all whom he could reach,—is now open as a Free Episcopal Church, and is very successful. It has been thrown open with the liberal invitation in large letters on its doors, "All persons are invited to take any unoccupied seats." The church was re-opened a year after Dr. M.'s death as a free church, especially aiming to carry out the work begun by him of improving and evangelizing that district on the confines of which this church stands. A young Harvard graduate of '59, but ten days ordained, of good scholarship, fine voice in pulpit and song, and attractive address, took with a vigorous hand the ecclesiastical reins and drives brisk and well. A Sunday school of hundreds of all shades of color, and a congregation mixed in the same way, embracing the extremest social range, from families of millionaires to those who require to be clothed before entering the purlieus of the sanctuary,—sewing circles, and all the other appendages of a live meeting-house, in full blast, testify to his zeal and energy.

☞ Three important General Orders have been issued by Gen. Banks. The first sets forth that in consideration of the fact that the Mississippi river has been opened, and that it is the duty of the people of Louisiana to assist in guarding it, all persons liable to military duty have been enrolled and are liable to be called on at such time and in such manner as hereinafter designated. In the meantime officers have been charged with raising volunteer regiments for the defense of New Orleans during the war.

☞ The much vexed point as to the merits of English and Arab horses has, according to the London Times correspondent again been tried in Cairo. Ali Pacha, who has the finest stud of Arabs in Egypt, maintained that no English horse could run against an Arab for four miles. His Highness Halim Pacha offered to run Champion a well known racer in England, against him for any sum he liked. The match was run from the first station on the Suez desert at Cairo. The English horse, which was bred by Lord Ribblesdale, won in a canter by more than half a mile.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.
These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.
Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.
Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

Teeth extracted positively without pain, by inhaling Nitrous Oxyd Gas!
Dr. E. B. GOODALL
Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public that he has this week had ocular proof of the extraction of many TEETH without pain, at the office of Drs. FLAGG & OSGOOD, Boston, assisted by Dr. G. C. MUNSON, of New York, who has had a long experience and wonderful success in making and administering Nitrous Oxyd Gas.
He is fully convinced that it is a perfectly harmless anæsthetic, its effect being that of an exhilarant, the whole operation being completed generally in three minutes, without the least pain, and the patient feeling as well, and usually better than before inhaling the Gas.
He has therefore purchased the most complete and extensive apparatus for making pure Nitrous Oxyd Gas, and has also procured the services of Dr. G. C. MUNSON, to assist him in making and administering the Nitrous Oxyd Gas.
He hopes to be able to receive patients as early as Thursday afternoon, Oct. 8. For the convenience of the public, his office will also be open on Thursday and Friday Evenings. He will also devote his whole time (as much as possible) on Friday to the extraction of teeth under the influence of the Gas.
He would cordially invite all who wish teeth extracted without pain, or any possible injurious results, to call and be convinced.

HEALTH AND COMFORT.
Patent Rubber Sole Boots and Shoes,
FOR MEN, BOYS AND YOUTH.
These Goods, having been carefully tested, prove to be more desirable than any other Boots and Shoes heretofore made. They answer the double purpose of Leather and Rubber Boots and Shoes.
They are made serviceable and easier to the feet than Leather Soles, are impervious to water, and saving a leather sole they do not draw the feet, and are far less expensive than Rubber Boots.
They are free from noise, prevent slipping on ice, and in keeping the feet dry and warm are conducive to health.
When the leather sole is worn out, the Boots and Shoes can be tapped with leather, or, if returned to us entire, new Rubber Soles can be put on.
The subscribers, having made arrangements as Agents for the sale of the above goods, are now prepared to take measures for the same, in different styles, and deliver them at short notice. They are made from the best stock to be had in the market, and warranted in every particular. Call and examine samples, at No. 12 Market street.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.
HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introduction of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

Local.

NO INFRINGEMENT OF RIGHTS INTENDED.—Mr. Charles A. Shannon informs us that while he has personally no objection to doing what lies in his power to adorn the Haven School House yard, he in reality asked permission of the Board of Aldermen to plant trees in the yard of the Franklin School House—which is as far distant from the Haven School House as the North from the South part of the city. Of course, while professing his willingness to set out trees in the yard of the Haven School-house he would have his friend Foss understand distinctly that he should expect him to reciprocate the favor. Such reciprocity should be regarded as entirely free from disloyalty, although the result would be trees on-to the two yards mentioned. [For the concluding brilliant idea we acknowledge our indebtedness to somebody else—almost as willingly as for the error in the names of the schools.]

☞ Dr. Baker has placed at the corner of Jefferson Market a large and fine "specimen" of conglomerate rock from Roxbury, Mass., popularly known as "pudding stone." Although so common in that city, it is somewhat of a curiosity here, where it is never found, and will, doubtless, interest many.

☞ A correspondent of the Boston Journal gives a lengthy account of outrages in Carroll county upon the officers sent by Capt. Godfrey to notify drafted men,—Deputy Provost Marshal Hiram C. Paul, and enrolling officer Horace H. Godfrey. In Jackson, on Wednesday, Mr. Godfrey was scolded and stoned, but not harmed.—But on that night the hotel, the Forest Vale House, at which they stopped, was set on fire and destroyed, with all the adjoining buildings, and their contents, the whole loss being $8000, on which there was no insurance. Mr. Paul escaped from a third story window, and was slightly injured.

On Thursday the officers were engaged in notifying drafted men, In one instance they were stoned, but not injured.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT, Oct. Term, 1863. This Court commenced a session at Exeter, on Thursday, before Clifford, Circuit Judge, Harvey, District Judge. The cases upon the civil docket were disposed of without trial.

Hon. C. W. Woodman, of Dover, late Paymaster in U. S. Army, was re appointed Commissioner of the Court—having resigned the latter office when appointed Paymaster. Samuel N. Bell, Esq., of Manchester, was also appointed Commissioner of this Court; and Alvah Wood, Esq., of Exeter, was admitted to practice as Counselor of the Court.

The Grand Jury returned an indictment, U. S. v. Charles Davis, of Concord, for assisting one George Jackson, of the Heavy Artillery, to desert from the U. S. service, from Co. D, 1st Battalion Mass. Vols., which case was tried on Friday, but the jury were unable to agree, and were discharged. Davis was committed in default of finding $500 bonds for his appearance at the next Court, to be held May 8. The Court finally adjourned on Saturday morning.

HONORABLY DISCHARGED.—The Argus states that Hon. Luther S. Moore, of Limerick, Me., charged with having uttered forged paper, appeared before Judge Kingsbury in Portland on Friday, for an examination, and the government presenting no evidence against Mr. Moore, he was honorably discharged. Mr. Jeremiah Mason, whose name it was alleged Mr. Moore had fraudulently used, was present, and was ready to testify to the genuineness of his own signature to the paper in question.

Extensive preparations are being made for cutting lumber on the Penobscot waters the approaching winter. The lumber business has been eminently successful for two years past, and the market for the disposal of lumber has greatly enlarged, so that Bangor merchants now send cargoes of lumber to South America, various European ports, and a brisk trade has recently been opened with Hayti. Some of the large operators, owners of timber lands, realized for the last winter's cutting very large amounts for stumpage, one firm, at least, as high as forty thousand dollars. Bangor people have for several years been ready at all times to purchase at fair rates. The recent large sales of land by the State were all made to Bangor men, who know their value and how to manage these lands. The demand for ship timber has given increased value to much of the land of hard wood and coniferous growth, and it is getting to be understood that much of the cutting of large hardwood trees for the purpose of clearing the land is in no sense an improvement, because in a few years the prospect is that a single tree of rock maple, for instance, may be worth more than a whole acre of improved land.—Kennebec (Me.) Journal.

☞ A number of Russian sailors were granted leave of absence in New York, which they enjoyed fully. Several of them having fallen into the hands of the Philistines of Water street were plied with liquor and while in this state clad in other suits, and then sold to substitute agents, who either palmed them off or sent them to other places, where they were accepted. The Admiral, it is said, will demand the restoration of the men taken from his fleet.

☞ The Cincinnati Gazette says a son of "old Ben Wade," 19 years of age, was sent a short time since as bearer of dispatches to Gen. Buford. He rode all night, and in the morning a squad of Moseby's cavalry came upon his track. One of them, having the fleetest horse, outstripped the rest in the chase under the ambition of having the glory of his capture. Arriving within striking distance he halted young Wade, but not being honored in the challenge, the rebel fired five or six times at him, when, getting near enough, young Wade whirled about, shot the rebel through the head, leaped from his own jaded horse, mounted that of the fallen foe, and bore on in triumph with his despatches.

☞ A private letter received in Hartford, dated Havana, the 2d inst., states that no news had been received there from Mobile since Aug. 22. The last blockade runner belonging to Mobile had been captured.

☞ The corner stone of a second American church has just been laid in Paris, by the pastor, Mr. Lamson, of New York. It is to be called the American Protestant Episcopal Church of the Holy Trinity.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world affords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. $100 REWARD!
For a Medicine that will cure
COUGHS, INFLUENZA,
TICKLING IN THE THROAT,
WHOOPING COUGH.
Or relieve CONSUMPTIVE COUGH,
as quick as
COE'S COUGH BALSAM.
OVER FIVE THOUSAND BOTTLES have been sold in its native town, and not a single instance of its failure is known.
We have, in our possession, any quantity of certificates, some of them from
EMINENT PHYSICIANS,
who have used it in their practice, and given it the pre-eminence over any other compound.
It does not dry up a Cough,
but loosens it, so as to enable the patient to expectorate freely.
☞ Two or three Bottles will invariably cure TICKLING IN THE THROAT. ☜
A HALF Bottle has often completely cured the most
STUBBORN COUGH.
And yet, though it is so sure and speedy in its operation, it is perfectly harmless, being purely vegetable. It is very agreeable to the taste, and may be administered to children of any age.
In cases of CONSUMPTION we will guarantee a cure, if taken in season. No Family should be without it. It is within the reach of all, the price being
ONLY 25 CENTS!
And if an investment and thorough trial does not "crack up" the above statement, the money will be refunded. We say this, knowing its merits, and feel confident that one trial will secure for it a home in every household.
Do not waste away with Coughing, when so small an investment will cure you. It may be had of any respectable druggist in town, who will furnish you with a circular of genuine certificates of cures it has made.

The valuable and beautiful FARM, formerly owned by the Hon. James Pickering. This desirable estate, comprising about seventy acres, is situated in Newington, about four miles from Portsmouth and one mile from depot of Concord Railroad at Greenland. The buildings consist of a good 1½ story House, containing ten rooms, excellent cellar, washroom, &c., together with Barn, suitable Outbuildings, &c. The land is suitably divided into tillage, pasturage and mowing fields. Upon it are some of the very best varieties of Apple and Pear trees, many of which are in good bearing condition, together with the smaller fruits, such as Currants, Raspberries, &c. The beautiful shade trees scattered over the land, its eligibility to a good market, excellent pasturage and general beauty of its location, make this one of the most desirable estates ever offered for sale in this section of the State.

It contains all the modern improvements, and every convenience for the comfort and accommodation of the travelling public. The sleeping rooms are large and well ventilated; the suites of rooms are well arranged, and completely furnished for families and large travelling parties, and the house will continue to be kept as a first class hotel in every respect. LEWIS RICE, Proprietor.
Boston, Jan. 1863. 1mlyr

Morning Chronicle.

☞ Anna Bishop's daughter will soon appear in opera in New York.

☞ Negroes are pretty thickly sprinkled among the crews of the French war ships at New York: as they are in our own Navy; and as they always have been, except in the last 30 years before the rebellion.

☞ In Sewing Machines, another novel feature has been introduced, viz.: a button hole machine. After much time, and at a great expense, a machine for sewing button holes has at length been produced. The work done by it is remarkably beautiful in appearance, and much stronger and more durable than hand-made button holes.

Says the Harnellsville Tribune, "many think the draft 'a bad egg,' but when we consider that lots of young men, who never did anything in their lives but loaf around corner groceries and keep bread at home from moulding, have through it become the only support of aged and infirm parents, we are constrained to take another view of the subject."

BRAGG'S "VICTORY."—The N. Y. Daily News has a long bulletin of "Richmond News," dated "Sept. 29th, 1863." With regard to the late battles near Chattanooga, it says (we quote every word):

"Bragg has fought a battle—and Bragg has reported to the Department that he gained a great victory. But Gen. Bragg does not mention what his losses were, although we know that, according to accounts of the sanguinary conflict, the battles near Chattanooga may be called drawn fights, both opponents terribly used up. To a great extent, Gen. Bragg has lost the confidence of the people, from the fact that he has so often deceived them, by false dispatches, crediting himself with victories, when he actually suffered a most disastrous defeat—for instance, at Shiloh. But the public is credulous, and any rumor of a victory sets them ablaze, and no matter who is the leader, he is at once exalted.

"The list of killed, wounded, and missing will not fall short of 30,000. Among the latter is Brig. Gen. Adams, of Texas, who was reported badly wounded and in the hands of the enemy. Thirteen Generals have been put hors de combat in the last engagement, and have been either killed, wounded, or captured."

The "30,000 killed, wounded, and missing" here is of course the Rebel loss alone—the writer is not speaking or thinking of our loss. Gen. Bragg, it will be noted, speaks of his losses as very heavy, but steers very clear of figures. That he lost more than double the general officers that we did was already known, and it now appears that his general losses were proportionate. And this is just why he has so stubbornly refused to let our men go within his lines to identify and remove the dead or to succor the famishing wounded. He dared not let us see the terrible slaughter he had braved, the fearful losses he had incurred, by massing his men in dense columns and rushing them in overwhelming numbers on our thin lines, breaking through at points, but leaving half his forces strewn along the bloody track of their charge.—Tribune.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (vide for the Act of 1836.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street.

BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other Foreign Countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters relating to patents. Advice of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Proprietor will give proof that none HAVE MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANCING AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of Specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full models of every patent granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All country of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and trustworthy practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them the most ample and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me FIFTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THE BEST COOK STOVE IN THE MARKET,

AFTER ALL SAID,

—IS—

STEWART'S

NEW, LARGE OVEN, AIR TIGHT, SUMMER AND WINTER

COOKING STOVE,

For Wood or Coal,

IMPROVED IN 1859.

The peculiarities of the

STEWART COOK STOVE,

Embracing the Latest Improvements, briefly stated, are:

1. It is what it purports to be—AN AIR TIGHT COOKING STOVE. That is, when the draft is properly adjusted, wood will lie and smoulder and char, as on the grate, after the manner of a coal pit. Or, if the fire be of Anthracite Coal, by simply closing the draft, it will be effectually put out.

2. Combined with this, are the peculiar position of the fire-chamber, the general internal structure, and the outward moveable coverings, by which means the heat of the stove may be confined within or thrown off to warm the apartment, thus relieving females of the discomfort usually attendant upon carrying on cooking operations in summer, and securing the qualities of the brick oven so fully that the baking process may be carried through successfully without any one going near the stove from the time the article is set in until it is removed from the oven.

3. The stove is accommodated to the reception of a permanent RESERVOIR (of copper, with a tin casing) containing from 10 to 20 gallons, by which the waste heat, in passing off, is made available to keep on hand a constant supply of hot water. The space beneath the reservoir is occupied with a TIN OVEN, where articles ready for the table are placed to keep warm, bread set to rise, fruit dried, &c.

4. Also, by the aid of the TOP COVER, a coal fire may be kept up through the night, and breakfast and dinner prepared the next day with no additional trouble.

5. Roasting is performed in the most perfect manner in front of the stove, with a DOUBLE OVEN prepared for the purpose—the heat being communicated to it from both sides of the fire-box; and the fumes, meanwhile, passing into the draft.

6. A NOVEL PLAN OF VENTILATION is adopted, by which two kinds of meat may be roasted in the oven at the same time, without imparting the peculiar flavor of one to the other; and the current instituted for this purpose made subservient to suspending heat upon the bottom of the oven, with no increase of combustion.

7. By the aid of the perforated metallic linings, or "gas burning arrangement," and application of the full summer dress, the various culinary processes may be carried forward successfully with a single stick of wood at a time.

8. In regard to DURABILITY, the Stewart Stove is made to last, and will last. The structural form is such that the frame work of it can not burn out.

All the plates constituting the original STEWART STOVE, which was brought out twenty years ago, are still made, and sent to different parts of the country, on call.

The price of QUIETNESS, COMFORT and HEALTH secured to a family by the use of a culinary apparatus perfectly adapted to their wants, cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents.

But we can not, and need not, enumerate in detail, the excellencies of the STEWART STOVE. It is an old improvement, or new jangled notion got up to gull the public, to which we invite your attention; but

THE STANDARD COOK STOVE

Now in use, which has been widely tested

FOR TWENTY YEARS,

and nor found wanting in any particular. Yes, the Stewart Stove has been manufactured and used for a score of years; but the inventor has kept pace with the times, and repeatedly made improvements—so that the Stewart Stove of 1863 is as superior to that of 1841, as the Mowing Machine is to a Bush Scythe.

IT HAS NOT BEEN EXCELLED

Genuine Preparations, Viz.:

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT "BUCHU,"
" SARSAPARILLA,
" IMPROVED ROSE WASH.

HELMBOLD'S

GENUINE PREPARATION,

"HIGHLY CONCENTRATED"

COMPOUND

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

A Positive and Specific Remedy

For Diseases of the

BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL, AND DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of Digestion, and excites the ABSORBENTS into healthy action, by which the Watery or Calcerous depositions, and all Unnatural Enlargements are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation, and is good for Men, Women, or Children.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

FOR WEAKNESSES

Arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion, or Abuse,

ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Memory, Weak Nerves, Horror of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Hot Hands, Loss of Power, Difficulty of Breathing, Trembling, Wakefulness, Pain in the Back, Flushing of the Body, Eruptions on the Face, Pallid Countenance, Dryness of the Skin.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which it is manifest must ensue, these follow IMPOTENCY, FATUITY, EPILEPTIC FITS.

In one of which the patient may expire. Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"

INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION,

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess. The records of the Insane Asylums and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witn ess to the truth of the assertion.

THE CONSTITUTION, ONCE AFFECTED WITH ORGANIC WEAKNESS,

Requires the aid of a tonic to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. A trial will convince the most skeptical.

Females, Females, Females,

OLD OR YOUNG, SINGLE, MARRIED, OR CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE.

In many affections peculiar to Females the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy, as in Chloris or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness, or Suppression of the Customary Evacuations, Disorder or Inflammation of the Uterus, Leucorrhœa, or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the

USE

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For all Affections and Diseases of

The Urinary Organs,

Whether existing in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause originating, and no matter

OF HOW LONG STANDING.

Diseases of the organs require the aid of diuretics.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

IS THE GREAT DIURETIC,

And it is certain to have the desired effect in all diseases for which it is recommended.

BLOOD! BLOOD! BLOOD!

Helmbold's Highly Concentrated Compound

Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla,

SYPHILIS.

This is an affection of the Blood, and attacks the Sexual Organs, Linings of the Nose, Ears, Throat, Windpipe, and other Mucous Surfaces, making its appearance in the form of Ulcers.—Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla purifies the Blood, and removes all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, giving to the complexion a clear and healthy Color. It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its Blood-Purifying Properties are presumed to exert a greater extent than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla.

Helmbold's Rose Wash.

An excellent Lotion for Diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection in Diseases of the Urinary Organs, in connection with the medication, used in connection with Extracts Buchu and Sarsaparilla, in such diseases as recommended.

Ladies of the Exclusive Circle and reliable character will accompany the medicines.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the mouth is shrunken, can be building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Plates fitted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. When in the mouth it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,

No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in working this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Aug. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully announce to his patrons and the public that VULCANIZED RUBBER, as a base for Artificial Teeth, promises all the advantages of Gold, yet costs only half as much. My experience has been highly satisfactory in its use, and I have no hesitation in WARRANTING PERFECT SATISFACTION in all cases.

Teeth inserted on Gold and Silver, and all other operations performed as usual.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

SAMBUCUS TREE, OF PORTUGAL,

The Great Remedy for Kidney Affections, Rheumatism, Chronic Complaints

Excellent Wine for Females.

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE celebrated in Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic, Diuretic and Sudorific, highly esteemed by eminent physicians, used in European and American Hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.

AS A DIURETIC, it imparts a healthy action to the Glands and Kidneys, and Urinary Organs very beneficial in Dropsy, Gout and Rheumatic Affections.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE is not a mixture or manufactured article, but is pure from the juice of the Portugal Sambucus, cultivated in New Jersey, recommended by Chemists and Physicians as possessing medical properties superior to any other Wines in use, and an excellent article for all weak and debilitated persons, and the aged and infirm, improving the appetite, and benefitting ladies and children.

A LADIES' WINE, because it will not intoxicate as other wines, as it contains no mixture of spirits or other liquors, and is admired for its rich peculiar flavor and nutritive properties, imparting a healthy tone to the digestive organs, and a blooming, soft and healthy skin and complexion.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in the greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

LITTLE CORA.

BY MRS. J. H. HANAFORD.

God's angel, Death, another bud hath taken
To bloom above,
Where sweetest spring-time sits the blossoms waken,
And all is love.

Why should we mourn? The blossoms, fast decaying,
Which bloom in Time,
Lead us to long, as with Faith's glass surveying
The heights sublime,

We see the fadeless flowers forever blowing
In heaven's air,
That there our best lov'd might be gladly growing
And we, too, there.

The tears will come, but Jesus will not chide us,
On earth He wept.
Thanks for the Rock in which we gladly hide us,
Which mercy cleft!

Oh! in the shelter of that smitten Rock
May all repose
Who feel on earth bereavement's grievous shock
And taste its woes.

There may sweet Cora's mother, comfort finding,
In patience rest;
Fast are the earth-cords from her soul unwinding,
Free, soon, and blest.

She shall, with all her gathered buds, forever
Rejoice on high,
Where Death shall blight the fairest prospects never,
For none can die.

Beverly, Mass., October, 1863.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed in the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS!

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Tumors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest sillings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Disengagement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, selfdistrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced by this practice. Of course ANY one contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Persons who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotles, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important!

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.
Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!

DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this particular branch of practice enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World,) of obtaining the safest as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Biles, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. Young men are of course aware that delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for those seeking startling disclosures Dr. TELLER's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—200 pages—full of engravings, sent free to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Happy. A Treatise on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery. It contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr. TELLER has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

Dr. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Vichot's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 2 to 5 P. M.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

American Agriculturist,
FOR 1864.

A thorough-going, reliable and practical Journal, devoted to the different departments of soil-culture, such as growing field crops, orchard and garden fruits, garden vegetables and flowers; trees, plants and flowers, for the lawn or yard; care of domestic animals, &c., and to household labors, with an instructive department for children and youth.

It is published monthly.

Subscription—ONE DOLLAR PER ANNUM.

The club price is only Eighty Cents per annum. Persons who wish to join the club for 1864, both old and new subscribers, will hand in their names as soon as possible.

Now subscribers will receive the numbers for November and December, in addition to those for 1864.

N. B.—The proprietors have purchased a new Strawberry, which they call the "Agriculturist Strawberry," and it appears to far excel, both in size and intrinsic value, anything ever before produced. It is their intention to present One Plant to each subscriber, if they can produce enough, and if there be not enough, then as far as they go; beginning in the order of those who pay first for 1864.

The cost of packing and postage will be 5 cts.—so that the club price, including the Strawberry, will be 85 cts., and if you want the Strawberry, the money must be sent on soon.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Severe skirmishing between Kilpatrick's and Stuart's cavalry took place on Saturday. It is stated that A. P. Hill's corps has passed from the left to the right of our front, intending to make an attempt to cut off our railroad communication.

The monitor Weehawken has returned to Charleston from Port Royal, having completed her repairs. The rebels have built a heavy battery a few miles up Stono river. It is said that important means for removing the obstructions in the harbor were received by our forces on the 4th.—The Washington Star is authorized to state that all the reports of disagreements between Gen. Gilmore and Adm. Dahlgren are false.

It is said a rebel force on the 8th burned Carthage, Mo.

The rebels who attacked Gen. Blunt and his escort below Fort Scott, were about 300 in number, and dressed in the Federal uniform. His escort broke, and out of 100 men 78 were killed—all shot through the head, evidently after they were captured. Gen. Blunt escaped, and meeting reinforcements, started in pursuit of the rebels, who were commanded by Quantrell. Another dispatch says that Gen. Schofield has telegraphed to Leavenworth that from 6000 to 8000 rebels, under Quantrell, Coffee and others, were marching on Fort Scott, and that he had ordered Col. Wier to move all the force he could raise to Fort Scott.

It is stated that after the regiments sent out by Gen. Dana were defeated near the Atchafalaya river, he advanced with his whole force, and the rebels were soon in full retreat.

The rebels under Gen. Lee, of Johnston's staff, are said to be concentrating near Columbus, Miss., where they are said to have extensive iron and other manufactories, and strong defensive works.

A dispatch from Chattanooga says our entire loss in killed, wounded and missing at the battle of Chicamauga amounts to 15,550. The rebel loss is estimated at 22,500. The heavy loss on the rebel side was occasioned by their assuming the offensive.

The Army of the Ohio is now in rather quiet occupation of East Tennessee, without, however, rail or mail communication in any direction. The health of the army is good.

The rebels, under Shelby, who are making a raid in Missouri, have burned a long railroad bridge near Oberville, and torn up about a mile of the track. The depots at Tipton, Syracuse and Oberville, and all the water tanks at and between these points were burned. They also burned the towns of Colecamp, Trenton county, and Florence, Morgan county. Gen. Brown is in their rear, and Gen. Totten was at California Station on Saturday night.

Our troops overtook Wheeler's forces near Farmington, Tenn., on Thursday night, and the rebels lost heavily in killed and wounded. We captured over 300 prisoners and a battery. The Federal loss was 129 killed and 150 wounded.

The N. Y. World's dispatch states that Gen. Buford's cavalry were sent across the Rapidan, and found that the enemy's evacuation of the south bank had been completed. They may have gone to Richmond or Gordonsville, or may be attempting a flank movement.

The Boston Herald's Washington dispatch states that the rebel retreat proved to be an attempt to flank Gen. Meade. By a feint of the latter an infantry attack on our cavalry was prevented, but there was considerable of an engagement, in which the rebels were foiled, though not without considerable loss.

A steamer, arrived at Fortress Monroe, reports that there was to be a combined army and naval attack on Charleston on the 11th inst.

A recent reconnoitering expedition on the Virginia Peninsula, captured several prisoners, a rebel mail, &c. The rebels have been planting torpedoes in York river.

The rebel Gens. Polk and Hindman have arrived in Atlanta, Ga., under arrest, by order of Gen. Bragg, for alleged disobedience on the second day of the Chicamauga fight. The whole number of prisoners taken by Bragg at Chicamauga is less than two thousand men—wounded included.

Gen. Magruder's official report of the rebel victory at Sabine Pass claims only 200 prisoners, while the New Orleans correspondent of the Chicago Times (copperhead) reported that we lost 1300 men, taken prisoners.

☞ Gold ran up to 51 1-2 premium in New York on Monday afternoon. The grain markets were all excited, and higher prices were asked for flour, wheat, corn, pork, &c.

☞ The State elections in Ohio and Pennsylvania take place to-day.

☞ A letter from Cape Town, published in the Salem Gazette, mentions that a gentleman who went on board the pirate Alabama, held a long conversation with Capt. Semmes, who waxed warm on the question of State sovereignty, and said there was never any permanent compact between the States, but any one could secede at will.—The visitor then asked him, whether, in case any one of the seceded States should wish to re-secede, they could be restrained. At this question Semmes squirmed a little, but at length acknowledged that they could not hold them legally, but should prevent their leaving if possible.

To such absurdities this whim must lead.

Semmes boasted that except half a dozen officers, everything, vessel, armament and crew were English. Even so, she is an English pirate;—and the British Government some day must pay heavy damages.

☞ Our New Orleans files to the 1st inst., inclusive, are received, but contain little not anticipated by telegraph.

The largest fire since the commencement of the war occurred in New Orleans on the 29th ult., consuming nearly two squares on Third, Fourth and Tehoupitoulas streets, and destroying $100,000 worth of property.

The Bank of Louisiana reverts to the control of its directors, the order for its liquidation having been withdrawn.

There had been some improvement in general trade circles.

Robert H. Bell, of Indiana, who has charge of a Government plantation at Thibodauxville, is on trial before the Provost Court for excessive cruelty to negroes employed on the plantation.

The publication of the military movements in that department being contraband, no information can be gleaned from their columns respecting the Texas expedition.

The Mobile Register learns that Gen. Magruder is at Houston, very sick, but it is supposed will recover.

[Communication.]

Messrs. Editors:—It is a noteworthy fact that the town of Jackson, in which the hotel was burned last week, doubtless by a cowardly incendiary who wished to destroy the draft officers,—gave, last March, only 18 votes for Gov. Gilmore, 2 for Harriman, and 116 for the peace candidate. This single town then gave the Peace Representative to Congress more majority than he got in the whole district. Thoughtful men will put these things together, and ask—Do peace men commit arson and murder?—Are they in favor of peace with the rebels only, and wage war with everybody else? Is there not some family likeness between the ignorant and brutal mobites in New York and these enlightened patriots in Jackson, who show the same spirit, and do some of the same work? And is there not also a great likeness between the Copperhead and News in New York, and the vile newspaper sheets which chiefly go to Jackson, not to inform or reform, but to mislead, debase and brutalize? LEX.

☞ Said Judge Atocha, of the Provost Court, New Orleans,—"Were you arrested on a warrant?" The reply came with explosive effect—"No, yer honor, I was arrested on a wharf."

☞ According to late advices from Havana fears are entertained of an insurrection of the free negroes in Cuba, owing to the reduction of the army on the island in order to reinforce the Spanish troops at San Domingo.

☞ A black vulture was shot near Gloucester, Mass., a few days since. The species is very common in the Southern States and in South America, but it has previously been seen but once in New England, one having been shot in Lynn, Mass., several years since.

☞ Hon. J. Jewett, Collector of Portland, died on Saturday afternoon of diptheria, after a brief illness, aged 56 years. He was Mayor of Portland in 1858 9, and is well known to the public in connection with the capture of the Tacony pirates.

☞ Mr. Gough is to deliver five consecutive lectures on the subject of Temperance in Springfield, Mass., the object of which is, says the Republican, to awaken the people to more earnest efforts to prevent and suppress intemperance in Springfield and vicinity.

☞ The death of Robert Babcock, of Wardsboro', Vt., at the advanced age of 104 years and six months, took place recently. Mr. Babcock was one of the forty picked men who, under Lieut Col. Barton, captured the British General Sir William Prescott on the night of July 10, 1777, and thus obtained an officer of suitable rank to exchange for Gen. Lee who had been captured by the British.

TAKING CARE OF ITSELF. — There is one great advantage in such an advance as that into East Tennessee. The conquest, if we may call it such, takes care of itself. The loyal East Tennessee-ans have organized 15,000 men for home defence, besides volunteering largely in the army. No garrisons and no army of occupation will be needed, when once the fear of external attack is removed. Arms are all that those faithful men require from the goverment.—Boston Advertiser.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Citizens of Exeter have purchased an elegant sword for Capt. A. M. Perkins, of the 2d regiment.

—— Two oxen belonging to Mr. Nathaniel Swasey, of Exeter, were run over and killed on the B. & M. railroad on Friday evening.

—— Two fire engines, owned by the city, were sold at auction in Nashua, on Friday—one, a double-decked machine, which cost a few years since, $1400, went for $165; and the other for $55.

—— Two men, named Davenport and Stevens, who were charged with robbing Lindsay, a travelling agent for a Boston house, in Manchester, were discharged, the evidence not being sufficient to hold them. Lindsay's watch was found on one of them, but the men maintained that he was so drunk that he fell down and they took the watch for safe keeping. There is a strong conviction that the men were guilty, but Lindsay was in such an oblivious state that he could not remember very distinctly.

—— About 60 of the Nashua drafted men, and invited guests, had a supper at the Indian Head Hotel on Friday evening.—The Nashua Cornet Band was present.—Hon. George W. Morrison, of Manchester, was called upon and spoke ably some twenty minutes. He called Jeff. Davis and the leading rebels greater traitors than Benedict Arnold—had watched their course, and they had been trying to bring on this thing for thirty years. Rev. Samuel B. Stewart (pastor of the Unitarian society in Nashua, and a conscript) spoke briefly and eloquently and was enthusiastically applauded.—"Rally round the flag, boys," waessung, when they marched to the Union flagstaff in front of the City Hall, where three cheers were given for the stars and stripes. The Mayor, Hon. Hiram T. Morrill, was serenaded at his residence. He thanked the assemblage, and said the city government would do as well by them as other places had for their drafted men, measures being already in progress to that effect. He also invited them in, which was declined. The conscripts then marched to the Indian Head, gave three cheers for "mine host" and dispersed.

☞ An amateur billiard player in New York the other day made a run of 700 points on a carom table.

☞ The loss by the recent fire at the "James Steam Mills" at Newburyport, will not exceed $5000.

☞ Two attempts at highway robbery were made in Portland Friday night, which were foiled by the police. No arrests were made.

☞ One of the fawns in the enclosure prepared for the deer on Boston Common, while in a skittish mood, Sunday morning, ran against the wire fence, broke its neck and died almost instantly.

☞ A number of mysterious robberies have taken place on the Hudson River road within the past few nights. In each instance the victims were robbed of large amounts. The police are actively at work ferreting out the matter.

☞ Elizabeth Murray, an Englishwoman who has won a wide reputation abroad for the beauty and artistic merit of her paintings in water colors, has become a resident of Portland, Me. Her husband is British consul for that city.

☞ The person arrested in India as Neva Sabib, the leader of the rebellion of 1857, proves to be another person. So Neva, who is still in the pride and glory of of manhood—not more than 35 years old—may live to get up another insurrection.

☞ The English National Anthem, according to Professor Agassiz, is of Swiss origin. The audience at Barnstable Agricultural Exhibiton sang it to the patriotic words of "America," at the conclusion of the address, when Prof. A. said: "That is a Swiss National hymn, sung in my country hundreds of years before the English adopted it."

SINGULAR LAW SUIT.—A woman in Chicago has sued a landlord of that city for damages in the loss of her husband and child, under very peculiar circumstances.—The family hired a house belonging to the landlord, the former occupants of which had sickened and died of small-pox. The family had only been in the house a week or two when the father and child were fatally attacked by the disease. No measures had been taken to remove the infection, and for this neglect and its fatal results, the law of Illinois holds the landlord liable to action.

RAPID INCREASE OF A FAMILY.—A German named Beoflich, residing five miles west of La Crescent, was married in Portage, in November, 1860, to a German girl. In August, 1861, Mrs. Heoflich gave birth to three boys, two of whom lived. In June, 1862, she gave birth to three boys and a girl, two of the boys and the girl living. On the 5th of this month she gave birth to two girls and a boy, all of whom are alive and well. Ten children in less than three years is pretty good, even for this vicinity. The parents are proud of their success in the family line, and point with pleasure to their company of German infantry. Government cannot afford to draft the head of that family.—La Crosse Democrat.

☞ Russia is building eleven iron-plated gunboats, with turrets, to be completed by spring.

☞ Recent reports show that the average duration of life in England exceeds that in France by 11 years.

☞ A chemical substitute for indigo has, it is said, been discovered in Paris, which may largely affect the Indian trade in that article.

☞ Admiral Farragut is styled as "the most remarkable and successful naval of of the age" by the Russian Admiral Lessoffsky.

☞ It is represented that the Mexican army is being rapidly increased, and made efficient. The note of preparation is heard at all points, and it is believed that an army of 35,000 or 40,000 will soon move against the French.

☞ It is rumored in Washington that a large amount of counterfeit Treasury notes from ones to twenties, have been discovered in that city by government detectives, and this has led to a more extensive discovery of the way of manufacuring them in Pennsylvania.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Aug. 1st, 1863.

DR. GODDALL

Would respectfully announce to his patrons and the public that VULCANIZED RUBBER as a base for Artificial Teeth, promises all the advantages of Gold, yet cost a only half as much. My experience has been highly satisfactory in its use, and I have no hesitation in WARRANTING PERFECT SATISFACTION in all cases.

Teeth inserted on Gold and Silver, and all other operations performed in a skillful manner.

Teeth extracted positively without pain, by inhaling Nitrous Oxyd Gas!

He is fully convinced that it is a perfectly harmless anæsthetic, its effect being that of an exhilarant, the whole operation being completed generally in three minutes, without the least pain, and the patient feeling as well, and usually better than before inhaling the Gas.

He would cordially invite all who wish teeth extracted without pain, or any possible injurious results, to call and be convinced.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr OLIVER and Dr. DEXTER, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

HEALTH AND COMFORT.

Patent Rubber Sole Boots and Shoes,

FOR MEN, BOYS AND YOUTH.

These Goods, having been carefully tested, prove to be more desirable than any other Boots and Shoes heretofore made. They answer the double purpose of Leather and Rubber Boots and Shoes.

They are made serviceable and easier to the feet than Leather Soles, are impervious to water, and having a leather inner sole do not draw the feet, and are far less expensive than Rubber Boots.

They are free from noise, prevent slipping on ice, and in keeping the feet dry and warm are conducive to health.

When the Soles wear out, the Boots and Shoes can be tapped with leather, or, if returned to us station, neat Rubber Soles will be put on.

The subscribers, having made arrangements as Agents for the sale of the above goods, are now prepared to take measures for the same, in different styles, and deliver them at short notice. They are made from the best stock to be had in the market, and warranted in every particular. Call and examine samples, at No. 12 Market street.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.
HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the decisions by true results.

DRAFTED MEN FOR EXAMINATION.
Oct. 13, Alton 45, Barnstead 6.

☛ The examinations of the drafted men in the 1st N. H. District will be resumed at the Provost Marshal's office in this city, this (Tuesday) morning, when 45 from Alton and 6 from Barnstead—the first delegation from Belknap county,—are ordered to report. The examinations for Belknap and Carroll counties, it is expected, will occupy between three and four weeks.

☛ What has become of the silver change, has long been a mooted question, and no one has been able to answer. We learn, however, that a Spanish quarter was found, a short time since, four feet under ground, at the North End in this city. So much of the silver change, which so mysteriously disappeared, is therefore accounted for. It was untarnished, and but little worn,—the date, 1777, standing out boldly upon it. It was pleasant for the eyes to look upon it, and reminded one of departed days.

We also learn that an unknown man tendered an American quarter in payment for some oysters in this city a few evenings since. The clerk, a boy, took it unsuspectingly and innocently, and the man passed quietly out of the store and was seen no more. What induced him to commit so rash a deed is, therefore, unknown. The proprietor of the saloon is now at a loss to know what to do with it, as he labors under the impression that it would be regarded as an evidence that something was wanting in him mentally should he rashly attempt to pass it.

POLICE COURT, Monday, Oct. 12, before Justice Odell—Three men pleaded guilty to the charge of being drunk, viz.:—Wm. Tool, fined $3—costs $2.92; James Mahagan, fined $3—costs $2.92; Cornelius Cotter, fined $3—costs $3.86.

THE OUTRAGES IN JACKSON.—We learn that the officers appointed by Provost Marshal Godfrey to notify drafted men had completed their labors in Carroll county, with the exception of the town of Jackson, where the outrages were committed on Wednesday last. In this town there were but seventeen men drafted, and five of these were notified on Wednesday. The officers were in some cases treated to vollies of oaths and much severe language—not very injurious to them or profitable to the fellows who indulged in such boyish conduct. The officers were not injured in their persons, and will survive the abuse.

On Wednesday night the Forest Vale House, at which they stopped, was set on fire and destroyed, with the surrounding buildings. A horse, two coaches, four single wagons and several harnesses were destroyed. By this fire, the horse which the officers had used to notify the drafted men was killed, and the next day they could procure but one rather slow animal, which Enrolling Officer Godfrey employed in notifying other drafted men. On that day (Thursday) he notified eight more of the seventeen men drafted. The remaining four were not notified, as the citizens had become alarmed and no one was found willing to act as guide for the officers in the performance of their duties, or to furnish their teams for the purpose. These four men are all who were not notified.—The duty will yet be performed, and doubtless when these drafted men, who have thus resisted the officers in the performance of their duty, are brought to the Provost Marshal's office in this city, they will all be found as quiet as lambs, and as willing as so many others who had "talked loud" and threatened direful things, to provide "subs" or pay their commutation. The only injury they have yet inflicted upon any one has been to destroy the property of one of their own townsmen—a quiet, worthy man who had in no way injured them. Their conduct would seem to indicate that they, at least, regard themselves as able-bodied men, who would not be exempt for physical debility, and it is confidently expected that the United States will therefore receive some very efficient, brave and valiant soldiers from the town of Jackson.

There are many rumors afloat on the street in regard to what means will be taken to secure the notification of these men, but our citizens should give them little credit. As there are but four men to be notified, the task will not be very difficult. But a full statement of the case will be made to Headquarters, and those who have resisted the officers may find in the end that the undertaking has been a profitless one to them. The well-known decisive character of Capt. Godfrey, and the officers associated with him, give assurance that the draft will be rigidly enforced, whoever may oppose.

☛ Tides have recently been remarked in the Lakes of Geneva and Neufchatel—cause not known.

☛ A Warsaw paper says that that city is to have 4,500 policemen—one to every three houses.

☛ The Sassacus returned to Charlestown Navy Yard from her trial trip on Saturday morning, after a cruise of five days.—Her first venture on the sea has been highly successful, as she proved herself a thorough sea going vessel and a rapid sailer, averaging during the trip over thirteen knots an hour.

BUCKLEYS', BOSTON.—We learn that Mr. Daniel G. Waldron, of this city, for the past five years agent for the "Alleghanians and Swiss Bell Ringers," has recently received the appointment of Managing Agent of Buckleys' Aquarial Gardens and new Minstrel Hall, Boston. The Buckley Bros. are among the first in their profession, and since their advent in Boston have drawn first class houses.

☛ See yon fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Horrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world affords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.
These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight, correctly showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 20th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.
Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.
Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine those before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them a good time-keeper as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

It does not dry up a Cough,
but loosens it, so as to enable the patient to expectorate freely.
☛ Two or three Bottles will invariably cure TICKLING IN THE THROAT. ☚
A HALF Bottle has often completely cured the most
STUBBORN COUGH.
And yet, though it is so sure and speedy in its operation, it is perfectly harmless, being purely vegetable. It is very agreeable to the taste, and may be administered to children of any age.
In cases of CROUP we will guarantee a cure, if taken in season. No Family should be without it. It is within the reach of all, the price being
ONLY 25 CENTS!
And if an investment and thorough trial does not "back up" the above statement, the money will be refunded. We say this, knowing its merits, and feel confident that one trial will secure for it a home in every household.
Do not waste away with Coughing, when so small an investment will cure you. It may be had of any respectable druggist in town, who will furnish you with a circular of genuine certificates of cures it has made.

At the present high prices of fuel it is very desirable to lessen its consumption. This can be best accomplished by using a MODEL COOK STOVE. More cooking can be done in one with a single ton of coal, or cord of wood, that with double the quantity in any common stove or range—and in less time also.
We refer to some parties who have purchased the Model Cook—

The valuable and beautiful FARM, formerly owned by the Hon. James Pickering. This desirable estate, comprising about seventy acres, is situated in Newington, about four miles from Portsmouth and one mile from depot of Concord Railroad at Greenland. The buildings consist of a good 1½ story House, containing ten rooms, excellent cellar washroom, &c., together with Barn, suitable Outbuildings, &c. The land is suitably divided into tillage, pasturage and mowing fields. Upon it are some of the very best varieties of Apple and Pear trees, many of which are in good bearing condition, together with the smaller fruits, such as Currants, Raspberries, &c. The beautiful shade trees scattered over the land, its eligibility to a good market, excellent pasturage and general beauty of its location, make this one of the most desirable estates ever offered for sale in this section of the State.

LEWIS RICE, Proprietor.
Boston, Jan. 1863. 1mslr

Morning Chronicle.

A CURIOUS INCIDENT OF THE WAR is related by a Boston correspondent of the Salem Gazette.

In November last, a boy of 16 struck for higher wages than his $3 a week; this small sum was the chief support of his mother and five or six younger children. The father, owing to some trouble, had been absent for a couple of years, and yielded them no help. The boy loitered at home two or three days, catching fish, driftwood, and such like, till one morning his anxious mother rallied him at breakfast, bidding him find employment, or else (the last thing she supposed such a child would do,) enlist.—The boy answered not, left the table and the house, and was not heard of again for a week, when it was found he had enlisted in the 48th, nine months' regiment, receiving and handing to his mother his $200 bounty and advance pay. This regiment was sent to the Southwest, to New Orleans, Baton Rouge, and was a good deal cut up, and was present at the taking of Port Hudson, and returned via Cairo. The boy thus got, instead of his $3 a week or $117 for 9 months,—about $500, or $330 besides his rations and clothes,—and now, October 8, he has been back with his old employer several weeks, enjoying his coveted rise of wages, to say nothing of going like Lord Lovell in the song, "strange countries for to see."

But, like the Arabian Nights' tales, the strangest part is to be told. He arrived home one Sunday morning in September, and the next morning his father, so long absent and not heard from, arrived home by the same route, via Cairo. In the beginning of the rebellion the father was in New Orleans, and was conscripted into the rebel army, where he was kept until a little before the taking of Port Hudson, when he escaped to the Federal side, joined our army, and was wounded and sent home to Boston, arriving as above related the day after his son. In more than one action, it appeared by comparing notes, the father and son had been engaged on opposite sides without either being aware that the other was in the enemy's ranks.

☞ Far and wide the court reporter of the Boston Herald is known for the very readable manner in which conveys his information to the public, and some of his productions are worthy a more lasting record than the ephemeral life created by a daily paper. Take for example, the following on a "drunken husband," (and his walk in life is such that he can speak from personal observation):—

What an expressive term that one of drunken husband is! It means not simply an intoxicated man. It means far more than you can find in any dictionary definitions. It means misery for a great many people. It means a wife with her affections seared by the caustic of misfortune. It means ragged children. It means starvation, degradation, nights of weary watching, hopes extinguished, life a burden, a purgatory where there should be a paradise, disgrace, despair. It means the centre of a vortex in which a whole family shall be swallowed. There is nothing so hopeless as a drunkard's case. The thief may be reformed and made a saint; the robber may make restitution and rid himself of remorse. The murderer even stands a chance for reformation. But the drunkard's desert can scarcely be made anything else, and it has very few cases in it. The fires which burn within him come from the infernal fountains of hell, and it is almost impossible to extinguish them. They burn, and burn, and burn. Sometimes they smoulder, but they soon break out again, consuming happiness and hope. The House of Industry becomes the victim's abode, as the lunatic asylum does the maniac's.

THE BEST COOK STOVE
IN THE MARKET,
AFTER ALL SAID,
—IS—
STEWART'S
NEW, LARGE OVEN, AIR TIGHT,
SUMMER AND WINTER
COOKING STOVE,
For Wood or Coal,
IMPROVED IN 1859.

The peculiarities of the
STEWART COOK STOVE,
Embracing the Latest Improvements, briefly stated, are:

1. It is what it purports to be—AN AIR TIGHT COOKING STOVE that is, when the draft is properly adjusted, wood will lie and smoulder and char, upon the grate, after the manner of a coal pit. Or, if the fire be of Anthracite Coal, by simply closing the draft, it will be effectually put out.

2. Combined with this, are the peculiar position of the fire-chamber, the general internal structure, and the outward moveable coverings, by which means the heat of the stove may be confined within or thrown off to warm the apartment, thus relieving females of the discomfort usually attendant upon carrying on cooking operations in summer, and securing the qualities of the brick oven so fully that the baking process may be carried through successfully without any one going near the stove from the time the article is set in until it is removed from the oven.

3. The stove is accommodated to the reception of a permanent boiling copper, with a tin casing) containing from 10 to 20 gallons, by which the waste heat, in passing off, is made available to keep on hand a constant supply of hot water. The space beneath the reservoir is occupied with a TIN CLOSET, where articles ready for the table may be placed to keep warm, bread set to rise, fruit dried, &c.

4. Also, by the aid of the TOP COVER, a coal fire may be kept up through the night, and breakfast and dinner prepared the next day with no addition of fuel.

5. Roasting is performed in the most perfect manner in front of the stove, with a DUTCH OVEN prepared for the purpose—the heat being communicated to it from both sides of the fire-pot, and the fumes, meanwhile, passing into the flue.

6. A NOVEL PLAN OF VENTILATION is adopted, by which two kinds of meat may be roasted in the oven at the same time, without imparting the peculiar flavor of one to the other; and the current instituted for this purpose made subservient to augment the heat upon the bottom of the oven, with no increase of combustible.

7. By the aid of the perforated metallic linings, or "gas burning arrangement," and application of the full summer draft, the various culinary processes may be carried forward successfully with a single stick of wood at a time.

8. In regard to DURABILITY, the Stewart STOVE is made to last, and will last. The structural form is such that the frame work of it can not burn out.

All the plates constituting the original STEWART STOVE, which was brought out twenty years ago, are still made, and sent to different parts of the country, on call.

The price of QUIETNESS, COMFORT and HEALTH secured to a family by the use of a culinary apparatus perfectly adapted to their wants, cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents.

But we can not, and need not, enumerate in detail, the excellencies of the STEWART STOVE. It is no experiment, or new fangled notion got up to gull the public, to which we invite your attention; but

THE STANDARD COOK STOVE
Now in use, which has been widely tested
FOR TWENTY YEARS,
and not found wanting in any particular. Yes, the Stewart Stove has been manufactured and used for a score of years; but the inventor has kept pace with the times, and repeatedly made improvements on the Stewart Stove of 1863 is as superior to that of 1841, as the Mowing Machine is to a Bush Scythe.

IT HAS NOT BEEN EXCELLED
yet, as a Family Stove. Here follow the names of a few of the numerous purchasers of the

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and the coal need not be put in and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We would refer to the following purchasers:

Portsmouth.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used.
We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., — Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron B. Hill, — Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, — John Shaw, — and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
6th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, so when finished the work presents one whole piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.
DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,
Has had four years of practical experience in working this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DR. GOODALL
Would respectfully announce to his patrons and the public that VULCANIZED RUBBER, as a base for Artificial Teeth, promises all the advantages of Gold, yet costs only half as much. My experience has been highly satisfactory in its use; and I have no hesitatation in WARRANTING PERFECT SATISFACTION in all cases.
Teeth inserted on Gold and Silver, and all other operations performed as usual.
I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TEAGWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr OLIVER and Dr. RUMRILL, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All work and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.
☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and it truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

THE UNRETURNED BRAVE.

The swallows build beneath the eaves,
As in the days agone;
The wheaten fields are all ablaze,
And in and out the west wind plays
Amid the tasseled corn.

The sunshine falls as warm and bright,
The clover fields are red;
The wild bird wakes his simple song
As joyfully the whole day long
As if he were not dead!

The thoughtful skies, with mother care,
Their rain and sunshine send;
And, standing in the farm house door,
I see—doting the landscape o'er—
The flocks he used to tend.

The wild rose and the jessamine blow
Beside the window sill;
Their tender moan is in the air,
For the dear hands that placed them there
Are lying crossed and still.

The cattle languish for his care,
The harvests look in vorthy;
But oh! the most, because most dear,
We miss his words of pleasant cheer
Beside our lonely hearth.

About the hills the summer folds
Her wealth of golden light;
And, past the willow's silvery gleam,
I catch the glimmer of the stream,
And lilies cool and white.

But oh! a shadow darkens all
The sunshine and the bloom;
The voice whose kind and loving words
Were sweeter than the song of birds,
Is silent in the tomb.

How can the summer fail so gay
About our farm house door,
When all the quiet ways he trod—
Through lonely wood or blooming sod—
Shall know him nevermore!—MRS. EDSON.

DARING ADVENTURES.—A dispatch from Corinth, dated on the 1st instant, says that about the middle of last month Lieut. Tramel and ten men of the 1st Alabama Federal cavalry, started on foot from Glendale, some ten miles from Corinth, where the regiment is stationed, and proceeded into the centre of Alabama, and after an absence of two weeks they reached camp in safety, bringing with them one hundred and ten recruits for their regiment, as well as five prisoners, one a Lieutenant, and a rebel mail as trophies. The Lieutenant captured was engaged in conscripting, and says he thinks that the Confederacy is about played out, if ten men can travel all through it.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (on for the Act of 1857.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered, relating to patents, including the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST MEASURE OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full account of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can safely employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending; such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

American Agriculturist,
FOR 1864.
A thorough-going, reliable and practical Journal, devoted to the different departments of soil-culture, such as growing field crops, orchard and garden fruits, garden vegetables and flowers; trees, plants and flowers, for the lawn or yard; care of domestic animals, &c., and to household labors, with an instructive department for children and youth.
It is published monthly.
Subscription—ONE DOLLAR PER ANNUM.
The club price is only Eighty Cents per annum. Persons who wish to join the club for 1864, both old and new subscribers, will hand in their names as soon as possible.
New subscribers will receive the numbers for November and December, in addition to those for 1864.
N. B.—The proprietors have purchased a new Strawberry, which they call the "Agriculturist Strawberry," and it appears to far excel, both in size and intrinsic value, anything ever before produced. It is their intention to present One Plant to each subscriber, if they can produce enough, and if there be not enough, then as far as they go, beginning in the order of those who pay first for 1864.
The cost of packing and postage will be 5 cts.—so that the club price, including the Strawberry, will be 85 cts., and if you want the Strawberry, the money must be sent on soon.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The damage done by the rebels in Missouri seems to have been somewhat less than was supposed. No railroad property was burned at Tipton. Our forces are closing around them.

A dispatch from Chattanooga, 11th, reports Gen. Rosecrans' communications complete, his forces in position, the raiders dispersed, and the enemy in front inactive.—Our troops are reported as in good physical condition and fine spirits.

Gen. Burnside is advancing towards Greenville, and overtook a rebel force under Jackson and Williams, at Blue Spring, on Saturday. The rebels were driven from the field, but darkness prevented pursuit until next day. We lost 60 killed and wounded. The rebels numbered about 6000.

Little Rock (Ark.) advices of the 2d inst. mention a rumor that Kirby Smith has joined Price with a considerable force, and that they are now moving on that place from the direction of Arkadelphia.

A fight occurred on the 8th inst. near Salem, Miss., between 4000 rebels under Lee and 5000 Federals under McCullis and Phillips. The rebels were driven back with a loss of 15 or 20 killed and wounded.

Lee is across the Rapidan again, and Meade is across the Rappahannock. A new campaign in Virginia has commenced, which, it is to be hoped, will result better than have the previous ones.

Gen. Meade has brought off all his stores and every wagon to his new line. He is retreating slowly, and will be prepared, it is claimed, to confront Lee wherever he may make his appearance. 400 prisoners were taken by our cavalry on Sunday. A Washington correspondent says 500 of our wounded have been taken to that city.

Private advices have reached New York to the effect that the Government had learned from Gen. Gilmore that he would be ready to attack Charleston on Saturday last.

☞ The Boston Advertiser says twelve vessels loaded with coal for the Boston retail dealers, have arrived at that port from Port Richmond, Penn., during the last three days. The captains state that there is plenty of coal coming from the mines, and there is no trouble about getting their cargoes when chartered to coal at Port Richmond. Freights are now $2.25, and coal by the cargo $5 to $5.50 per ton of 2,240 pounds.—And at this rate $7.75, there is said to be no good reason why the present price of coal shoud be maintained at all the consuming seaports.—There may be some error in this supposition: but the above facts would seem sufficient to prevent fuel from advancing beyond present prices.

☞ Gen. McClellan has written a letter. His attention has been called to an item in a newspaper, which stated that he had written to the managers of a Democratic meeting in Pennsylvania, disapproving of it, and saying if he voted and spoke, it would be in favor of Gov. Curtin.

He could not long keep silence under such misrepresentation, and therefore published his first political letter one day before the Pennsylvania election, saying that he fully agrees with Judge Woodward's views, thinks he ought to be Governor, and would if he could give him his voice and vote.

HABEAS CORPUS SUSPENDED IN THE SOUTH.—The Nashville Union of the 6th says:

It is not known, we believe, that the privilege of habeas corpus has been suspended altogether in the Confederacy, for over twelve months. We have the highest judicial authority for stating this fact, although we cannot give any name. The suspension was made by a private order of Jeff. Davis to the leading judicial officers, and never has been published. Probably not one man in fifty thousand in all rebeldom is aware that for over twelve months the privilege of habeas corpus has not existed in the South at all. Our authority on this point, we repeat, is unquestionable.

REBEL TROUBLES IN ALABAMA.—Papers from Selma, Ala., say that a conflict of authority has taken place between the State and Confederate authorities in Butler county, of that State, which has excited the people to frenzy. The Provost Guard had been fired upon and one killed—the rest were captured. The one killed was a tax collector.

☞ Report states that the gold districts of New Mexico are very prolific, and that more than common interest attaches to this fact since the policy of Louis Napoleon is to obtain control of some gold bearing regions on the Pacific.

☞ The Springfield Republican states that the Provost Marshals in Massachusetts have been instructed to enlist as many men as possible for two months, and if the quota of the State is not then filled, to make another draft.

☞ Uncle Toby is often amused by the manner in which some papers talk of the clergy, and of their influence on public affairs. Papers whose editors or managers belong to nothing and support nothing that can be called church or gospel, talk gravely of the duties and the responsibilities of the clergy, about which they have ideas as clear as the vision of the man born blind, when he saw "men as trees walking."

One paper now before us charges the clergy (of this country, we suppose) with doing immense mischief, by the manner in which they have handled temperance, the know-nothing issue, and the slavery question,—by which, it says,—"they have utterly lost all influence over at least one half of their own people,—and thrown up a barrier against half the world, to the proper influence of their profession." And again,—"They have had their own way in all these matters, against the honest and earnest remonstrance of the —— party."

Ah! says Uncle T., we have read such trash as this occasionally, for these fifty years; and we have become quite familiar with the threat that somebody will break up the parish, or at least put on his hat and skedaddle. We have often read the prediction that everything was going to be ruined, and sometimes seen the assertion that ruin had come. But the churches of New England still live—the clergy are not all dead nor asleep—and their influence, moral and social, is as potent to-day as at any former period; not in the same form, perhaps, but as really and actively as ever.

The world, in its progress, has not left the most of them far behind. Here and there one of them may be motionless, like a pillar of salt, with a backward look. But the great body are a moral and intellectual force for good, that cannot be extinguished nor despised, though it may be feared by corrupt demagogues, and belied by their organs and echoes.

The same paper, in the same article, says of the clergy,—"The radical error of their policy is violence. They have sought to accomplish their purposes by agitation, while education would have been far less dangerous and more efficient."

It is not true that their policy is violence, or that it has been agitation. On the contrary, their policy and practice has been education, as every man knows who has attended meeting regularly on the Sabbath, in New England, for twenty or forty years.

On the subject of slavery, the general opinion in New England has been, that such freedom as we enjoy was a good thing, a sacred right, and that slavery was a bad thing, a great wrong. Ministers held this opinion, and though most of them rarely mentioned it, yet whenever they did, they always spoke in favor of liberty, and of course, against slavery. Not one in forty of them ever counselled violence, or agitated the subject at all.

But when politicians and demagogues in Congress agitated the country, and especially the Democratic party in the free States, by proposing to let slavery into free northern territory—then 3000 clergymen protested against the agitation and the wrong. The great body of the northern democrats went with them, until by President Pierce's support of the Kansas bill as an Administration measure it was made a sort of party test.

Then the party sullenly acquiesced, but underneath there was agitation. Pierce went under—Buchanan came—the Dred Scott infamy was perpetrated, (not by the clergy, but by a subservient court) and the Lecompton swindle caused even Douglas to rebel against the slavemongers. Agitation now came in with redoubled force, till the N. H. Patriot spoke of a wet blanket which Buchanan put on the New Hampshire Democrats. Agitation went to Charleston, blew up the party, fired on Fort Sumter, and made the Rebellion and the War. All this was the agitation of the slave power, for slavery.

The people of the Free States, of the United States, oppose this, and defend themselves: our conduct herein is the result of our education, in which the clergy have borne a part. The clergy, however, were not our only educators; but every fourth of July orator, every lyceum lecturer, every schoolmaster and schoolmistress, and every political stump speaker spoke in favor of freedom—none in favor of slavery, simply because there is no right in it.—Apologies were sometimes made for it, and Cobb, of Georgia, said here (in our Temple) he would not discuss its right or wrong.

In the church, as elsewhere, the true conservatism is gradual reform and perpetual progress,—making revolution undesirable and almost impossible. But if we cling to all old errors, abuses and corruptions, and try to preserve them, the result will commonly be ferment, agitation and explosive revolution.

The sun will not stand still, nor will it go backward, to please anybody who wishes to live under Jeff. Davis, or Nero, or Nimrod or Cain. We can't rub out the Declaration of Independence, nor the Crucifixion, nor the Deluge. We cannot extinguish human feelings in our bosoms;—and until we can, it is of no use to bid the New England pulpit be dumb. If it should be silent the stones would cry out, saying—"Do justly, love mercy, walk humbly, break every yoke."

U. T.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Diptheria is prevailing to a fearful extent in Moultonborough. There have also been several cases in Ossipee.

—— Col. Abbott, of the 7th regiment, arrived in New York on Tuesday, in the steamer from Hilton Head.

—— Mr. Jacob C. Eastman of Chatham, recently discovered that some wild animal was making depredations upon his corn, and setting a trap one evening, the next morning found that he had caught a bear.

—— At the time of the Amherst jail fire, the female prisoners, seven in number, became frantic, tore up the benches in their room, and with them in some way succeeded in forcing out the bolts of the bars of their windows, and thus effected an escape to the stairs that led to the jail yard. By the use of the bolts and bars they forced the main door from its hinges, and were only secured after much effort.

FOREIGN ADVICES to the 2d are received, but contain nothing important.—Ex-President Buchanan had arrived in London. The Manchester Southern Club having memorialized Earl Russell to make representations at Washington against the alleged bitter character of the war, was answered that "Lord John Russell feared no representations of Her Majesty's government will do good, but that his Lordship will instruct Her Majesty's Minister at Washington to report on the statements made in their memorial."

Earl Russell's speech asserting that Russia, having failed to fulfill the treaties, has virtually forfeited its title to possess Poland, attracts great attention in Paris journals, and they generally endorse the sentiment.

The Confederate loan advanced five cents under the news of Rosecrans' defeat.

The Danish Minister of Marine had asked for authority to build iron-clads, and to call for 5000 sailors.

☞ The Countess of Meath, of Kilruddery, Ireland, must be a nice sort of a lady. She recently gave her usual festival to all the old women for miles around Kilruddery. Over one hundred recipients of her ladyship's bounty sat down to the table, and partook heartily. In the evening there was tea and cake galore, and dancing was kept up till twelve o'clock. The next day the juvenile party took place, under the patronage of Lady Kathleen Brabazon, her ladyship's only daughter. The earl and the countess supply over one hundred old women with clothes and coal; and her ladyship, when arranging the distribution, always gives the old women a party.

NO YELLOW FEVER IN NEW ORLEANS. A New Orleans correspondent of the New York Times says that the rumors about yellow fever having broken out in the city last month were false; the season had then passed, by the declaration of the oldest and most intelligent physicians, for that pestilence to set in. It has never been known to make its first appearance after the middle of September.

NEW STEAMBOAT LINE.—Some of the leading merchants of New York and Boston are about establishing a new steamboat line between those cities. The route will be over the Providence road, making the boat connection at Bristol and touching at Newport. It is proposed to construct boats much longer than any now in the Sound.—There are already five established freight and passenger routes between New York and Boston.

☞ Rev. Dr. Stebbins of the Unitarian Church, Portland, as we learn from the Press, after reading several passages from Scripture, at Vespers on Sunday last, referred to the horse railroad, which has recently been laid in that city, and said he hoped the directors would run the cars at proper hours on Sundays, so as to give the people out of town a chance to come in, and those in town an opportunity to go and take the fresh air, visit the cemetery and return with sanctified feelings and a better appreciation of our Sundays.

☞ They had a scrimmage in Portland on Monday. A yoke of oxen started to run away; a little lame fellow undertook to stop them by using his cane over their heads; the owner came up, thought he was urging them forward, and struck him across the hand heavily with his goad; a bystander pitched in, knocked the teamster down and gave him a drubbing. All of which we learn from the Press.

☞ The Nashville Union in an article respecting the declaration of the opposition that the emancipated slaves cannot take care of themselves, says that amid all the excitement and extraordinary troubles of civil war, the black people of that city have been carrying on no less than eight highly respectable schools, which are attended regularly by some six hundred pupils. The trustees and teachers are "American citizens of African descent;" no white person interfering in any way. The Government has nothing to do with them.

☞ Gold closed at 156 in New York, Tuesday.

☞ A Down Easter speaks of a heavy fog in his locality. He says he hired a man to shingle a barn. At noon the man complained that it was a terribly long barn, for he had been at work all the morning and hadn't got one course laid. So after dinner he went to see what he'd been about, and found he had shingled more than a hundred feet right out on the fog!

Portsmouth, Oct. 1, 1863.

Laws' Express—Notice.

The subscriber would inform his patrons, and the general public, that in order the better to accommodate his increasing business, he has engaged MR. ALBERT CHAMBERLAIN, JR., to run as Messenger, daily, to and from Boston; and that his Express will now make two trips each way daily,—leaving Portsmouth at 7 and 11 o'clock, and returning at 5½ and 7½. Thanking all for past liberal patronage, he hopes by the new arrangement, to be enabled to fill all orders still more promptly than before.

Office at Mr. Avery's, 29 Congress street, as heretofore.

HEALTH AND COMFORT.

Patent Rubber Sole Boots and Shoes,

FOR MEN, BOYS AND YOUTH.

These Goods, having been carefully tested, prove to be more desirable than any other Boots and Shoes heretofore made. They answer the double purpose of Leather and Rubber Boots and Shoes.

They are made serviceable and easier to the feet than Leather Soles, are impervious to water, and having a leather inner sole do not draw the feet, and are far less expensive than Rubber Boots.

They are free from noise, prevent slipping on ice, and in keeping the feet dry and warm are conducive to health.

When the Soles wear out, the Boots and Shoes can be tapped with leather, or, if returned to us entire, new Rubber Soles can be put on.

The subscribers, having made arrangements as Agents for the sale of the above goods, are now prepared to take measures for the same, in different styles, and deliver them at short notice. They are made from the best stock to be had in the market, and warranted in every particular. Call and examine samples, at No. 13 Market street.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Ultimate Consumption, which the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only rational theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cure, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness, Sore Throat Bronchial and Asthmatic Complaints, to all Throat and Lung Complaints, which, when neglected, end in Consumption, and to prove the declarations by true results.

DRAFTED MEN FOR EXAMINATION.
Oct. 14, Barnstead 40, Gilmanton 20.

☞ Many of our readers are probably not aware of the number of returned soldiers in our community. Some of them have returned to us maimed for life, and many such are employed on the Navy Yard in situations suited to their abilities. In the caulkers' department alone, there are men who did good service at Ball's Bluff, Goldsboro' and Whitehall, N. C., South Mountain, Fredericksburg, Gettysburg, and Port Hudson. In the same department there are also men who served in the war of 1812, and in the Japanese expedition of 1858. Other departments on the yard are probably equally well supplied with returned heroes, but this having come under our notice, we have "made a note of it."

STATE MUSTER.—For the accommodation of those wishing to attend the State Muster at Manchester to-day, and to-morrow, passengers will be taken on the C. & P. R. R. for fare one way on all trains.—On Thursday, a special train will leave Portsmouth at 7:30 A. M., the early morning train leaving as usual.

☞ The screw-sloop Nipsic, which has been detained at the Portsmouth Navy Yard for nearly a month, in consequence of the breakage of her propeller, is now about ready for sea. The new propeller has stood the usual test of forty-eight hours, and the vessel will probably drop below today (Wednesday.)

☞ The side-wheel steamer Alabama still lies at anchor in our lower harbor.—The cool and frosty nights of the past week will tend to destroy the yellow fever on board, if any remains. She will soon be brought up to the Navy Yard, to be cleansed and repaired.

☞ Dr. Stevens has requested us to state that Prof. Williams, from Boston, has arrived in town again, and will be at his office for a few days for the purpose of administering the Nitrous Oxyd Gas. The Professor has administered the gas for extracting more than four thousand teeth, and never yet met with a failure. Call upon the doctor while he is here.

"THAT COMICAL BROWN."—Those of our readers who have been on the gui vive to hear Wm. B. Brown, the great comic genius are to have their wishes gratified to night. Brown is one of the best comic singers New England has produced, and we learn he has lately been greeted with overflowing houses. Miss Marsh, who accompanies Mr. Brown, is said to have no equal in the country as a contralto vocalist.

☞ The Russian fleet will not probably reach Boston before the first of November

☞ Rev. Sidney Smith, of Farmington, Me., who was drafted, has gone into camp.

☞ The Bucks County (Penn.) Intelligencer says George M. Dallas goes for Governor Curtin.

☞ The brokers in New York are about to build an Exchange at an expense of $200,000.

☞ $5200 was the snug little sum which a New York strawberry-grower received the past season, for the product of 16 acres.

☞ A stage driver has been arrested in New York for tearing out the tongue of a horse by the roots, when drunk.

☞ Archbishop Whately has been very ill for some time, and last accounts repre sent him as finking fast.

☞ Government is buying cotton in Mississippi at 8 cents per pound. A wide margin for profits there.

☞ A schooner, arrived at Boston, reports that the Spanish troops have suppressed the rebellion in St. Domingo.

☞ Blockade running into Wilmington is as brisk as ever. Steamers run in and out in broad daylight now, it is said.

☞ The Portland Press recommends that pork be made the standard of value, now that gold has become a myth.

☞ The U. S. steam frigate Niagara will make her trial trip during the present week, and stop at Gloucester a few days to recruit seamen from the fishing fleet.

☞ They've got a beef factory down in Maine, which, when in full operation, will put up in sealed cans the meat of fifteen fat oxen a day.

☞ Burglaries are frequently reported in our exchanges from different parts of New England. Highway robberies are also unusually common.

☞ A Philadelphia dispatch, Tuesday P. M., says all the reports from the interior are favorable to the election of Mr. Curtin, Union candidate for Governor.

☞ Labor commands a high rate of wages at present. The stevedores in Boston have demanded 50 cents per hour—10 hours per day.

☞ A deserter from Fort Preble, Portland, was caught on Saturday night, at the house of "one of his wives," in Gardiner, Maine.

☞ One of the murderers of Colonel O'Brien, during the riot in New York, was shot in the Army of the Potomac a few days since, as a substitute deserter. He confessed previous to his execution.

☞ A newspaper writer says that seeing an old negro sitting on the top of a fence, he spoke kindly to him, whereupon a smile lit up his old weatherbeaten countenance until it looked like illuminated India rubber.

☞ The United Service Gazette says the English Rear Admiral Sir Joseph Hope has been nominated as the successor to Vice Admiral Sir A. Milne, as Commander-in-Chief of the North American and West India station.

☞ Gen. B. H. Helm, of the rebel army, who was killed at Chattanooga, was the brother-in-law of Mrs. President Lincoln, he having married her half-sister. He entered the Southern army as a private, and rose to the rank of Brigadier.

☞ A proclamation has been issued by Gov. Brown of Georgia, strongly protesting against the seizure of personal property for public purposes. He urges resistance to such abitrary impressments of property as have been made.

FILIAL AFFECTION,—a Domestic Tragedy, in two acts.—ACT 1.—A young man in New York State kicks his aged father out of doors, and bids him begone.

ACT 2.—(Six months have elapsed.) Young man is drafted; sends for his father; gives him $5.; is "supporting" him.—Exempt filius.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambucci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world afforde. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince anyone. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

TICKLING IN THE THROAT,
WHOOPING COUGH,
Or relieve CONSUMPTIVE COUGH,
as quick as
COE'S COUGH BALSAM.

OVER FIVE THOUSAND BOTTLES have been sold in its native town, and not a single instance of its failure is known.

We have, in our possession, any quantity of certificates, some of them from

EMINENT PHYSICIANS,

who have used it in their practice, and gives it the pre-eminence over any other compound.

It does not dry up a Cough,

but loosens it, so as to enable the patient to expectorate freely.

☞ Two or three Bottles will invariably cure TICKLING IN THE THROAT.

A HALF Bottle has often completely cured the most

STUBBORN COUGH.

And yet, though it is so sure and speedy in its operation, it is perfectly harmless, being purely vegetable. It is very agreeable to the taste, and may be administered to children of any age.

In cases of CROUP we will guarantee a cure, if taken in season. No Family should be without it. It is within the reach of all, the price being

ONLY 25 CENTS!

And if an investment and thorough trial does not "back up" the above statement, the money will be refunded. We say this, knowing its merits, and feel confident that one trial will secure for it a home in every household.

Do not waste away with Coughing, when so small an investment will cure you. It may be had of any respectable druggist in town, who will furnish you with a circular of genuine certificates of cures it has made.

The valuable and beautiful FARM, formerly owned by the Hon. James Pickering. This desirable estate, comprising about seventy acres, is situated in Newington, about four miles from Portsmouth and one mile from depot of Concord Railroad at Greenland. The buildings consist of a good 1½ story House, containing ten rooms, excellent cellar washroom, &c., together with Barn, suitable Outbuildings, &c. The land is suitably divided into tillage, pasturage and mowing fields. Upon it are some of the very best varieties of Apple and Pear trees, many of which are in good bearing condition, together with the smaller fruits, such as Currants, Raspberries, &c. The beautiful shade trees scattered over the land, its eligibility to a good market, excellent pasturage and general beauty of its location, make this one of the most desirable estates ever offered for sale in this section of the State.

THE ALL SUFFICIENT THREE.

The Great "American Remedies"

Known as "Helmbold's"

Genuine Preparations, Viz.:

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT "BUCHU,"
" " SARSAPARILLA,
" " IMPROVED ROSE WASH.

HELMBOLD'S

GENUINE PREPARATION,

COMPOUND

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

A Positive and Specific Remedy

For Disease of the
BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL, AND DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of Digestion, and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the Watery or Calcerous depositions, and all Unnatural Enlargements are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation, and is good for Men, Women, or Children.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
FOR WEAKNESSES

Arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion, or Abuse,

ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Indisposition to Exertion.	Loss of Power.
Loss of Memory	Difficulty of Breathing.
Weak Nerves,	Trembling,
Horror of Disease,	Wakefulness,
Dimness of Vision,	Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System.	Flushing of the Body,
Hot Hands,	Eruptions on the Face,
	Dryness of the Skin

These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which it medicine invariably removes, soon follow IMPOTENCY, PALPITATION, INSANITY, Its one of which the patient may expire. Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases"

INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION.

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess. The records of the Insane Asylums and the Premature Graves filled by Consumption, bear ample witn ess to the truth of the assertion.

THE CONSTITUTION, ONCE AFFECTED WITH ORGANIC WEAKNESS,

Requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. A trial will convince the most skeptical.

Females, Females, Females,

OLD OR YOUNG, SINGLE, MARRIED, OR CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE.

In many affections peculiar to Females the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy, be it Fluors or Retentions, Irregularity, Painfulness, or Suppression of the Customary Evacuations. Ulcerated or Schirrous state of the Uterus, Leucorrhœa, or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the Female Constitution, Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the

USE

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For all Affections and Diseases of

The Urinary Organs,

Whether existing in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause originating, and no matter

OF HOW LONG STANDING.

Diseases of the organs require the aid of diuretics.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

IS THE GREAT DIURETIC,

And it certain to have the desired effect in all diseases for which it is recommended.

BLOOD! BLOOD! BLOOD!

Helmbold's Highly Concentrated Compound

Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla,

SYPHILIS.

This is an affection of the Blood, and attacks the Sexual Organs, Linings of the Nose, Ears, Throat, Windpipe, and other Mucus Surfaces, making its appearance in the form of Ulcers.—Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla purifies the Blood, and removes all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, giving to the complexion a clear and healthy Color. It holds pre-eminent supremacy for this class of complaints, its Blood-Purifying Properties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla.

Helmbold's Rose Wash.

An excellent Lotion for Diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection in Diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in conjunction with Extracts Buchu and Sarsaparilla, in such diseases as recommended.

Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character will accompany these medicines.

THE BEST COOK STOVE

IN THE MARKET,

AFTER ALL SAID,

—IS—

STEWART'S

NEW, LARGE OVEN, AIR TIGHT,

SUMMER AND WINTER

COOKING STOVE,

For Wood or Coal,

IMPROVED IN 1859.

The peculiarities of the

STEWART COOK STOVE,

Embracing the Latest Improvements, briefly stated, are:

1. It is what it purports to be—AN AIR TIGHT COOKING STOVE. That is, when the draft is properly adjusted, wood will lie and smoulder and char, on the grate, after the manner of a coal pit. Or, if the fire be of Anthracite Coal, by simply closing the draft, it will be effectually put out.

2. Combined with this, are the peculiar position of the fire-chamber, the general internal structure, and the outward movable coverings, by which means the heat of the stove may be confined within or thrown off to warm the apartment, thus relieving females of the discomfort usually attendant upon carrying on cooking operations in summer, and securing the qualities of the brick oven so fully that the baking process may be carried through successfully without any one going near the stove from the time the article is set in until it is removed from the oven.

3. The store is accommodated to the reception of a permanent REservoir (of copper, with a tin casing) containing from 10 to 20 gallons, by which the waste heat, in passing off, is made available to keep on hand a constant supply of hot water. The space beneath the reservoir is occupied with a TIN CLOSET, where articles ready for the table are placed to keep warm, without set to rust, from the steam.

4. Also, by the aid of the TOP COVER, a coal fire may be kept up through the night, and breakfast and dinner prepared the next day with no addition of fuel.

5. Roasting is performed in the most perfect manner in front of the fire, with a DEVOUR OVEN prepared for the purpose—the heat being communicated to it from both sides of the fire-box; and the fumes, meanwhile, passing into the draft.

6. A NOVEL PLAN OF VENTILATION is adopted, by which two kinds of meat may be roasted in the oven at the same time, without imparting the peculiar flavor of one to the other; and the current instituted for this purpose made subservient to augment the heat upon the bottom of the oven, with no increase of combustion.

7. By the aid of the perforated metallic linings, or "gas burning arrangement," and application of the full summer draft, the various culinary processes may be carried forward successfully with a single stick of wood at a time.

8. In regard to DURABILITY, the Stewart Stove is made to last, and will last. The structural form is such that the frame work of it can not warp out.

All the plates constituting the original STEWART STOVE, which was brought ON TWENTY years ago, are still made and sent to different parts of the country, on call.

The price of QUICKNESS, COMFORT and HEALTH secured to a family by the use of a culinary apparatus perfectly adapted to their wants, cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents.

But we can not, and need not, enumerate in detail, the excellencies of the STEWART STOVE. It is no experiment, or new-fangled notion got up to gull the public, to which we invite your attention; but

THE STANDARD COOK STOVE

Now in use, which has been widely tested

FOR TWENTY YEARS,

and NOT found wanting in any particular. Yes, the Stewart Stove has been manufactured and used for a score of years; but the inventor has kept pace with the times, and repeatedly made improvements, so that the Stewart Stove of 1863 is as superior to that of 1841, as the Mowing Machine is to a Bush Scythe.

IT HAS NOT BEEN EXCELLED

yet, as a Family Stove. Here follow the names of a few of the numerous purchasers of the

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely done away with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of rekindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove. Hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, mobt and agreeable;—and as none of the air passing through with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat with smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating apparatus have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The results for this end are, that combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed, the reverse, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to be up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used.

We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, tie just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every item fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

THE SONG OF THE SHELL.

Sullen, and strong, and thick, and tall,
Rises the bastion's moated wall.
The glacis is smooth and the ditch is deep,
And the wary sentry may never sleep;
Over the parapet, heavy and dun,
Peers the mouth of the barbette gun,
While lightings flash and tempests glow
From the gloomier casemates down below.
Strong is the work and stout the wall,
But before my song they must crumble and fall—
Crumble away to a heap of stones,
Mingled with fragments of dead men's bones,
And red with the blood that flowed as they fell,
Their requiem sung by the howling shell.

Flaunting, and boasting, and brisk, and gay,
The streets of the city shine to day.
Forts without, an army within,
To think of surrender were deadly sin;
For the foe far over the wave abide,
And no guns can reach o'er the flowing tide.
They can't? Through the air, with a rush and a yell,
Comes the screech and the roar of the howling shell;
And the populous city is still alive
With the news that are leaving the ancient hive;
And the market-places are waste and bare,
And the smoke hangs thick in the poisoned air;
And the ruins alone shall remain to tell
Where the hymn of destruction was sung by the shell.

Traitorous and bloodthirsty, mad with wrath,
Charleston stands in the nation's path—
Stands and flaunts a bloody rag,
Insulting the stars on the dear old flag.
But Sumter is crumbled and ground away,
And Wagner and Gregg are ours to-day,
And over the water, on furious wings,
The shell from the "Swamp Angel" flies and sings.
It sings of the death of the traitorous town,
It sings of red-handed rebellion crushed down;
Sharp are its cadences, harsh its song,
It shrieks for the right and it crushes the wrong;
And never a blast, shaking nethermost hell,
Cried vengeance and wrath like the song of the shell.
—Frank Leslie's Paper.

☞ A French jockey tried to bring himself into condition for a race, and died from starvation.

☞ Burleigh, in a New York letter of the 7th gives the following item on a new ornament for a lady's head, viz. a copper-head snake:

The Copperhead ladies of New York—their name is not legion—have adopted a novel mode of sympathy with the South. The present custom of adorning bonnets with geese, turkies and cormorants, has suggested the novel mode of defying the government by wearing snakes upon their hats. The other day a lady in one of the trains had as an ornament upon her bonnet a huge snake, hissing and spitting and apparently as venomous as the principles it represented. Of the huge snake coiled upon her hat the lady seemed particularly proud.

☞ Among the oddities of the day is the establishment of a Ghost Club in London—not, as might be supposed, a club for the organized research into the possibility of a traveler returning from that bourne to which we all look forward with interest.—The club is in downright earnest, as may be gathered from the fact that the committee advertise for a "Haunted House," one whose reputation is well authenticated.

IN WHAT LIBERTY CONSISTS.—It is true that in democracies the people seem to act as they please, but political liberty does not consist in an unlimited freedom. In governments, that is, in societies directed by laws, liberty can consist only in the power of doing what we ought to will, and in not being constrained to do what we ought not to will. We must have continually present to our minds the difference between independence and liberty. Liberty is a right of being whatever the laws permit; and if a citizen could do what they forbid, he would be no longer possessed of liberty, because all his fellow-citizens would have the same power.—Montesquieu's Spirit of Laws.

☞ There has been another immense rock fall at Niagara. The St Catherine's (C. W.) Journal states that a day or two since the large table rock, below the Suspension Bridge at Clifton, fell, and with it a large section of the bank. The concussion produced by the fall is said to have shaken the bridge from end to end, as well as a portion of the land and tenements in the vicinity, causing many to imagine that an earthquake had taken place. The rock and earth have formed a small island in the river but it is expected that the action of the water will speedily remove it, as the current is very swift and strong at the spot. Of late years the rock slides have been very frequent in the vicinity of the Falls; almost too frequent to gives persons confidence in their title deeds.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.
These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.
Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.
Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The armies in Virginia are reported to be lying in close proximity, and a general engagement is daily expected.

Moseby is one of Stuart's staff officers, and has been detached to destroy communications between our army and Washington.

The rebels in their attempt to destroy the Ironsides on the night of the 5th, approached her in a small steamer and exploded a torpedo amidships. The concussion was tremendous. It knocked down the bulwark and injured one man. The hull of the Ironsides is uninjured. She is considered torpedo proof. The enemy's steamer is badly damaged. Several of her men were knocked overboard and drowned. On the night of the 6th another attempt was made to destroy the Ironsides.—The enemy were discovered and driven off. A heavy reward is said to have been offered by the citizens of Charleston for the destruction of the Ironsides.

The N. Y. Times' correspondent says considerable damage was done to the Ironsides by the rebel torpedo.

Adm. Dahlgren officially reports that the Ironsides was not injured.

Gen. Rosecrans denies that any official or other dispatches from him warranted a charge of disobedience of orders by Gens. Crittenden or McCook on either day of the battle at Chickamauga.

Gen. Rosecrans, it is said, telegraphs that he expects a general attack from the rebels soon on his right flank.

THE ELECTIONS, on Tuesday, resulted in overwhelming victories for the Union.

In Pennsylvania, Forney's Press figures Gov. Curtin's majority at about 22,000.

In Ohio, 29 counties give Brough 37,816 majority,—a gain over last year of 23,289. Soldiers from this State were granted the privilege of voting. The regiments already heard from give Brough 3041; Vallandigham 52. Vallandigham is buried.

A Cincinnati dispatch to the N. Y. World says the returns indicate that Brough's majority will be from 40,000 to 50,000,—that is, probably, without the soldiers' vote.

Returns from Indiana indicate large Union gains. In Indianapolis the Union majority is 2100,—a gain of 600.

Returns from Iowa come in slowly, but are nearly all one way.—decidedly in favor of the Union candidate.

☞ A New York contemporary says a very moderate run of success to Gen. Hooker in his new position will tend to the creation of a wide-spread belief that he has been one of the best abused men in the army.—Lee's report has done much to clear up the question of how large a share of the defensive campaign in Pennsylvania, which drove the rebels back from Gettysburg, is to be set down to Hooker. The country will like it in him that he has been anxious for something to do, and that when the opening came he did not fail to work to study the dates of commissions and measure the length of shoulder straps before accepting the call. He is an earnest, whole souled fighting man, whose whole heart is in the war, and if any one persists in doing him intentional injustice it will be discovered and righted by the country.

A BOLD CONSUL.—The British Consul at Savannah, is having a controversy with Governor Brown of Georgia, on the impressment of British citizens in the rebel army, in which his rebel excellency is told some very plain truths. The British consul in effect tells Governor Brown that Georgia is still a part of the Federal Union, and that British subjects forced into the rebel army have been instructed to throw down their arms rather than to contend against United States soldiers; and that in case these remonstrances fail, "the governments in Europe interested in this question will unite in making such representations as will secure to aliens this desired exemption."

THE NATIONAL FINANCES.—The N. Y. Times' Washington dispatch says the government enters upon the third year of the war with a debt of only $1,222,750,000. The increase of this debt hereafter will be moderate, the government being abundantly supplied with muskets, cannon and clothing.

In a speech, on Tuesday evening, at Armory Hospital, the Registrar of the Treasury, Hon. E. L. Chittenden, said that foreign capitalists were only too anxious to invest in government securities.

On Tuesday $350,000 worth of United States bonds were issued to foreign brokers, and the government has now on hand money with which to pay the entire army for the month of November, which money was furnished by foreign capitalists.

☞ Gold fell to 153 1-2 in New York, Wednesday P. M.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Capt. Jerome B. House, of Co. C, 7th Regiment, who was severely wounded in the hip at the assault on Fort Wagner, died at his home in Lebanon, Wednesday, the 7th inst.

—— Mr Joseph K. Averill, who formerly published the "Sullivan Republican," was accepted at Lebanon a few days since, as a substitute.

—— In the Supreme Judicial Court for Merrimack county, on Tuesday last, William B. Weeks of Canaan, and John George of Warner, were admitted to practice as attorneys and counsellors at law.

—— The survey for the Pittsfield and Suncook Branch railroad, the charter for which was granted last June, was commenced on Monday. The road will follow the Suncook river the entire distance, and will be 16 miles in length.

—— A young man was dragged about forty rods over a stony pasture in Antrim, a few days ago, by a horse, his foot becoming entangled in the halter. He was severely bruised, several of his ribs were broken, and his recovery is doubtful.

—— Mr. Eliphalet Brown, of Chester, is the father of eighten children. His seven sons he sent to the war, four of whom have died in the service. Mr. Brown is a patriot of the right stamp, and having done so much for his country, he ought to be exempted from taxation and all civil and military burdens for the rest of his days.

☞ The New York Herald's correspondent at St. Martin, West Indies, writing Sept. 14, says that the emancipation of the slaves by the Dutch Government, which took place on the 1st of July last, was likely to ruin the neighboring island of St. Eustatius, as the whole of the emancipated population would probably leave it. At St. Martin the measure produced little change. A severe drought had prevailed at Martin, and the next sugar crop would be very scant. A large number of live stock had died. Salt was in full supply.

St. Eustatius contains only about 2000 inhabitants, of all colors. It is quite fertile, and the rein story may be taken cum grano salis.

FOREIGN.—The advance in England in the Confederate loan, occasioned by news of Rosecrans' defeat, was not sustained, and it closed at 25 per cent. discount.

The Florida remained at Brest, Sept. 20, and although she had finished repairing, would not be ready for sea for three weeks. The U. S. steamer Kearsarge continued at Brest, awaiting orders.

Maximilian has consented to accept the Mexican throne, provided the people express a desire for him to do so by a free vote.

☞ The subject of slavery is warmly discussed at present, in the bosom of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States. Some time ago, Bishop Hopkins, the overseer of that church in Vermont, made and published a pro-slavery document, very thorough, in which he defended the peculiar institution with much zeal and some ability.

This called out a strong and able protest of Bishop Potter and the Episcopal clergy of Pennsylvania against his defense of slavery. The rejoinder of Bishop Hopkins is just published, and is epicy, not to say tart. "Now my right reverend brother," he says, "I am sorry to be obliged to charge you, not only with a gross insult against your senior, but with the more serious offense of a false accusation." He speaks of the other signers of the protest as "your band of indignant reprobationists," and follows in the wake of Gov. Seymour in denouncing "Eastern abolitionists" and "Eastern philanthropists." He defends his ideas as the Bible view of slavery, and is evidently in earnest; he believed, he says, "that the plain precepts and practice of the Apostles sanctioned the institution, although, as a matter of expediency, the time might come when the South would prefer, as the North had done, to employ free labor."

The Vermont Bishop don't seem to be aware that he is meddling with politics—but rather has an idea that abolition is politics, and that pro-slavery is religion.

CROPS IN ARKANSAS.—Late advices from the interior of Arkansas say that the crops were never known to be better. Grain of all kinds is abundant, and cotton is doing remarkably well. The forests are full of game, not having been hunted for nearly two years. The crops will, of course, fall into our hands, thus inflicting a severe blow on the rebels.

☞ Forty-two confederate prisoners, who had taken the oath of allegiance and violated the same in divers ways, were recently tried at Washington by a court martial.—They were convicted and sentenced to one year's hard labor at Fort Delaware.

☞ The Providence Journal states that a young man named Frank Seamans, son of Geo. W. Seamans, tobacconist, was found dead on Sunday in a barn yard on Fountain street. There were no marks of violence upon his body, and his death was undoubtedly the result of intemperate and dissipated habits.

☞ A man convicted of rape in Bangor has been sentenced to State Prison for life.

☞ Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and Iowa all elected the Union candidates on Tuesday,—a good day's work.

☞ A man in Bangor ran against a post, and, thinking it shouldn't have been there, sued the city and recovered $776.16.

☞ The Waterville Mail says the amount of the Maine Central R. R. defalcation will not, probably, exceed $40,000.

☞ $1,769,000, prize money, is ordered to be distributed to the officers and men of United States vessels.

☞ Gen. R. Thos. Runyon, Democrat, was elected Mayor of Newark, N. J., on Tuesday by 100 majority.

☞ Eleven million dollars were expended by the Sanitary Commission, from June to October.

☞ Orders have been issued for a re-enrollment in several of the New York districts, preparatory to a new draft.

☞ Selma, Ala., is in darkness, the engineer of the Gas Company having been drafted, and there being nobody who knows enough to take his place.

☞ The drafted men who have joined the 16th Maine regiment, have presented an elegant sword and equipments, costing $150, to the officer who had them in charge.

☞ Indiana has furnished 1686 men over her quota under all the calls, and is now raising seven regiments of infantry and four of cavalry.

☞ Wm. Lomax, a young Boston lawyer, has been sentenced to three years' hard labor in the House of Correction for forgery, to which he pleaded guilty.

☞ The New England school of design for women will perish in December, 1864. A school with that title seems hardly necessary, for surely they are sufficiently designing under ordinary circumstances.

☞ The tooth of a harrow, in a field near Detroit, caused a bright mark: the fortunate driver stopped, looked and found a piece of copper weighing 357 pounds and nearly pure.

☞ Capt. Pendleton, of a Rockland schooner, got into a dispute with a colored barber in Newburyport on Monday evening, and the barber cut him with a razor in the arm, making a frightful gash. The negro was arrested, and fined $30 and costs.

☞ The British steamer Caledonia, which went ashore on Cape Cod last winter, has been raised, and was towed to Boston on Tuesday. She is a new iron steamer of over 1500 tons, was purchased on the beach for $14,000, and can soon be repaired.

☞ The audience rushed out of a New York theatre, on Friday evening, at the explosion of a rubber bag which was being filled with gas in the basement for the purpose of illuminating a ghost. Considerable damage was done, and two men were seriously injured by the explosion.

A COINCIDENCE.—Messrs. Editors:—It is a curious coincidence that Jeff. Davis's incendiaries burn steamboats on the Western waters, and that their allies at the same time burn houses among the mountains of New Hampshire. BOB SHORT.

☞ In Nevada Territory, the late election resulted in a two-thirds vote for the Union,—one-third for the Democratic party. The vote for a State Government is 8000, against it 1500. The State will probably be admitted into the Union the coming winter.

☞ The Newburyport Herald says Rev. Charles Beecher, of Georgetown, Mass., has not yet got through his ecclesiastical troubles. The Essex North Association are laboring with him on the heresy of pre-existence, with a fair prospect of expelling him.

☞ A letter from Beaufort says it was not the Sumter which was destroyed by mistake in Charleston Harbor by the Rebels. The Sumter is said to be now at Wilmington, armed and awaiting a chance to run the blockade, which consists at present of eight steamers.

The Empire of Health.

WHO WIELDS ITS SCEPTRE.

Universal empire has been the darling object of scores of despots, dynasties and states, from the time of the Pharaohs to that of Napoleon le Grand. Seas of blood have been shed to attain it, and the bones of the myriads who have been slaughtered in the pursuit of this chimera would, if they could be collected in one mass, overtop the highest peak of the Himalayan mountains. Rome came nearest the consummation, yet, even she was never, in truth, the absolute "Mistress of the World."

Yet there is a species of universal empire which has been attained. It is an empire not over the souls and bodies of mankind, but over their diseases. The conqueror who has achieved this grand result is Doctor HOLLOWAY, of London; at least, we are taught to believe that he has done so, by vouchers from all parts of the christian and heathen world, which seem to be irrefutable, and which, in fact, so far as we know, have never been challenged. His Pills and Ointment are universal remedies in a double sense. They are disseminated throughout the habitable globe, and they are (so "crowds of witnesses" assure us) universally successful.

In this country it is quite certain that the Pills are used with most beneficial effect in disorders of the stomach, liver, and bowels, and that scrofula, and all the family of eruptive diseases and discharging sores give way to the healing operation of the Ointment.

Surely, the noblest of all universal empires is that which stretches its healing sceptre over the maladies of all nations!—DAY BOOK.

Sabr Cuts, Gunshot Wounds, and all other kinds of Wounds, also Sores, Ulcers and Scurvy, heal safely and quickly under the soothing influence of HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT. It heals to the bone, so that the wound never opens again. Soldiers, supply yourselves. Only 25 cents per pot. 236

HEALTH AND COMFORT.

Patent Rubber Sole Boots and Shoes,

FOR MEN, BOYS AND YOUTH.

These Goods, having been carefully tested, prove to be more desirable than any other Boots and Shoes heretofore made. They answer the double purpose of Leather and Rubber Boots and Shoes.

They are made serviceable and easier to the feet than Leather Soles, are impervious to water, and having a leather inner sole do not draw the feet, and are far less expensive than Rubber Boots.

They are free from noise, prevent slipping on ice, and in keeping the feet dry and warm are conducive to health.

When the Soles wear out, the Boots and Shoes can be tapped with leather, or, if returned to us entire, new Rubber Soles can be put on.

The subscribers, having made arrangements as Agents for the sale of the above goods, are now prepared to take measures for the same, in different styles, and deliver them at short notice. They are made from the best stock to be had in the market, and warranted in every particular. Call and examine samples, at No. 12 Market street.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Chronic Coughs, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declaration by true results.

DRAFTED MEN FOR EXAMINATION.
Oct 15, Gilmanton 25, Sanbornton 24.

☞ Mr. John A. Hammond, whose death by suicide in this city on Friday last we have already announced, was formerly a caulker in the Charlestown Navy Yard. He was a native of New Bedford, a widower, and leaves a child about two years of age. He was a very industrious, steady man, and much respected by all who knew him. His body was taken to Charleston for interment.

POLICE COURT, Wednesday.—Michael Hogan and Michael Cassidy pleaded guilty to being drunk, and were each fined $3, and costs $3.86.

☞ We witnessed yesterday, at Dr. Goodall's office, the extraction of a very difficult tooth, while the patient was under the influence of nitrous oxyd gas. Perfectly harmless, easy in application, producing no ulterior depressing effects, rendering the patient insensible to all pain, the use of this anæsthetic in dental surgery will take rank among the most useful of modern discoveries and remove much of the dread that has heretofore been attached to the forceps.

☞ Col. Wardwell, with a detachment of men from the Invalid Corps, left the camp in this city on Wednesday morning. The troops were armed and equipped, and there seems to be an impression that they have gone to look after those four drafted men in Jackson who have not yet been notified. If so, it is to be hoped that they have not skedaddled.

STATE MUSTER.—To-day is to be the great day of the Muster at Manchester.—Passengers will be taken on the C. & P. railroad for fare one way, and an extra train will leave the depot in this city at half-past seven o'clock, this (Thursday) morning, for the benefit of those who find it inconvenient to go in the early train.

THE STEREOPHAN, which is advertised in our columns for to-night, closed the exhibition at Portland Tuesday night. The Portland Press of yesterday morning thus speaks of it:

It is rarely the case that our people have had an opportunity of witnessing an exhibition that has given such universal satisfaction as that at Mechanic's Hall for the past ten days. By the aid of a powerful and ingenious work of art, scenery, buildings, statuary, daguerreotypes, &c., are thrown upon a canvass, so as to appear as though we really beheld the object itself.

The following is from the pen of John Neal, in the Portland Press:—

APPARITION AND SPECTRES.—The spectres of cities and palaces, and the apparitions of Pompeii, and Egypt, and Nubia, and Balbe, may now be seen, without budging from your neighborhood, and for little more than the cost of a letter, or a "hasty plate of soup." In short, we have among us a new wonder of art, called the Stereophan, whereby you may be persuaded out of your senses for a matter of twenty-five cents, and be made to believe that you have got possession of that travelling cushion described in the Arabian Nights, which enabled one to transport himself by a wish to the utmost parts of the earth. In other words we advise you to go and see the pictures on exhibition at the Mechanic's Hall, without losing a day. They are the best by far that have ever been produced, and not so much pictures after all, as realities. J. N.

[ADVERTISEMENT.]

NITROUS OXYD GAS.—That all who will may reap the benefit, Dr. A. P. Stevens has again requested us to state that Prof. Stevens will remain in town one or two days longer, in order to impart to the Doctor a full and perfect knowledge of the art of administering the gas. We venture to say that no one in the United States is better able to do this than Prof. Williams. Every operation warranted to be a perfect success or no pay.

☞ Lieut. Charles H. Bradford, of the U. S. Marine Corps, who was a short time since stationed at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, it has been ascertained died at Charleston between the 7th and 26th of September, from wounds received at the time of the unsuccessful attempt to storm Fort Sumter, in which expedition he was a volunteer. Dr. Albert G. Mackey, Grand Secretary of the M. W. Grand Lodge of South Carolina, writes to the friends of Lieut. Bradford, in Portland, "that he was enabled to be with him daily from the time of his arrival at Charleston until his death, that everything that was possible was done for his comfort, that he suffered little or no pain, that every needful and proper preparation was made for his funeral, that he and his two sons accompanied the body to the grave, where it was safely and tenderly deposited and the grave so marked that it may hereafter be identified."

☞ Mary Egan, arrested in New Orleans for getting drunk, singing, fighting, and otherwise misbehaving, was sentenced by Judge Atocha to six months' imprisonment. Regardless of the warning conveyed by Oliver Twist's and fate, she said—"Can't you give me more?" The Judge said "yes," and gave her a year.

☞ A married woman named Clayton has been passed to her home in Minnesota, having enlisted two years since in the same Minnesota regiment as her husband, and been considered a good soldier for a year before she was found out. At the battle of Stone river her husband was killed five paces in front of her, and she herself was wounded in a desperate bayonet charge immediately afterwards.

☞ The Richmond Enquirer recently said: "The success of the Democratic party would be no longer doubtful, should Lee once more advance on Meade. Let him drive Meade into Washington and he will again raise the spirits of the Democrats, confirm their timid and give confidence to their wavering."

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambucl Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Cerates, for they are denied of one of the greatest luxuries the world affords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

as quick as
COE'S COUGH BALSAM.

OVER FIVE THOUSAND BOTTLES have been sold in its native town, and not a single instance of its failure is known.

We have, in our possession, any quantity, of certificates, some of them from

EMINENT PHYSICIANS,

who have used it in their practice, and even it the pre-eminence over any other compound.

It does not dry up a Cough,

but loosens it, so as to enable the patient to expectorate freely.

☞ Two or three Bottles will invariably cure TICKLING IN THE THROAT. ☜

A HALF Bottle has often completely cured the most

STUBBORN COUGH.

And yet, though it is so sure and speedy in its operation, it is perfectly harmless, being purely vegetable. It is very agreeable to the taste, and may be administered to children of any age.

In cases of CROUP we will guarantee a cure, if taken in season. No Family should be without it. It is within the reach of all, the price being

ONLY 25 CENTS!

And if an investment and thorough trial does not "back up" the above statement, the money will be refunded. We say this, knowing its merit, and feel confident that one trial will secure for it a home in every household.

Do not waste away with Coughing, when so small an investment will cure you. It may be had of any respectable druggist in town, who will furnish you with a circular of genuine certificates of cures it has made.

The valuable and beautiful FARM, formerly owned by the Hon. James Pickering. This desirable estate, comprising about seventy acres, is situated in Newington, about four miles from Portsmouth and one mile from depot of Concord Railroad at Greenland. The buildings consist of a good 1½ story House, containing ten rooms, excellent cellar washrooms, &c., together with Barn, suitable Outbuildings, &c. The land is suitably divided into tillage, pasturage and mowing fields. Upon it are some of the very best varieties of Apple and Pear trees, many of which are in good bearing condition, together with the smaller fruit, such as Currants, Raspberries, &c. The beautiful shade trees scattered over the land, its eligibility to a good market, excellent pasturage and general beauty of its location, make this one of the most desirable estates ever offered for sale in this section of the State.

THE ALL SUFFICIENT THREE,

The Great "American Remedies"

Known as "Helmbold's"

Genuine Preparations, Viz.:

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT "BUCHU,"
" " SARSAPARILLA,
" " IMPROVED ROSE WASH.

HELMBOLD'S

GENUINE PREPARATION,

COMPOUND

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

A Positive and Specific Remedy

For Diseases of the

BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL, AND DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of Digestion, and excites the Absorbents into healthy action, by which the Watery or Calcerous depositions, and all Unnatural Enlargements are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation, and is good for Men, Women, or Children.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

FOR WEAKNESSES

Arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion, or Abuse,

ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Horror of Disease, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Flushing of the Body, Eruptions on the Face, Pallid Countenance, Hot Hands, Dry mess of the Skin

These symptoms, it allowed to go on, which is medicine invariably removes, soon follow IMPOTENCY, FATUITY AND EPILEPSY FITS, in one of which the patient may expire. Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"

INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION,

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess. The records of the Insane Asylums and the melancholy death by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion.

THE CONSTITUTION, ONCE AFFECTED WITH ORGANIC WEAKNESS,

Requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. A trial will convince the most skeptical.

Females, Females, Females,

OLD OR YOUNG, SINGLE, MARRIED, OR CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE,

In many affections peculiar to Females the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy, as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painful Suppression of the Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrous state of the Uterus, Leucorrhea, or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the DECLINE OR CHANGE OF LIFE.

NO FAMILY SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT

Take no Balsam, Mercury, or Unpleasant Medicine for unpleasant and dangerous diseases

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

CURES

Secret Diseases

In all their stages; at little expense; little or no change in diet; no inconvenience

AND NO EXPOSURE.

It causes frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby remedying Obstruction, preventing and curing Strictures of the Urethra, allaying pain and inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling Poisonous, Diseased and Worn-out Matter

Thousands upon Thousands

WHO HAVE BEEN MADE THE VICTIMS OF QUACKS, and who have paid Heavy Fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "Powerful Astringents," been driven to the system, to break out in an aggravated form, and

PERHAPS AFTER MARRIAGE.

USE

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For all Affections and Diseases of

The Urinary Organs,

Whether existing in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause originating, and no matter

OF HOW LONG STANDING.

Diseases of the organs require the aid of diuretics.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

IS THE GREAT DIURETIC,

And it is certain to have the desired effect in all diseases for which it is recommended.

BLOOD! BLOOD! BLOOD!

Helmbold's Highly Concentrated Compound

Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla,

SYPHILIS.

This is an affection of the Blood, and attacks the Sexual Organs, Lindings of the Nose, Ears, Throat, Windpipe, and other Membranous surfaces, making its appearance in the form of Ulcers.—Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla purifies the Blood, and removes all foul Eruptions of the Skin, giving to the complexion a clear and healthy Color. It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its Blood-Purifying Properties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla.

Helmbold's Rose Wash.

An excellent Lotion for Diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an Injection in Diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with Extracts Buchu and Sarsaparilla, in such diseases is recommended.

Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character will accompany the medicines.

THE BEST COOK STOVE

IN THE MARKET,

AFTER ALL SAID,

—IS—

STEWART'S

NEW, LARGE OVEN, AIR TIGHT,

SUMMER AND WINTER

COOKING STOVE,

For Wood or Coal,

IMPROVED IN 1859.

The peculiarities of the

STEWART COOK STOVE,

Embracing the Latest Improvements, briefly stated, are:

1. It is what it purports to be—AN AIR TIGHT COOKING STOVE. That is, when the draft is properly adjusted, wood will ignite and smoulder and char, upon the grate, after the manner of a coal pit. Or, if the fire be of Anthracite Coal, by simply closing the draft, it will be effectually put out.

2. Combined with this, are the peculiar position of the fire-chamber, (the general internal structure, and the circuitous route, which the smoke and gases must take, before they can escape into the open air,) which compels the heat to warm the apartment, thus relieving females of the discomfort usually attendant upon carrying on cooking operations in summer, and securing the qualities of the brick oven so fully that the baking process may be carried through successfully without any one going near the stove from the time the article is set in until it is removed from the oven.

3. The stove is accommodated to the reception of a permanent RESERVOIR (of copper, with a tin casing) containing from 10 to 20 gallons, by which the waste heat, in passing off, is made available to keep a constant supply of hot water. The space beneath the reservoir is occupied with a TIN CLOSET where articles ready for the table are placed to keep warm, without to dries, fruit dried, &c.

4. Also, by the aid of the TOP COVER, a coal fire may be kept up through the night, and breakfast and dinner prepared the next day with no addition of fuel.

5. Roasting is performed in most perfect manner in front of the stove, with a DUTCH OVEN prepared for the purpose. The heat being communicated to it from both sides of the fire-box; and the fumes, meanwhile, passing into the draft.

6. A NOVEL PLAN OF VENTILATION is adopted, by which two kinds of meat may be roasted in the oven at the same time, without imparting the peculiar flavor of one to the other; and the current instituted for this purpose is made serviceable to augment the heat upon the bottom of the oven, with no increase of combustion.

7. By the aid of the perforated metallic linings, or "sheets of perforated zinc," and application of the full summer dress, the various culinary processes may be carried forward successfully with a single stick of wood at a time.

8. In regard to DURABILITY, the Stewart Stove is made to last, and will last. The structural form is such that the frame work of it can not burn out.

All the pieces constituting the original STEWART STOVE, which was brought out twenty years ago, are still made, and sent to different parts of the country, on call.

The price of QUIETNESS, COMFORT and HEALTH secured to a family by the use of a culinary apparatus perfectly adapted to their wants, cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents.

But we can not, and need not, enumerate in detail, the excellencies of the STEWART STOVE. It is no experiment, or new fangled notion got up to gull the public, to which we invite your attention; but

THE STANDARD COOK STOVE

Now in use, which has been widely tested

FOR TWENTY YEARS,

and NOT found wanting in any particular. Yes, the Stewart Stove has been manufactured and used for a period of years; but the inventor has kept pace with the times, and repeatedly made improvements—so that the Stewart stove of 1863 is as superior to that of 1841, as the Mowing Machine is to a Bush Scythe.

IT HAS NOT BEEN EXCELLED

yet, as a Family Stove. Here follow the names of a few of the numerous purchasers of the

STEWART COOK STOVE.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET.
Portsmouth, Aug. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL.

Would respectfully announce to his patrons and the public that VULCANIZED RUBBER as a base for Artificial Teeth, promises all the advantages of Gold, and is far cheaper than Gold. My experience has been highly satisfactory in its use, and I have no hesitation in WARRANTING PERFECT SATISFACTION in all cases.

Teeth inserted on Gold and Silver, and all other operations performed as usual.

Teeth extracted positively without pain, by inhaling Nitrous Oxyd Gas!

He is fully convinced that it is a perfectly harmless anæsthetic, its effect being that of an exhilarant, the whole operation being completed generally in three minutes, without the least pain, and the patient feeling as well, and usually better than before inhaling the Gas.

He would cordially invite all who wish teeth extracted without pain, or any possible injurious results, to call and be convinced.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TRACY, WELL, Dr. BOARMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety. Will give an amount of best material, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world.—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert H. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Meadum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be controlled day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, this Stove is surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify; and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for warm air, all the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The complicated, rather than the simple, the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the dome can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of fuel generator, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus obstructing, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will easily burn from 20 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give an amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world.—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert H. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Meadum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHEA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcerations and distresses in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending, are made to become as harmless as the simplest siffings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating marriage consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, warranted the best preventives. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important!

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all disease incident to it. Female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new treatment, that the most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has had a long and large experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH PREVENTIVE. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined:
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

THE REVOLUTION IN SAN DOMINGO.—A letter from St. Domingo, in the N. Y. Herald, states that from appearances the revolutionists would not have been contented until they expelled every Spaniard from the island. The greatest ferocity characterized the war, and towns and villages and plantations belonging to the obnoxious Spaniards are everywhere burned and destroyed.—The people, numbering 150,000, at the time they were betrayed into the hands of a foreign government by Santana and his few associates, were promised the protection of a great power, with the introduction of all improvements that would tend to develope the resources of the country. But instead of these things they have been made subject to the grossest insult, and been placed under heavy imposts and taxes, which have been spent in supporting a useless set of Spanish officials, while the country's interests have been left to take care of themselves. The roads and river navigation have been neglected until such time as communication with the coast is so expensive as to make the products of the plantations profitless. The writer says that the recent revolution was one for liberty and freedom, and is not likely to be crushed out by the Spaniards. They may, with a very strong force, smother it for a while, but only to break out again more terrible than ever. For a long time the revolutionists carried everything, and defeated and drove the Spaniards before them at every point. They appear to have good arms and to be well supplied with men among them who know how to use them, as they pick off the Spanish officers almost equal to United States riflemen.

MANUMISSION IN MARYLAND.—In his speech at Elkton, Maryland, Hon. Henry Winter Davis made the following interesting statements of the blindness of the slave power in that State:

Aye, gentlemen, the slaveholding power must fall, and the slaveholding interest will fall with it. It will fall by its own hand.—It will fall by reason of the blindness of its own representatives. It dies in the house of its friends. No enemy killed it.

Its friends were in the Legislature of 1860, I believe. They adopted the Code of Maryland. In the heyday of their power, when the United States Government was a broken down, rotten remnant of former times, that could exert no authority, exact no respect, compel no obedience, enforce no law, the slavery interest—the 16,000 that spoke for the State of Maryland—wrote our statute book; they have one chapter headed 'Manumission;' it consists of two sections; one is that no slave shall be manumitted in Maryland; the other is that any one heretofore manumitted who wants to make himself a slave can do so by going before a court. That is 'manumission' in Maryland, in the heyday and insolence of the Slave Legislature of Maryland, when it was mocking and jeering at the word 'manumission'; and the Powers that rule above pay men in the course of time for such jokes as that. The only chance now of getting anything for their slaves is the disposition of the Secretary of War to give the $300 bounty money to the masters of slaves who come to enlist.

The legal opinion was asked the other day as to the forms of manumission in Maryland, and you will pardon me, gentlemen, if I say that it was with a grim satisfaction I wrote to the authorities of the United States that the chapter on manumission in the Code of Maryland was as I have recited it to you, and that the slaveholders had disabled themselves from giving a title of freedom to the negro, and therefore they could not get the $300. (Great applause and laughter.) There is a Providence that rules the affairs of men, and insolence, and tyranny, and blindness, and an overbearing disposition, and old despotism grown crazy, always come to grief.

The Old Established Hospital.
No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y.
QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.
Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!
DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private disease, at his Old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World,) of obtaining the safest and as the latest remedies for every disease, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.
In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords Bubo, Ulcerated Sore Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Biles, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.
YOUNG MEN.
Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.
DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.
A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr TELLER'S great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—300 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery, it contains hundreds of secrets never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr. TELLER has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.
TO THE LADIES.
DR. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Vicholi's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.
CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package. Price of the guinea box, in advance, in the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.
Office hours from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M., and on Sundays from 2 to 5 P.M.
N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

CALENDAR CLOCKS.
These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.
Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.
Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The rebel raiders in Missouri divided on Tuesday morning eight miles southwest of Aum Rock,—wherever that may be. 2500 Federal troops are in pursuit, and have killed 12 and lost 4.

Later dispatches from Missouri report that the rebel guerrillas have been routed with many killed, while their artillery, many small arms, and part of their train have been captured: their loss in killed, wounded and prisoners was very large, and they were scattered in every direction, our forces pursuing.

Rebel cavalry and artillery are threatening the Memphis and Charleston R. R., but Gen. Hurlbert's forces have defeated every attempt to do serious damage. A rebel force, 5000 strong, which attacked the garrison at Collierville, Tenn., were repulsed with heavy loss. Our troops are pursuing them.

The cavalry forces of Imboden, Jones and Jenkins are again in the Shenandoah valley, and threaten the Baltimore & Ohio railroad.

Lee's whole army has crossed the Rappahannock. Our army has fallen back to the old Bull Run battle ground. It is rumored that Gen. Sickles is to supersede Gen. Meade at once. In an engagement of infantry and cavalry on both sides, near Bristow's Station on Wednesday, the rebels were driven from the field, with the loss of 100 prisoners and an entire battery.

Troops are being sent from New York to Washington rapidly. A great battle in Virginia is imminent, and may have already commenced.

THE IRONSIDES.—The correspondent of the Baltimore American, in giving an account of the recent rebel attempt to destroy the Ironsides, in Charleston harbor, says:—

They employed a small and very swift steamer, cigar shaped and showing but a very small portion above water. She was manned by a crew of four persons, consisting of Lieut. Glassett, who was the commander, an engineer named Tombs, a fireman named Scott, and a pilot. The steamer eluded the picket boats of our fleet by passing close to the shore of Sullivan's Island. She then made directly across the harbor and came up to the Ironsides without attracting attention. She struck the vessel fairly amidships, exploding a torpedo containing sixty pounds of rifle powder at the moment of contact. The rebel steamer was undoubtedly sunk, either by the force of the collision or by our shot. Lieutenant Glassett jumped overboard and swam to a schooner. He and the fireman Scott are now prisoners on board the guard-ship.—The rebel engineer, formerly of our navy, and the pilot of the rebel steamer are supposed to have been drowned. Lieut. Glassett was formerly in our navy. The explosion of the torpedo drove the steamer under so that the water ran into her smoke stack and put out the fires.

The torpedo was suspended to the bows of the rebel vessel, so as to strike the Ironsides under water. The explosion was severely felt in the Ironsides, but no material damage was done to her hull, engine or armament. One man had his leg broken, and one of the bulkheads of the ship was knocked down—an injury which can be repaired here. The bottom of the Ironsides has been examined by divers and found to be wholly uninjured.

☞ Gen. S. F. Cary recently called to mind the fact, in a speech in Ohio, that Vallandigham introduced into the House a resolution declaring vacant the seats of Blair of Mo., and Curtis of Iowa, because they went into the Union army, while he voted against a resolution for the expulsion of Mr. Clark, who had gone into the rebel army. In what act, since the rebellion broke out, has not Vallandigham proved himself a traitor?

☞ In Iowa, the Republicans have swept the State clean, and that too when the Democratic candidate was a General in the army, and was said to be in favor of crushing the rebellion at all hazards, and Col. Stone, the Republican candidate, took abolition ground, advocating the emancipation of all slaves, and the arming of all without regard to color. The Newburyport Herald remarks that "this vote shows what chance there is of the West going with the Confederates, in case of a division of the country." That is, no chance at all.

RESCUED FROM DROWNING.—Tuesday afternoon a little girl named Harrigan discovered a man lying under a stable on Bremen street, East Boston, while the tide was rising and had nearly submerged him. The child promptly gave the alarm, and the man was removed to the Station House, where it was ascertained that his name was Brannahan, but he was so much intoxicated as to be unable to speak intelligibly or to help himself.

☞ Western steamboat proprietors have called a meeting to take into consideration the danger to which steamboat property is exposed from incendiarism, and to endeavor, by concerted action, to remove the evil.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A little son of Edw. Shute, Esq., of Derry, aged about nine years, fell from an ox cart last week and broke his thigh.

—— A boy about six years old, son of Mr. Martin V. Felker, of Barrington, was instantly killed in that town on Friday last, while playing near a cart, which fell upon him and crushed him.

—— A barn belonging to John Putnam, in Derry, was destroyed by fire Tuesday night, with several tons of hay, 70 bushels of corn, and a large amount of grain. Loss about $1,000. Supposed to be incendiary.

—— Charles C. Lund, formerly of Concord, but late of St. Paul, Minnesota, and Edwin W. Barriman, Warner, have been admitted, in the Supreme Judicial Court, to practice in all the Courts in New-Hampshire.

—— A singular accident occured in Merrimack the other day. A little boy was in a jobbing wagon, driving a horse down hill, when the horse tripped up, throwing himself literally heels over head, causing the boy to fall out, striking his shins into the horse's mouth, which was wide open, and badly injuring one leg.

THE CONFEDERACY AND ENGLAND.—The Richmond Whig has manifestly lost its temper in contemplating the conduct of the British Government in regard to intervention. A late article says:—

The Palmerston administration is a curse to Great Britain. It has alienated the Southern people, repressed their instinctive impulses toward an alliance with the English, scoffed and repulsed their Ambassador, soured their original disposition, and forced them, as it were, into the embrace of the French—a union which at first was less sought and less desired than a league with England.

Of friends it is has made enemies or nearly so. It is answerable before Heaven for the murder of thousands on thousands of Southern men, for the pillage of myriads of Southern homes, and for the beggary, shame and outrage of numberless Southern women. Repelling the earnest and repeated entreaties of France, it has prolonged the war with its Abolitionist member, Lord Russell, and his insane friends of Exeter Hall. It is answerable to history and to the British people for its short sighted and narrow minded preference of temporary commercial advantages to a durable and immensely profitable alliance with the owners of the great storehouse of the greatest manufacturing staple known to the world.

THE VOICE OF A TRUE DEMOCRAT.—Gen. Hovey, the hero of Champion Hills, addressed a letter to a recent democratic meeting in Indiana, in which he said:

The army of the Southwest is determined upon the subjugation of rebeldom, in the highest and strongest sense of that word,—No half-way, simpering patch-work will satisfy them, and the party that attempts it will be swept into a hopeless minority, like all the other combinations of parties that have formerly opposed the wars of our country.

"The Constitution as it was" cannot be restored in the rebel States, until the people of those States shall fully prove their love for the Government and devoted loyalty. Until this happens, the madman must wear his straight jacket. A little reflection will convince the most sympathetic that this must be so.

The Constitution provides that the writ of habeas corpus shall remain inviolate, yet I need not tell you that a Rebel judge would release the prisoner, though charged with the blackest crimes of murder and treason. The Constitution proclaims liberty of speech and liberty of the press. This with Rebels, would include the right to denounce the Government and keep up an undying hatred of one section against the other, until another revolution would inevitably follow. No, these sacred rights cannot now be conferred upon the madmen of the South. They were given by our fathers to men capable of self-government, and cannot be safely intrusted to those who have so shamefully attempted to destroy the institutions under which we live. A long day of probation must await their readmission.

Rev. A. Pierce died in Exeter, Me., on the 30th ult., at the age of 76 years. A correspondent of the Jeffersonian says he came from Parsonfield into Exeter in the year 1801, before there were any houses there, and has been there ever since. "He would chop with his own hands," says "D. B.," "a full acre of trees on Saturday, and perhaps convert a full score of souls on Sunday."

We suspect the types, or the compositor who set them, made the correspondent tell a bigger story than he intended. It is not at all likely that the parson cut an acre of trees on a Saturday. If he cut down or chopped a full score of trees, that was a good day's work.

THE REBELLION RECORD.—The thirty-sixth part of Frank Moore's Rebellion Record, bringing the history of the war down to the attack on Charleston, is published. We notice that the sixth volume of this work will be issued early in November, simultaneously with the thirty eighth part, which will contain a full Diary of Events from the close of the previous volume to the first of July last.

☞ It is stated that at a conference of the officers of conscription from the thirteen rebel congressional districts of Virginia, which has just been held in Richmond, it was ascertained, upon consultation, that over thirty thousand conscripts have been sent into the field during the past twelve months.

☞ Twenty-six couples obtained licenses for marriage in Boston on Wednesday.

☞ The Newburyport Herald says—feed your fires with peat and save your coal.

☞ Divers have found a large oyster bed within a few miles of Newport, R. I.

☞ Philadelphia gives Curtin 6500 majority.

☞ Fifty-four counties in Ohio give Brough 54,144 majority,—a Union gain of 27,777.

☞ Mrs. Lincoln will lay aside her mourning after the holidays, it is said, and open the White House for dress receptions.

☞ The post office at Memphis, Tenn. now yields an annual income of $25,000.—It never paid before.

☞ A Chinese rose tree produces flowers which change their color three times a day.

☞ The latest advices from the Great Turtle are to the effect that Prof. Agassiz has offered to purchase it.

☞ It is said that five thousand ladies have made applications to go to the South this Autumn by the flag of truce boats.

☞ A young man in England went down into a well to save the life of a favorite cat, but the rope broke and he lost his own.

☞ A blind man in New York has been sent to the Penitentiary for one month, for abusing his wife and children.

☞ William Knapp, Esq., for 41 years first Assistant Clerk in the Boston Police Court, died on Wednesday.

☞ A London young lady, disappointed because a masquerade, for which she had dressed, was postponed, threw herself into a canal.

☞ In Pennsylvania returns already received, with the majorities in the rest of the state as claimed by the Democrats, give a Union majority of 20,422.

☞ Twenty-six counties in Iowa give the Union ticket 7788 majority. The other counties will, probably, increase it to 12,000 or 15,000.

☞ It is said that the old Jackson Mansion in Newton, Mass, which was destroyed by fire on Saturday night, was the house in which Stonewall Jackson was born.

☞ A New Yorker, a member of the Produce Exchange, has been awarded $850 damages, for being slapped in the face by another member.

☞ An English bird-fancier has been swindled in purchasing two "rare and beautiful" foreign birds, which proved to be English greenfinches with handsome tails fixed on by means of sealing wax.

☞ A Doctor, of Breslau, has discovered a means by which the interior of lead pipes may be converted into an insoluble sulphide, and thus not affect water running through them.

☞ Jacob, the elder of the two brothers Grimm, whose collections of German Legends have made their names dear to children everywhere, died at Berlin in September, in his seventy-ninth year.

☞ As some cavalry were exercising in Paris recently a young lady, who became frightened by a sudden charge of several a quadrons at full gallop, fell down before them: all the horses leaped over her, and she escaped harm.

☞ Gen. Robert Anderson lost a handsome property in the South, by his loyalty: he has now been retired on account of ill-health, and, of course, his pay is therefore reduced. The country owes something to the hero of Fort Sumter.

☞ A young man started from Boston on horseback last May, rode to the Mississippi River, travelled over a good part of Northern Iowa, Illinois and Southern Wisconsin, and has just come home, bringing health with him—which he made his 3000 mile ride for.

☞ A process is talked of at Lyons by which silk can be liquified, and the produce of the worms kept in casks for artificial reissue in filaments susceptible of a quite novel form of manipulation. It would appear that what is meant bears some affinity to the treatment and uses of gutta percha.

☞ A young contraband who arrived in Newburyport, about six months ago, at first when he went to a grocery store on an errand, took off his hat at the door. At the end of two months he forgot he were a hat; and now he orders the small articles he is sent for, to be sent up to the house.

☞ Young ladies who walk at the edges of high cliffs are requested to wear crinoline, as on the coast of England, recently, a damsel who was blown off a cliff was saved from death by her crinoline, which alighted her safely on the sands eighty feet below. If you don't believe it, try it.

☞ A man in Machias, Me., who was released from jail on the payment, by his sister, of a fine for drunkenness, went home, took his father's horse and wagon, and sold them: he then returned to the jail, and paid the fine of a woman confined there for drunkenness and lewdness, and the pair started for parts unknown.

☞ The Lewiston Journal says an old lady up in Wilton is much troubled about the nigger question, and as she reads the Portland Argus, she is full of fears lest the niggers may overrun Maine. A few days since the negro minstrels, who have been singing in that state, gave concerts in her neighborhood, and a few days after she came to that city with the most appalling stories about the negroes overrunning the State!

☞ They get up miracles cheap in Italy. There is one saint whose speciality, it seems, is to cure "gibbosity." The other day a man afflicted with a hump, after praying for some time, went up a ladder to the niche of the saint, "in the presence of countless witnesses." The hump gradually diminished and finally disappeared,—much to their amazement. When they subsequently ascertained that the hump was a block of ice, beneath the man's coat, they were still more amazed at the coolness of the trick.

☞ An Irishman in Newburyport stepped upon a nail, which went through the sole of his shoe, and out of the upper leather. He lay flat on his back, screaming and groaning, while a bystander hastened to draw it out carefully. The good Samaritan then took off the shoe tenderly to bind up the wound, when he found that the nail hadn't pierced the foot at all, but had gone between the first and second toes. The Irishman had screamed merely from the effect of imagination, and now regards it an insult for any one to ask him about his "foot."

☞ A Washington correspondent says one of the most noticeable things at the Navy Department is the absence of naval officers who in other days thronged its halls and offices, asking for favorite service or seeking to get rid of the opposite. They get their orders now and have to obey them.

Notice.

PROFESSOR WILLIAM, as I am informed by him, has been engaged in administering Nitrous Oxyd Gas about three or four years, (altho' I understood this or a similar operation so far as I know is competent to do what he undertakes.—I cheerfully make this correction, as I would any other. As to the gas we have done as some others have done, prepared to use it if we thought it could be done with safety, but do not recommend it. We think there is a way to extract teeth with less expense and as little pain, perfectly safe, and not one quarter the trouble; and have practiced it some time, and probably shall continue to do so. Although the Nitrous Oxyd Gas is generally safe, & no apparent injury expected to follow, it is well known that in public exhibitions persons under its influence have injured themselves and committed improprieties that they would not have done if not under its influence. Mr. Wm. Wiggin of Nashua took the gas and said that he did not see so well the day afterwards, and died in a year or two. We are also informed that Mr. Wiggin belonged to a consumptive family, but said he was well when he took it. We think from his case that it injures the lungs, especially if they are tender. HEALTH AND COMFORT.

Patent Rubber Sole Boots and Shoes

FOR MEN, BOYS AND YOUTH.

These Goods, having been carefully tested, prove to be more desirable than any other Boots and Shoes heretofore made. They answer the double purpose of Leather and Rubber Boots and Shoes.

They are made serviceable and easier to the feet than Leather Soles, are impervious to water, and having a leather inner sole do not draw the feet, and are far less expensive than Rubber Boots.

They are free from noise, prevent slipping on ice, and in keeping the feet dry and warm are conducive to health.

When the Soles wear out, the Boots and Shoes can be tapped with leather, or, if returned to us entire, new Rubber Soles can be put on.

The subscribers, having made arrangements as Agents for the sale of the above goods, are now prepared to take measures for the same, in different styles, and deliver them at short notice. They are made from the best stock to be had in the market, and warranted in every particular. Call and examine samples, at No. 13 Market street.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.
HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be secured in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

CARDS AND BILL HEADINGS are indispensable to the business man, and we would remind all in want of such work, that the Chronicle Office is the place to get it done.

Probate Advertisements.
The language of the law relating to the publication of Probate Notices is:
"The party required to publish any notice ordered by the Judge of Probate to be given in a newspaper, may select the paper therefor."
Will our subscribers remember this, and when they have occasion to do business at the Probate Office, if agreeable, request that their notice may be ordered for the Chronicle or the Gazette; otherwise a different paper may be selected.
Our terms are as low as those of any other paper.

DRAFTED MEN FOR EXAMINATION.
Oct. 18, Sanbornton 40, Upper Gilmanton 24.

☞ The U. S. steamer Nipsic left the wharf at the Portsmouth Navy Yard on Thursday morning about 8 o'clock, and proceeded down the river to Lower Harbor, where she stopped to test her armament. While firing one or two rounds of shell from the large rifled Parrott gun, by some means she broke the screw which is used to elevate or lower the gun, thereby causing a detention of the steamer for a short time. She will, however, start for her place of destination with the least possible delay.

FOOT RACE.—On Thursday morning, James Miller, a substitute at Jefferson Hall, knocked down the guard and skedaddled. He was seen to pass a corner in rapid flight, by John Schmidt, a six-foot "Invalid," who followed in pursuit. For some time it was a "nip and tuck" race, up one street and down another, but, finally, John captured the runaway in Chapel street, near the school-house, and after a pretty rough handling of the scoundrel, returned him to the hall. Bully for Schmidt!

OLD BARNSTEAD PROMPT.—All the conscripts from Barnstead reported on the day ordered for their appearance. 25 were exempted and 21 accepted, who furnished substitutes. The Selectmen were on hand with the "spondulicks," and paid it over on the spot, thus saving time, trouble and expense to the conscripts. Barnstead is a good model for other towns to go by.

TALL SUB.—The tallest substitute "of the season" was enlisted on Thursday by Capt. Godfrey. His name is Joseph E. Adams. He hails from Newbury, Mass., and stands six feet, four and a half inches in his socks. He takes the place of Charles W. Hill, a conscript from Gilmanton.

STEREOPHAN.—The first exhibition of the Stereophan came off last evening; and in order that it might give perfect satisfaction the proprietors had been to the expense of having the front of the stage cut off—thus securing space for a very large picture. There will be two exhibitions to-day—at 4, and at 7 3-4 o'clock.

☞ Mr. William B. Brown's entertainment at the Temple on Wednesday evening, was, perhaps, not intended to "instruct" the people to any very great extent, but it certainly was most successful in amusing the audience, which was not small in numbers. "That Comical Brown" has a wonderful power of representing, in the most ludicrous and laughable manner, national peculiarities (or rather an exaggerated form of them) and personal characteristics. His Irish Wedding and Billy Barlow in particular, brought down the house tumultuously.

Miss Marsh, vocalist, who accompanies him, was most happy in her efforts to please, and was frequently applauded. Altogether the entertainment was a capital one of its kind, and most effectual in driving off the blues.

☞ Mr. Stephen S. Blaisdell, of this city, a member of the U. S. Artillery Company at Fort Constitution, died of typhoid fever on Tuesday, and was buried under arms on Thursday morning, by a detachment of soldiers from the Fort.

☞ Maj. Gen. Dix and Staff, are inspecting the eastern harbor fortifications and will reach Boston, to-day—Friday. We presume they will visit this city.

☞ Steam was got up on the new gunboat Agawam at Portland on Wednesday, for the first time. The engines worked satisfactorily.

☞ The funniest fancy of the time is that of a droll genius who has established what he calls a "Gentlemen's Dressing-Room," in Wall street, New York, luxuriously fitted up with sofas, marble tables, mirrors, books, newspapers, &c., where the lounger can repose upon a sofa and have his boots polished by black servants in uniform, wash, comb his hair, arrange his collar, read the morning or evening papers and the newest books of the day—and all for ten cents!

☞ Gen. Meade has issued an order, or rather called attention to a neglected army regulation forbidding meetings or combinations among officers or men for expressing regard for their superiors or others in the military service, by presentations, or their disapprobation of the acts of their superiors or others in the military service, by resolutions.

☞ A man, 75 years of age, possessed of considerable property, died recently in London, who for twenty years had resided in almost total exclusion, no person having been admitted, under any pretence whatever, to the three rooms he occupied. His meals were left at the door of the ante-room for him, and were taken in by himself.—He slept each night during all these years in an arm chair, and the closed shutters never once admitted the light of day to his rooms.

☞ There used to be a saying like this: "With an if you can put Paris into a bottle." Late events remind us of this proverb.

A paper early in September had the following item:—

"It is announced that if Mr. Vallandigham is elected Governor of Ohio, the Lieutenant Governor, George E. Pugh, will place himself at the head of two hundred thousand men, march to Canada, and escort the new Executive to Columbus."

The Laconia Democrat of Sept. 4 had the above item, and added the following brave threat:—

Good on your head, Mr. Pugh. You can have an army of 33,000 from New Hampshire to aid in that "escort," if necessary.

The Richmond Enquirer of Sept. 22d says:—

Rosecrans defeated at Chattanooga, and driven back on Nashville, the Vallandigham men would carry the election in Ohio next month with little difficulty.

The rebel Prof. Maury, in a letter to the London Times, says:—

Vallandigham waits and watches over the border, pledged—if elected Governor of Ohio—to array it against Lincoln and the war, and go for peace.

The Boston Courier of Oct. 12 said, in speaking of Pennsylvania and Ohio:—

Both parties make confident claims; tho' we observe signs of tremulousness on the part of the Republicans, while the Democrats appear bold and resolute. In Ohio, the Democrats are full of spirit, and never did men have a higher motive for the exertion of every manly effort.

Now it turns out that with all their spirit, boldness and resolution,—with the rebel Maury and the Richmond Enquirer to help them, Vallandigham is not elected; Pugh's 200,000 men are not going to Canada; and the 33,000 from New Hampshire are only a myth.

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world affords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

$100 REWARD!
For a Medicine that will cure COUGHS, INFLUENZA, TICKLING IN THE THROAT, WHOOPING COUGH, Or relieve CONSUMPTIVE COUGH, as quick as COE'S COUGH BALSAM.
OVER FIVE THOUSAND BOTTLES have been sold in its native town, and not a single instance of its failure is known.
We have, in our possession, any quantity of certificates, some of them from
EMINENT PHYSICIANS,
who have used it in their practice, and given it the pre-eminence over any other compound.
It does not dry up a Cough,
but loosens it, so as to enable the patient to expectorate freely.
☞ Two or three Bottles will invariably cure TICKLING IN THE THROAT.
A HALF Bottle has often completely cured the most
STUBBORN COUGH.
And yet, though it is so sure and speedy in its operation, it is perfectly harmless, being purely vegetable. It is very agreeable to the taste, and may be administered to children of any age.
In cases of CROUP we will guarantee a cure, if taken in season. No Family should be without it. It is within the reach of all, the price being
ONLY 25 CENTS!
And if an investment and thorough trial does not "back up" the above statement, the money will be refunded. We say this knowing its merits, and feel confident that one trial will secure for it a home in every household.
Do not waste away with Coughing, when so small an investment will cure you. It may be had of any respectable druggist in town, who will furnish you with a circular of genuine certificates of cures it has made.

THE MODEL COOK.
AN AIR-TIGHT STOVE,
WITH TWO OVENS,
And Five Boiling Places!
At the present high prices of fuel it is very desirable to lessen its consumption. This can be best accomplished by using a MODEL COOK STOVE. More cooking can be done in one with a saving of one-third of coal, or cord of wood, and double the quantity in any common stove or range—and in less time also.
We refer to some parties who have purchased the Model Cook—

LEWIS RICE, Proprietor.
Boston, Jan. 1863. 1mslyr

Morning Chronicle.

☞ The Richmond Examiner, of the 8th instant, has the following paragraph concerning the recent attack on the Ironsides in Charleston harbor and the cause of its failure:

The report from Charleston is that an attempt, in the main unsuccessful, was made to blow up, with some kind of an infernal machine, the Yankee ship Ironsides. The failure is attributed to two causes—an insufficient amount of powder in the machine, and its being ignited too near the water's edge.

AN ANCIENT DEPOSIT.—Last Tuesday afternoon, as the laborers on the Charlestown Water Works were digging up the ground for the purpose of laying the water pipes, they discovered about four feet below the surface a number of beds of oak charcoal, extending over a distance of a hundred feet, situated in Main street, near Charlestown square. It is supposed that this part of Main street was covered with houses at the time of the revolutionary war, and that the beds of charcoal are some of the ruins of Charlestown, as the city was almost entirely burned by the British during the war.—Traveller.

☞ Two New Yorkers sojourning at Chicago, intimate friends and probable future brothers-in-law, lately spent the day together, and fell in love in the evening with the same young lady. They fell to quarreling, and agreed to fight a duel. Arrived at the appointed place, their "better feeling" overcame them, and they rushed into each other's arms. Resolving to ratify their reconciliation they straightway became distressingly tight, quarreled again, and this time "blood—twas from the nose—was shed."

☞ The Chicago Tribune, in speaking of the alarming increase of intemperance among those to whom the present generation is shortly to commit its sacred and important trusts, says this evil must not be allowed to grow while the care of the people is directed to other duties. That cannot be a light evil that robs society of her young men, its strong men. To every one to whom this conviction is brought, belongs an allotted share of duty. Granted the existence of the curse and blight, whoever by personal influence, and example, and labor lessens its power and sets one single stake in the bounds to its spread, has in so much benefitted the age and the country.

☞ A woman, supposed to be dead, was lately removed to the hospital in Algeria, for post mortem examination, her disease having appeared inexplicable to the medical men who attended her. As the surgeon was about to apply the knife, the supposed corpse uttered a loud shriek and sat up. She had been in a lethargy, and awoke only just in time. It is mentioned, in connection with this incident, that the Abbe Provost, the author of "Manon Lescant," died from wounds inflicted by the dissecting knife, under similar circumstances.

JOSH BILLINGS' PHILOSOPHY.—Josh Billings, the Philanthropist, begs leaf to State:

That coins are good for a bad breth.

That Rockaway clams are a opening for enny young man.

That ships are halled the bekause tha alwas keep a man on the lookout.

That boys aint apto turn out well who dont get up till 10 o'clock in the morning.

That a man is agoing to make a b'sness or serving the Lord, he likes to see him do it when he measures up onions as well as when he hollows glory hallelujer!

That wisdom aint nothing more than edikated cunning.

☞ The Lacrosse (Wis.) Democrat advices the people of Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota to look out for the hardest winter seen for many years. This is the first fall, since the winter of '57, that the brook trout have commenced leaving the small creeks for deep holes as early as September, and the first season since then that muskrats have double walled little hillock homes. These and other signs known to the sportsman and hunter, indicate a winter of unusual severity.

☞ Thomas Thresher of Wilbraham was raising a stone with a yoke of oxen while he pried it up with a rail. When the cattle started and the rock was partly raised, it fell back, bringing the upper end against Mr. Thresher's neck with such violence as to break it. He died instantly without a struggle.

☞ A fine young lady of eighteen, named Shepard, has obtained a verdict of $750 damages against a wealthy young farmer named Potter, for breach of promise of marriage, at Rochester, N. Y. The young lady did not wish to bring the suit, owing to the unpleasant notoriety it would create, but her guardians determined that her false-hearted lover should suffer for his meanness.

THE BEST COOK STOVE
IN THE MARKET,
AFTER ALL SAID,
—IS—
STEWART'S
NEW, LARGE OVEN, AIR TIGHT,
SUMMER AND WINTER
COOKING STOVE,
For Wood or Coal,
IMPROVED IN 1859.

The peculiarities of the
STEWART COOK STOVE,
Embracing the Latest Improvements, briefly stated, are:

1. It is what it purports to be—AN AIR TIGHT COOKING STOVE That is, when the draft is properly adjusted, wood will lie and smoulder and char, upon the grate, after the manner of a coal pit. Or, if the fire be of Anthracite Coal, by simply closing the draft, it will be effectually put out.

2. Combined with this, are the peculiar position of the oven chamber, the general internal structure, and the outward movable coverings, by which means the heat of the stove may be confined within or thrown off to warm the apartment, thus relieving females of the discomfort usually attendant upon carrying on cooking operations in summer, and securing the qualities of the brick oven so fully that the baking process may be carried through successfully without any one going near the stove from the time the ardent is put in until it is removed from the oven.

3. The stove is accommodated to the reception of a permanent RESERVOIR (of copper, with a tin coating) containing from 10 to 20 gallons, by which the water heats, thus allowing of, it made available to keep on hand a constant supply of hot water. The space beneath the reservoir is occupied with a TIN GLOSSY where articles ready for the table are placed to keep warm, bread set to rise, fruit dried, &c.

4. Also, by the aid of the TOP COVER, a coal fire may be kept up through the night, and breakfast and dinner prepared the next day with no addition of fuel.

5. Roasting is performed in the most perfect manner in front of the fire, while the DUCKS OVEN prepared for the purpose—the heat being communicated to it from both sides of the firebox; and the fumes, meanwhile, passing into the flue.

6. A NOVEL PLAN OF VENTILATION is adopted, by which two kinds of meat may be roasted in the oven at the same time, without imparting the peculiar flavor of one to the other; and the current instituted for this purpose made subservient to augment the heat upon the bottom of the oven, with no increase of consumption.

7. By the aid of the perforated metallic linings, or "gas burning arrangement," and application of the full summer dress, the various culinary processes may be carried forward successfully with a single stick of wood at a time.

8. In regard to DURABILITY, the Stewart Stove is made to last, and will last. The structural form is such that the frame work of it can not burn out.

All the plates constituting the original STEWART STOVE, which was brought out twenty years ago, are still made, and sent to different parts of the country, on call.

The price of QUIETNESS, COMFORT and HEALTH secured to a family by the use of a culinary apparatus perfectly adapted to their wants, cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents.

But we can not, and need not, enumerate in detail, the excellencies of the STEWART STOVE. It is no experiment, or new fangled notion got up to gull the public, to which we invite your attention; but

THE STANDARD COOK STOVE
Now in use, which has been widely tested
FOR TWENTY YEARS,
and yet found wanting in any particular. Yes, the Stewart Stove has been manufactured and used for a score of years; but the inventor has kept pace with the times, and repeatedly made improvements—so that the Stewart Stove of 1863 is as superior to that of 1841, as the Mowing Machine is to a Bush Scythe.

IT HAS NOT BEEN EXCELLED
yet, as a Family Stove. Here follow the names of a few of the numerous purchasers of the STEWART COOK STOVE.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET, }
DR. GOODALL
Would respectfully announce to his patrons and the public that VULCANIZED RUBBER as a base for Artificial Teeth, possesses all the advantages of Gold, yet costs only half as much. My experience has been highly satisfactory in its use, and I have no hesitation in WARRANTING PERFECT SATISFACTION in all cases.
Teeth inserted on Gold and Silver, and all other operations performed as usual.
Teeth extracted positively without pain, by inhaling Nitrous Oxyd Gas!
He is fully convinced that it is a perfectly harmless anæsthetic, its effect being that of an exhilarant, the whole operation being completed generally in three minutes, without the least pain, and the patient feeling as well, and usually better than before inhaling the Gas.
He would cordially invite all who wish teeth extracted without pain, or any possible injurious results, to call and be convinced.
I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TAKAMURA, Dr. BOARMAN, Dr OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.
☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the casting being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, so no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacturers and owners of this valuable furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which passes in contact with the fire is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the great volume of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot do so, and are compelled to pass through the fire, and by the action of cold air through the tire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the best in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the best unconsumed, into the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert E. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. Gives from two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a
PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.
By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate victims of these diseases, that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of
GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal disease, and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending the class of diseases, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.
Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive organs, symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, excitability, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.
Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.
Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important!
To Females in Delicate Health.
DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is this new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.
Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of Diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.
Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.
Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extensive practice, succeeded in gaining a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

VOL. 23. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. SATURDAY OCT. 17, 1863. NO. 93.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all:
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

A "gentleman" has been advertising in the London papers to say that he wants £150 to "save his credit." He says that he has always helped others, and if 2,100 kind helpers will send twelve stamps he will gratefully return them. The proposal is below zero in its coolness.

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS—The true Type of Cathartic.—By the application of true Pharmaceutical Laws, both Character and Economy are combined in this valuable Pill. To prevent putting such quantities of indigestible drugs into the stomach, the griping pains so erroneously judged to be the evidence of thorough action, and to require from 4 to 6 Pills, to get a decent cathartic, was the study in this development. The dose seldom exceeding One, and never more than Two Pills, settles the question of economy, and character can be best known by confidence to test them in DYSPEPSIA, COSTIVENESS, BILIOUSNESS, LIVER COMPLAINT, all derangements of the stomach and Bowels, and as a Family Pill. spno

HUNNEWELL'S TOLU ANODYNE.—This most wonderful and reliable preparation which has earned its true name and fame, by results which had baffled every other attempt at relief in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Nervous Head Ache, Tooth and Ear Ache, Bowel Complaints, Hysteria, Distress after Eating, Loss of Sleep, General Nervous Debility, Paroxisms in Whooping Cough, and Asthma, now declared to be largely Nervous, and also declared to be one of the most important potent in Materia Medica. This valuable preparation should be in every Family, as no description equals its real necessity, or its splendid results.

QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.

Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!

DR. J. TELLER still continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World,) of obtaining the safest as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, other treatments to the unfortunate are a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In YOUNG MEN, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Blles, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to counsle and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr TELLER'S great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—200 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Rap per. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery. It contains hundreds of secrets, never before published—Warranted to be worth ten times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr. TELLER has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

Dr. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Lamont's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unequalled, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

(Arrival of the Pills in cases in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. In the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 2 to 5 P. M.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice. N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar a more worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Lee attempted to flank Meade by way of Chantilly, and to get in his rear by way of Fairfax Court House; but Meade anticipated him by falling back rapidly, and checkmated him. Meade's tactics are highly spoken of. In an official order he announces to the army that the rear guard, consisting of the Second Corps, was attacked on Wednesday while marching by the flank. The enemy after a spirited contest was repulsed, losing a battery of five guns, two colors, and four hundred and fifty prisoners. He highly commends the skill and promptitude of Major Gen. Warren, and the gallantry and bearing of the officers and soldiers of the Second Corps.

Our victory in Virginia on Wednesday appears to have really been a brilliant affair, and most disastrous to the rebels.—Gen. Meade is said to be sufficiently strong for any emergency which may arise. The story that he was to be superseded was false.

The rebels in front of Gen. Rosecrans have made no hostile demonstrations since the 7th. They have been driven from Lookout Mountain. A flank movement by them is anticipated, and Gen. Rosecrans has provided for it. Longstreet has superseded Polk. Rebel papers report that Jeff. Davis is about to take command of Bragg's army.

The blockade runner Spaulding, with a valuable cargo from Nassau has been captured. This is the steamer which was captured last April, and was sold by her purchasers in Boston to parties in New Brunswick.

THE STATE MUSTER.—The muster at Manchester, so far as regards the harmonious manner in which it passed off, the summer-like beauty of the weather during its continuance, the brilliant staffs of Gov. Gilmore and Gen. Hinks, and the large assemblage of strangers in the city, must be considered a success; but in the number of troops present we consider it rather a failure, their total probably not reaching a higher figure than six or eight hundred. We give a list of them in another column.

The camp ground was about a mile and a half from the city, and the road thither very sandy and heavy. We can not but think that had the muster been held at the Plains, as first intended, the military show would have been numerically superior.—The manner in which the courtesies of the day were extended to their visitors by our Manchester friends is, however, hard to be surpassed, and the Horse Guards will not soon forget the elegant banquet spread for them on Thursday night by their entertainers, the Amoskeag Veterans.

☞ On Friday afternoon the funeral of Capt. Jonathan H. Johnson, late of the 15th N. H. V., took place from his residence at South Deerfield, with military honors. Escort duty was performed by a company of citizens, under command of Lieut. Jere. Chadwick, of the same regiment as the deceased; the music for the occasion being furnished by the Candia Cornet Band. Among the numerous gathering, we noticed Capt. Sewell Tilton, of the 11th; Lieut. Durgin, of the 15th, and several other military men. Capt. Johnson was about 47 years of age, and leaves a wife and nine children. In the quiet country village, the heavy clouds imparting a sombre shade to the face of nature, and the wail of the cornet echoed back clearly from Pawtuckaway Mountain, we could not help feeling the sad contrast betwixt the scene before us and the gay spectacle we had witnessed in Manchester the day previous.

☞ A special despatch from Knoxville, Tenn., received at New York, contains news which if trustworthy is important. Gen. Burnside's cavalry, it is said, have fallen back from Calhoun to the Sweet Water, and the rebels have moved forward towards Knoxville to Athens on the Virginia and Tennessee railroad. A contest between the forces of Bragg and Burnside would thus seem to be imminent. General Wheeler is reported to have been driven from Huntsville, Ala., by our troops, who are in full pursuit.

ADMIRAL FARRAGUT ON IRON-CLADS. Admiral Farragut was present at the launch of the iron-clad Manhattan, at Jersey City, N. J., and commented on the subject of iron-clads. He expressed himself in favor of heavy broadsides, and stated that if he commanded a monitor he would place guns on the front deck if he could get them.

☞ Gen. McClellan's letter on the Pennsylvania election has turned against him even "Burleigh," the N. Y. correspondent of the Boston Journal, who has heretofore clung to him through good report and thro evil report.

☞ A Montego Bay pilot boarded the pirate Georgia off Jamaica, Sept. 30, and reports that soon after he left her she came in contact with an unknown steamer, and he afterwards saw the steamer in tow of the Georgia.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— J. Edward Pitman, the Chairman of the board of Selecting in Bartlett, having been conscripted, has skedaddled.

—— Frank Peno, a young lad of Manchester, who stole a horse at Fisherville, has just been tried at Concord and sent to House of Reformation for three years.

—— Two oxen were run over and killed in Exeter on the Boston & Maine R. R. on Friday afternoon. The company paid the owner $120 damages and sold the carcases, after they were dressed, at auction for $35.

—— A little Irish woman in Exeter carried a pumpkin weighing 44 1-2 pounds home on her head, it being given to her on condition that she should carry it home without touching her hands to it.

—— It is reported that a part or the whole of the 5th regiment, now stationed at Concord, will soon be ordered to the field—their place at Concord to be filled by one of the New Hampshire regiments now in the field.

—— In a quarrel in a saloon at Lake Village on Wednesday night Alonzo Tayler was stabbed in the abdomen by James Filgate, and is not expected to survive.—Tayler had struck Filgate several times.—They were each about 35 years of age.—Filgate was arrested.

—— Four Colonels of Regiments now in service from this State, are at present in Manchester,—Col. Bell, of the 4th—Col. Abbott, of the 7th—Col. Fearing of the 8th, and Col. Harriman, of the 11th. These officers soon return to the field, though according to present orders, the 11th is entitled to no Colonel, unless its ranks are increased.

—— The Annual Meeting of the N. H. State Teachers' Association will be held in the City Hall, Manchester, on the week preceeding, Thanksgiving, the 18th, 19th, 20th, and 21st day of November. Particulars will be given hereafter.

—— After the last severe rain-storm, the summits of the White and Franconia Mountains were clothed in spotless snow, and made a magnificent appearance at a distance of twenty miles. The warm sun soon melted the snow, but the artists who lingered among the mountains had sufficient time to sketch the rich contrast between the brilliant autumnal hues of the forest and the mountain tops in their wintry robes.

—— Mr. Harvey Case, a worthy young farmer living in the east part of Claremont, as we learn from the Eagle, will be conceded to be tough, if not 'hard,' when his late fast ride and accident is taken into account. Mr. Case lives at the top of a very steep, high hill. Descending this, some four weeks ago, driving a spirited young horse, the animal became suddenly alarmed and rushed down the hill at its utmost speed. Mr. C. only remembers reaching a sharp turn in the road. He next, about an hour afterwards, found himself beside the stone wall, with consciousness, accompanied with divers sharp aches and pains, dimly dawning upon him. One of his boots, which usually has to be pulled off with the aid of a jack, he found some three rods distant! The wagon was keeled up on a bank near by, a mere wreck. The horse was similarly situated, its shoulder torn from its socket and found to be incurable. Mr. Case succeeded in the course of an hour in reaching home after a painful progress for himself and his three legged horse and has but just got about again. He loses the horse, the only team he had, and his own time during a busy time of year.

☞ The New York Daily News of Oct. 10, had a report of a meeting at Reading, Pa., headed "Judge Woodward sure of Election," and saying:—

The election of Judge Woodward is considered certain by about seven thousand majority.

The principal speaker at the meeting was Mr. George M. Curtis, of the New York Bar, who said:—

He (Mr. Curtis) would have the Government realize that the Democracy was stronger than Lincoln's minions—that the Emancipation Bill, the Conscription Bill, and the suspension of the Habeas Corpus had prostrated the Government, and that its downfall was at hand. Mr. Curtis made an eloquent, fervent and impassioned appeal for those present to work zealously, and to follow the example we had set in New York by the election of Horatio Seymour, (loud cheers) so that by the election of Judge Woodward in the Keystone State, Clement L. Vallandigham in Ohio, (uproarious applause) and Seymour in New York, we might oust the abolition party of despots, and place George B. McClellan in the Presidential Chair (three cheers and a tiger for McClellan.)

VOLUNTEER OR DRAFT.—No well informed man doubts the fact that we need speedy reinforcements to our army, at several points. A considerable increase of force at these points, now, would well nigh insure victory and cut down the rebellion. Would it not be a good plan for the President to call for 200,000 six-months' men, apportioned to the States,—with the proviso that if these men are not raised—the draft for three years' men will take place as soon as Congress meets? §

☞ 71 counties in Ohio give Brough 59,900 majority.

☞ The vote in Philadelphia at the recent election was larger than that thrown at the New York city election last fall.

☞ The people of the Northern States have sent, within the past year, $383,000 in money and provisions, as charity, to the needy operatives of France and England.

☞ Official returns show that Senator Beattie of Essex county, Vermont, was elected by an unanimous vote. This is a very singular fact.

☞ The Houlton Times states that the potato crop this season in Aroostook county, Maine, will prove the best gathered there for a number of years.

☞ A speculator has got badly bitten recently in buying up claims of sailors to prize money. After paying out about $50,000 for claims worth ten times that amount, he has discovered there is a law to prevent the paying of the money to any but the sailors themselves.

☞ A little boy, five years old, on jumping from a train of cars at Newburyport, on Thursday, received such severe wounds upon the head and body that his recovery is doubtful. He had jumped upon the cars at the depot for a short ride, as so many other boys do every day.

REPORT DENIED.—Capt. Eaton, of the U. S. steamer Circassian, from Pensacola, denies having reported at Fortress Monroe that there was to be an attack on Charleston on the 11th inst., as was stated in a dispatch Monday. He did not touch at Charleston.

The nicest thing in bonnets is—the wearer's face, of course.

Praise is sometimes as hurtful as censure. Its as bad to be blown into the air as to be cast into a pit.

Popular tunes in the army—Platoon. Slow tunes, especially at Fredericksburg—Pontoons. The great American tune—the spit-tune.

Mr. Beecher says there are many persons who think that Sunday is a sponge with which to wipe out the sins of the week.

A slanderer of the softer sex undertakes to prove that Satan was a woman, whose name was Lucy Fir.

The difference between perseverance and obstinacy: the first is a strong will, the other is a strong won't.

Perhaps the infant, when he sighs and weeps, bears as in a sea shell the moan and roar of the ocean of life.

FREEDOM.—A man is apt to think that his personal freedom involves the right to make his fellow men do just as he pleases.

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world affords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

☞ The Domestic Dyes prepared by Geo. H. Reed & Co. offer the simplest and most perfect means of dyeing household apparel ever presented the public. They embrace 40 different shades, and include all the new and fashionable colors—and are perfectly fast. Samples on silk and wool can be seen and the colors procured of THEACHER. ja20

Patent Rubber Sole Boots and Shoes.
FOR MEN, BOYS AND YOUTH.
These Goods, having been carefully tested, prove to be more desirable than any other Boots and Shoes heretofore made. They answer the double purpose of Leather and Rubber Boots and Shoes.
They are made serviceable and easier to the feet than Leather Soles, are impervious to water, and having a leather inner sole do not draw the feet, and are far less expensive than Rubber Boots.
They are free from noise, prevent slipping on ice, and in keeping the feet dry and warm are conducive to health.
When the Soles wear out, the Boots and Shoes can be tapped with leather, or, if returned to us entire, new Rubber Soles can be put on.
The subscribers, having made arrangements as Agents for the sale of the above goods, are now prepared to take measures for the same, in different styles, and deliver them at short notice. They are made from the best stock to be had in the market, and warranted in every particular. Call and examine samples, at No. 13 Market street.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHITIS and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

DRAFTED MEN FOR EXAMINATION.
Oct. 17, Gilford 50.

☞ The U. S. steamer Sassacus, which was built at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, was the first of the double-enders to be put in commission, as also the first launched.—She started on her trial trip from Boston a few days since, and a letter from the ship gives the result. Being the first vessel of a new class of twenty-seven steamships, considerable interest attaches to her performance. Starting from the bar, full play was given to her engines, which worked admirably. When she was well under weigh, taking the water as it came, she made nine knots an hour easily, and increased it to ten and twelve for a time. Every department of the machinery worked most successfully, and the experiment is considered, in naval circles, a perfect triumph of the new style of ship. The principle of moving her either way was tried, and she went backwards as easily as forward.

This fact demonstrates the great value of this class of vessels, as they can be moved with ease and convenience in a channel just their own width, where schooners of 100 tons cannot go. The former class of double-enders did not work so well, being partial failures. Twenty-six other vessels, the same as the Sassacus, are now preparing for commission, and will soon be ready to join her in active service on the ocean.

☞ The work of iron-plating the Agamenticus is progressing rapidly, and when completed she will be a formidable ally against the rebels or any other foe. Four thicknesses of 1-inch plating are bolted to her side, which will be capable of resisting almost anything in the shape of iron. It was formerly customary, in bolting the iron on the vessels, to drive the bolts through the sides of the ship, and secure them by nuts on the inside. Upon trial, this was found to be an error, the bolts breaking and flying in all directions, rendering a position inside of the vessel nearly as unsafe as exposure to the shot outside—as in the case of the Kineo, at Charleston. Now, blunt bolts are used, driven about half or two-thirds of the way through.

ALMOST AN ACCIDENT.—Mrs. James Kehoe, of this city, in stepping from the cars to the platform at the Junction, on the return of the special train from Manchester, Thursday night, lost her footing, and fell between the wheels of the car and the platform—a space not over 18 inches wide.—The cars began to back down at the same moment, but she had sufficient presence of mind to gather in her dress and kneel down, so that the sides of the cars just grazed her face. She remained in this position until word was sent to the engineer and the train stopped.

☞ An anonymous correspondent at Great Falls, sends us a note concerning the item we published sometime since, about a wife's coming here with her husband, from Salmon Falls, taking his $400 substitute money herself, and his old clothes, and going home alone—and the writer closes with: "Whoes business is it but that strong minded wife's?" Sure enough, echo answers, whoes?

☞ The regular packet H. E. Bishop, Capt. Spinney, brought to this port, as a portion of her cargo, a lot of furniture for the new gunboats Pontoosuc and Agawam, now at Portland, and soon to arrive at the Portsmouth Navy Yard to be fitted. The furniture consisted of 18 bureaus, 4 sideboards and 6 extension tables, manufactured in Boston under contract with Constructor S. M. Pook, at an expense of $630 for the lot.

☞ An unique specimen of naval architecture is now at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, called by mariners a barkentine. She is square-rigged on foremast, schooner-rigged on main and mizzen mast. Her hull is very handsome, however, costing nearly $50,000. She is six hundred and seventy tons burthen, thirty eight feet beam, and brings five hundred tons of smiths' coal for the use of the Yard.

☞ Col. Jackson, of this city, 3d New Hampshire regiment, is again detailed for duty at the camp on Long Island, in Boston harbor, where there are at present about one hundred N. H. substitutes and drafted men. Col. Jackson will go to Virginia as soon as a sufficient number of men are collected,—probably in a few days.

THE STEREOPHAN.—We were unable ourselves to be present on the opening exhibition of the Stereophan, but we have the testimony of those who were present that it is not only the best picture exhibition they ever saw in Portsmouth, but the best they ever saw anywhere. Every one went away satisfied with the exhibition and the orderly manner in which it was conducted. There will be two exhibitions to-day, at 3 and 7 3-4 o'clock. We advise our readers not only to go to-day, but to be present at each exhibition, as there will be an entire change of programme each evening.

☞ The sound of the axe and hammer is heard hacking and thumping away on the sides of the old frigate Alabama, at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, as if to stave her in pieces, instead of converting her into a decent and passable craft, of which her younger sisters need not be ashamed.—Competent men are superintending her completion, and when finished and afloat she will make a very respectable appearance. About one hundred caulkers and reamers are employed on her, besides two hundred and eighty carpenters, eighty borers and bolters, sixty joiners, forty or fifty laborers, together with smiths, machinists, coopers, mast makers, &c., who make up a large force engaged in finishing this vessel.

☞ Among the great and mighty drafted men in Epping was one whose mouth had breathed dire threatenings, presaging great loss of life to all government officers who should attempt to bring him to the Provost Marshal's office in this city. He is said to have had a small arsenal of small fire-arms, loaded to the muzzle, and what with his threatenings and his promises to do the job up well, one might have anticipated some foul and bloody deeds. But the commanding presence of Mr. Kent, of the Provost Marshal's office, caused the coon to "come down," quietly, peaceably, and unresistingly.

☞ Capt. Enoch W. Goss, Co. I, 13th N. H. regiment, who went out as 1st Lieutenant, Co. K, of the same regiment, returned to his home in this city on Thursday, on a furlough. The regiment is now near Portsmouth, Va.

☞ The large new wooden mill being erected at the West End for the Rockingham Mills is rapidly approaching completion. The lower story is sixteen feet in height. A side track has been laid by the Eastern railroad, to accommodate freight to and from the Mills. The new building rather overshadows the old one, and by and by, when wind and weather have had their usual effect upon its exterior, it may be difficult for a stranger to tell which was the original and which the "supplementary" building.

☞ Very frequently articles forgotten in the cars are recovered by means of the telegraph and attentive conductors. Our thanks are due Conductor Towle, of the Eastern, for recent return of a valuable shawl—also to Mr. Arnable for various courtesies. The Eastern Road is well managed all through, in these days, as everybody agrees in saying.

☞ Among the enterprises important to our city,—Mr. Jones' new Malt House, and the extension of the Rockingham Mills, both at the West end, are approaching completion. We shall have something more particular to say of each, ere long.

☞ The U. S. steam screw sloop Shawmut, twin sister of the Nipsic, at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, will soon leave for New York, where she is to receive her machinery.

☞ Rev. A. G. Morton, of Salisbury, Mass., will preach to-morrow morning and afternoon in the Court street Christian Church, at the usual hours of service.

☞ A young man was seen on Friday morning driving through Court street in a cart, and beating his horse most cruelly with a club of wood. The act may have seemed insignificant to him, but such little things would not tend to convince others that he is a humane driver, or that he possesses one of the essential characteristics of a gentleman—a disposition to treat the helpless kindly.

☞ A new lamp post was placed, a day or two since, on Islington street, near the head of Langdon street.

☞ A cargo of molasses arrived at this port in the schooner Kate Walker, on Thursday.

POLICE COURT.—Thursday, Oct. 15, Before Justice Odell,—Michael Mead and James Hare, plead guilty of drunkenness. Fined $3,—cost $3.92, each.

Friday, Oct. 16.—Mary Neal, for assaulting Margrett Rease,—fined $3, cost $4.80.

Margaret Rease for assaulting Mary Neal,— fined $3; cost $4.80.

Ellen Gosnell, for drunkenness, sent to House of Correction 15 days, cost $2.92.

Margaret Rease for assault on Mary Neal, fined $1; cost $3.09.

☞ The freight train on the C. & P. road killed four cattle belonging to Wm. Weeks, Esq., of Greenland, one evening last week.

Messrs. Editors:—Your types yesterday made me say, in my advertisement, William for "Williams,", and that Mr. Wiggin "did not see so well the day after" he took the gas. I wrote, I think, (but, perhaps, not sufficiently plain) "did not see a well day afterwards." S. B.

☞ We are indebted to Capt. Edward Moses, of the U. S. barque Fernandina, for late copies of the Port Royal, S. C., New South.

From the Journal

GRAND REVIEW AND PARADE.

The New Hampshire State Muster closed at Manchester Thursday, having continued two days. The result of the closing day of the muster has been such as to render the whole affair a magnificent success. About 25,000 persons were present.

The Governor and all other inspecting officers were handsomely uniformed and mounted upon steeds of the finest mettle. Their martial bearing and demeanor won universal encomiums.

The troops then passed in grand review before the military dignitaries. The forces moved in the following order: Battalion of Governors Horse Guards, Lieut. Colonel A. Herbert Bellows commanding—Co. A from Concord, Capt. Clark; Co. B from Nashua, Capt. Sam'l F. Wright; Co. C from Portsmouth, Lieut. Eldridge commanding; Granite State Cadets of Nashua, Capt. Geo. S. Bowers; National Guards of Manchester, Capt. A. S. Simmons; Bedford Light Infantry, Capt. G. W. Riddle; Amoskeag Veterans, Col. Henry T. Mowatt; 1st Co., Capt. Wm. B. Patten, 2d Co., Capt. D. L. Robinson; 3d Co., Capt. Daniel S. Fling; 4th Co., Capt. T. L. Sargent; Color Co., Capt. B. P. Colley; Manchester Cadets (boys), Capt. Chas. F. Straw; Stratford Guards of Dover, Capt. J. B. Littlefield; Lyndeborough Artillery, Capt Joel M. Tarbell, and the Manchester Battery, Lieut. Edwin Hobbs commanding.

Swelling strains of music rose from the following musical organizations: Hall's Band of Boston, Manchester Cornet Band, Dover Cornet Band, Milford Band, Wilton Band, and the Hooksett Cornet Band.

THE RUSSIAN FLEET IN AMERICA.

The New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer professes to make a "reliable" statement in regard to the future movements and designs of the Russian fleet, as follows:

There are now fifteen ships of war—English, French and Russian—in the harbor. Eight of them are Russian, which are to be joined in a few days by the same number of war vessels of the power, making in all a fleet of fifteen vessels. There are on the way, and soon to arrive at San Francisco, a large Russian fleet. Both these fleets will winter on our coasts. The one in this harbor will be in Flushing Bay, where the water is deep and free from ice in winter. The harbor is eleven miles from this city, on the Sound.

There has been much speculation as to the cause of the appearance of this great Russian armament in our waters, and not a few erroneous explanations have been published here concerning it. The following is given me from a reliable source: When these fleets left Russia some two months ago, that power feared that she was drifting into a war with France and England, and having no seaports except in the Baltic—which is frozen some six months in the year—she sent her fleet to the American waters, to be ready for use in the event of war.

The officer commanding the ships in this harbor, sailed from the Baltic with sealed orders, which he opened when he reached a certain latitude, and found he was ordered to rendezvous at this port for the purpose I have stated. He left Russia with double crews and double officered, with the object, in the event of war, of purchasing, or having built here, more ships to cruise against the commerce of France and England. These extra sailors and officers were to have manned these ships to be purchased or built. The voyage being longer than was anticipated, the fleet became short of provisions, and serious consequences were at one time apprehended, but they reached home safely. Since the sailing of those Russian fleets all fears of war between the powers have been removed.

There has been an effort to make it appear that these Russian vessels are here to encourage the idea of Russian interference in favor of the North; but nothing of this kind is thought of by the Czar.

It is now said the Russian ships will probably remain in our waters until Spring, while the principal officers will travel in the West, to see our great boundaries, and our navy yards on the coast.

NEW PORTSMOUTH DIRECTORY.—This work will be published early in December, and as the names are now being collected, it is important that they be given correctly to the Canvasser when he calls for them. We mention this as many persons may confound it with the enrollment for the draft, and not be so particular to give every name, gentlemen boarders, as well as housekeepers, which are required in order that the work may be as thoro' and correct as possible.

THE BAPTIST PASTORAL ASSOCIATION of New Hampshire will hold its next annual meeting in connection with the Baptist Church in Portsmouth, Tuesday, Oct. 20, at one o'clock, P. M.

NEW HAMPSHIRE CONVENTION.—The New Hampshire Baptist Convention will hold its annual meeting with the Baptist Church in Portsmouth, on Wednesday and Thursday, the 21st and 22d of October. Services to commence on Wednesday, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The Board of Trustees will meet on Monday, Oct. 19, at 7 o'clock, P. M., in the Baptist Church, Middle Street.

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR

Scrofula and Scrofulous Disease.

From Emery Eden, a well-known merchant of Oxford, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of Ayer's SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who tried it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it for years, and it is universally praised. I have seen cures made by it which I consider little short of miracles. Some of the most astonishing cures were made in my family, and I know of many others in this town and vicinity, which are equally remarkable. I feel almost every thing a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your Sarsaparilla. I then began to mend, and the amount I have taken has made me a sound man. I cannot speak too strongly of its virtues."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much esteemed lady of Auburn, Androscoggin Co., Maine.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing relieved her, and we had tried your Sarsaparilla, which seemed completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely known firm of Gage, Hosmer & Co., manufacturers of unmedicated soaps, Lowell, Mass.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my face to such a degree that I was ashamed to show myself in public. I tried almost every thing a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your Sarsaparilla. It cured me completely, and I have now been free from the humor for more than a year."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much esteemed lady of Auburn, Androscoggin Co., Me.

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Hiel Stratton, Bristol, Ct.

"I only do my duty to you and the public when I add my testimony to the many you publish of the medical virtues of your Sarsaparilla. My daughter, aged ten, had an alarming humor in her eyes, and had for years, which we were constantly advised would be incurable. I commenced giving her your Sarsaparilla, and in two months her eyes were entirely well, and she has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much esteemed lady of Auburn, Androscoggin Co., Me.

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purity the Blood.

From Dr. B. M. Smith, Houston St., New York.

"Dr. Ayer. I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofula with your Sarsaparilla. I have used your Sarsaparilla, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alternative we possess equals your Sarsaparilla. You have supplied to be profoundly as much as to the people."

From J. E. Sheldon, Esq., Hiramsburg, Ohio.

"For twelve years I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, which would come on from time to time, defying the skill of the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicine. The sivers were so bad that the surgeons were doubtful of my arm being saved. Nothing relieved me until I began taking your Sarsaparilla. Took two bottles, and none of your Pills. Together they have cured me. I can now work and wound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Munro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your Sarsaparilla in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with marked benefit, and can therefore feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Seibler, Esq., the able editor of the Tuskaloosa Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Dear Sir. I should be ungrateful to your ever, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and nearly closed his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we gave up to our family physician, and applying the bottle of potash lotion, as you directed. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and in a few days from the time of the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any child in the neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

From Dr. Hiram Mead, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find in your Sarsaparilla a more effectual remedy for Syphilis and Syphilitic Diseases, when combined with Mercury, than any other we possess. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty or advantage, where a power full alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Fox, Agent of New Brunswick, N. J.

"Mr. Ayer, Sir, Your Sarsaparilla has cured me of a very obstinate Mercurial disease, which grew heavy and deep seated, and which I had spent so much money and time in vain to cure, and which I had given up as incurable. Many others in my family, Leucorrhea, Internal Ulceration, and Lung debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhea of long standing, by two bottles of your Sarsaparilla."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia, when caused by the taint in the system, are rapidly cured by this Ext. Sarsaparilla.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

THE BEST COOK STOVE

IN THE MARKET,

AFTER ALL SAID,

—is—

STEWART'S

NEW, LARGE OVEN, AIR TIGHT,

SUMMER AND WINTER

COOKING STOVE,

For Wood or Coal,

IMPROVED IN 1859.

The peculiarities of the

STEWART COOK STOVE,

Embracing the Latest Improvements, briefly stated, are:

1. It is what it purports to be—An Air Tight Cooking Stove. That is, when the draft is properly adjusted, wood will ignite and smoulder and char, upon the grate, after the manner of a coal pit. Or, if the fire be of Anthracite Coal, by simply closing the draft, it will be effectually put out.

2. Combined with this, are the peculiar position of the flue chamber, the general integral structure, and the outward moveable coverings, by which means the heat of the stove may be confined within or thrown off to warm the apartment, thus relieving females of the discomfort usually attendant upon carrying on cooking operations in summer, and securing the qualities of the brick oven so fully that the baking process may be carried through successfully without any one going near the stove from the time the stuffed meat is set in until it is removed from the oven.

3. The stove is accommodated to the reception of a permanent Reservoir (of copper, with a tin casing) containing from 10 to 20 gallons, by which the waste heat in passing off, is made available to keep on hand a constant supply of hot water. The space beneath the reservoir is occupied with a Tin Oven, where articles ready for the table are placed to keep warm, bread set to rise, fruit dried, &c.

4. Also, by the aid of the Top Cover, a coal fire may be kept up through the night, and breakfast and dinner prepared the next day with no addition of fuel.

5. Roasting is performed in the most perfect manner in front of the fire, by means of a Duplex Oven prepared for the purpose—the heat being communicated to it from both sides of the firebox; and the fumes, meanwhile, passing into the draft.

6. A Novel Plan of Ventilation is adopted, by which two kinds of meat may be roasted in the oven at the same time, without imparting the peculiar flavor of one to the other; and the current instituted for this purpose made subservient to augment the heat upon the bottom of the oven, with no harmonic or objectionable.

7. By the aid of the perforated metallic linings, or "gas burning arrangement," and application of the full summer dress, the various culinary processes may be carried forward successfully with a single stick of wood at a time.

8. In regard to Durability, the Stewart Stove is made to last, and will last. The structural forms is such that the frame work of it can not burn out.

All the plates constituting the original STEWART STOVE, which was brought out twenty years ago, are still made, and sent to different parts of the country, on call.

The price of Quietness, Comfort and Health secured to a family by the use of a culinary apparatus perfectly adapted to their wants, cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents.

But we can not, and need not, enumerate in detail, the excellencies of the STEWART STOVE. It is no experiment, or new fangled notion got up to gull the public, to which we invite your attention; but

THE STANDARD COOK STOVE

Now in use, which has been widely tested

FOR TWENTY YEARS,

and not found wanting in any particular. Yes, the Stewart Stove has been manufactured and used for a score of years; but the inventor has kept pace with the times, and repeatedly made improvements, so that the Stewart Stove of 1863 is as superior to that of 1843, as the Mowing Machine is to a Bush Scythe.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully announce to his patrons and the public that VULCANIZED RUBBER as a base for Artificial Teeth possesses the advantages of Gold, yet costs only half as much. My experience has been highly satisfactory in its use, and I have no hesitation in WARRANTING PERFECT SATISFACTION in all cases.

Teeth inserted on Gold and Silver, and all other operations performed as usual.

Teeth extracted positively without pain, by inhaling Nitrous Oxyd Gas!

He is fully convinced that it is a perfectly harmless anæsthetic, its effect being that of an exhilarant, the whole operation being completed generally in three minutes, without any pain, and the patient feeling as well, and usually better than before inhaling the Gas.

He would cordially invite all who wish teeth extracted without pain, or any possible injurious results, to call and be convinced.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. Tracy, Dr. Boardman, Dr Oliver and Dr. Bennett, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and cod iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT" VENTILATING & AIR WARMING FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the great est amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason this is so is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are forced to pass through a division of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 30 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, heating the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, and the ashes are found so entirely disposed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used.

We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Clemes, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Moulton,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the sense of taste of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept as clean and sweet as any material, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. now has the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Strictures, Abscesses, Humors, Painful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr Dow has also for sale the French Capottes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important!

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief secured in a few days. Seldom is it certainly certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted persons soon rejoicing in health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges his superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as to the best treatment for all acute and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $3 and a red stamp.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all:
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS.—The true Type of Cathartic.—By the application of true Pharmaceutical Laws, both Character and Economy are combined in this valuable Pill. To prevent griping the quantities of indigestible drugs into the stomach, the griping pains so erroneously judged to be the evidence of thorough action, and to require from 4 to 6 Pills, to get a decent cathartic, was the study in this development. The dose seldom exceeding one, and never more than Two Pills, settles the question of economy, and character can be best known by confidence to test them in DYSPEPSIA, CONSTIPATION, BILIOUSNESS, LIVER COMPLAINT, all derangements of the stomach and bowels, and as a Family Pill. 4pmo

HUNNEWELL'S TOLU ANODYNE.—This most wonderful and reliable preparation which has received such universal and fame, by results which had baffled every other attempt at relief in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Nervous Head Ache, Tooth and Ear Ache, Bowel Complaints, that the Distress after Eating, Loss of Sleep, General Nervous Debility, Paroxisms of Whooping Cough, and Asthma, now declared to be larger. Nervous, and also declared to be one of the most important points in Materia Medica. This valuable preparation should be in every Family, as no description equals its real necessity, or its splendid results.

QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.
Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!

DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private disease, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the old World) of obtaining the safest as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Pimpled Skin, Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Blisters, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. J. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of the subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for everybody—Startling disclosures. Dr. TELLER'S great work on the Married or those contemplating marriage—300 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery. It contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr. TELLER has devoted a lifetime to the care of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

Dr. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Vicholi's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in female.

CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 9 to 12 M.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.
These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the attention of but one Spring in a year, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of Leap Year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.
Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.
Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar attachment, and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

A recent expedition under Maj. Lead of the 8th Missouri Regiment, broke up the camp of the notorious guerrilla Cotter in Jefferson county, Mo., — killed him and took his men prisoners.

The Mississippian (a rebel newspaper) states that the Federals have occupied Monroe, La., Dick Taylor retreating to Shreveport, on which place the Federals would advance as soon as reinforced. The Federals had captured a large number of rebels who were repairing the Shreveport and Vicksburg railroad.

Gen. Banks and staff have left New Orleans to join the Texas expedition,—which, 20,000 strong, is rapidly moving forward, it having reached Vermillion river Oct. 9.

Lee has almost certainly been reinforced, but Gen. Meade is in a good position and many correspondents claim that he is still stronger than Lee. The rebels on Friday repeatedly tried to cross at three of the fords near Bull Run, massing their infantry in solid columns, but our infantry and artillery repulsed them each time, and at sundown they retired.

Col. Hatch engaged Chalmers three miles south of Bilboa, Tenn., and after three hours' sharp skirmish drove him South.—He followed all day Tuesday, skirmishing every hour. At last accounts, he was still engaging them at Tallahatchie river.

By Telegraph, Sunday, to Messrs. Hutchings, Haley, and others.

The President has issued a proclamation calling on the Governors of the different loyal States to furnish 300,000 volunteers. If not furnished before Jan. 5, 1864, the deficiency is to be made up by a draft.—All volunteers under this call, as well as all surplus men in previous calls, will be credited to towns, districts and States under this second call. Volunteers will receive the same advance pay, premium and bounty as previously from the U. S. government. Quotas of the States and districts are to be assigned by the War Department.

Meade's army was posted in line of battle at Centreville on Friday. Lee's army was posted so as to cross into Maryland at Edward's Ferry, but the rains prevented his accomplishing this movement. Government contradicts the report that Lee had thrown any of his forces over the upper Potomac into Maryland. Lee's army has not been diminished to reinforce Bragg.—Longstreet's corps is with Lee, but Longstreet himself is in command of the Georgia militia.

The heavy rain on Friday prevented any field operations on Saturday, by the army of the Potomac. It is believed that the enemy, having during the previous day reconnoitered our position and finding our lines impregnable and fearing a rise in the Rappahannock would interfere with their base, have retired rearward. Our troops are equally well posted for an advance or defense. Our recent movements have been exclusively of a strategic character, in which Lee has been completely outgeneralled by Meade. No fears exist of our being able to cope with Lee in the field, if we can get his forces massed without having a long base of supplies to defend.

Rosecrans will for the present remain on the defensive.

Southern papers say that a fight has occurred on the Big Black river, in which the rebels were defeated; but being reinforced attacked the Federals, driving them beyond the river.

Four companies of the 2d Iowa cavalry were surrounded in the town of Hernando, Miss., and all captured.

Three men have been arrested at Memphis with a list of all the steamers on the Mississippi river, and the price to be paid for the destruction of each, on their persons. They will be tried before a military commission.

☞ The rebels in Richmond must be hard up. For instance the Richmond Examiner says: "The hack horses in Richmond consume at least one-half of the long forage brought hither. The hacks are a superfluity. Their use cannot be afforded by honest people."

☞ The colony of colored persons located on the southwest coast of Hayti has fared badly, and has been almost broken up, on account of the unhealthiness of the place chosen by the government agents.—The President has taken steps to have the subject investigated.

THE MISSOURI IMBROGLIO.—The President sent to St. Louis his reply to the Missouri delegation relative to the Schofield difficulty.

☞ The three men convicted of treason, in attempting to sail from San Francisco in the pirate Chapman, are sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment and a fine of $10,000.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Mr. Frank Haley, of the last class at Andover Theological Seminary, was ordained as Pastor of the Congregational Church at Enfield, Wednesday, the 7th inst.

—— Rev. John H. Mellish, of Kingston, who got on the train at West Brookfield to go to New York, had his pocket picked of $110 somewhere in the cars between the former place and Springfield.

—— Col. Potter has been exchanged, and has been detailed to duty on a general Court Martial, now in session in Washington. It is said he will probably be made a Brigadier General soon.

—— At Manchester, Wednesday, Hon. E. H. Rollins, while on duty in the Horse Guards, had a narrow escape. His horse reared, pitched over and threw both himself and rider, the horse kicking violently. Mr. R. escaped with a few bruises.

—— A member of a well-known Boston business firm was taken in charge by the police in Manchester on Thursday evening, in a state of "irresponsibility", resulting from the free use of the ardent. About $1700 worth of property, including a gold watch, cash and certificates, was found in his pocket, of which some light fingers might have soon relieved him.

PHILADELPHIA ELECTION.—The following is the vote of the city of Philadelphia at the election on Tuesday: Curtin, 43,793; Woodward, 37,272; Curtin's majority, 6521 total vote, 81,065. This aggregate is larger than that of the New York city vote in the election last fall. It is mentioned as curious that the Union majorities in Philadelphia are almost wholly confined to the western side of the city, while the Copperheads rule everything in the eastern section. The Union men have gained a majority of one in the Select Council, and of six in the Common Council. The North American says:

"With this majority we recover possession of the city municipal departments of water, gas, trusts, property, highways, &c.; and so passes out of the hands of the Copperheads a great instrumentality of mischief, which they have used so unscrupulously to build in the State a party opposed to the Government and the war, and in favor of rebellion."

☞ We know a young man who boasted that he had made seventeen puns on the word dough-nut,—(imagine us the victim of the recital of the seventeen!) None of them, however, were quite as good as that of the young man whom John B. Gough spoke of in his lecture in Boston the other evening. This genius had devoted the night to getting up an original conundrum, and the next morning surprised his friends by the following—Why is a town in New York State like the Promised Land? Answer—"Canandaigua." His friends didn't see the point, so he explained by it by saying that you must throw away the "daigua," and pronounce "Canan" "Canaan."

TEXAS.—The Southern Source, a rebel paper, says that negroes sell in Houston, Texas, at $3000 to $4000 each. We read, a little further on, that coffee is 35 cents a pound in silver, and $5 in currency. That is, 35 cents in coin are worth $5 in Confederate money, and the latter is worth seven cents on the dollar. So that a negro who sells for $4000 actually sells for $280 in coin.

THE PIRATE RETRIBUTION. — In the case of the Etta, or Retribution, now lying in the Passaic river, and which has been libelled as a pirate, it was decided on Tuesday, by the U. S. District Court, at Trenton, N. J., that a commission should issue to examine witnesses at Nassau, and that in the meantime the vessel, her tackle, &c., should be sold, and proceeds paid into Court to wait a final decision.

☞ A New Yorker went to Georgia a few years since, and married a niece of Herschel V. Johnson, said niece being encumbered with a cotton plantation and a lot of negroes. He came North when the rebellion broke out, leaving his wife to manage affairs. The rebels confiscated all his property, $40,000 worth, and he and his wife are now at Troy.

☞ The retreat of Gen. Meade—that is, his change of base from the Rapidan to the Potomac—is pronounced by the military critics at Washington the greatest piece of strategy during the war—far surpassing McClellan's famous movement on the Peninsula. It had been determined on for a long time.

☞ A letter from an officer on board the U. S. ship Kearsarge, states that the privateer Southerner, Capt. Bullock, after burning the American ship Nash, off Gibraltar, proceeded up the Mediterranean, and when last heard of was at Messina, on her way to Algiers.

☞ At a late meeting of the British Scientific Association at Newcastle, Dr. Richardson said the best way to destroy organic poison in rooms was to place iodine in a small box with a perforated lid. Dr. Murray Thompson said charcoal was now used in the hospitals in India with beneficial effect. It was hung up in bags from the rafters.

☞ Gen. Grant and staff arrived at Cairo on Friday morning.

☞ Thanksgiving in Maine, Nov. 26, with the rest of us.

☞ The colored troops raised in Maryland prior to the draft in that State, will be credited on the present draft.

☞ Dayton, Ohio, the home of Vallandigham, gave a majority of 368 votes for Brough.

☞ Two doves, while flying in Byfield, Mass., the other day, came in collision with such force that one of them dropped dead.

☞ 2000 men from the convalescent camp have been detailed to aid in strengthening the defences of Washington.

☞ The first flock of wild geese flew southward over Hartford on Sunday, October 11.

☞ A salesman in New York, while exhibiting some goods to some ladies on Thursday morning, suddenly dropped dead.

☞ Douglas Jerrold said a grumbler wouldn't allow that there is a bright side to the moon.

☞ The result of the recent town elections in Connecticut foots up as follows:—Union towns 81; Copperhead 72.

☞ The skull of Christy, late negro singer, has been brought into a New York court to prove that he was insane when he made his will.

☞ A little child, 4 years old, fell into a kettle of boiling water in Newark, N. J., on Monday evening, and died the next morning.

☞ There are three channels at the mouth of the harbor of Brest, and it is deemed probable that the pirate Florida will, therefore, easily escape.

☞ Two men, riding in an omnibus in Boston, Friday evening, knocked the only remaining passenger down, robbed him of $12, and then fled.

☞ Rev. George W. Field, who left Bangor to become pastor of a Boston Congregational Society, has accepted a call to return to his former charge in Bangor.

☞ John B. Gough says he once showed a lady a picture of Raphael's "Holy Family," asking her opinion of it, when she exclaimed—"Lor! how cunning!"

☞ The Boston Post says Artemas Ward has sailed for San Francisco. Then he loses the overland journey, and we the promised book describing it.

☞ In Smyrna the Sultan has, at the instance of the Protestant population of the place, changed the market from Sunday, when it was formerly held, to a week day.

☞ An ancient horn, said to be the gift of King Alfred, is still blown every night at Ripon, England, at the hour of nine. The maintenance of the city charter depends upon keeping up this antique custom.

☞ A public lecturer said recently that he never knew a fast young man to do any thing which the biggest fool could not do:—hardly complimentary to the "fool," however.

☞ The waters on the coast, from Cape Cod to Grand Menan, are crowded with herring. It is something unusual to find them so plenty at this season of the year, or so long on our coast.

☞ An old woman in Kentucky crossed a bridge that was marked as "dangerous," without seeing the sign. On being informed of that fact on the other side of the river, she turned about and immediately recrossed.

☞ A man walking in Orange, N. J., a few evenings since, in the darkness came in collision with a gate opening upon the sidewalk, which struck him in the side with great force and inflicted internal injuries from which he died the next morning.

☞ J. J. Astor, Jr., of New York, has written a note to the Tax Commissioners that understanding that by some mistake his house on 5th Avenue had been valued on the books at $10,000, instead of $100,000, he consents to having the amount changed.

☞ A certain poor letter-carrier was a true gentleman, for he said once:—"I sometimes see a lady shiver and turn white when she sees the black seal on the envelope I hand to her, and when I see that I always take off my hat. She don't see me, you know, but then I feel much better for it myself!"

☞ The Montreal Commercial gets off the following hard hit at the Governor General of Canada: "The Governor General entertained General Tom Thumb at dinner on Saturday. The fact is suggestive, the mental capacity of the Governor being on a par with the physical magnitude of the General, and both exhibiting their littleness for money."

☞ The Mormon paper in Utah, in speaking of the dedication of a new meeting house, says—"Elder Taylor occupied the forenoon in the delivery of one of his cheering, instructive and interesting discourses." Persons who object to long sermons must not go to Salt Lake. "Hard times come again no more," and "the Poet's Farewell" were sung by the choir.

THE VERDICT.—The Newburyport Herald of Wednesday says, in reviewing the late elections:—

Last year the Democrats fought under the war banner: this year they have contended on the peace platform of Vallandigham.—It is the settled determination of the American people that these States shall be one nation. They would have preferred they should be so in peace, but the rebels saw fit to throw up the ballot box and appeal to the bayonet; and to that we have come. It is not difficult to see which side in the end must be overcome. Difficulties there are in the way of retaining the Union by the sword; but even though it should be necessary to make whole States desolate, the people have willed it, and there are to be no two nations of this republic—no half dozen nations, as some have predicted.

The Democrats chose a peace platform and peace looks to an acknowledgment of the confederacy as a distinct people; and they have the verdict of great States upon that issue. Ohio thunders her NO to the very heavens; Indiana, as reliable for them as any State of the Union, echoes that no and passes it along over the Mississippi to Iowa, which repeats it more clearly; and then the sleepy Dutchmen of Pennsylvania catch it up, and cry no! no! it never shall be.—The nomination of Vallandigham was political suicide, and now not a State of the Union remains democratic, nor can that party be resuscitated. It has gone to the shades, where the Federal, the Whig, and the American parties have gone before it. Its decease has made room for the organization of a party upon a broader platform—a party that shall crush out rebellion wherever it appears, and trample upon opposition to the laws, from whosover it may come; that shall stand by the Constitution as it is.

RHODE ISLAND.—The vote on the constitutional amendment, providing that foreign born persons who have served in the army, and who might be otherwise qualified, should be enfranchised, stood 1310 for, to 2805 against. Only seven of the thirty-three towns in the State gave majorities for the amendment.

HEALTH AND COMFORT.

Patent Rubber Sole Boots and Shoes.

FOR MEN, BOYS AND YOUTH.

These Goods, having been carefully tested, proves to be more desirable than any other Boots and Shoes heretofore made. They answer the double purpose of Leather and Rubber Boots and Shoes.

They are made serviceable and easier to the feet than Leather Soles, are impervious to water, and having a leather inner sole do not draw the feet, and are far less expensive than Rubber Boots.

They are free from noise, prevent slipping on ice, and in keeping the feet dry and warm are conducive to health.

When the Soles wear out, the Boots and Shoes can be tapped with leather, or, if returned to us entire, new Rubber Soles can be put on.

The subscribers, having made arrangements as Agents for the sale of the above goods, are now prepared to take measures for the same, in different styles, and deliver them at short notice. They are made from the best stock to be had in the market, and warranted in every particular. Call and examine samples, at No. 12 Market street.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would add—Goddard's Remedy will be sacred in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION and to prove the declarations by true results.

Probate Advertisements.

The language of the law relating to the publication of Probate Notices is:

"The party required to publish any notice ordered by the Judge of Probate to be given in a newspaper, may select the paper therefor."

Will our subscribers remember this, and when they have occasion to do business at the Probate Office, if agreeable, request that their notice may be ordered for the Chronicle or the Gazette; otherwise a different paper may be selected.

Our terms are as low as those of any other paper.

Local.

☞ Another substitute attempted to escape on Saturday afternoon about half past five o'clock. He was permitted to go out of Jefferson Hall, as is sometimes necessary, and as has been customary, with the usual guard, (a single soldier, armed with a loaded musket with fixed bayonet,) when he took leg bail, and started across the Square. There was a general cry of "Stop him!" followed by a lively race, which resulted in the re-capture of the would-be deserter near the City Hotel.

☞ It is commonly admitted to be a fact that the photographic picture of any object must be an exact copy of the original, as it was at the time the picture was taken.

Yet we saw the other day a photographic picture, taken by Mr. Gregory, of a building nearly opposite his rooms, which seemed to disprove the invariable accuracy of this statement. This building contains on its front several signs,—most of them black, with gilt letters. All of these signs appear in the picture clearly and distinctly, with a single exception. Why this particular sign failed to "take" is not explained satisfactorily. It is somewhat more remarkable from the fact that a slight discoloration on the front of the building, occasioned by a sign which was recently removed, after being up a short time, is plainly discernible. It may be that the light, striking upon this sign at a particular angle, was somehow reflected in such a manner as to neutralize the usual effect. But of this we do not feel at all certain, and we leave it for those better acquainted with such matters to explain the phenomenon.

☞ We went to the Temple on Friday evening to see a few of the views given by the Stereophan, but so attractive and beautiful were they that we remained until the close. The views are brought out with remarkable distinctness and clearness, and the perspective is admirable.

Views of famous buildings and localities, statuary and scenery, all appear as if really before you. Some of the instantaneous views are interesting, from the good idea one gains from them of the peculiar and most ungainly attitudes men sometimes take in walking. One would be slow to think that there is a certain moment in which men while walking throw themselves into these unexpected attitudes, but the camera fixes it, and it is not easy to dispute the correctness of results produced by the pencil of the sun. Dr. Holmes has referred to it at some length, in an article in the Atlantic, and if any failed to appreciate the full force of his remarks, they have only to visit the Stereophan, to understand him.

☞ Two years ago a farmer not many miles from this city, was complaining at the "village store" that the crows pulled up his corn. A bystander remarked—"I'll tell you how to stop that; don't plant any outside row." The farmer heard and went his way. Last year the farmer renewed his complaint in the presence of the same man. "Why," said he, "I told you how to avoid that, last year." "Yes," replied the farmer, "I know you did, neighbor B., and I tried to do it; but when I had planted all but one row, I didn't exactly understand what you meant,—so I planted the whole!" This story is "founded on fact," and there may be a moral:—Many now-a-days complain of red tape and of contractors: are they not, after all, a good deal like the farmer's outside row?

☞ We noticed on Saturday afternoon, in the window of the store of Mr. J. A. Grace, on Market street, three pears of the Flemish Beauty variety, well deserving their name. The three weighed 32 ounces, and were the product of a young tree in Mr. Grace's garden, which this year bore fruit for the first time.

☞ It is said that in clearing up the ship house at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, which the Alabama has so long occupied, there were brought to light a large quantity of chains, anchors, &c., which had previously been overlooked.

☞ That cargo of molasses was taken from, and not brought to, that port by the schooner Kate Walker. These sweet little items ought to be given correctly.

☞ A correspondent of the Portland Press states that Jack Frost makes the contrabands stationed at the Fort on Sullivan's Island take double-quick time in their morning duty.

☞ The new Telegraph Office in Exchange Buildings will, we understand, be opened for business this (Monday) morning.

NOT VERY COMPLIMENTARY.—As two young men in this city were talking about the recent concert by "that comical Brown," one spoke enthusiastically of his power to make up horribly ugly faces. The other thought D—— rather excelled him. "But you know D—— has great natural advantages," was the reply.

☞ It was announced in the Boston papers of Saturday morning, that Maj. Gen. Dix and staff would leave Boston on Saturday afternoon for this city, with the intention of remaining here over Sunday, and visiting the forts and Navy Yard, this (Monday) morning. For some reason this plan was changed, and Gen. Dix remained in Boston yesterday. He will, probably, reach this city some time to day, make the tour of inspection, and then leave for Portland. He will come in the steamer Henry Burdon, and it is, therefore, uncertain at what hour he will arrive. Gov. Gilmore will accompany him.

☞ Had not the storm which many are fond of calling the equinoctial, this year happened to come in due season, that which visited us on Friday night might have passed for it—"only a little late," as in many years, it happens to be. The winds blew and the rain descended in torrents on Friday night, bringing down the leaves and ripened fruit.

☞ Gold fluctuated greatly in New York on Saturday, opening at 51, declining within an hour to 48 3-4, then advancing to 52 1 2, and again declining to 49.

☞ Hon. John M. Botts was arrested by rebels at his house on Monday last, during a cavalry fight near Brandy Station, Va., and has since been taken to Richmond. Mr. Botts was a paroled prisoner to the Confederacy.

☞ It is stated that when Lee's army ravaged southern Pennsylvania, it took away any quantity of farm wagons—the Pennsylvania farm wagon being as good an army wagon as can be found—and left their own broken down and decayed vehicles instead. The farmers made the best of it, and were just repairing the old things for their own use, when along comes an agent from Washington and gathers up all the wagons the rebels left, as spoils of the Government.

GOVERNOR GAMBLE ON THE DEFENSIVE.—Gov. Gamble of Missouri has issued a proclamation denying the charges of disloyalty, opposition to emancipation and sympathy with guerrillas and bushwhackers, brought against him by the Missouri delegation to Washington, and announcing a determination to enforce the laws of the State and protect qualified voters from any inteference on the part of the military.

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world afords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

☞ The Domestic Dyes prepared by Geo. H. Reed & Co. offer the simplest and most perfect means of dyeing household apparel ever presented the public. They embrace 40 different shades, and include all the new and fashionable colors—and are perfectly fast. Samples on silk and wool can be seen and the colors procured of THACHER. jn20

$100 REWARD!

For a Medicine that will cure COUGHS, INFLUENZA, TICKLING IN THE THROAT, WHOOPING COUGH, or relieve CONSUMPTIVE COUGH, as quick as

COE'S COUGH BALSAM.

OVER FIVE THOUSAND BOTTLES have been sold in its native town, and not a single instance of its failure is known. We have, in our possession, any quantity of certificates, some of them from

EMINENT PHYSICIANS,

who have used it in their practice, and given it the pre-eminence over any other compound.

It does not dry up a Cough,

but loosens it, so as to enable the patient to expectorate freely.

☞ Two or three Bottles will invariably cure TICKLING IN THE THROAT. ☜

A HALF Bottle has often completely cured the most

STUBBORN COUGH.

And yet, though it is so sure and speedy in its operation, it is perfectly harmless, being purely vegetable. It is very agreeable to the taste, and may be administered to children of any age.

In cases of CROUP we will guarantee a cure, if taken in season. No Family should be without it. It is within the reach of all, the price being

ONLY 25 CENTS!

And if an investment and thorough trial does not "back up" the above statement, the money will be refunded. We say this, knowing its merits, and feel confident that one trial will secure for it a home in every household.

Do not waste away with Coughing, when so small an investment will cure you. It may be had of any respectable druggist in town, who will furnish you with a circular of genuine certificates of cures it has made.

The valuable and beautiful FARM, formerly owned by the Hon. James Pickering. This desirable estate, comprising about seventy acres, is situated in Newington, about four miles from Portsmouth and one mile from depot of Concord Railroad at Greenland. The buildings consist of a good 1½ story House, containing ten rooms, excellent cellar warehouse, &c., together with Barn, suitable Outbuildings, &c. The land is suitably divided into tillage, pasturage and mowing fields. Upon it are some of the very best varieties of Apple and Pear trees, many of which are in good bearing condition, together with the smaller fruits, such as Currants, Raspberries, &c. The beautiful shade trees scattered over the land, its eligibility to a good market, excellent pasturage and general beauty of its location, make this one of the most desirable estates ever offered for sale in this section of the State.

THE MODEL COOK,

AN AIR-TIGHT STOVE,

WITH TWO OVENS,

And Five Boiling Places!

At the present high prices of fuel it is very desirable to lessen its consumption. This can be best accomplished by using a MODEL COOK STOVE. More cooking can be done in one with a single ton of coal, or cord of wood, that with double the quantity in any common stove or range—and in less time also.

We refer to some parties who have purchased the Model Cook—

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS.

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (vide the Act of 1836.)

115 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON,

After six extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantage for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below will prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office has rendered the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, joined to his extensive library of legal and mechanical works and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of general talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sured having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN ESSENTIAL ALTERATIONS, of which was decided in six favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

GOLDEN SHEAF WHISKEY.

The subscriber, having been engaged for the last twenty years in the importation and sale of Wines and Spirits, now finds from this experience that real

Pure Bourbon Whiskey,

when made as it ought to be, from WHEAT, RYE AND CORN, is, without doubt, the most healthful and medical spirit that can be used. Having determined to make the sale of this article a speciality in his business, he has accepted the

General Selling Agency for a large Distillery in Bourbon County, Kentucky, and in future will sell, under the brand of "Golden Sheaf."

PURE BOURBON WHISKEY, manufactured from the BEST SELECTED GRAINS, and made in the most careful manner.

The celebrated Wheat Whiskey will be put up in cases containing one dozen bottles each, and offered to the Trade by his Travelling agents throughout the country, and also kept on hand in his warehouse in Boston, in barrels and hogsheads.

Individuals desirous of procuring a pure, reliable article of BOURBON WHISKEY, at a reasonable price, have only to inquire of any respectable Grocer or Druggist for "GOLDEN SHEAF WHISKEY," or to send their orders for any quantity wanted to the General Depot for its sale, 94 Washington St. Boston.

Each bottle is enclosed in a neat pasteboard box, to secure its safe conveyance.

THE BEST COOK STOVE

IN THE MARKET,

AFTER ALL SAID,

—IS—

STEWART'S

NEW, LARGE OVEN, AIR TIGHT,

SUMMER AND WINTER

COOKING STOVE,

For Wood or Coal,

IMPROVED IN 1859.

The peculiarities of the

STEWART COOK STOVE,

Embracing the Latest Improvements, briefly stated, are:

1. It is what it purports to be—AN AIR TIGHT COOKING STOVE. That is, when the draft is properly adjusted, wood will lie and smoulder and char, upon the grate, after the manner of a coal stove, if the fire be of Anthracite Coal, by simply closing the draft, it will be effectually put out.

2. Combined with this, are the peculiar portions of the fire chamber, the general internal structure, and the outward moveable coverings, by which means the heat of the stove may be confined within or thrown off to warm the apartment, thus relieving females of the discomfort usually attendant upon carrying on cooking operations in summer, and securing the qualities of the brick oven so fully that the baking process may be carried through successfully without any one going near the stove from the time the article is set in until it is removed from the oven.

3. The stove is accommodated to the reception of a permanent RESERVOIR (of copper, with a tin casing) containing from 10 to 20 gallons, by which the water, heat, in passing off, is made available to keep on hand a constant supply of hot water. The space beneath the reservoir is occupied with a large oven, upon which articles ready for the table are placed to keep warm, bread set to rise, fruit dried, &c.

4. Also, by the aid of the Iron Cover, a coal fire may be kept throughout the night, and breakfast and dinner prepared the next day with no addition of fuel.

5. Roasting is performed in the most perfect manner in front of the stove, with a DEVON OVEN prepared for the purpose—the heat being communicated to it from both sides of the fire-box and the flues, meanwhile passing into the draft.

6. A NOVEL PLAN OF VENTILATION is adopted, by which two kinds of meat may be roasted in the oven at the same time, without imparting the peculiar flavor of one to the other; and the current instituted for this purpose made subservient to augment the heat upon the bottom of the oven, with no increase of combustion.

7. By the aid of the perforated metallic linings, or "gas burning arrangement," and application of the full manner over the various culinary processes may be carried forward successfully with a single stick of wood at a time.

8. In regard to DURABILITY, the Stewart Stove is made to last and will last. The structural form is such that the frame work of it can not burn out.

All the plates constituting the original STEWART STOVE, which was brought out twenty years ago, are still made, and sent to different parts of the country, on call.

The price of COMFORT, COMFORT and HEALTH secured to a family by the use of a culinary apparatus perfectly adapted to their wants, cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents.

But we can not, and need not, enumerate in detail, the excellencies of the STEWART STOVE. It is no experiment, or new fangled notion got up to gull the public, to which we invite your attention, but

THE STANDARD COOK STOVE

Now in use, which has been widely tested

FOR TWENTY YEARS,

and NOT found wanting in any particular. Yes, the Stewart Stove has been manufactured and used for a score of years; but the inventor has kept pace with the times, and repeatedly made improvements—so that the Stewart Stove of 1863 is as superior to that of 1841, as the Mowing Machine is to a Bush scythe.

IT HAS NOT BEEN EXCELLED

yet, as a Family Stove. Here follow the names of a few of the numerous purchasers of the STEWART COOK STOVE.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET, Portsmouth, Aug. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully announce to his patrons and the public that VULCANIZED RUBBER as a base for Artificial Teeth, promises all the advantages of Gold, yet costs only half as much. My experience has been highly satisfactory in its use, and I have no hesitation in WARRANTING PERFECT SATISFACTION in all cases.

Teeth inserted on Gold and Silver, and all other operations performed as usual.

Teeth extracted positively without pain, by inhaling Nitrous Oxyd Gas!

Being fully convinced that it is a perfectly harmless anæsthetic, its effect being that of a stimulant, the whole operation being completed generally in three minutes, without the least pain, and the patient feeling as well, and usually better than before inhaling the Gas.

He would cordially invite all who wish teeth extracted without pain, or to any painless injurious results, to call and be convinced.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. PEABODY, for particular reference for extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

SAMBUCUS TREE, OF PORTUGAL,

The Great Remedy for Kidney Affections, Rheumatism, Chronic Complaints

Excellent Wine for Females.

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE celebrated in Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic, Diuretic and Sudorific. Highly recommended by eminent physicians, used in European and American Hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.

AS A DIURETIC, it imparts a healthy action to the Glands and Kidneys, and Urinary Organs. Very beneficial in Dropsy, Gout and Rheumatic Affections.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE is not a mixture or manufactured article, but is pure from the juice of the Portugal Sambucus, cultivated in New Jersey, recommended by Chemists and Physicians as possessing medical properties superior to any other Wines in use, and an excellent article for all weak and debilitated persons, and the aged and infirm, improving the appetite, and benefiting ladies and children.

A LADIES' WINE, because it will not intoxicate as other wines, as it contains no mixture of spirits or other liquors, and is admired for its rich peculiar flavor and nutritive properties, imparting a healthy tone to the digestive organs, and a blooming, soft and healthy skin and complexion.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stover, would especially call the attention of the public to the

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior boiler and sad iron heater connected, for those of any of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity can now testify, who are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

Portsmouth.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, mild and equable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headaches so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over those methods, as many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed, the objection so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 50 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is broken we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth put upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos 7 and 9 ESSEX STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS:

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Gonorrhœa, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Stricture, Abscesses, Rheumatic Painful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest siffings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those diseases produced by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Dangerous Decay of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded, loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for 25 and a red stamp.

Highly Important!

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ESSEX STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system, Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new physiological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon replaced in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all diseases of a chronic disease of every name and nature, having the unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which call patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for 81 and a red stamp.

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

BURLEIGH ON MCCLELLAN.— Every body who reads the Boston Journal, knows that Burleigh, who writes the New York and Saratoga gossip for that paper, has always been partial to Gen. McClellan, and has writen many sentences in his favor.—The late letter of Gen. McC. however, has wrought a change and Burleigh speaks of it as follows:

The political letter of Gen. McClellan, intending to aid in the defeat of Gov. Curtin of Pennsylvania, has been read with profound sorrow by thousands of his friends. When it was announced that such a letter had been written by him, few believed it.—His long silence under the heavy charges preferred against him by the congressional committee—his patient waiting under what many supposed were wrongs inflicted upon him—his manly submission to the decree which condemned him to semi-disgrace—the belief that in due time he would vindicate himself—gave him a strong hold on the public sympathy. His silence when his military ability and honor were assailed, and the promptness with which he defends his political opinions are not the least remarkable things in this letter. But the character of the letter itself has probably done the work for Gen. McClellan. It justifies what his enemies have long charged upon him in his method of conducting the war. He comes, uncalled for, a volunteer witness in Court to aid his enemies and to enable them to do what without his efforts they could never have done. He shows that his heart was never in the war; that he intended to carry on a defensive and not an offensive war; that he would defend the capital and all the soil held by the loyal North, beat back the rebels in every attempt to advance out of the seceding States, to hold them in check till the Northern elections should change the administration, and so secure peace by compromise, and not by the sword. The letter justifies the President in the removal of McClellan from the command of the army. All testimony concedes that M. Clellan was a great favorite with the President. While his headquarters were in Washington the President saw him every day, and passed most of his evenings with him. He generally called him "Georgie," and to him was tenderly attached. To give him up cost him a long and painful struggle. It was not until he was thoroughly convinced that the policy of Gen. McClellan, which he would not change, was irreconcilable with the preservation of our national life, that he gave the order for his removal. Such a letter as this of McClellan would have killed Junius.

☞ Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, of Oct. 10, speaks warmly in favor of the Missouri freedom Delegation,—and deems it proper for the President to grant their request to remove Gen. Schofield. It says:

"That body do not intend to leave Washington without a final answer, and the people who rent (should that answer be adverse) do not intend to live any longer under the invidious and despotic rule of Schofield. We predict, therefore, that, should the President, under the malign influence of Seward, and controlled by compacts which he does not comprehend, send this imposing delegation back unsatisfied, he will be glad to proffer a reconsideration within thirty days, or gold will be at a premium of two hundred per cent. before the first of January."

☞ The Adjutant of a Maine regiment in the Department of the South, in providing countersigns, selected words difficult for uneducated persons to pronounce, which called forth the censure of the Colonel, who ordered the Adjutant to take the names of rivers, lakes or towns of his native State, as the men would be familiar with them; whereupon he sent the following list to the Colonel for approval:—

Sysladobsis, Chesuncook, Chepmunkgamon, Mattagamon, Chamberlain, Umbagog, Molechunkemunk, Chemquasabamticook, Pokogamock, Sheketahank, Pamgockamock, Mooselokamogantic, Mollychunkamug.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says that the three hundred-pounder Parrott guns have proved failures. Five of them of them were sent to Gen. Gilmore, and every one of them burst—all but one at the first trial! Up to two hundred-pounders they have proved a success.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.
These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to record all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.
Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.
Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Sullivan reports that his cavalry scout from Martinsburg on Friday encountered a detachment of Gillmore's rebel cavalry and captured the whole force, 39 in number, with horses and equipments.

Gen. Meade's troops were under arms all night Saturday, but there was no fighting then, or on Sunday. On Saturday night Moseby made a raid, getting between our army and the troops for the defence of Washington. He captured a cavalry picket of the latter, 12 men, 4 miles from Fairfax Court House, and was reported to be on Sunday morning, with 250 men, between that place and Washington. Gen. Kilpatrick with a few shells sent some rebel cavalry flying who had disturbed him at Stone Bridge on Sunday morning. It is asserted that the drafted men and substitutes fought admirably in the late battles.

On Monday the rebels seemed to be moving farther back, and there had been no fighting up to noon of that day. Imboden's guerrillas captured the 9th Maryland Regiment at Charlestown, Va., on Sunday.

Gen. Kelly reports that 1000 rebels attacked our outpost at Bull Town, Braxton county, Western Virginia, at 4 o'clock on the morning of 13th. After a severe fight, lasting until 4 P. M., the rebels were repulsed by our troops, numbering about 400 men, with heavy loss. On the 15th, they were again routed at a point to which they had fallen back, 5 miles from Bull Town. They acknowledge 60 wounded and 9 killed; our troops, however, found 13 of their dead.

Official returns from the infantry engaged in the late battles near Chattanooga give the total loss of four corps at 955 officers and 14,991 men. The losses of the cavalry will bring up the aggregate to about 16,000. Of the 4685 missing 2500 were wounded. 36 pieces of artillery were lost, and a few wagons. Joe Johnston was not with Bragg at the time of the battle, being in Mississippi. Jeff. Davis is reported to have arrived in Bragg's army on the 10th. Rains prevent active movements on either side.

☞ A dispatch from Indianapolis, Oct. 15, says the Union gains in Indiana at the late election are estimated at 15,000.

Late dispatches from Iowa say that good judges estimate Stone's (Union) majority on the home vote at not less than 15,000.

Colorado Territory made a clean Union sweep in its election on the 1st inst. But one Copperhead was elected to either House.

A Middy Disciplined.—It is said that a few nights since one of the midshipmen on board the school ship Constitution, who had been playing his pranks upon one of the recent appointees, by which the latter was precipitated from his hammock to the deck, was compelled, as a punishment, to shoulder his hammock and walk the deck from ten o'clock at night to four o'clock in the morning. It is presumed his roguish propensities were abbreviated in consequence of the wholesome exercise.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the New York Post says our government intends to make England pay for the losses incured by our merchant ships from pirate gunboats fitted out in English ports. The State Department is recording the exact money loss through this agency of the English pirate-ships. Not a merchant vessel is destroyed but the fact is recorded, and, so far as is possible, the value of property destroyed is ascertained and written down.

Vermont Militia.—On Wednesday a resolution was adopted by the Vermont House of Representatives, declaring that the exigences of the times demand a thorough organization of the enrolled militia of the State into companies and regiments and brigades, with provisions for arming the same; also for an efficient drill of each company and its commissioned officers, and also each regiment with the field and staff officers of the same, and also for annual encampments of the entire militia by regiments and brigades.

Curtin and McClellan.—The Baltimore American, after dwelling upon the doubtful loyalty of Judge Woodward, says:

But, independent of this, there were reasons why Gen. McClellan should, of all men, have taken no part in this contest, even if his political prejudices were with Judge Woodward. We know that Gov. Curtin was one of the most earnest defenders of Gen. McClellan, and that at as late a day as the removal of Gen. Hooker from the command of the army of the Potomac, he accompanied a party of leading gentlemen from New York and Pennsylvania to Washington, and urged and begged the President to reinstate him in command.—Gen. McClellan knew this fact, and also that he had on all occasions disagreed with his political friends in their opposition to him—that he refused to believe their imputations against his character as a loyal man and a soldier, and had lost influence with the authorities at Washington on this account.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— One of the triplets born in Exeter about three weeks ago, died on Saturday last.

—— Mr. Jas. O. Kilian, of Temple, who set a trap for a coon last Tuesday night, caught a wild cat that weighed nineteen pounds.

—— 110 drafted men and substitutes were taken to Boston from Concord on Monday afternoon. Three of them attempted to escape; one succeeded, the other two were fired at and wounded—one severely.

—— The Bath Times states that a young man belonging in Chatham, was running a colt around the track at Fryeburg Maine, on Tuesday, when, "on coming opposite the gate, the colt jumped to go out, throwing his driver from the gig. His head struck into a wheel of a passing carriage, and broke his neck and back. He lived till next morning in an insensible condition."

—— Martha A. Dickinson, recently from Dover, died suddenly on Thursday, in Boston, from the effects of a dose of arsenic, as is now supposed. She was 29 years old.—On that day, an old acquaintance from this State, with whom she had continued a familiar correspondence, called at her place of business, and they walked out together. This man is said to be a widower, has a grown-up son, and between them there had been an intimacy which it was supposed would result in marriage. In the evening the woman became sick, vomited excessively, and a physician who was called thought that an atempt had been made to procure an abortion. After much suffering she died at about 10 o'clock.

Arrests — Habeas Corpus — Gen. McClellan. — Most people understood that Gen. McClellan endorsed Woodward as the right man for Governor of Pennsylvania on account of his views of the war, &c. Woodward's great capital was his opposition to arbitrary arrests, of Vallandigham and others, suspension of habeas corpus, &c., &c.

Now it leaks out that Gen. McClellan himself was the one who gave a confidential order to Gen. Banks, in 1861, to arrest a meeting of Maryland legislators, who were about to pass an ordinance of secession.—In this order he says:—

Some four or five of the chief men in the affair are to be arrested to-day. When they meet on the 17th, you will please have everything in readiness to arrest the whole party, and be sure that none escape.

They were arrested.

As the time for the Maryland election drew near, apprehensions of rebel interference were felt, and Gen. McClellan, through his chief of staff, Gen. Marcy, issued an order on the subject to Gen. Banks. Among other practical measures enjoined was the following in the name of the "Major General Commanding":—

He also desires you to arrest and hold in confinement, till after the election, all disunionists who are known to have returned from Virginia recently, and who show themselves at the polls, and to guard effectually against any invasion of the peace and order of the elections. For the purpose of carrying out these instructions you are authorized to suspend the habeas corpus.

More of Jeff. Davis' Correspondence.—The following is a copy of a letter from Mason to Jeff. Davis, and was found among the intercepted correspondence of the latter:

Selma, near Winchester, Va., September 20, 1856.

My Dear Sir: I have a letter from Wise, of the 27th, full of spirit. He says the governments of North and South Carolinas and Louisiana have already agreed to the rendezvous at Raleigh, and others will. (This in your most private ear.) He says further that he had officially requested you to exchange with Virginia on fair terms of difference, percussion for flint muskets.—Don't know the usage or power of department in such cases, but if it can be done by liberal constructions I hope you will accede. Was there not at the last session an appropriation for converting flint into percussion arms? If so, would it not furnish good reason for extending such facilities to the States? Virginia probably has more arms than the other southern States, and would divide in case of need. In a letter yesterday to a committee in South Carolina, I gave it as my judgment, in the event of Fremont's election, the South should not pause, but proceed at once to immediate, absolute and eternal separation. So I am a candidate for the first halter. Wise says his accounts from Philadelphia are cheering for old Buck in Pennsylvania. I hope they be not delusive. Vale et salede.

The rebellion, the war, and the slave empire, all planned in '56 by that old hypocrite Mason, who sat a perjured traitor in the U. S. Senate through the administration of "old Buck," as he calls him.

It would seem that revelations like these would open the eyes even of the most stupid worshippers of the old firm of Jeff. Davis and Mason, Buchanan, Breckinridge, and Floyd. These and such as these were the leaders and models of what was called the Democratic party! Was any name ever more basely abused or misapplied? U. T.

Three English "gentlemen," who were concerned in an aggravated case of women flogging, have been obliged to seek refuge on the continent. One is said to be the nephew of a Duke, and another of still higher rank.

☞ Extensive coal discoveries have been made in Colorado Territory.

☞ The tide of travel has not yet reached its flood, and the New York hotels are filled every night.

☞ Rev. T. Starr King has delivered a lecture in Sacramento, Cal., for the benefit of the Congregational Church in that city.

☞ Seventeen regular places of amusement in New York city are over-crowded every night.

☞ A man 60 years of age was arrested at Burrillville, R. I., the other day, for whipping his mother.

☞ A convict, an inmate of the prison at Lesparre (Gironde), attempted to commit suicide from grief at seeing the expiration of his long term of imprisonment approach.

☞ Twenty-six of Morgan's men escaped from Camp Douglas, Chicago, on Saturday night, by digging a tunnel under the fence from one of their barracks.

☞ All chaplains held as prisoners by Federal and Confederate authorities have been released. Hereafter chaplains will not be held as prisoners of war.

☞ John Bull was startled by an earthquake early on the morning of the 6th. It was quite extensive, but no damage was done.

☞ Four brothers named Fish have been drafted in New York. This is what some people would call a miraculous draft of fishes.

☞ A projectile from a cannon made at the Novelty Works, New York, pierced a five-inch plate of iron at a distance of 1200 yards.

☞ Wigfall says that if the Confederates should double the pay of their soldiers, "the $22 would, probably, buy less than the $11 which they now receive."

☞ The 300,000 volunteers called for on Saturday are to serve for three years or the war,—not, however, exceeding three years.

☞ The recent call for 300,000 volunteers does not affect the previous order for the draft. The latter will be carried out as originally intended.

☞ Gen. Sickles arrived at the front on Friday night, prepared to take the field if a fight ensues, although his friends there think his valor carries him too far in his present physical condition.

☞ Some subscribers to various German newspapers have brought an action against the French Postmaster General to recover damages for irregularity in the delivery of the papers.

☞ Some of the new fractional currency has got in circulation. Already some of the notes have been split through, making the note unserviceable. The front and back of the notes are on separate pieces of paper.

☞ A man who was divorced in Peoria, Ohio, last week, had a marriage license in his pocket before the decree was granted, and was immediately married to another charmer.

☞ A Baby-prize for the best set of twins is to be awarded at the next horticultural exhibition at Bristol, England: probably at a horticultural exhibition, because their fond mothers regard them all as "pinks."

☞ A Baltimore correspondent of the New York Post says the President has formally directed that all able bodied colored men, whether slaves or free, who may volunteer for the army, shall be accepted and enlisted. Orders to this effect have been received at headquarters in Baltimore.

☞ Paris fashions state that jewels are now much worn even in out-door dress. The style in vogue is the Oriental—crescents, large round sequins, and long, drooping ornaments being preferred. Very large earrings, brooches, clasps and studs are worn to match.

☞ Washington dispatches speak of the more peaceful aspect of our relations with Great Britain, and assert that however our relations with France may be regarded by the public, there is no reason to fear that any of the pending questions will lead to disagreeable results.

Golden Wedding.—The children and descendants of Mr. Joshua Hobart, gave their parents a surprise visit at the homestead in North Amherst, Mass., on Monday, the 7th inst., on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of their marriage. Though neither of them can yet strictly be called "old, people," they have lived to behold four generations. Over one hundred in all, of their name or lineage, residing mostly at some distance, were invited by those who made ready the festival, and letters were received from a majority of those who were unable to be present in person. Death has never entered this family circle. Of the ten children, all are living, in prosperous circumstances, and all were present save one who is in the army of the Union. And a most impressive incident of the evening was when, after the guests had assembled and exchanged congratulations, a lovely little grandchild was brought in by its youthful mother and placed in the arms of its great grandfather, properly decked for the occasion, and claimed and received its full share of attention from the guests of the evening.—Amherst Express.

Notice of Appeal.

State of New Hampshire, Rockingham, ss.

To John Rider, Executor of the will of Mary Rider, late of Portsmouth, in the County of Rockingham, deceased, testate, and to the heirs at law of the estate of the said Mary Rider and all others interested therein:

Notice is hereby given that at a Court of Probate holden at Portsmouth, in said county, on the fourteenth day of July, 1863, it was ordered and decreed that John Rider be allowed for his services as Executor of the will of said Mary Rider the sum of six hundred and fifty-eight dollars and sixty cents, and that John Rider was allowed to take, at a value less than the market value thereof, certain shares in the Bank of New Hampshire and in the Rockingham Bank belonging to said testator, and which he charged himself with at a less price than he sold said shares at and actually received, as Executor, pay therefor; and that the subscribers, being interested in said estate and aggrieved by said order and decree, on the first day of August, A. D. 1863, claimed an appeal therefrom to the Supreme Judicial Court next to be holden at Dover, within and for the First Judicial District of this state, on the third Tuesday of December next, and filed in the Probate Office for said county their bond to refund the cost that shall be awarded against them, agreeably to the statute in such case provided.

Dated the 10th day of September, 1863.

HEALTH AND COMFORT.
Patent Rubber Sole Boots and Shoes.
FOR MEN, BOYS AND YOUTH.
These Goods, having been carefully tested, prove to be more desirable than any other Boots and Shoes heretofore made. They answer the double purpose of Leather and Rubber Boots and Shoes.
They are made serviceable and easier to the feet than Leather Soles, are impervious to water, and having a leather inner sole do not draw the feet, and are far less expensive than Rubber Boots.
They are free from noise, prevent slipping on ice, and in keeping the feet dry and warm are conducive to health.
When the Soles wear out, the Boots and Shoes can be tapped with leather, or, if returned to us entire, new Rubber Soles can be put on.
The subscribers, having made arrangements as Agents for the sale of the above goods, are now prepared to take measures for the same, in different styles, and deliver them at short notice. They are made from the best stock to be had in the market, and warranted in every particular. Call and examine samples, at No. 12 Market street.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

DRAFTED MEN FOR EXAMINATION.
Oct. 20, Gilford 83, Laconia 20.

☞ The steamer Robt. Burden, from Boston, arrived in our lower harbor on Monday morning, with Gen. Dix and Staff on board. Leaving them to inspect the fortifications, she came up to the city at noon and made fast. The gentlemen of the staff are Maj. C. F. Dix, Capt. Frank E. Howe, Quartermaster; Capt. Wm. Barstow and Capt. Wm. Eichstedt. They left in the evening train for Portland, to perform similar duties there.

☞ Last Saturday morning, as a detachment of substitutes were on their way to Concord from this city, in charge of Orderly Sergeant Feightner, one of their number —John Snyder by name—attempted to escape from the car. He was frustrated in the attempt, however, by Sergt. Feightner, who gave him a severe cut with his sword on the neck, which laid him out for the balance of the trip, and, it is hoped, taught him a lesson that he will not soon forget.

☞ Mayor Dearborn is gradually regaining his health and strength. The improvement is slow, but it is thought to be now decided, and his friends are hopeful that the critical point has been passed, and that he will in a short time be able to resume the performance of his duties.

We are also pleased to learn that Hon. Thomas L. Tullock, Navy Agent, who has also been sick for some weeks, is gradually becoming better, and will, probably, be out in a few days.

THE LYCEUM.—We learn that the arrangements for the course of lectures this winter are progressing finely. Invitations have been extended to Gough, Butler, Swift, Saxe, Everett, Hepworth, Count Joannes, T. B. Aldrich, Shillaber, De Cordova, Henry Morford, Stephen Massett, and others. The tickets for the course will soon be offered to the public, and it will depend upon the encouragement received by the committee whether we are to have a lyceum this winter or not.

☞ Lieut. Col. Wardwell with the detachment of the Invalid Corps, from this city, reached North Conway on Saturday and took quarters for the night. On Sunday morning they proceeded to Jackson, attended by Enrolling Officer Paul and two deputies, and all is reported to have been quiet in the afternoon.

No later advices from them had been received last evening, although there were unauthenticated rumors regarding their movements and the results, circulating in Concord and elsewhere in the afternoon. The force consists of about 50 picked men.

☞ The October term of the Supreme Judicial Court for Rockingham county will commence its session in this city, this (Tuesday) morning.

☞ H. T. Vennard, Esq., formerly of this city, took his seat as Recorder in the First District Court, of New Orleans, on the 5th inst.

☞ Devoid of interest as the trip from this city to Manchester usually is, the lovers of the beautiful cannot fail to find much to please them along the route on one of these fine October days. The tough old hickories with their suits of butternut and cuir; the maples, blushing that they are so soon to be bereft of their leafy covering; the golden-hued beeches; the dark green of the hemlocks; the burning sumacks; the—but there, what is the use to try to enumerate the beauties which most people know so well, and which so few can ever approach in description? And then Massabesic Pond, on a still, clear morning, seems to impart a portion of its own placidity to the beholder. The hours of the stay in Manchester can be profitably occupied by visiting the Reform School, the beautiful cemetery, or any of the numerous manufactories. The trip will serve admirably for recreation, now that the hotels at the beaches have closed for the season.

Messrs. Editors:—A few days since the Chronicle contained a notice of the "pudding stone," or conglomerate rock, at the corner of Jefferson Hall, and the item gives me all the credit of putting it there. It is true I went to Roxbury and selected it, and had it delivered at the Eastern Railroad depot at Boston; but Jackson & Co.'s Express brought it fifty miles and deposited it where it now is, without asking anything for doing so, they being willing to do something for the public good. And if it shall lead our citizens one step further, to the study of Geology and its relative sciences, such as inanimate and animate nature; and Astronomy, the full object of placing it where it is, will be accomplished. By the study of Geology we not only obtain some knowledge of ourselves, but of the ground on which we walk; and the farmer may learn the nature of his soil, and the searcher for treasure may learn the indications and locations of the various kinds of ores, perhaps now hidden, but within our reach.

S. B.

☞ The Police found an intoxicated man lying on one of the wharves near the Spring, on Saturday evening, and took him in charge. He was lying at the extreme edge of the wharf, in such a position that had he turned over in his sleep he would inevitably have rolled off into the water, and probably would have drowned. Subsequently, while at the Station house, he complained that he had lost his pocket book, and it was deemed probable that he had been relieved of it in some of the numerous grog shops he had visited. But the City Marshal went to the wharf early on Sunday morning, and there found the pocket book a few feet from the place where the man was discovered. It contained about $60.

☞ Among the changes and improvements in business here, we notice the removal of Mr. Lowd's Bookstore and Bindery, from his narrow quarters at No. 6, to the spacious and pleasant store No. 1 Market street, corner of Daniel street. See advertisements.

☞ At the Temple this afternoon at 4 o'clock, will be exhibited Views of the Holy Land, and others, designed for children and youth: admission 10 cents.

In the evening, a selection of gems from the entire collection. Tickets 25 cents.

THE FREEDMEN'S RELIEF SOCIETY of New Hampshire, have sent us a circular, showing the object of the Freedmen's Association, viz., to co-operate with our government for the relief, improvement and welfare of the freedmen, women and children, thrown on our charities by the civil war.

The circular also calls for aid in money, clothing, and articles of household use; —being the same object presented here, at the Stone Church, early in the summer. It is to be brought before the New Hampshire Baptist Convention, which will be held at the Middle Street Church on Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

The executive committee are Sylvester Dana, Silas Curtis, Nath'l White, Onslow Stearns, and A. J. Prescott.

PERILS OF THE SEA.—The ship New Hampshire had a very rough time on her last voyage from New York, and arrived at San Francisco in distress. She left on the 9th of April, and up to the 25th, when she arrived at Cape Horn, she had fair weather, with a prospect of a quick voyage. On the 25th, a terrific gale set in, which lasted forty-eight hours and swept her decks carrying away ninety-six carboys of acids and everything else moveable; although the vessel was hove to under the stormsail, the gale carried away the foreyard. After reaching the Pacific, and the damages being somewhat repaired, it was ascertained the ship was leaking badly; and the leak continued to increase, until at last it reached eighteen hundred strokes per hour. The crew were kept at the pumps day and night until they were exhausted. After the most laborious exertion on the part of the officers and crew, the New Hampshire succeeded in getting into port on the 15th. Captain Lord justly complains that assistance was refused him by one of our men-of-war, which passed within a short distance from him while his signal of distress was flying. The Captain says that at daylight on the 14th he made out a large ship to leeward (since proved to be the U. S. frigate Lancaster), and as soon as he saw it was a man-of-war, he hoisted his ensign Union down, which was answered by the ship, then under steam, steering for the harbor; and in so doing she had to pass within three miles of the New Hampshire. He could distinctly see everything about the ship. When the ship was passing he hoisted his ensign again Union down, which was answered. She then passed on and took no further notice. This conduct, on the part of the commander of the Lancaster, demands investigation.—San Francisco Journal.

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world affords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

☞ The Domestic Dyes prepared by Geo. H. Reed & Co. offer the simplest and most perfect means of dyeing household apparel ever presented the public. They embrace 40 different shades, and include all the new and fashionable colors—and are perfectly fast. Samples on silk and wool can be seen and the colors procured of THACHER. jn30

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambucus Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

$100 REWARD!

For a Medicine that will cure COUGHS, INFLUENZA, TICKLING IN THE THROAT, WHOOPING COUGH, Or relieve CONSUMPTIVE COUGH, as quick as COE'S COUGH BALSAM.

OVER FIVE THOUSAND BOTTLES have been sold in its native town, and not a single instance of its failure is known.

We have, in our possession, any quantity of certificates, some of them from

EMINENT PHYSICIANS,

who have used it in their practice, and given it the pre-eminence over any other compound.

It does not dry up a Cough,

but loosens it, so as to enable the patient to expectorate freely.

☞ Two or three Bottles will invariably cure TICKLING IN THE THROAT. ☜

A HALF Bottle has often completely cured the most

STUBBORN COUGH.

And yet, though it is so sure and speedy in its operation, it is perfectly harmless, being purely vegetable. It is very agreeable to the taste, and may be administered to children of any age.

In cases of CROUP we will guarantee a cure, if taken in season. No Family should be without it. It is within the reach of all, the price being

ONLY 25 CENTS!

And if an investment and thorough trial does not "back up" the above statement, the money will be refunded. We say this, knowing its merits, and feel confident that one trial will secure for it a home in every household.

Do not waste away with Coughing, when so small an investment will cure you. It may be had of any respectable druggist in town, who will furnish you with a circular of genuine certificates of cures it has made.

Morning Chronicle.

CAPTURE OF A REBEL MAIL.—A Knoxville correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial writes of the capture at Cumberland Gap, of a large rebel mail just made up for departure :—

It has furnished us with an almost inexhaustable fund of amusement and instruction. It revealed the fact, which has just been disputed, that the Georgia troops are as dissatisfied as any in the Confederate service. I paid particular attention to this point, and out of the large number of Georgia letters that I read, I found but two that displayed any confidence whatever in the rebel cause. One gentleman wrote home for his wife not to sell his two pigs for Confederate money, as it was not worth a d—n. Another says: 'If this war ain't closed soon, there will be no men left. We can't fight a world full of men; the south can't stand it much longer—Our men are all deserting.' Another is more explicit: "I have never seen men so out of heart. You had better set your house in order, for by Christmas we shall be back in the Union. It peace don't come soon, we will all desert.' This is the spirit of utter despair for the rebel cause, and a willingness to take the Union on any terms, so it brings peace. In this connection I may mention the fact of a Georgia regiment having left this place for Clinton a few weeks before our occupation, with two hundred and fifty men, and arriving at Clinton with but one hundred, the remainder having bidden the rebel service a long adieu in the darkness of the night, and betaken themselves to their homes. If all these straws were from Tennessee or North Carolina they might not signify much, but being from Georgia, they are clothed with no ordinary significance. The Vallandighamers of Ohio would do well to ponder them, and inquire if there is not a shorter way to peace than by their withdrawing process. Leaving all questions of national honor out, let them consider it dispassionately.

☞ The same Boston paper which pronounced Vallandigham "only a little in advance of the growing conservative sentiment,"—and in its issue of June 13:

"We believe that Mr. Vallandigham will be chosen Governor of the great State of Ohio by an unprecedented majority, and that no event could be more salutary for the future peace and welfare of the country."

The Volunteers from Ohio, who had gone out to fight the rebels, thought otherwise,—and so did the people of Ohio at home.—They deemed him an ally of the rebels and voted accordingly.

STREETS PAVED WITH SILVER.—The Virginia City (Nevada) Bulletin says it is absolutely no figure of speech to say that the streets of that place are paved with silver, for it is a literal fact that they are. Thousands of tons of rock, which in other countries would pay well to extract the silver from, are used to level and macadamize the streets. Rock that will not pass through the screens at the quartz mills is carried on to the roads, though some of it in any other locality wood be considered rich.

IMMENSE DEPOSIT OF SULPHUR.—The Virginia City (Nevada) Bulletin states that a large gold of sulphur has been discovered in Fassen Meadows, at the foot of Humboldt Canon. As far as it is now traced it covers some sixty acres, and is from one to three feet thick. The top is composed of a peculiar kind of crust. The company own 160 acres of what is supposed to be all sulphur.

☞ The Providence Journal states that the corpse of a child which was lying in a house in that city prepared for burial, was burned to a crisp on Sunday night in consequence of the window curtains being accidentally set on fire, and the flames communicating to the surroundings of the corpse. The affairs was the result of a wake.

☞ Mr. Brough, the Governor elect of Ohio, is not a member of the Republican party, but a Union Democrat, believing that it is our duty to defend ourselves and our Government against the rebels, who made war upon us to establish their slave empire, on the ruins of our republic.

☞ The Ambrosian Library at Milan has just suffered a heavy loss. An entire case containing the autograph correspondence of the Medici with the Dukes of Milan from 1596 to 1510, has disappeared from the very study of Gatti, the conservator. All the Milan journals have spoken of this robbery, committed with strange effrontery and address.

☞ Every street in Paris is swept and washed down each morning. Plenty of work is involved in that, for all the litter of the day goes into the street at night, not being kept festering in dust bins. But after the cleansing, not a stalk, a shell, or a straw will offend the sight for the remainder of the day.

A vain man's motto is, "Win gold and wear it;" a generous, "Win gold and share it;" a miser's, "Win gold and spare it;" a profligate's "Win gold and spend it;" a broker's, "Win gold and lend it;" a gambler's "Win gold and lose it;" a wise man's, "Win gold and use it."

We are brave when we conquer that which threatens us. We are brave when we can say to some powerful passion—"Be thou still." To be bold against an enemy is common to brutes; man's prerogative is to be bold against himself.

THE BEST COOK STOVE
IN THE MARKET,
AFTER ALL SAID,
—IS—
STEWART'S
NEW, LARGE OVEN, AIR TIGHT,
SUMMER AND WINTER
COOKING STOVE,
For Wood or Coal,
IMPROVED IN 1863.

The peculiarities of the
STEWART COOK STOVE,
Embracing the Latest Improvements, briefly stated, are:

1. It is what it purports to be—AN AIR TIGHT COOKING STOVE. That is, when the draft is properly adjusted, wood will lie and smoulder and char, on the grate, after the manner of a coal pit. Or, if the fire be of Anthracite Coal, by simply closing the draft, it will be effectually put out.

2. Combined with this, are the peculiar position of the fire-chamber, the general internal structure, and the outward moveable covering; by which means the heat of the stove may be confined within or thrown off to warm the apartment, thus relieving females of the discomfort usually attendant upon carrying on cooking operations in summer, and securing the qualities of the brick oven so fully that the baking process may be carried through successfully without any one going near the stove from the time the article is set in until it is removed from the oven.;

3. The stove is accommodated to the reception of a permanent RESERVOIR (of copper, with a tin casing) containing from 10 to 20 gallons, by which the waste heat, in passing off, is made available to keep on hand a constant supply of hot water. The space beneath the reservoir is occupied with a TIN CLOSET, where articles ready for the table are placed to keep warm, bread set to rise, fruit dried, &c.

4. Also, by the aid of the TOP COVER, a coal fire may be kept up through the night, and breakfast and dinner prepared the next day with no addition of fuel.

5. Roasting is performed in the most perfect manner in front of the stove, with a DUTCH OVEN prepared for the purpose—the heat being communicated to it from both sides of the fire-box; and the flames, meanwhile, passing into the flue.

6. A NOVEL PLAN OF VENTILATION is adopted, by which two kinds of meat may be roasted in the oven at the same time, without imparting the peculiar flavor of one to the other; and the current instituted for this purpose can be reversed to augment the heat upon the bottom of the oven, with no increase of combustion.

7. By the aid of the perforated metallic linings, of "one burning arrangement," and application of the full summer draft, the various culinary processes may be carried forward successfully with a single stick of wood at a time.

8. In regard to DURABILITY, the Stewart Stove is made to last, and will last. The structural form is such that the frame work of it can not burn out.

All the plates constituting the original STEWART STOVE, which was brought out twenty years ago, are still made, and sent to different parts of the country, on call.

The price of QUINTNESS, COMFORT and HEALTH secured to a family by the use of a culinary apparatus perfectly adapted to their wants, cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents.

But we can not, and need not, enumerate in detail, the excellencies of the STEWART STOVE. It is no experiment, or new fangled notion got up to gull the public, to which we invite your attention; but

THE STANDARD COOK STOVE
Now in use, which has been widely tested
FOR TWENTY YEARS,
and not found wanting in any particular. Yes, the Stewart Stove has been manufactured and sold for a score of years; but the inventor has kept pace with the times, and repeatedly made improvements—so that the Stewart Stove of 1863 is as superior to that of 1843, as the Mowing Machine is to a Bush Scythe.

IT HAS NOT BEEN EXCELLED
yet, as a Family Stove. Here follow the names of a few of the numerous purchasers of the STEWART COOK STOVE.

DENTISTRY.
No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Aug. 1st, 1863.
DR. GOODALL
Would respectfully announce to his patrons and the public that VULCANIZED RUBBER, as a base for Artificial Teeth, promises all the advantages of Gold, yet costs only half as much. My experience has been highly satisfactory in its use, and I now feel no hesitation in WARRANTING PERFECT SATISFACTION in all cases.
Teeth inserted on Gold and Silver, and all other operations performed as usual.
Teeth extracted positively without pain, by inhaling Nitrous Oxyd Gas!
He is fully convinced that it is a perfectly harmless anæsthetic, its effect being that of an exhilarating gas; the operation being completed generally in three minutes, without the least pain, and the patient feeling as well, and usually better than before inhaling the Gas.
He would cordially invite all who wish teeth extracted without pain, or any pain in injurious results, to call and be convinced.
I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE.
PURE AND FOUR YEARS OLD,
OF CHOICE OPORTO FRUIT.
For Physicians' Use.
FEMALES, WEAKLY PERSONS, INVALIDS
SAMBUCUS FREE, OF PORTUGAL,

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE celebrated in Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic, Diuretic and Sudorific, highly esteemed by eminent physicians, used in European and American Hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.
AS A DIURETIC, it imparts a healthy action to the Glands and Kidneys, and Urinary Organs very beneficial in Dropsy, Gout and Rheumatic Affections.
SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE is not a mixture or manufactured article, but is pure from the juice of the Portugal Sambucus, cultivated in New Jersey, recommended by Chemists and Physicians as possessing medical properties superior to any other Wines in use, and an excellent article for all weak and debilitated persons, and the aged and infirm, improving the appetite, and benefitting ladies and children.
A LADIES' WINE, because it will not intoxicate as other wines, as it contains no mixture of spirits or other liquors, and is admired for its rich peculiar flavor and nutritive properties, imparting a healthy tone to the digestive organs, and a blooming, soft and healthy skin and complexion.
WE REFER TO a few well-known gentlemen and physicians, who have tried the Wine.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and air-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the unsolving up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as those of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the dome can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., — Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, — Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, — John Sise, — and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When there is a irregular we can by building out the depressions, which can be done to any extent, give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the perspirations of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

☞ The New York News of Oct. 16, in a bitter review of the late elections, says:—

We are destined to wade on through blood toward the abolition goal.

This is true in a much larger sense than the News intended. The system of fraud, violence and oppression, which has plagued the world for three hundred years, has been abolished by more than half the Christian Powers, monarchies though they be; but in our own republic the tone of political effort rose only high enough to protest against the expansion of slavery over free territory. But the advocates of expansion rebelled against even these restrictions, and made a bloody war on the nation.

In this bloody war, and through it, is rapidly coming the extinction or abolition of the system or institution they aimed to extend, strengthen and perpetuate.

War and bloodshed are sore calamities, dreadful punishments—but they seem destined to be overruled in this case, so as not only to subserve the ends of justice, but also of goodness and mercy. U. T.

The following is not a French pun, though made at a serious moment. A witness of a murder was asked what his name was and he replied, as every one thought, "J'en frémis d'horreur" (I shudder with horror—that is, at recollection of the deed.) The Judge cut in severely, and said, "I don't want to have any expression of your feelings. What is your name?" "I repeat what I said before," replied the witness; tartly; "my name is Jean Fremy, doreur" (guilder.)

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837,)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE, than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDM'D RUFFIN,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.
These Clocks are reliable time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.
Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.
Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1863.

EDITORIAL JOTTINGS.

LAWRENCE, MASS., Oct. 19.

Dear Chronicle:—I address thee as an institution—a part of the public voice, the American press,—and something more than a mere impersonation of any man's ideas, or the organ of any man's sentiments,—as any respectable paper must be. Something like three weeks ago I left all and entire charge of thee in hands abler than mine; and all concerned, including myself more than all, know thou hast been well cared for. And like as many another, whether more or less partial than we, has said to us—we now deliberately state, that of all the papers which come under our eye, none interests us so much as the little Chronicle! Is that anything strange?

Desiring a little respite from business, and deeming October the best month for travelling, Wednesday three weeks since found us on the old post road to Newburyport—only a couple of us, and legally but one—in a single, one-horse team too. The ride through the Hamptons, &c., was pleasant as ever, and the day was one of the loveliest.

The night was spent at Newburyport, among cordial and wide-awake friends who would make any stay agreeable—and Thursday morning was sooner than we wanted to leave. By the politeness of N. C. Greenough, Esq., we were shown over the extensive and beautiful grounds of Dr. Kelley, formerly the Dexter mansion, which are very tasteful and productive of fine fruits. The wooden images, life size and larger, which formerly adorned the porch and fences, and were widely known, are all gone. For a long while, and until a recent date, a few were left; but a few years since a travelling theatrical company here, introduced Lord Timothy and his absurdities into a local play, and so lampooned the family that an heir ordered the last of the graven images to be destroyed. It was a harmless whim that created them, and perhaps not a whit more silly than many things we all do in a lifetime. All men are fools to some other men—is it not so? At any rate, it used to please our childish eyes, when, more years ago than the railroad has run between the two cities, we used to drive from Portsmouth to Newburyport, and see the grand array of a wooden man on every post of the fence, and several over the front door—to the number of thirty or forty in all, we believe. And not a bit more "wooden" were they, after all, than many a man of flesh and blood who walks or crawls about now-a-days; and not so big a fool was Lord Dexter but there be plenty bigger—for if he did no great good in the world, not much harm came of him; and he squandered only his own money, we believe.

But, farewell, Newburyport friends—we must off for Salem. Good bye, to your high old High street, your nice gift schools and malls, and all. We wish some friends of our good Portsmouth, would give her something like them—and that her garden fences were not higher and closer, and everything more excluded from public gaze than those in any other like city in Christendom. But part of this may be owing to everything being so huddled and crowded up in our good city—the more's the pity. The ride to Salem, and in fact everywhere, is delightful—in the clear cool air of October, under the genial sun, and among the kaleidescopic splendors of autumnal forest displays. June's dress of blossoms, especially for a broad view, is tame and monotonous in comparison.

Through Ipswich, and Beverly, &c., to Salem. Then another pause for a night—for we don't believe in working hard in riding even, for recreation. Twenty miles is far enough for pleasure. The Essex House we found an excellent hotel, kept by Mr. Leavitt, formerly of North Hampton, with a Mr. Hobbs, we believe, for clerk—both very courteous and obliging. A good hotel and stable have as much to do with travellers enjoying a journey, as a good home has influence in determining a man's ideas of life.

Salem is a nice old city—rich, lazy, comfortable; with more fine buildings and handsome residences, and spacious gardens than we expected to find. And all open to view, too—no State Prison fences there.

Thanks to our Br. editor of the Salem Gazette, we were introduced to the Essex Institute,—another of those splendid donations, to the public benefit of the citizens and the world. The Marine Museum is another similar institution, older and larger, which we did not have time or opportunity to visit—but at the Essex Institute we saw and enjoyed enough to make us wish for a spare week. This was formed in 1848 by the union of the Essex Historical and the Essex Natural History Societies. The Library and Collections are deposited in Plummer Hall, an edifice erected in 1856, by funds bequeathed to the proprietors of the Salem Athenæum. The Museum of Natural History and Antiquities is arranged in convenient rooms on the first floor, and is open for visitors every day. The Library, consisting of about 20,000 volumes, is on the second floor. Here was very much to interest, instruct and amuse—particularly with the local explanations and summary commentaries of Dr. Wheatland, the Secretary, who, fortunately for us, chanced to be in; and who, it was very easy to see, is the master spirit and moving spring of the whole enterprise—as some one or two lovers of such things must always take main direction of all such affairs. He remarked more than once, and we could but agree with him—as also does Mrs. J. H. Hannaford, in her notes of a late visit to Portsmouth and the cluttered garret of the Athenæum, (she coming on Perham's train)—as published by her in the Beverly "Citizen" newspaper, that it is a great pity that our old city should not long ago have had some museum or collection of curiosities and old mementoes and records of the past with which our older families so abound, so that they could be preserved in useful form. But alas! we are, and seem doomed to be lamentably deficient of all such public blessings and necessities. Who will set a better example, and "institute" a better order of things, worthy the name and fame of old strawberry bank?

Of all the matters of interest exhibited or illustrated by Dr. W., we can say but a word. Among the portraits, a full-length of Sir Wm. Pepperell, and a portrait of one of the founders of this institution, Dr. Holyoke, interested us most. He lived to the age of 104 years, and practised medicine in Salem for four-score years! and tables of the weather kept by him regularly for 70 years are extant, during which time he slept out of the city, we believe, not a single night! One of the stand-byes, we should say. There were many other fine likenesses of men and women of the past—rare old books pointed out to us—and the cotton of the milk-weed in all stages of spinning and weaving, from the boll itself up to a felt hat! and a thousand and one things, curiosities of nature and art, sufficient to employ a month of examination and a life's memory. Thanks to the good Dr., and our friend of the Gazette, for the favor of seeing all.

But good-bye to old Salem, peaceful city, with its nice broad streets, and the massive, granite depot—and away to Boston through Lynn, Saugus, Chelsea, &c. Not a very clear morning, but a nice ride nevertheless, and plenty of friends when we got there to make all pleasant in-doors, "weather or no."

Among our friends of the press, Mr. Brewster, of the Traveller, Shillaber, of the Sat. Gazette, and "L.," of the Ballot, gave their ever cheerful and ever-cordial greeting. Woodwell has got back from the war, and is at his old place in the Transcript office, handling the "mightier" weapon again. The Boston Herald composing room is full of Portsmouth printers—six or eight of them, we believe. Br. Bailey himself we didn't find in. Niles, he of all the papers, is keeping himself and his business well before the people, as per the advertisements he thus shows us so well knows how to write, at the same time he evinces so full a belief in the system.

And, speaking of advertising, reminds us of a recent case in Portsmouth, where a man has lately privately sold out his business and dwelling-house, who, by an expenditure of $10 in the Chronicle, could surely have put ten hundred dollars in his pocket. But he "didn't believe in advertising," probably. Well, some folks don't—Let 'em alone!
